The Mystery of the Way

February 15, 2015

Wow! It is so healing to praise God!

We don't have to pretend and try to show people that we are happy all the time as a show. We have things on our hearts, which only God can melt away, and when we praise Him and we give Him the glory, there is an anointing.

What a powerful, powerful song! The lyrics in that last song are so beautiful: "I am a flower fading, here today and gone tomorrow" Isn't that just incredible? What a lyric for this hour!

You know I think it's so important because when we praise God, through the praising music - we are in minus sub-zero degree weather! Yeh! The sub-zero bush crafters, we were just singing around the camp fire, out there praising God, just singing the songs of praise - because it's through praising God that we come into his presence.

People think we are going to be all sad, and I'm very angry, but no, I am not. See, we rejoice, and the joy of the Lord is our strength! When we come here, we come to celebrate because God is mighty in battle, God has already won; He's already won the victory! So we come to celebrate him. We don't come to be gloom and glum, "Oh! Woe is me!" No! We come to do the opposite. We come to lift him up.

I want to talk today about: The Mystery of the Way. Let's start on John 12:46, and let's read this together:

John 12:46-50 King James Version (KJV)

46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. 47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. 49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

What beautiful words! You know I think that's what we forgot. We forgot whose presence we were in. When we are with Messiah, whose presence we are in, when we get to hear his words, whose words they are.

You know when he made the Scriptures, and he canonized them, there was a reason why, and even though people may think it's repetitious, or linguistics or whatever, it does not matter, because every single one of those words is going to save somebody in the future.

I have people writing me saying, "Oh, there are words about your brother in there, and etc...those were cancelled." I said, "No, that's the only hope! Those words are there so that one day he can look on them, and say, "My God! My father loved me this much!" How do you know that's not going to be the word that saves him? We don't know.

It does not matter whether we like the words in there or not. The point is when God speaks there is a salvation that's connected to that word. So when you change it, you desecrate him. You are killing people who needed that particular word- in your view you may think repetitive- but who needed that word. That's what's so important to understand!

It's interesting because there is an amazing worldwide debate going on in the movement, around the world. We are actually for the first time discussing a serious matter, which is good; that's very good. Because we've been pushed to be silent about it, and anybody who speaks, or anybody who asks a question is seen as somebody who is breaking unity, and breaking whatever.

But thank God the world church is talking! Because guess what? Once we start talking and once we start seeking, God is going to lead us to him. That's what's so wonderful about this whole thing.

People think, "Oh it's like, oh my God! It's so painful; everybody's so confused!" Great! This is important. When you get rid of cancer, there's going to be some pain, right? When you have to do a surgery, when you have to remove some cancer from your body, that's eating you, it's going to be painful for a time.

But there's going to be healing in the midst, there's going to be recovering in the midst. There's going to be a supernatural guiding, an outpouring of the spirit that we will be able to see.

But of course whatever I say, there are always some provocateurs that are out there, and I know you people, I know you, I know you! I know they are calling you and telling you, "Thank you for standing up for True Mother," when you -provocateurs- are really thanking them for standing up for the hierarchy of the archangels. That's a very different thing; that's a very, very different thing.

Let me show you a very simple example, and to do that we're going to look at some art, because in the history of humanity, we have some amazing artists.

This is a little search on Michelangelo's works, and you'll have all these things, the Pieta, the incredible statue. I've seen these in Italy, unbelievable! Incredible works of art: I mean just unbelievable. It does not even look like human hands can have made that in the sixteen century. It is amazing works, OK?

I look at Dali; some people may hate Dali. He's got crazy paintings; The Great Masturbator is one of his paintings, ok, so that's crazy. And in the crazy surreal art we can look at Picasso's work. Le Rêve and Les Demoiselles, and all those things, and you can say, "OK, this is one type of art".

And you can look at Monet. I personally like Monet. I like Monet; I love the depth of the paintings. I can just escape into those paintings, those hills and the lilies, and the beautiful bridges, because I do Japanese gardening and I love bush crafting; I love nature. This painting is so beautiful!

See, let me put it to you in a very easy way, because we have a lot of liberals in our movement, so let me put it to you in a way that you understand, very simple: Monet's paintings are master pieces; Picasso's in his own way are master pieces.

If somebody after they passed away started changing their art, maybe started rearranging, saying, "OK, we'll do this like this, and we'll say: that's a Monet," every one of us would be outraged. At a normal painting of a painter, we would be outraged. We'd say, "That's desecrating!" In fact that would be criminal; the museum would come after you, and the police.

Because everybody who loves art knows that you cannot desecrate somebody's art, because that art represents him or her. It is a highly individualized self-expression, which is given through that art.

And it does not matter if you say you are one with him, the painter. It does not matter if you are the wife, or you are the children, it does not matter who you are; you are not supposed to touch the paintings, because they are works of art.

It's so funny how we human beings, would become so outraged, if a Picasso, Le Rêve or the painting with the woman there, were touched up, or if it was changed by eighty percent. We would be outraged! We would say, "That's terrible! How could you do such a thing? That's a horrible thing to do!"

But when the Messiah who came, and when the Messiah left his work, which is highly individualized to what God wants to say to this earth, - actually a greater master piece than any of those artists' combined; He's the Creator - we have no problem with it. In fact it's trivial, and it's not important because we want to see the big picture of unity.

No! See, you people have a totally degraded understanding of preserving masterpieces of art. If anybody did that to your works, you would be outraged! But if they do it to the Messiah, it's no problem. Members don't think about that. No, No! That's fine; that's trivial!

Do you see how foolish that it? What a foolish argument! So easy to destroy; because it's simply false! You would never say that about a Monet, you would never say that about a Picasso, you would never say about the Pieta and Michelangelo. You would never say that!

You can't just go to the Mona Lisa and draw a moustache on her and say, "Hey! Pieta, you look great with that!" You cannot do that! Even one line takes away the integrity of the artist, and if God is the ultimate artist, and his presence is on the earth as the Messiah, then all the more, we must not touch his arts. Amen?

It's very simple; it's a very simple, simple, thing, but we want to : play games, we want to : pretend, and we don't want to face up and man up to the reality that Father has been desecrated, and this is heresy, in Father's own words.

And these are some of the common things that you will see the provocateurs saying. It's so funny because notice how they always say, "Oh, Hyung Jin Nim hates Mother; he is such a bad son, he hates his mother. What a terrible person he is! He hates his own mother! He also hates all women; he hates all women. He is not doing his portion of responsibility. And we are praying for unity. We are compassionate, we are loving; we are the ones who are honest and faithful. We are middlemen; we are trying to protect True Mother, we are trying to protect the members, we are trying to protect True Children!"

While refusing transparency, while refusing to step down and lose their salaries, while refusing to repent for desecrating Father!

"But don't pay attention to those last reasons, just pay attention to how much Hyung Jin Nim hates Mother, or how much he hates women, or how much he is not doing his responsibility!" This is inane! This is tomfoolery, humbuggery, craziness! I don't really know how to say it, so I say this.

Because now I am going to talk to you provocateurs, let me tell you something: you can never love Mother more than me. Never! I beat you every day of the week and twice on Sunday! Every day for the week! You cannot love Mother more than me. Because she is my mommy, do you understand? I suckled her breast; I was born from her womb. You cannot love Mother more than me! Period!

You can try to pretend that you are righteous and faithful; you can try to pretend you are standing up for True Mother, when you are actually standing up for the archangel's hierarchy; that's what you are standing for. You can try to play out your childhood fantasies of being a Rothschild and having groupies around you, using this opportunity to gain people to follow you.

But I am not fooled by that, do you understand? Because we have minds and we can easily dissect what you are doing. It's so easy to see! It's so funny how people want to say- using this opportunity- that I am a chauvinist and I am a misogynist. Anybody who comes here knows how I treat my wife; anybody who knows us knows how I lift her up.

You see, I don't have to get your approval to understand how to love my woman; do you understand that? Because she makes me whole, not you!

And let me tell you something, because you are trying to sell women. It's so easy to see; we can see it in the little memos that you put out, "Oh! We stand for True Mother at this time, and we ask all sisters to stand with her too!"

We will not step down from our positions, and we will keep getting our six figure salaries! But pay no attention to the man behind the curtain, because as you pull the curtain back you are hiding behind a smaller piece. Everybody can see through this tomfoolery!

You want to do something? Well step down! Step down! Don't take money from the church! You want to say you're going to step down, but hey, why don't you do it like a normal member, why don't you do it for free, pro-bono? How is that?

No! But you want to hang on to your positions; you want to hang on to your power! You want to hang on to your money, because that's what you think has true power.

Then why do you think the whole world church is watching my sermons, even though I have no money, and even though I have no official power now, because we are speaking the truth to you. We see who you are, and we are not playing along with your little game, your little game of trying to exploit and traffic women, "Oh, he can't subdue himself to a woman; that's why he is not following True Mother! He's a misogynist!"

I want to talk to you, sisters:

Because, honestly, if you knew who you really were, you would not be fooled by this kind of archangelic tomfoolery; you would not! If you knew your actual value, as a woman, you would not fall for the provocateurs who try to get you into a divide- and -conquer mode, us vs. the men, men vs. the women! You would not fall into that, because you would be confident in your value as a woman.

You would not be entertainment for people who are behind the scene, and want you to fight men, so they can pretend how supportive they are of women's rights', meanwhile they use you as political tools, to attack their enemies. You would be able to see that whole swindle!

Because let me tell you something sisters: and I am telling you this because I love you, because nobody wants to tell you the truth, and you know when you watch me, you know I am not a misogynist; you know I am not a chauvinist. You see how I treat my wife and my daughter!

You are crazy to think that, if you are! Or you are wishing that I was.

But let me tell you something: You don't even know your own value. Do you know what Father says in the Cheon Seong Gyeong? He says that when God created Adam, he had Eve in mind. He says that when God created the entire universe, actually the one whom He desired most was woman. Father says in the original CSG that women are God's masterpiece.

You see I believe that. I actually believe that, and that's how I treat my wife, because you know why? Because I know who the women really are. You are not just another sex to battle with men. If you believe that, you are degrading your own value. You are letting provocateurs degrade you and mud fight with men over stupid things like position and power. You don't understand your real value.

Let me ask you a question, sisters worldwide: when you got blessed, and you got blessed by Father, by the Messiah, you had to give up all your desires for what you liked in a man; you had to give up your preferences, the things that you may see fit in a man. You had to actually give it all up, right, and you had to fully trust in Father.

Now let me ask you a question: he gave you positions when you got blessed. What positions where you in sisters? You were in the position of fallen Eve, who was to restore Eve, right? What position was your husband in? Was he in the position of fallen Adam? He was in the position of the fallen archangel!

So let me ask you another question: Who is your Adam? Who's your Adam? You know who it is! Father's there! He is your ultimate subject partner. You were a bride to the bridegroom, you remember? The bridegroom comes. The body of Christ is the bride, but you as a woman you have the privilege of actually being that bride.

The men, we had to be servants; we had to be archangels who through our love and obedience and the grace of God became sons. So we went from servants to sons, but you went from fallen Eve to a queen of heaven.

And you don't even know how much Father loves you! You don't even know how much he suffered to give you that blessing! You don't even know that it was the Bride of Christ that is the apple of his eye.

See you want to listen to provocateurs, to trade your eternal position on the throne of queen of heaven, and give that up for mud fight with men about politics and power and prestige! How stupid is that! Who's the real misogynist?

You see I believe what Father said, and when I see my wife, I believe that with all my heart; that's why I treat her the way I do, because she is greatest grace and gift that I ever received. I'm a simple person- in the eyes of God we all are- whom he made son, not because of my deeds, but because of his incredible love and victory. And he loves me so much that he gave me a Bride of Christ.

And you want to talk about me being a chauvinist! Why don't you turn that around? Who is the one who is trying to use women to fight men? Not me! I'm not trying to get no groupies around me. I have all the women I need; do you understand?

Because I have what the incredible gift of God's love has given to me. Not because I deserve it or am worthy of it, or I earned it, or I did all my conditions- which I probably did more than eighty to ninety percent of the provocateurs, definitely!

Don't play that self-righteousness game; it's so foolish! And people can see right through it. Do you know why? Because you may think members are masses, and they can be socially controlled. But guess what? We are armed with the Word of God. Guess what? We can stand against evil, and guess what? We can have wisdom in the fear of God, not to be afraid of God, but to fear not having Him is what motivates me.

Because if I went along with what you guys did, for money and power, I would fear God all my life. So I would not have Him anymore.

So why don't you- all of you who are watching, especially sisters- why don't you remember who your first love truly is? Why don't you remember when you first joined how excited you were to meet Father? Why do you pull away when he's trying to draw close? Why do you shut the door when he is knocking, saying, how much he loves you? He is one with the Creator who made you. No man can love you more than him! Do you understand that?

Your husband's love is great, but no man can love you more than your Creator! No Man! I'm a pretty good husband, I've got to say, I'm pretty good. But I know, no one can love my wife more than Father, because he is one with God.

He said it; you heard it, at the end of his life. He's from the God of Night, which means the Godhead. He is Christ. How can I love her more than God who created her? If it's my love that's going to satisfy her, she is going to be unsatisfied, because there's only one satisfier of your soul, and that is your God! It's not a man!

Why do you think so many blessed families are suffering in their marriage? Do they understand this point?

Men, do you understand what you received? Women, do you understand what you received? Or you want to play games: men vs. women, women vs. men; do you want to play that game? That's exactly what Satan wants you to do, so you don't claim your true value and you don't claim God's love for you.

He wants you to do that so you can be entertainment to him. I'm telling you like it is! That's why you can't stop watching these things, because I tell you the truth, and I don't beat around the bush.

Why don't you recognize your true value, men and women? You see, God's vision for us is so much better than archangel's. It's so much better. Because archangel has to tear one of us down; he has to make us enemies. He has to make it into a power fight for him to be glorified.

You know what God does? God loves both man and woman, and guess what? For all those feminazis out there, God created man, He loves man, so don't hate man. For all the chauvinists that hate woman, guess what? God created woman; He loves woman. Don't hate woman!

You see God's way is so much better, because He lifts both his creation up, and when they recognize their true identity, and when they recognize who the true lover of their soul is, and when they recognize who only can satisfy their soul to the deepest, deepest parts, eternally, you see, then you have strength, you are a powerhouse, you are blessed, you are central to providence. You come into the power of God's anointing, because it's not about boy and girl and a love affair between you. It's about a love affair with Christ and his bride.

And I think this is so amazing, because I think God is leading us through this incredible journey. Yes it's painful. The provocateurs want to pretend, 'division, division'. No, it's not division; we are separating from Satan; that's what it's about.

We are lifting God up, and we are going to save our mommy. Do you understand that? I'm telling you again: you can never love True Mother more than me, never, never. You always come in behind, because I'm her true son. Do you understand that? And I always love my mother.

It does not matter what you say or try to tell people, because truth speaks, and I will save my mother; I will bring her back. What are you going to do when she is here worshipping with us? What are you going to do then? Are you going to retract all your comments? How foolish, foolish; how foolish!

You know the whole church is collapsing; everybody does. We were told that the top leadership, clearly, it will collapse if we leave Father. If we desecrate him; it will collapse. Of course it started collapsing; you all know it's a sinking ship.

And guess what? For all those who want to believe that the hierarchy really loves Mother, "Oh I guess, well, True Father and True Mother are one, so we just fully obey." Well, I guess that means that Mother has decided to desecrate True Father. Oh, I guess that also means she can't be manipulated by the archangels, right; that's another thing they say? Oh, OK, so I guess the illegal activities, the criminal activities that are now being investigated by the Korean government, I guess that's all Mother's fault, because she can't be manipulated by people around her! Oh! OK!

You sound more like an archangel than you sound like a son who wants to save your mother! You sound more like those archangels who are hiding behind the corners, trying to pretend, when you are exploiting the Queen, that you are working for her; when you are the ones who put those strategies in her brain, and in her mind, and when you are the ones who push that, so that what? So people can worship you!

No, you see why we celebrate here? We are not here being dark and glum and sad. You see we are rejoicing in the glory of God, because guess what? We don't have all the fake archangelic hierarchy here. We are brothers and sisters here, who want to worship our King and who want to save our Queen, and who want to lift them up higher and higher.

We are not trying to exploit them, steal money from them. It does not matter what you say any more, because it's very clear who's on the archangelic side, and this is why I think it's such a blessing for the world church.

We are at a time when you must decide. They can't lie to you telling you that I am in the woods doing my little conditions any more. They can't tell you that, "Oh! I am studying right now!" They can't tell you those lies any more.

You know very clearly where I stand. And that's why it's a blessing because now you have to choose a side; you have to take a side. You can't stay in the middle any more. You have to decide.

Will you stand for Father when he loved us? Will you let other people smudge that out, paint over his canvass, or will you say, "No! That represented God through him. He is the King. We'd better keep it as it is!" Very simple! Very simple!

And I believe God is pulling us through all this so we can look at ourselves, "Do you really know who you are, whose you are? Do you really know your value before God? Do you really know how our Father suffered, bled, died to save you? Do you know how much he had to go through death and death again, torture and torture again, to give you that blessing Father had been waiting on for six thousand biblical years?

Of the nuns in the world, and all the Christians who have come before to meet the Bridegroom, we had that privilege. We received this blessing of matrimony; we got blessed to the Bridegroom. Do you understand that is the dream of Christianity, of the prepared people of God?

Why don't you take this time to see the true value that God has given you? Why don't you take this time to go deeper into the Blessing which He has given us- which I will not change? For when I give the Blessing I will give it the way He did it, because that represents a covenant between the Bride of the Body of Christ, and the Bridegroom.

You know it sisters; you know I am speaking the truth. You know who your Adam is. Why don't you get rid of those resentments? Why don't you get rid of these things and feelings that you might have felt about him, or disappointments that you may help felt? You know what? That does not really matter.

He is a true man, and the love you experience with him is comparable to no other. No other! Because he is our deliverer; he brought us back into God's family. He is the lover of our souls, and no man or no woman can satisfy that.

Why do you keep coming under the submission of the archangels? Why do you keep coming under the submission of provocateurs, who try to use you and get you to fight men? What stupid thing is that! Why don't you surrender to God who made you and who loves you, who gave you everything to bring you to him?

Why don't you find your true love once again? Why don't you sing him the national anthem again he wrote for you in prison? Why don't you read the Scripture on how much he loves humanity as his children? Why don't you read them? Why don't you be inspired reading them? Why don't you fall in love again, regain your freedom? You are afraid the archangel is going to tell you not to do it? Why don't you 'not care' about what the archangel says!

Why don't you let your heart go to where it wants to go, and you know where it wants to go? It wants to go to Christ! He is the lover of your soul, and no one can come between you and his love?

I found this image in the year of the shemitah, in the third anniversary of Father's passing. I mean it's amazing how at this time, the center of the world church is being judged, is being so clearly judged.

You have that newspaper exposing demonstrations in front of the HQs by outside people; you have the Korean government now going in after the main central organization of the world church, criminal investigations, and right after we did the Declaration yesterday, removing you leaders from power, you have no spiritual authority now. You have no authority now; you have no spiritual authority over CIG any more, do you understand that? You have no authority. The way you try to cling on to it is a joke. You have no moral authority any more.

And right after we declared that, boom! Another warning to Korea, a minister was caught drinking in a club, and coming on unto a woman who then reports him and then sues him. This is one of our top ministers in that area. Then one of the three hidden rulers, that whole team, goes in there to protect him, because they play the minion; they get big salary. And you did not even report that to Mother, did you?

You are getting warning after warning. My God! At the center of the heresy, in the center of the desecration, and yet, you will close your eyes until the dying day, when everything collapses.

How foolish you are! Archangels are really foolish! Did you know that? Archangels are very, very, foolish. They are so foolish! You are getting clear warnings from God, right after and when we said they would come, and yet you can't see it! That's how blinded by power you have become. How foolish!

Don't put out a memo saying you support Mother! You support your own hierarchy; that's what you support! And guess what? The children of God don't have to abide by it any more. We are not under your authority anymore! You understand that?

This is the True Cain, this is the elder brother here; I'm the True Abel anointed by Father. You can't deny that! We're way above you! You can't hold on to your little hierarchy; it means nothing.

And on the year of the shemitah, you still want to be defiant to God. You want to be defiant like the people who got judged. You saw it in the Scriptures. God does not have to judge you. You know who is going to judge you. Why don't you on the year of the shemitah, do the right thing?

Step down from your counterfeit, illegitimate positions. Why don't you give that money back to the Japanese members? Is that too much to ask? They suffered and died for you. Why do you hold on to that? You know it's going to fade away.

I know the church situation. I have ears in every country; you understand that? I was the World President, do you understand? I know what's going on; I know the Korean church is collapsing. I know the Japanese church is collapsing. I know you cannot sustain this counterfeit hierarchy any more.

And I thank God! I thank God that at this time, on the third year of Father's seonghwa, finally the people of God can be free from you. I thank God for that! Because guess what? Now we can celebrate. We are free from you archangels. We separate from you, and we lift up our King and we bring our Mother back.

Your power means nothing, and the way you are strategizing and you are provocateuring, this is false; members will see it through. They know what we are speaking is true, not because we are heroes but because that's how normal people should be, and that's how normal people who love their father and their mother should do, and people who actually are confident and don't have to rely on moral praises to feel confident in their true identity before God. Do you understand that?

That brings you fear, because you don't have that.

Why don't we come back on the year of the shemitah, turn -repent means turn, it means turn. Why don't we turn from the wicked path we are going down, which leads to destruction- we told you about it a few years ago- and come back to our King who saved us, who delivered us, who provides for us, who is the lover of our soul, who satisfies our deepest, deepest, heart, and fills the emptiness and vacuum that we feel under the archangels?

You are false fathers; false fathers and you can never fill that hole; only the True Father can. Then we are free!

Omma, do you want to say something on that?

Yeon Ah Nim:

Thank you so much Appa! Today you lift me up too high. I feel I am going to fly a little bit.

You know one day one sister came to us; she called me and my husband, "Can we have some kind of counseling?" So we went into the small room, and we sat down at the round table. As soon as we sat down, she took out her Unification ring and she put it on the table and she said, "You know what? This marriage brings me so much pain. I can't go on anymore! So you know what? You take this ring. I can't stay in the blessing anymore; it's too painful to live with this man!"

Her husband was not there. I had been counseling her for months and months and months actually. Her husband had another woman, so it was such a painful situation for her to be in their marriage. We were aware of her situation. I did not know what to say at that moment so I held her hands and I tried to console her.

But at that moment, my husband, he said such an amazing thing to her. He said, "You know what? I can't take that ring. First of all, that's not my ring. You actually got that ring when you got blessed. You were not actually getting blessed with your husband. You were actually making a covenant with True Father, because he is your True Adam."

You remember the three - day ceremony you made, and today my husband explained very beautifully, how through the blessing, woman's position changed; from a fallen Eve she became a queen of heaven, and how man was a fallen archangel but now he became a son of God.

And that was the reason why the first generation had to go through the three -day ceremony, and we had to give up everything up to Father's choice; total submission. We knew who our center in the blessing was.

So my husband said, "Honey! You know we love you, but you have to pray for True Father before you say something like that. That ring it's not mine. It's the covenant you made with Christ, with True Father when you entered into that blessing."

And I really started thinking about the whole thing; yes that's true. That is true. When we think of True Father, yes, True Father talked about ideal family; True Father talked about raising a true family and all that.

But at the same time, True Father asked all wives to go out three years witnessing, and True Father asked them to go out do missionary work. These are two completely different things. How can you have a family run without mommy? From an external viewpoint it looks completely stupid for a man who promotes true love and true family to send all the mommies out of home to do providence work.

And True Father many times asked men and women, when we were in a big congregation, husband and wife, "Do you love your spouse or me? Whom do you love better?" And we all said, "You Father!" And Father was so happy! If you said, "Oh actually I love my wife better, or my husband better, he might chop your head off." This is very true.

And I even shared that one time in the Hoon Dok Hae Father asked my husband, "Hyung Jin!" "Yes Father!" "Whom are you going to save first if I and your wife are drowning at the same time in the water?" And my husband said, "You Father! I will save you first without hesitation!" Father was so, so, satisfied.

See, Father is pretty consistent on this issue. Of course my husband said, "Honey, I am sorry if I said I would save Father first. I don't want to have trouble in heaven. Let's go to heaven together ok?" You know he's a good husband. I have to really say, "He is a good husband." I can say that without shame.

I always thought, since my younger brother is sick... I'm sure my parents loved me. I don't doubt that. Now I am a mother of five, so I don't doubt that. The fact that she fed me, she let me stay in her house proves that she loves me, and my mother and my father love me.

But when I was young I could not really feel the love of my parents. So I always had this vacuum in my heart, and after I got blessed with him, he made me believe that true love can exist between husband and wife.

Oh, Appa! You guys have to applaud! How can a man love a woman this much? I really felt that; I really felt that!

But you know what? Attending True Father and True Parents for two and a half years at the end of his life, it was something else! It is so true. My husband loves me, but Father's love is on a deeper level. He touches my soul; it's like he knows me better than I know myself.

Some of you may be aware that in Nigeria Father slapped me, right? I was so traumatized, and Father said, "I never hit my daughter-in law, I hit my daughter!" so I was, "Wow!" Father cancelled all my resentment at that time.

But you know what? After this happening, Father asked me twice, "You cannot hold any resentment toward me, OK?" I thought I did not hold any resentment, but Father wanted to make sure that if I had any speck of resentment, I would get rid of it. And he knows me better than me. I might have had some, but he wanted to make sure just in case I might have, "I don't want you to hold on to that".

Many people, after the last service wrote personal messages and many people wrote many things, "You know, we want to defend you, you and Hyung Jin Nim. What can we do? What can we really do?" They are asking us.

Let me tell you something: you don't have to defend us! This is the thing: you don't have to defend anybody. The one who is the most neglected, the one that you have to defend is True Father! Do you understand this? We are not asking you to defend us. That's crazy! Then it becomes 'we' centered, Hyung Jin and Yeon Ah centered. That's not what we want.

We are asking you: Who was your first true love? Whom did you actually give your life to? It was our Messiah, our Lord, and our True Father! That's what we are asking you to remember. It should be deep in your soul already, and you need to go there.

When you have that center in your life, you will get blessed. When you have that clear center in your life, that's the point God can bless our church again with his spirit; because that is what's really true

Hyung Jin Nim:

Oh! I have chills up and down my spine listening to those words!

How many times did Father ask, "You sisters, you love me or your husband?" How many times did he ask you? You know who your True Adam is; you know who loves you more than anybody else.

And I know you may have feelings, or you may have things in your heart that you have not worked out yet, and you may be suffering because of that, and you may not even understand why you have to go through that.

But you know if you are watching this and you know what I'm talking about, and you feel the Holy Spirit coming into your heart now, and you feel the re-kindling of your true love, your first true love who you gave your life to, why don't you give your life to him again? Why don't you give yourself to Christ again?

Because look, you can't figure out what's going on; you are not going to be able to sort things out by yourself. You can't do it, no matter how many new age books you read. You are not God, but there is a true lover of your soul and there is a True Creator to everything that you are and who loves you. He created you. He loves every part of our soul that He has made, of us that He has made, and all the uniqueness, and all the different little nuances, He loves them. They are meant to be there to bring Him joy.

You know you are miserable because you keep running from Him. You know you are not having deep satisfaction because you are not surrendering to his presence. You know the most neglected person in this church today is nobody other than True Father's spirit, who is supposed to dwell with us all the time and is, and yet we neglect him, we ignore him and just listen to the commands of the archangel!

Are you crazy? I am in a love affair with Christ! I need him! Every waking moment, do you understand? I need Him! I need his love more than anything in the world, because there is a hole in every single one of our hearts that only, only, the Messiah can fill. Only he can fill it! He did it for Mother, he did it for me; he did it for you!

Why don't you take this time to surrender to him again? Give him all you've got, let him take control of your life. Stop trying to take control of your life. Why don't you let him take control?

We want to pray for you all right now.

I just want to ask for everybody to lift up your hands and that will be a condition to pray for all the sisters and brothers out there who want to come back to God, and fall in love again.

Father, we ask you right now to touch the children of God who are no longer under the dominion of archangel! No longer! We are free! For whom the sun sets free, is free indeed! And we live in the liberty that is your love.

Father, we want to come back to you; we want to fall in love with you again. Father, I see a Holy Ghost outpouring across this world, where people are re-kindling their love for you. One by one, a light is being turned on in the deepest parts of the souls of your children.

And Father, that is the light of love that yearns for you, that only you can sustain, and that only you can ignite with your Holy Spirit.

Father, we ask you right now, that you would enter into our hearts, that you would start transforming, that you would give us new hearts if they are hardened, that you would come in again and re-kindle our passion for you, and we can once again fall in love with the love of our life and the one true subject that we gave our life for.

Father, you are the satisfier of our soul. You are the great lover of our hearts, and we want to turn to you. We know the situation in our lives cannot be changed and in the world church cannot be changed. Only your love will do it.

And your love is awesome! It's mighty in battle; it is powerful. The victory is already won! We are just basking in your great love and Father, we lift you up because you are so worthy, so worthy to be praised.

We pray that right now all the resentment be melting away if there is even any inkling of resentment; and that anybody -who is here, or anybody who is being touched by this by Internet- would be touched by what's more important, by your Holy Spirit. And that any resentment will melt away and allow the full outpouring of our hearts, to pour out into you and the vastness, the infinitude of your love.

Father, we thank you so much for you loved us so much that you died, and died, and died again. You sacrificed yourself to be tortured, and tortured, and tortured again, so that we could one day call you, "Abba, Father!" One day we would not bow to archangels, but have a direct relationship with you, calling you, "Abba! Father! "

When I go to you, Father, as your son, I don't call you, 'True Parents' "True Parents would you like some coffee, True Parents would you like some..." No! I call you 'Father!' "Father would you like some of this? Father, can I tell you a story?"

What a great day that it is that we can start calling you, 'Father' again! Because we have individual, personal, relationship with you! And all the middle men, all the archangels are out! We go to you directly into your magnificent presence.

We ask you to take over our lives, for your joy and your glory, and that is why we live. That's why we give ourselves to you.

We thank you Father, and we want to give you all the praise, glory and honor, and we lift you up this day. In all our names we report this, and in your precious name we pray,

Amen and Aju!

Let's give God some praise, everybody! God is good! God is good!

Let's read from Cheon Seong Gyeong: Book 15, Ch 2, Section 4

The Bible teaches us about the family. Jesus is the bridegroom and we are his brides. The bridegroom and the bride meet, hold the marriage supper of the Lamb, and restore the family. This is the conclusion that summarizes the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments, and this is the reason the Bible is great.

Let's give glory to God this day! And let's sing the song: My name is' child of the one true King!

Hug your neighbor! God bless you! God bless you!
