Two new Ping Pong Tables!

After a series of Facebook Marketplace misfortunes, a popped car tire, and one of our previous tables completely breaking down, we finally got 2 "new" (barely used) ping pong tables for the price of 1 new one! Resfred and Hongkook spent Friday afternoon till night time picking up these tables from the amazing FB Marketplace sellers, Sawyer and Weiman, from Summerlin! Despite earlier misfortunes it really felt like God guided us to meet these these people and buy these tables ^_^

Be on the lookout for news about ping pong club times! Thank you to everyone who donated to purchase these!!
