HJI Welcomed Masato Sudo to 43rd Street

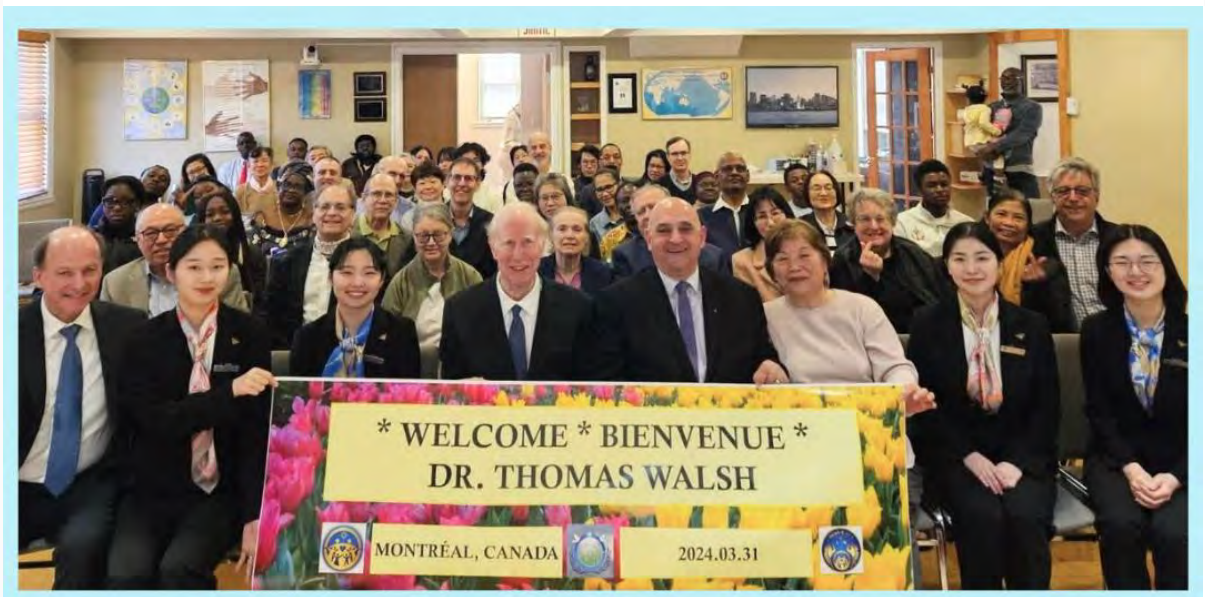

On April 3rd, HJI welcomed Masato Sudo, son of HJI alum and early FFWPU pioneer educator, Rev. Ken Sudo (M.Div. 1995). Rev. Sudo passed away on December 22, 2023 at age 92. Masato, currently residing in Seattle, is visiting New York and was eager to return to places of his childhood, including 43rd St and the former HJI campus in Barrytown, NY. Dr. Thomas Walsh, HJI President, Dr. Thomas Ward, HJI Provost, Dr. Frank LaGrotteria, HJI Vice President, Dr. Michael Mickler, Distinguished Professor of Historical Studies, and Mr. Ken Sohn, HJI Director of Information and Technology were on hand to meet Masato and provide a guided tour of HJI's 43rd St. campus before sharing lunch together with discussion of many fond memories.

HJI President Speaks to HJI Alumni and Friends in Montreal, Canada

HJI President, Dr. Thomas Walsh, visited Montreal on March 30-31, 2024, for meetings with Dr. Franco Famularo, and HJI Alumni and Chairman of HJI's Board of Trustees, and with other alumni based in Quebec, Ontario and even Vermont, USA. In his March 31 address for Sunday service, Dr. Walsh shared about the course he and Rev. Demian Dunkley are currently teaching on "Ministry and Public Leadership in America" as well as other updates from HJI. Following the service, Dr. Walsh had lunch with the HJI alumni for a lively and stimulating discussion. HJI is grateful to Dr. Moon Shik Kim, Chairman of FFWPU and UPF Canada, and to Dr. Famularo for their warm welcome and for coordination of various meetings convened during Dr. Walsh's visit.
