"Beloved Only Begotten Daughter, My True Mother

True Mother, how have you been all this time? I send my greetings from faraway America with deep respect and warm regards. Firstly, I would like to congratulate you on your Memoir, 'The Mother of Peace: And God Shall Wipe Away All Tears from Their Eyes,' becoming a bestseller in Korea. As True Mother stated, the distinction between truth and falsehood is now clear, and a new history of hope centered around True Mother, the Only Begotten Daughter, is unfolding. In the hearts of the people, both within Korea and beyond, I believe that you, True Mother, have taken the central role in guiding the providence of Heaven beyond national and global boundaries.

Moreover, in the face of the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, you have brought hope to Korea and the world, educating all nations about the ideals of hope, happiness, and peace through your Memoir.

As I read and re-read your Memoir, I was deeply moved by four significant aspects:

Firstly, I had the opportunity to once again learn about who True Mother truly is. While I had encountered various descriptions and testimonies of True Mother in several books, 'The Mother of Peace Memoir' provided a markedly different perspective. It introduced True Mother as the Only Begotten Daughter, True Parents, her role as the Messiah, her activities as True Mother in partnership with True Father, and her unwavering dedication to the worldwide providence for the past seven years. Right from the first chapter, True Mother unequivocally declared her status as the Only Begotten Daughter. She introduced her family and the history of Heaven's providence, explaining the ideals of the Only Begotten Daughter. I vividly remember the resounding applause from over 330 pastors in Las Vegas in December 2014 when you first proclaimed the providence of the Only Begotten Daughter and awakened them to Heaven's providence, especially the Christian providence. I also recall the moment, just two years ago at the Tokyo Hotel, when you received a bouquet of flowers from Ambassador and Mrs. Woolsey, former U.S. CIA director, and upon sitting down, you asked, 'Do you know who I am?' and stated, 'I am the Only Begotten Daughter.' These pages vividly capture these moments. Since then, you have consistently preached the providence of Christianity on public stages, emphasizing that Heaven's providence is the search for the Only Begotten Daughter. Reading these passages, I was deeply moved, and with each turn of the page, I found myself more deeply impressed by True Mother's providence as the Only Begotten Daughter in Heaven's blessings and protection. As a True Begotten Daughter who grew up in the embrace of Heaven, you became the Mother of Peace who embraced not only your family and nation but also the world. You are the Mother of Peace. I consider True Mother as my Mother.

Secondly, 'The Mother of Peace Memoir serves as the most compelling testimony of True Father. Through True Mother's account, we witness True Father's journey as the Messiah, his global activities, and his endurance through challenges. The most memorable passage for me was when True Father arrived in Denver late at night on July 20, 1984, and the next morning, he called True Mother, saying, 'Follow God's calling, and light a beacon for Christianity. Please convey this message to all your family members.' In this message, True Father entrusted the responsibility of awakening Christianity for the sake of the providence, emphasizing the need for the United States, a blessed Christian nation, to fulfill its responsibility and welcome True Parents. True Mother's testimony about True Father was the most noble content that cannot be witnessed by anyone else. It allowed us to inherit True Parents' pain, blood, sweat, and tears as the foundation for our determination to carry on their work.

Thirdly, 'The Mother of Peace Memoir marks True Mother's declaration of victory over the past seven years. How can True Mother's seven-year providence be encompassed in a 408-page memoir? Despite these constraints, True Mother's Memoir conveys her profound determination as she transforms the challenges she faced into a victory for humanity. I particularly focused on the content related to the providence in the United States from chapters three to five. Reading the book multiple times, I gained a deeper understanding and appreciation for these sections. I vividly remember witnessing True Mother's tears at the Newark WCLC rally on December 28, 2019. It was an unprecedented sight. I told my family that these were tears of joy and happiness. True Mother's Memoir reads, 'And on December 28th, the "Hope Forward Rally for the New Heavenly Unified World" was finally held. Twenty-five thousand Christian clergy and faithful from the United States and around the world gathered together. Through this event, the World Christian Leadership Conference was founded. My resolution was to unite Christianity to complete my True Father's legacy, the Will of God.' Repeating this content more than ten times, True Mother's emotional tears of joy became palpable to me. I joyously and confidently proclaimed True Mother's great victory to my family. I witnessed it clearly. Seven years ago, in the Grand Reception Room on the third floor of Cheonjeong Palace during the Seonghwa Ceremony, True Mother kissed True Father on the forehead and said, 'Father, you have worked so hard. Please don't worry about the earthly realm; rest comfortably in the heavenly realm. I will definitely fulfill the Will of Heaven.' It was the moment of greatest emotion for me as I read the Memoir. The content about fulfilling True Father's legacy resonated with me deeply, making me realize the determination to unite Christianity for the sake of True Parents' ideals. The sight of True Father wailing loudly as he walked down Fifth Avenue in Manhattan in the early days of his mission to the United States, and the tears of joy as True Mother finally completes True Father's legacy. He shed tears of hope and great victory as he experienced this. I, too, could not help but weep as I offered my infinite gratitude. At the age of 12, I was led by my aunt to go to church, and while working in public office for the past 45 years, I have regained my gratitude and determination, as if I had won by finding the final piece in a puzzle that I had been trying to find for the past 55 years.

Lastly, True Father founded the Holy Spirit Association for the Unification of World Christianity on May 1, 1954, amid continuous persecution from established Christian denominations. He stated that the purpose of this organization was to unify Christianity. The term 'Holy Spirit' signifies the history of the Holy Spirit, and this history represents the unification of Christianity, which was the purpose of the Unification Church. On December 28, 2019 at the New Jersey Prudential Center Rally, True Mother initiated a new era of unification for world Christianity through her own providential history, declaring it as the providence of the Heavenly Unified World. How joyful this day must have been for True Father and Heaven! True Mother's tears of joy became the joy of Heaven. The purpose of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification, founded in Washington, D.C., on July 30, 1996, also extended beyond the Unification Church to focus on achieving global peace centered on Christianity. On this foundation of great victory, True Mother proclaimed Cheon Il Guk's establishment in Heaven and on Earth on the occasion of the 8th anniversary of Foundation Day and True Father's 100th birthday celebration, blessing all 7.8 billion people.

To all readers of this Memoir, I want to express my endless gratitude not only for granting new life like a spring but also for strengthening the lifeline of the 1st and 2nd generations who have followed True Parents to this day.

May True Mother always be in good health...
