

UPF Angola and Argentina hold 1st International Forum For a Culture of Peace

Benvindo Wansung Pelani and Miguel Werner
July 22, 2023

Luanda, Angola - The Angola and Argentina chapters of UPF joined forces with the Interdisciplinary Centre for Cultural Studies of Argentina to hold the 1st International Forum For a Culture of Peace online and in-person on July 22, 2023. A total 55 people participated in the event.

The informative and insightful presentations that were given proved that South America and Africa are connected, with the ancestral origins of the peoples of Argentina and several countries in South America tracing back to Africa.

UPF-South America President Dr. Simão Feraboli gave the concluding remarks in which he applauded UPF-Angola and Argentina for initiating the forum. Further, he asked everyone present to become bearers of a culture of peace guided by values.

Among the participants were:

Manuel Adão Domingos, president of UPF-Angola

Miguel Werner, president of UPF-Argentina

Benvindo Wansung Pelani, secretary general of UPF-Angola

Antonio Bento Bembe, Ambassador for Peace and former member of the National Assembly of Angola and former minister and secretary for human rights in Angola

Andre de Jesus Moda, Angola's secretary state of forests

Sofia Mussonguela, Ambassador for Peace and former member of the National Assembly of Angola

Anibal Gotelli, Ambassador for Peace and president of CIDECA Argentina

Alberto Assef, member of parliament for the province of Buenos Aires
