Re: WEBINAR: "What is the Couple Check-up?" Wednesday, March 7, 2012
Date: March 1, 2012

How is your relationship doing? Healthy and growing? Challenging? Not fulfilled, but committed? Would you agree that wherever you and your partner are at, there is lots of room for improvement? The Couple Check-up is for engaged or married couples, or even for couples who are communicating to consider a match. It will help both of you assess your relationship, identify where it is healthy and strong, and help point out the specific areas where it needs work or improvement. To introduce this effective and helpful support for your marriage, we will hold an informative and fun webinar, "Couple Check-up: Good for Your Relationship Health," on Wednesday, March 7, 2012 from 9:30-10:15 EST (6:30 – 7:15 PST).

In a 45-minute session, the webinar will explain the Couple checkup, a powerful relationship assessment designed to help you and your partner identify your strengths, recognize areas of challenge more clearly, and build a more satisfying relationship. We will show you how to access and complete the survey questions and receive a confidential 15-20 page report and analysis, customized for your unique relationship stage and situation, as well as a discussion guide to help you review and understand the report with your partner. You will learn all of the languages available to take the checkup (Korean, Japanese, Spanish and more), and hear testimonies from other Unificationist couples who have completed the checkup already.

The webinar will highlight the professional quality of this research-based assessment tool, which covers 20 important relationship areas, as well as individual personality and family-of-origin issues. It was developed by "PREPARE/ENRICH," one of the leading couple assessment programs in the world.

Join us for this informative and insightful webinar next Wednesday night at 9:30 PM (EST). To register, visit <https://www1.gotomeeting.com/register/373335688> and reserve your seat!

May God bless you, your marriage and family.
