Argentina -- "Teamwork + Fair Game + Clear Rules" was the theme of the workshop given by Ambassador for Peace Patricia Pitaluga, president of Acercando Naciones, held on July 21, 2021, broadcast through UPF-Argentina's YouTube channel, with more than 300 views. It was the second meeting of the 2021 "Leadership and Cooperation" Series organized by UPF-Argentina and its leadership areas, IAPP IAPD, IMAP and IAAP; along with Youth and Students for Peace (YSP).

Patricia Pitaluga demonstrated her experience in strategic management and communication among people and entities, with a sports aspect applied to leadership in a very practical way. Also sharing their expertise were Paola Maggiolo, international female chess teacher, Pan-American sub-20 champion; Carlos "Beto" Rodríguez, multi-champion in wheelchair sports, author of "Sueños sin barreras"; and Alejandro Scomparin, sports fan, proponent of "Uniting Malvinas by Running" Peace initiative.

Before introducing the speaker, a few words of welcome were given by representative of IMAP-Argentina, journalist Adrián De Angelis, founder and president of the Argentina and Mercosur Union of Christian Journalists; and Professor Julio Nardini, representative of IAAP-Argentina, former Principal and Director of secondary schools in Buenos Aires.

The moderators were Luba Opeka, public relations staff of UPF-Argentina, and Emanuel Sayavedra, president of YSP-Argentina and secretary general of UPF-Argentina, who then gave details on the Series, which will consist of five meetings, one each month through October. In November, we will provide a certificate of attendance to those who ask for it and have attended at least 80% of the sessions.

This Series, organized by the different leadership areas of UPF-Argentina along with YSP-Argentina, seeks to "train and teach leadership for participation and commitment, in order to provide theoretical resources and examples of good practices to face challenges for a more empathetic, cooperative leadership, focused on solutions and with a Peace perspective."

The first meeting of the Series took place on June 16, 2021, with the theme, "Participation and Commitment / Operative Leadership in the CSO." The workshop was given by trainer Christian Oreb, general coordinator of Red Cooperar of SCO in Buenos Aires (2). The third one will be an inspirational talk by renowned lecturer Juan Bautista Segonds, president and founder of Rugby without Frontiers.

Tema 2: Liderazgo en la gestión de las OSC. Matriz de viabilidad

EL ÉXITO DEL LIDERAZGO EN LA GESTIÓN DE LAS UNIDADES OPERACIONALES DE UNA OSC, INCIDE DIRECTAMENTE EN EL NIVEL DE EFICACIA Y EFICIENCIA DE LA GESTIÓN INSTITUCIONAL Y VICEVERSA, RESULTANDO POR ELLO SU GESTIÓN Y ADMINISTRACIÓN UNA RESPONSABILIDAD COLECTIVA

Las Organizaciones establecen necesariamente un marco programático y un modelo de gestión, en función de sus objetivos y recursos entre otros elementos, lo que incluye además el diseño de un organigrama de su estructura operacional y un método procedimental que le permita operar en una forma organizada. No escapan de esta regla general las OSC, con mayor o menor nivel de fortaleza y altura Institucional, incidiendo inevitablemente la calidad y robustez de esos aspectos en la capacidad y la calidad del accionar de la Organización. Ejercer el liderazgo operativo en cualquier Organización es comprenderse como parte del engranaje de una máquina, que dependerá de todas sus piezas, etapas y fases de producción para lograr un producto determinado, que en el caso de las OSC será un Hecho Social vinculado a su Objeto y también al fin último del bien común, como entidad sin fines de lucro

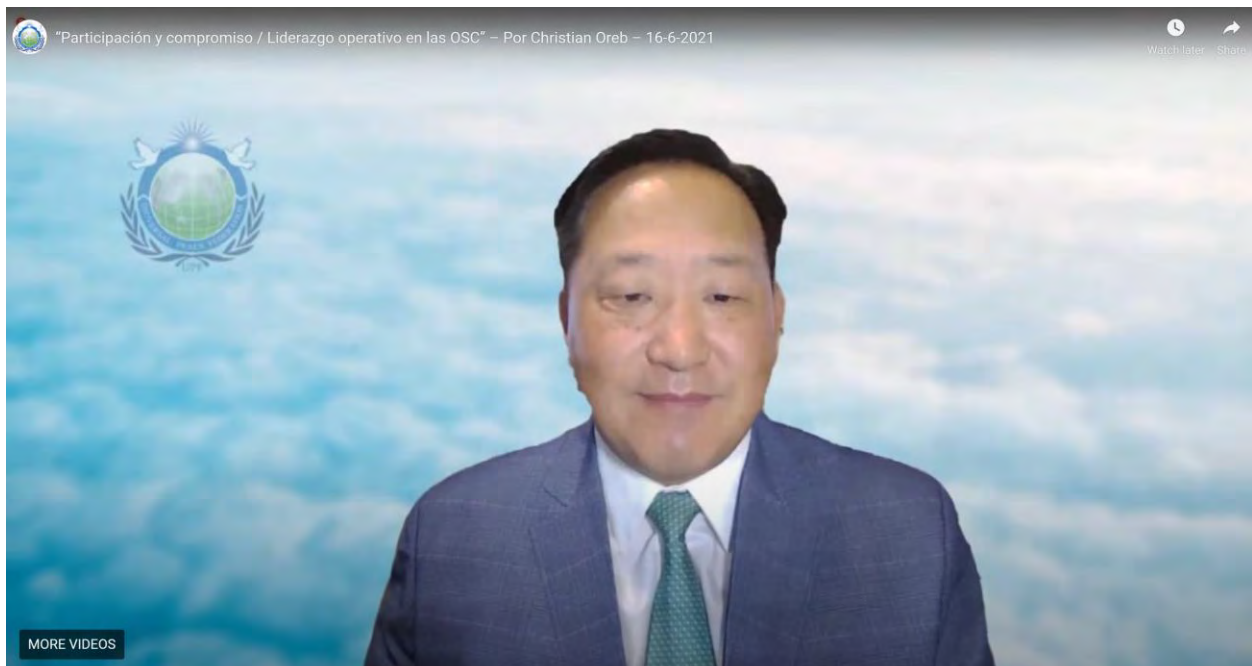

Podemos comprender la dimensión de la analogía utilizada, citando a Peter Dunker que expresó de las OSC: "su producto no es un par de zapatos ni una reglamentación determinada, sino un ser humano cambiado. Estas organizaciones son agentes de cambio humano. Su producto es un paciente curado, un niño que aprende, un muchacho o muchacha transformado en un adulto que se respeta a sí mismo, una vida humana enteramente cambiada".
