Date: August 6, 2011

We are excited to announce the upcoming Blessed Family Ministry National Webinar for individuals, couples, counselors and pastors. The class will take place on Wednesday, August 17, 2011 at 9:30 PM EST (New York time), 6:30 PM PST (California time). The topic is "Forgiveness, Acceptance and Moving On: How to Recover from Hurts." Our presenter is John Williams, an experienced Unificationist counselor and marriage educator who holds a master's degree in Marriage and Family Therapy. John's previous webinars were insightful, popular and well-received, with nearly 100 participants in each one. Participants responded with enthusiasm and appreciation for the material presented.

This program is beneficial for couples, but is also for anyone seeking personal growth, or to heal from past difficulties or wounds in their life of faith. It will offer helpful strategies and practices for counselors and pastors who are working to help those seeking healing in their lives as well. This class will be presented in a webinar format. The presentation will be given in the first 50 to 60 minutes of the webinar, with Q & A and discussion to follow. Participants should have a computer with microphone and speakers, and online access. A headset with a USB connection is best to participate, but not mandatory. They should register immediately to receive updates and information before the class, join promptly, and participate at least until the presentation is complete. During the class, questions can be submitted either verbally or in written form.
