

King and Queen's Q&A, May 26, 2016, Rev. Hyung Jin & Yeon Ah Moon, Newfoundland, PA

Hosted by Dr. Richard A. Panzer, President of the World Peace and Unification Sanctuary

Richard Panzer ~ Welcome everybody. I was instructed to be very formal and ceremonial; so, I will assert that the Second King and Queen of Cheon Il Guk are awesome. Not only that, they are double awesome, alright. We will be having a Question and Answer Session; and, if you would like to ask question, I ask that you say your name and where you are from; then, say your question, okay? So, I think will get started. If you want to ask a question, raise your hand.

Gabriella from Italy ~ This is a question from some time ago. A few years ago, when True Father was alive, he said and stated, that, Satan bowed down to him; so, why is he still around?

Second King Hyung Jin Nim ~ We talked about this. Remember, Satan has no problem acknowledging God, or bowing down to God. The problem is, Satan has not bowed down to His lineage. That's the problem that happened with Satan; so, he bowed down to Father, and he admits to surrendering to Father. Even if you look at the Book of Job, even when Satan comes in the presence of God, he comes in humility to God. Of course, he recognizes who God is; but, then he challenges God saying, "I don't know if Job is this really faithful to you," but yes, he recognizes who God is. The Bible says, even one-third of the demons that fell with Satan, they all know who God is.

Gabriella ~ So, for the lineage, you mean other angels or archangels?

Hyung Jin Nim ~ No! I mean, he did not bow down to Father's lineage, Father's Kingship; so, the Han Mother should not have gone back to her father and her lineage, the Han lineage, which is of course is a fallen lineage. She should have accepted Father's lineage, and protected it as the Queen of Cheon Il Guk. Her job was to be an honorable Queen, and not prop herself up as God, but to acknowledge the Second King, Third King – the three Kings that Father already set. If she did that, she would be the greatest, victorious mother of all history. If she did that, she would have been completely set for life, because Father put his inheritance in the hands that were responsible and honorable to him, and would not betray him; but, this is a very important point, and an important point for the women of Cheon Il Guk, too. This temptation will also come to you, because you have to understand Kingship mentality. You have to understand this. The Kingship mentality.

There's a reason why. We talked about this many times before with brothers and sisters here. There's a reason why there's succession to the male heir. There's a male heir. The reason why, in monarchies and kingships, the inheritance is given to the male heir, and not just to everybody. You have to understand, most of you are under the grip of the archangel, and the Korean leadership; so, still, even though we're in Cheon Il Guk, you have to break free from the archangelic residue.

Now, the people in the Family Fraud are completely under the archangel's dominion. They have nothing to look forward for their future generations, other than the Supreme Council. That's their future, which is the Kingdom of Hell; but, as you move forward, it's absolutely essential that these bloodlines that were true to True Father and True Father's Kingship at the final hour, and did not sell out and betray him, you may not have had a lot of prestige and power in the Church before, but that's not what was important. What's important was, whether or not, you have love for the Messiah, whether or not you had love for Christ. That's what was important, and the central key; and, in the time when there was the challenge and tribulation brought on by the Han Mother, then of course, the big test of faith came.

So, that's when you see in Matthew 28, you see the separation between the sheep and the goats. The sheep got brought to the right hand of God, and the left hand gets cast into the furnace, the fire as punishment. In the end of time, there's always a separation between good and evil, because why? God's Kingdom will not coexist with evil. You can't be married faithfully, and be unfaithful and commit adultery. They're mutually exclusive lifestyles, mutually exclusive civilizations, mutually exclusive cultures, mutually exclusive Kingdoms.

This is very important for the Kingships of Cheon Il Guk. Now that you are all preparing your crowns, I was going to speak of this on Sunday, but now that you are preparing your own crowns, you have to think about inheritance. You have to look at Father's example of inheritance. You women, your test is coming, too. It not only the Queen that has to bow the Third King. Also, you will have to as well. You will have to uphold the son that your husband chooses as the King of his tribe; so, will you be a woman that goes after the money, after your husband dies? "I want that money. It's mine. It's mine, mine, mine, mine, mine." Will you be that kind of woman? If you do that, you will be following the example of the Han Mother. You will lead yourself to destruction, and the destruction of that tribal line that was standing with Father; or, will you say, "No, the King of our tribal line has decided, and I trust him, and I will support my son to be the heir.

Now, we were talking about this just back there. (in the office) Now, a husband, obviously, husbands love their wife; so, you as the father in the house, you can say in you will, you can write things like, "...and this will be my heir; and, one of the responsibilities of him will be to take care of his mother, so she will not have to worry about these kinds of things, or financial things, until she passes, or take care of your sister, you see. You can put that in as his responsibilities, but you have to think about inheriting the wealth Kingdom and assets God has allowed you to accumulate, through hard work, through blessing, through grace, etc. Talent, all this God has given you. Those things you must not squander over the generations.

So, Kingship - You have to look long into the future. You can't just think, temporary, "Oh, I want my children to feel good, and I want them to think everything's fair." You have to be clear with them. There will be one inheritor. You have to be clear.

I'll give you a practical reason why that Kingships do that. If you only think about your children trying to make them feel good, number one, they will disrespect you. Number one, they'll think their entitled to something, that you have to give them something, which you don't. They'll be arrogant. Number two, there's a reason why Kingdoms and Monarchies are the stable over time. They know how to transfer sovereignty, power and wealth through the generations. This is very important.

So, let's say you have four children, and you divide amongst them, equally, okay. All the things you worked hard for, and God has blessed you with this or that talent, and you accumulated all , blessings; but, now you split it between your four children, equally, because you don't want to hurt people's feelings. Now, you're thinking temporary. You're not thinking in terms of the Kingship. You're not thinking in long-term throughout the generations, through the next generation, the next generation, the next generation. Number one, you're not doing that. Number two, you now divided your Kingdom into four pieces; so, now there's twenty-five percent that exits per person. Now, the next generation, say each one of those kids have four children; so, what's that, sixteen now. So, now your Kingdom has been divided up one-sixteenth. You see this? You see what's happening? Now, by the third generation, let's say they all have four children. Sixty-four. One out of sixty-four. One sixty-fourth. Your Kingdom has diminished, too. You see what happens?

So, you ladies have to understand this, because you tend to make those decisions, which are emotional. You have to look intergenerationally, through the generations. You have to preserve your Kingdom, because remember, you're the Queen of the Carvelle's, you're the Queen of the Nolls, the Queen of the Clark's, the Queen of the Brunhofer's, see; so, you have to think in terms of how a Queen protects the future generations. Your mindset has to be different. It's a totally different mindset, because we're so alien to it, because you've been trained to be slaves. You've been trained to be servants, not to be Kings or Queens. Do you see how this mindset is different? That's why Kingdoms and Kingships maintain power and authority, and wealth, throughout the generations.

We talked about why God wants us to have blessings, not so we can boast and become hedonistic, and narcissistic, and boastful ourselves; but, we can live lives of gratitude to God, and we can serve His Kingdom, right? Changing the mindset is very important, very important. What the Han Mother did, think about it, because she decided to say, "I want all the stuff. He was my husband. I deserve it. I want it." Now, she's lost everything. Think about it. When she had Father's Heir and Representative Body, the Second King, and Cain and Abel, when she had us there for her, serving True Father, she already had tremendous security. Tremendous security. We were not only increasing her reputation throughout the world, we were increasing the status wherever it was. In Japan, in Korea, etc. We were not only doing that, Father allowed for us to prepare a missing foundation for her. That's where Kook Jin Hyung put in $500 million, so she could have all the money she needs, and that would only be the beginning of her blessing. She would get so much more blessing as the Church continued to take over the world with the Kingdom of Cheon Il Guk being released from Korea. As the Kingdom culture start spreading, and as blessed families realized we're separated from the archangelic slave system, which we were doing, that's why that whole lobby group lobbied to get rid of us. Do you understand what I'm saying?

So, if she decided not to be selfish and make it about herself, and, "Oh, I'm the mother; so, I have to inherit everything." That's not true. That led to destruction. So, the women of Cheon Il Guk, the Queens of your tribal lineage, you have to keep this in mind. You have to not preserve your emotions or feelings, or how your children feel. That doesn't matter. What matters is you maintain the integrity of your tribal Kingdom, so it continues to grow and strengthen, so it continues to support in the future the King of Kings' Kingship, together. We can go down in the generations together. Do you understand what I'm saying? It doesn't stop when we die. We continue to move through the generations, but your Kingdoms have to survive; and, if you're stupid with decisions, and you're emotional, and you make dumb decisions based on emotion, your Kingdoms will not survive. They have less chance of surviving.

So, this is the reality. When I went to China, I met people from the Confucius bloodline. Confucius was their ancestor, He's like a god in China, right. These people are peasants. The Kang tribe is a peasant tribe now. Do you see what happened? That's how fast your Kingdom can crumble, if you do not have a Kingship mentality. You have to have a Kingship mentality for the future, not from your life here on Earth. You have to have a Kingship mentality for the generations ahead, because with that responsibility it becomes training the next generation to become responsible stewards.

So, your father's and your husband has of course the role to do that. To train the one he will put in charge of his Kingdom, to train them to be honorable, to be true; but, again, the mother has to be virtuous and honorable, and not selfish and greedy, and try to make it a power struggle, and say, "I want the power. I deserve it." No, no. You'll destroy it. Better to allow your King in your tribal line and his heir to work out the details, so you are set; and, your husband can also put it public: "These are the things that I wish for my heir to do; so, he has to support the Kingship of Cheon Il Guk. She got to support the Cheon Il Guk Kingship line. At the same time, he has to financially provide for his mother. At the same time, he has to take care of this or that sibling, and the father can name names." He has to put that out in public. That's a good social pressure, for that young son has to not be an idiot and squander everything, but be an honorable man. Do you see what I'm saying?

So, you have to think, "Wow! The culture of Kingship. It's a very different culture than that as to how the Korean leadership has trained you," which is what? Right now, Family Fraud.... Look at that. Right now, some of you are preparing your crowns. William Gaige was here, and he's got a beautiful signature of True Father out of silver; so, that beautiful signature will go on all the crowns. They'll go on the real crowns, too, that we wear during the Ceremonies. He's going to do that in platinum gold on the real crowns. On the King's Report, we'll do them in silver. That's Father's signature on the crowns. What does that mean? That is not only biblical, because in the Book of Revelation, the 144, 000 stands with the Lamb.

On Gregg Noll's crown, look at that. The Tong Il mark here, and the signature. Look how beautiful that is. Can you see the name? Isn't that beautiful? Let's thank William Gaige one time. He did a great job, there. He did a lot of the Han Mother's jewelry. I've seen this person for years in East Garden; but, he was a true lover of Christ and a true lover of True Father. He's real, even though I know he's real, even though I know he's got a lot of affection for the Han Mother, because he served her, making all her jewelry, all her things; but, when the time came, he said, "No, I can't support that."

Gabriella ~ This Kingship crown may be necessary to continue to put down the foothold of God on Earth; so, the God of Night can meet the God of Day. Please correct me, if I'm wrong. As I understand, I feel True Father is talking through you.

Hyung Jin Nim ~ You know, you remember in the Bible the 144,000 are with the Lamb with the name of the Father written on their forehead. Now, this is juxtaposed to the Satanic side, which is known as the mark of the beast, okay. The mark of the beast is either on their forehead, or on their right hand. That has the name of the beast. It's interesting. We saw, when True Father past, and the Han Mother tried to erase him, get rid of him, one of the ways she physically did that was by erasing his name from the ring. Remember this? I've shown you the picture many times, and you've seen them all. The family ring that the Family Fed members had to wear. What name did she have there? She only had the Han Mother's name, Han Hak Ja, which of course the fallen bloodline, okay; so, what does the Han Hak Ja mark give you in the future? It gives you slavery. It gives you a Cheon Il Guk that you are trying to work for, which has a Supreme Council, which can eliminate any of your rights at any time with a whim. That's 100% the definition of a totalitarian nation. Do you understand? So, all the Family Frauders have to look forward to are slaves. This is of course why they're so angry. This is why they try to mock you. They try to make you feel guilty. They try to make you feel wacky; because, in their Cosmology, they're not allowed to wear a crown. Do you understand? Their leadership in Korea, and Japan too, we don't tell people to do it. They do it on their own. They're going in front of the Family Fed. A former minister in Korea, he goes in front of the Family Fed Center every Sunday, or whenever they have service, and he wears his crown, and he has these big plankards that say, "True Father is alive with the Three Kingships of God, and the Second King of Cheon Il Guk." He's got these big plankards, and he's got his crown there.

At first, you have these guys that think, "Oh, this guy's nuts." You have some people who try to see how weak his fortitude is by trying to make fun of him, but he doesn't care. He's in your face every week. He's there with his crown, and all that leadership, all the leaders, all the fake Family Fed ministers, who are sellouts, and little prostitutes for money, and salaries in Korea, which is dissipating before their eyes, which is one of the reasons they are pancaking. All those leaders have to look at this, what they consider a normal member, what they consider to be a slave. Well, he's not a King of his own merit, just like I'm not a King of my own merit. I'm a King, because my father, who is the King of Kings, made me King. Do you see what I'm saying? That's the point. The point of Cheon Il Guk Kings, we're not Kings of our merit. We're Kings by Grace. Do you see what I'm saying? That's why the Cheon Il Guk Kingdom is based on the Cheon Il Guk Constitution, which is the Grace of God, of course; and, it's based on a fundamental humility and worship of God, and thankfulness towards God, but strength in Kingship, strength in authority and Kingship.

So, think about it? They see this normal guy that use to come to their Family Fed Center, okay, as a normal member, which is basically a slave there, and now this guy is wearing a crown in front doing a one-person demonstration. They're freaking out, because in their Cosmology, even the leader's not allowed to wear a crown. The only people, or person that can wear a crown is basically the Han Mother, and the fallen True Children, but that's only ceremonial. It has nothing to do with even lineage now, because they have left the lineage. Do you see what I'm saying? And, of course, even in Ceremony, the leadership of Family Fraud can never wear a crown. Of course, in the future, you'll see the Supreme Council try to crown themselves, stuff like that. The point is, when they see a normal member like that, they think it's a normal member, and they're standing up, and they're wearing a crown, they're thinking, "Woah!" That puts fear into them, into their sense of power, into their solid, permanent authority.

Just like when Caesar heard of this Jewish man from Nazareth – Jesus or Yeshua – who was the King of Jews. When the Roman leadership heard of that, they said, "This guy's going around saying he's a King?" That's a direct threat. Why? Because, the Roman legends, the Roman Guards, the Roman Generals could not wear crowns, only Caesar could. Do you see that? So, in the same way, this is what the archangels feel, too, in Family Fraud. They know they're sluts. They know they're prostitutes for salaries. They know they're whores for money. They know they are just there for salary. They know they are dishonorable. They know they are helping each other being complicated with thievery, and being a den of thieves, because they left the lineage. Do you see what I'm saying? But, that's only strengthening and confirming, because see, a normal honorable person that community respected, that had this greatest faith, and this greatest intensity for True Father, they're the ones who come to Sanctuary. It's like the pillars of those communities come to the Sanctuary Church. Then, all of a sudden, they curse them, they mock them, they persecute them, saying, "Oh, you're bad. You've been following the unfilial Hyung Jin Nim, and all those kinds of things." Then, all of a sudden, they see them, and now they're crowned. They're standing up saying, "I'm not scared of you; you stupid minister. Who are you? I'm the King of the Kim's." "Who the heck do you think you are?" "I'm the King of the Toffey's." Shut up, you little slave! You're a servant. You see?

There's an entire new spiritual power that comes. That is of course what they fear. As the crown Providence now is going across the world with brothers and sisters in True Father's Authority, which is the only way you can wear a crown, any other way is illegitimate. It's not ordained of God. You're an illegitimate King, or a Queen. The only reason I can wear a crown is not because I chose it. I didn't tell Father to give me one. He's the one who put it on me. He's the one who chose me. Do you see what I'm saying? I need to remind people of that, because they think I'm boasting, but I'm not. I'm just stating the truth. I am the Successor, and I am the Representative Body, and I am the Heir, and I am the Second King. It's not arrogance. It's stating the truth; because, I didn't get it by some kind of merit, or because I asked Father, whatever. I got it, because of Father's love, and Father's Grace, and what he saw in me for the future of his Kingdom.

So, you have to see what Father sees in us. He sees through us; and, that's what Kingship is all about. It's about changing your vision, your eyesight; so, you're not only looking at people, or what's around you; or, you are not into people around you. You're looking through that into the new generations that's coming forth into the future. That's why it's so important for all of the brothers and sisters in Sanctuary to understand that Father had very important decisions that he made, like giving that Authority and Inheritance to his chosen son; and, then I didn't choose the next Successor. That was chosen by Father, not me. My kids all know that. That actually was a great blessing to my family; so, then they don't have to compete for their attention from their father; and, they know that it's based on Grace, not how much they kiss my booty. You see what I mean?

That kind of tradition, too, is very important of course. In the Cheon Il Guk Constitution we say that the Kings will choose the next heir, but that doesn't mean the Grandfather King, whose reign finished, and now he is preparing to go the Spirit World. He can still give advice to the current King, and say, "Hey, that's the son you want to choose? That intergenerational transfer, and that tradition you want to set for the Queen to do, and the temptations she got to fight, when my reign is over as the Second King, and the Third King steps in to bow to him as King." That's also the tradition the Kings and Queens in the tribal lineage, too. You must keep in mind. You must protect and pay attention, too. If you don't, you freely chosen not to that. You freely chosen to not look at the example of the King of Kings; and, if your Kingdom in future comes to peril, it's one hundred percent your fault. 100% your fault; because you listened to some emotion you had, or you wanted your kids to feel like your all good, to make them feel good. It has nothing to do with that. It has everything to do with preserving the Authority, the Kingship, the Sovereignty of the Kingdoms that were given to you by the Grace of King of Kings. It's all about an act of worship and honor and loyalty to the King of Kings, but not trying to be emotional about trying to make your kids happy, but about looking towards the survival of Kingship line to continue to serve the King of Kings line throughout time and history, forever. Does that make sense? It's very important, because you have to understand you have been trained by the archangels.

So, it's very important to understand the Kingship mentality. That's why I'm always talking about how the King sees assets, not how the world sees assets, like paper money or digital numbers in a bank account. That's not how Kings see assets. We talk about this all the time, right? It's not how Kings think of assets for the Kingdom, right. We talked about this many times. Kings see assets as net worth, right? As gold, silver, physical real worth. Metals, which are worth something over time. Land! Health! Organic farming. These are all assets. Skill sets in times of collapse. Those are all assets. Children are assets. Do you see this? Children are asset, you see. The world teaches you that children are liabilities. Oh, you have four of them., They'll prevent you from fulfilling your dreams. They will prevent you from doing what you want to do. Children are going to get in your way, and they're going to be a burden to you. You see this is how they train freaking young girls. This is how your girls are trained without you freaking knowing. You are trained, constantly, that children are a burden. Children are a liability. Children are a liability. Children are a liability. Children are a liability. And then you're supposed to do this fake little dance, and speech of, "Oh, how my children mean everything to me." Meanwhile, you train in your heart to see them as a liability. That's such a deceptive culture; but, in the Kingdom, children are assets to the family, not a liability; so, having children at a young age is not a liability to the family. It is an asset.

Think of it in terms of, when you have family businesses, and family run entrepreneurial businesses or farms. Let say we use as an example, farms. When you have children, the children as they grow up would learn crafts of the father and the mother, whatever they specialized in; and, they would learn that craft, and they would continue to operate that family business, so over time that family business could grow, you see, and their asset base could grow. That's why the Amish are extremely wealthy people. They're multi-millionaires. The media purposely makes fun of them, because the media knows, the elites know, the Amish are quite wealthy. They have tons of land. They live tax free. They have a lot of precious metals. They have a very strong family networks and community networks. They have a lot of children who learn skills that even in an economic depression, they have skills you take away from them. They are people who will never be slaves to a Bilderberg system, to a federal reserve system, to a global banking system. They can live independent of that satanic system at any time. Whether it be an economic growth, or economic slump, they can survive well. They're very wealthy, see.

So, children are a part of understanding parent's view, or the King and Queen view. Children are assets to you, they're not liabilities. If you train them well, if you invest in them... I'm not talking investing in a stupid secular education, which brainwashes them and turns them against you. That's what secular education does. It turns them against you. You're paying for them to be against you. That's what the archangel wants you to be. He wants to destroy any intergenerational transfer of power, assets, and talking about throwing into the educational system by having them turn them into your enemies. It's going to be very hard. Those are killer kids. It's going to be very hard for them to inherit your Kingdom prosperity and blessings, too.

You have to find another individual in that situation, among your children. They have to be adopting your values. They have to be representing the values of the Kingdom of God. They have to be willing and able and honorable people; so, that they are willing to keep the promise made to their Father in their contract where they succeeded, and his inheritance to them, to not only to protect their Kingship line, but to protect Cheon Il Guk, you see?

So, it's very important to have that kind of Kingship. It's absolutely critical, especially as you prepare your crowns. It's very, very important. It's not only ceremonial or symbolic. God's Kingdom will not be just a spiritual Kingdom. "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven." It will be a physical Kingdom; and, those faithful to Christ, those who've been mocked, persecuted, beheaded, and killed for his name sake, will be the ones to inherit, because he knows, we are not the ones that will do it out of boasting. We are not the ones who will do it for our glory. We will give the glory to our Father. That's absolutely critical.

Now, the next generation, that's our responsibility to train them. Of course, on top of that, it's not only our responsibility that the law will be released, so that law will help prevent them from squandering the blessing that they received from their ancestors, because the Americans almost squandered it with Hillary Clinton. They're squandering it, because they have been brainwashed by these socialist professors, who are now trying to impeach Trump. Americans this time around, saw the reality, that, America is not impervious to political Satanism. It almost got taken away completely. We barely got it back by a thread, and even now they're trying to impeach Trump, and even kill him, you see.

So, this is very important, especially ladies, you have to understand, you are the Queens of your husband's family. You have to protect the Carville family. You have to protect the Noll family. You have to protect the Tashiro family. You are the Queen of that line. You have to protect that house; and, when your husband decides his male successor, because he's trained them, and he feels that they'll be honorable, and still, he can state in his will that can be transparent, and he could state things that could put pressure on that son, to be a good, honorable young man; but, you must not take the way of the Han Mother. You see what has happened, when the wife becomes greedy for the power? She does not honor the intergenerational succession of Kingship. You see what happens. Utter destruction. That will be a challenge for all of the Queens of the tribal lines. That will be the challenge for all of you. We've talked about this billions of times. Democracy are transitional political systems. They never last. They always transition towards an Oligarchy, and turn towards totalitarianism, because the mob decides to take away the rights of the minorities, and the majority decides, "Oh, okay, we're just going to rob from you, and steal it, and say it's ours."

That's what the Democrat Party does all the time. God's Kingdom will be a constitutional, libertarian constitutional Republican monarchy. It will not only have the three branches of power, but also have the Kingship, which is another branch of power. Of course, within the Judicial branch, it will have the Inspector General branch of power, which is the investigative organ of government officials, head by the True Cain, or Kook Jin Nim's bloodline, family line; but, of course, as you know, and as you read in the Cheon Il Guk Constitution, there will be no investigative spying agencies on the people. Only for governmental officials that will be the spying, investigative organizations on government officials. See how that's opposite? It's upside down, folks. NSA can't be spying on you. You should be able to go in, and check what your House of Representatives is doing, and what meeting he's doing, and what phone call he's having right now, by typing his name into the internet, opening a window, and seeing his office, live, streaming from a camera that's sitting in his room; not, the other way around, where these Satanists want to put cameras in your room; so, they can monitor what you are doing all the time. That's Satan's Kingdom.

So, this kind of test will also come to all the women, and the Queens of the tribal line. This test will come. I tell you, don't be foolish and emotional. Remember the folly, and the great Fall of the Han Mother. She is forever your example of what will happen to you, if you greedily try to destroy the Kingship that God has given to you, to connect with, and protect as the mother there. If you protect that Kingship, you will be lifted up, because you are showing virtue and honor in honoring the wishes of your King of your tribal line, as he honors the wishes of his King in Cheon Il Guk's Kingship. Very, very important. Very, very important. So, we have to have a Kingship mentality.

Richard Panzer ~ We have one more question from earlier, and it's for the Queen. The question is, what advice do you have for the sisters in the Sanctuary?

Queen Yeonah Nim ~ General Advice?

Richard ~ Yes!

King Hyung Jin Nim ~ Don't be like the Han Mother. Let's give it up for the Queen, everybody. Isn't she beautiful? She's a virtuous and honorable woman.

Queen Yeonah Nim ~ Yeah, I think what Hyung Jin Nim said would be perfectly appropriate. Yeah, you know what? My advice would be: You know, Hyung Jin Nim said thee advice, and if I, as a second advice to a woman, don't worry too much, because that's advice I'll give to women, because I will only live a short time - forty years, and I worry so much. I worry about this; I worry about that; and, I didn't even know what I worry about. I know I was so stressed. I worried about it. I was so stressed, and I get mad at my children, and I worry about, "Oh, how is my children going to ..." What am I worrying about, I can't even remember.

Now, my son becomes eighteen years old. I also worry about, "How's his Blessing going to be? What's going to happen? He doesn't have a house to live in? What's going to happen? He doesn't get a decent job." You see, this is all useless worry. I am sure when I become sixty or seventy, you will tell me why did, and I worry about those things? God will take care of everything; so, cast all your anxieties to the Lord. He cares for you. So, I think that's the advice I'll give to all the women.

King Hyungjin Nim ~ Yes, you know that the Queen is exercising her right and duty to bear arms, and that's very important for women. We're so happy to see the young sister, here. They took some very cool tactical pictures. They got their AR15, and it's so important, because we are talking about real women, and women not being victims, not accepting a predatory class. Being able to, if needs be, of course defending your life, but defend other people's lives; to love your neighbor, as you love yourself; while, you love yourself enough to defend your own life, you have to be able to love your neighbor, and you don't have to agree with everything he says.

He gets on your nerves, sometimes, when his stupid dog does stupid things; but, still, you have what Christ was talking about. You have love enough for him, so you will stand up for him. You will help defend him. That's what peace police and peace militia are all about. That's why, in the Kingdom, there is not federalized police, federalized military. Each citizen is peace police, peace militia. There's not federal salaries for law enforcement and military, which of course, is always what totalitarians do. To control militaries. In the Kingdom, it's opposite, right? Everybody is imbued with a sense of responsibility that Christ talked about in the greatest Commandments. "Love God/ Love your neighbor."

Love God. He gave you all this freedom. He gave you the rights of this Kingdom. He gave you Inheritance. Love Him. Love God. It comes from God, and love your neighbor. Protect him. He really gets on your nerves with a stupid dog. The most annoying thing in the world. You still do your duty as a citizen of Cheon Il Guk. You see, that's actually, that's how the original America was. Of course, we know, it's the closest thing that came, before the Lord of the Second Advent comes. Before Christ returns, that's the closest you can get, because they're not Jesus returning, the founding fathers; but, it's the top of the Growth Stage. It's the closest you can get by man.

You do need the Kingship to come in, though, by Christ. You need Christ Kingship on Earth to have the everlasting Kingdom. You know, to have the everlasting Republic for three hundred, four hundred years, look how unstable our Republic has become in the US. Completely, completely unstable. I'm talking about they're trying to start a Civil War; but, the Queens of Cheon Il Guk, also, of having that mentality of loving your neighbor, to be able to protect your neighbor. Of course, protect your house, your Kingship; but, also be willing to protect your neighbor, if you are able. That's why the women of Cheon Il Guk must refuse to be victims, and you must refuse to be food for predators. The Army can't do that just by emotional will. You also have to be willing to do that, physically. That's why all the girls are here training in the peace police, peace militia, and training for these dangerous marital arts. It's very important. It builds their character. It builds their appreciation for men. They have a good experience with high quality men that are also building, and are strong.

Did you know that 90% plus educators are by female teachers? Kids, nowadays, are hardly ever seeing a male teacher, and if you see a male, he's a super beta male. He's almost half gay. You can't hardly find a man teaching in public school, now. Like a man – a man, man, other than the wrestling coach or football coach; but, then they're really marginalized. They sit alone at the lunch table. It's ridiculous. You don't contact with strong males who can actually harm people, with a lot of power; but, they don't do that, because they know how to control that power. They are responsible with that power. You see what I mean? That's what the peace police, peace militia does. It gets girls to have as their teachers, their Masters. Men who know how to do tremendous damage to other people, but who are very responsible with that power; and, of course, it gets him out of a delusion. I mean boys and girls. Boys, who play video games are delusional, because they think they're very strong, or they think just believing in themselves with their special powers will help them. It's ridiculousness; but, girls are almost brainwashed the same way, too. They're just told, because you're a girl, you can beat up all these boys. You start training real combat arts. That's just bullcrap. That's complete bull.

There's a reason why all the men dominate most of the physical sports. Paul Joyce Watson just did a whole video on that; and, when a transgender man says that he's a woman now, why that person slaughtering all the girls in his division. Because he's a man! (Jamal Johnson proclaimed in the background, "Wake-up!") For example, one of the examples that Paul Joyce Watson is, that the Australian Professional women's soccer team, they're paid professional athletes. They played against a group of Australian fifteen years old boys, and they lost 7 to 0; so, even at fifteen years old, unprofessional unpaid high school students can crush a professional women's soccer team, and that's a wimpy sport. That not a hard sport. That's a wimpy sport. Now, you try to do it in a hard sport like American Football or wrestling or MMA, it's not possible.

So, this delusion that women are taught by feminism, which is basically a Pagan cult, this is a complete delusional lie that's being told to girls. That's why they're so diluted. When girls train real combat art, when they train with dangerous things, they could see men's power; and, so when they see men's power, they realize, "Oh, Wow! I really need to equalize that power, if I was to survive. How do equalize that power?" Well, you equalized that power by learning more boxing, or Thai boxing and Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, even though you can somewhat do that with Brazilian Jiu Jitsu. Well, you may defeat that persons. if that person, if their skills are way under; but, the odds when you fight, really, people are very explosive, and they move very erratic, especially new people who don't know the art. They move very erratically; so, what do the girls learn? They say, "Wow! Men have way more explosive power than me." How do I equalize that? You learn, you better have control of arms, weapons. I better learn how to use a knife. I better learn how to have some advantage; so, if some bad guy is trying to take me, I can fight back and survive.

So, women come to understand, they need to learn the martial arts that are also focused on the arms or weapons, because that's the only way you can survive against a drugged, powerful man. Girls who think they're tough, they'll come and train, and they'll get dominated by little boys like Caleb. Very small boys.

Now, I'm 200 lbs. and 6'2", but there's guys way bigger than me. They see how I dominate that little boys like nothing. Do you see what I mean? They can see it. They get dominated by little boys; and, they can see me playing with those little boys, literally just destroy them. Their life is literally in my hand. I can kill them at any time. They see that, and I'm not even huge. You imagine someone who is skilled. And 250 pounds or 300-pound man who is way stronger than me. You see? That's very different.

Now, when you watch "Charlie's Angels," you don't believe it, because that's total propaganda. You realize, "Oh, I better learn how to defend myself. You better learn arms, which is the reason why single mother's, too, you look at the gun community. It's growing. Now, women are the fastest growing demographics in the gun community. What kind of women? Single women, because the government has taken away the men, and used the divorce papers to split the families. Now, you see women have to fend for themselves in very dangerous communities; so, now the fastest growing in the gun ownership in America is single women. It's women that actually have to fend for themselves. They don't have a husband that will stand up for them. You see, they quickly realize that's not the ideal situation, but they realize in that terrible situation, that, they better do something about it, or their family is under tremendous threat.

This is what's so important about Cheon Il Guk. Women, too, in the women's culture, is that, you women are realistic. You are not diluted. You have a realistic understanding of men's physical power, and when you have a realistic understanding of that, you realize why you need weapons. You need to have arms, not only for your own self-defense, but for the defense of your neighborhood, defense of your children, for the defense of your community. You need it. You will not be able to fight a band of marauding men, with just Karate. You won't. I guarantee it.

So, this is a part of the culture, too, that the Queen's step into; and, we are so proud of her doing this. Not only is she artist, and she's beautiful, and she's feminine, all those things, but, she's also doing things which most girls are terrified to do. Terrified. You can see, she works through that. Everybody gets humbled when they start training real combat arts. You can't avoid it.

So, even in Cheon Il Guk, you'll have kids, because you'll still have technology. You'll still have video games. You still have high level technology, because there's so much freedom. You'll have so much competition, so much incredible technology. People will tend to get diluted. Some people will tend to get diluted, if their young; but, as soon as they enter into PE class, which is probably in your community organized school, or privately-run school system, they're not doing PE and useless Physical Education. They're teaching all the kids bulletproof Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, so that nobody gets bullied. So, from a young age, these kids are coming into reality. They're coming into a situation where you can't be arrogant. You have to be realistic. You can't be arrogant. You can't just believe in yourself, and how you're stronger. That's just bull. It's a complete lie; and, women understand that when they train real combat arts. They understand that, and the lies they're told by media, movies, etc. just to make them feel good by that product, just to take their money. It's lying to them; so, they get addicted to that product, and spend their money on it. It's nothing in reality.

The women in Cheon Il Guk, too, maybe making a cool calendar of the women of Cheon Il Guk. Will have all the girls, and the Queen as well, and all the girls in the photo shoots. They're going to look pretty dangerous, pretty deadly, and super cool, by celebrating women who are empowered, who are strong, who are realistic, who are classy. There not going to be in bikinis, posing with guns, okay. They're going to be classy, they're going to be tactic-cute. They'll have real gear on. Real tactic-cute gear. We can do some pictures of Samurai training, too, which would be cool. That would be a really cool thing to encourage women, too.

Look, the Queen was a super wimp, she was a super Asian artist wimpy girl; but, look at her now. Look at her now. Look at her now. When new girls come, she just dominates them. I mean, many of you girls seen it. She can dominate girls. Dominate. (the Queen ~ I'm still myself) Just one year training, and she can physically dominate girls who just started, very easily. (the Queen ~ He's still a good Master) I'm an excellent Master. I'm a very high-level teacher. That's wonderful to see. Her whole engagement with her sons is different. She's physical with the sons, now. You know, the younger, boys, now she puts them to sleep, and before they go to sleep, they're choking each other. They're choking each other, and she's throwing them around. They love it; but, before, it used to be, "Oh, stop doing that? Oh, stop sitting on me? Ahhh!" This kind of stuff, now, she actually plays with them. She has a great time with them.

Also, my daughter, it makes her not scared of physicality as well; so, she can rough around with the boys. She shot such a hilarious video of one of the youngest. He was trying to mess around with his sister, and she knows Jiu Jitsu. She just grabbed him, and she put him in a triangle, and she's mounting on top of him, and he's just tapping in pain, and the other boys are just dragging him out. It's just so funny. So, funny, but they get to play like that with each other, too; so, there is so much skinship between them, too, which is physical contact, which is so healthy. When, you have a lot of physical contact with somebody, you build closeness, right.

I always have physical contact with the Queen, wherever she's at. I'm always trying to hold her, grab her. At home, she can't pass me by. I have arms behind my back, everywhere. She's used to so much physical contact; so, if I don't do that, it's so weird. She always having physical contact, and of course working with your kids, you're always having contact with them. When you're out together, you're always strengthen them. You're helping them, making them deadly against evil.

At the same time, you're building this incredible bond with martial arts teacher and student. What a blessing. Look, having your kids when your young, what a blessing. Look at what Abba and Omma can do with you guys. We can train together. I was power-lifting with them the other day. Do clean thrusts, trying bench pressing with the boys, and my daughter. The Queen's out there. She's dead lifting weight. The boys close the door, and we take our shirts off, so we can flex out muscles. They're saying, "Look at Daddy. Look at those arms; but, I can't see my abs anymore. I'm getting kinda chubby here. I used to see them. Then the others are showing their arms. It's so funny. It's so hilarious. It's so cute. It's so fantastic to have that kind of relationship with your children, which is physical, too.

You don't want a relation with your kids, where it's all intellectual. How can you have that, even with your spouse, where it is all intellectual. That's so dry. You can have that with professor, you know what I mean; but, having this whole physical dimension that you have in your family culture is incredible. I mean, you mom's, you know, when they get old, you still want to hug them, but they don't want to hug you. They try to squirm away all the time. "Oh, stop trying to kiss me. I'm Italian, I want to kiss you." You lose that skinship as they grow older and older; and, if you lose that skinship as they grow older, you lose that deep sense of closeness. You know, if you don't touch your wife, if you don't touch her hand, if you don't touch her, even for a week or a month, already, you will feel distant. Do you know what I'm saying? Already, your relation is becoming distant. It's like breathing, it's like eating. You have to keep contact. This is what's so wonderful about these kinds of arts. It allows you to have that kind of healthy contact with the kids. I mean, my daughter, she's about fourteen now. Usually, when a girl's like fourteen, daughters have zero contact with the dads; but, she's like on my back, choking me out. There's a very small population of dads who can continue to have that with their girl, even though she's older. It's so special, do you see what I'm saying? That kind of thing is so wonderful about the King and Queen culture that refuses to be victim to predators and archangels. Very important. Very, very important.

So, we're going to encourage you ladies. We're going to have all you Ninja girls to be in Hollywood hair and makeup with AR15 and beautiful gowns and dresses, and tactical chest plates, and AR15 mags, and all that kind of stuff. You'll see, you'll see. They'll encourage you. It's very important to understand that culture of sovereignty, which says, no. We will not be victims. We will not be archangels, and we not listen to archangels, and we will not be slaves to archangels. You'll serve our God. We'll serve our King. We'll serve our Kingdom, and we will stand in our position, and we will take dominion over our Kingship, so it will not be destroyed, and it will not fade away into oblivion. Very important.

Jamal Johnson, and American ~ I have two questions pertaining to the Crown Providence. You had said at the breakfast table, you had said to a couple of Second Generation, who are not married that they could not wear crowns, because it's for couples.

King Hyungjin Nim ~ That's right. Blessed couples, under Father's Authority, only.

Jamal ~ Bless couples, under Father's Authority. I haven't heard that specified before.

The King ~ No, that's right. You have to be a Blessed couple under True Father's Authority to have the legitimacy to enter into the Crown Providence; otherwise, if you put on a crown, it is an illegitimate crown.

Jamal ~ The second question was, a Public Official asked me my opinion about what would be good for the Movement; and, I said, "In the end, these couples will be glorified as of January 1st," that you're emphasizing couples, and so anything that helps the tribal Kings and Queens succeed in building Cheon Il Guk is going to glorify God, as opposed to in the Family Fed, a bunch of servants."

The King ~ Yes, hired servants. Idolatry from the Greek.

Jamal ~ So, after I gave that answer that particular public servant said, "Well, I have to ask the King about that; so, that's why I'm asking, so it can be made clear that, if the Kingdom were built by the hands of servants, rewind that, and the Kingdom was built by couples..."

The King ~ The Kingdom is never built by servants. The Kingdom will always be built by the King, because King is where the Kingdom comes from; and, we have only one King of Kings. It's from one seed, one King. That's it.

Jamal ~ So, we're not expecting the Church or Public Officials, who are in a position, or the servants to do everything for us?

The King ~ Yes, yes. I mean the role of the Church will, in the Kingdom, will be to spread the Gospel to be a vehicle to administer the Blessing, etc. A King is the Head of the Church, which there are many subsidiary branches, which he doesn't have financial control over them, but they are united by faith and common belief; so, it has a function within society, but it is not the Kingdom itself. There's a lot of evangelical Christians who see the Church as actually the Kingdom; whereas, God's Kingdom has to come not only in Spirit, but has to come physically as well. It has to have real sovereignty, real territory, a real place, real citizens in a real place. We talk about it all the time. It's absolutely critical.

Jamal ~ So, I was actually saying, if you can help, I know the Sanctuary Church is open to different members submitting different ideas with their ministries.

The King ~ That's right. We want you to be open to God's prompting, and how God positions you to utilize your God-given talent that he's given you to glorify Him; so, we want people to pray about that, and to be stimulated by that, and to try. You try one time and you fail, so what. You try another ministry, you know what I mean? In that effort by trying, you try to be faithful to God's gifts; then, at some point, you unlock what that ministry is for that person, so we want them to have freedom and responsibility right there. We want them to express the ministry and gifts God has given them for the Glory of His Kingdom.

Jamal ~ Amen! Thank you!

My name is Kastumi Hiromatsu from New Jersey ~ No matter what, I think we need to prepare to live in the wilderness; and, I have a question. In the Physical World, I think I'm okay with living without brushing my teeth for many days.

The King ~ You mean dental hygiene in the wilderness while Bushcrafting?

Hiromatsu-San ~ Yes!

That's a very important question, because historically it was very important, and the leading cause of sickness and death for people. You can see skulls that are very old, from centuries past, and many times they have no teeth, or they have very weakened dental structure. There's all sorts of evidence that shows that chewing properly stimulates your brain function and neuro synapsis, etc, etc. but, in the wild, taking care of dental hygiene is nowhere near the blessing of dental technology that you have in the modern day. There's a reason why cavities, and all those things go down, because you have access to technology. In Cheon Il Guk, we can study those primitive arts; but, we should not throw away technology. That's what I'm trying to tell these kids, too. There are reasons we have AR15, now. It's because, that's the highest level of technology for an individual person. Basically, that individual that you can reasonably count on as a weapon; but, a couple of hundred years ago, it may have been the Samurai sword. Three or four hundred years later, it may be Star Wars lasers. I don't know what it is. The point is, that, the good people must be able to be able to embrace technology; and, the good people must also be able to have dominion over technology, and weapon's technology; because, if you don't have good people do not have control over weapon's technology, who will take control of weapon's technology? Who?

(Someone says, "Satan.")

The King ~ Exactly. One hundred percent guaranteed. So, evil exists in the world, not because of the power of evil, but because good people don't do their responsibility. Evil's not that powerful, when good people rise up. When good people rise, evil gets smashed very quickly. When the Christian culture arises, like for example, the Crusades, they're taught all the time that Christians are the just as bad as Islamic terrorists, because they did the Crusades, right. That's baloney! The Muslim marauders were attacking Europe. They conquered already Portugal. They've taken over Spain. They were moving, already, all the way to Berlin. They were taking over already Southern Italy, which was taken by the Muslims. They were taking the blond haired, blue eyed women, and putting them into Arabian slave trade, which is a women sex trade two times more than the American slave trade that went to the West; so, they were conquering Europe. They had already conquered Northern Africa. They had conquered all the Middle East; and, now they were moving into Europe; so, of course the Christians had to stand together and say, "Shoot! They're going to take us over. We better fight, you see. It's a defensive war. Do you see what happened? They have taken Constantinople. Everything had been collapsed.

So, the reality is, once Christianity said, "Nope, we're going to fight back." Once, they did that, Islam was destroyed very quickly. Very quickly, because it doesn't have the moral high ground for war. Its purpose for war, and incentive for war was, "Go to war!" You can kill people, get Jihad, get 72 virgins when you die. If you don't die, you can take the women as sex slaves, and you can have all the women you want, "for the sake of Islam." That's not a moral high ground; but, Christians tried not to fight, and tried to avoid a fight. Avoid, avoid, avoid, avoid, and tried not to fight, and tried to find a better way, and avoid, avoid, until they can't avoid it anymore, and then they fight back; but, until they fight back, it's from a standpoint of a moral high ground - a just war, because they are fighting for their survival. It has a moral ramification to it, instead of immoral ramification. Combine with the fact, for example, with those wars, ninety percent of Muslim women want to get out of Islam. They don't want to live under Sharia Law. They don't they want to be free, unless they've been completely or tremendously had Stockholm Syndrome; or, in part, have been totally brainwashed by the psychopathic class. Even the majority of men don't want to abuse women in that way, probably. Probably, the majority; but, you have a very small minority that is very hellbent on keeping that system alive, and the permission for that kind of conquest alive, so they keep the women as slaves, and under the pressure of constant death.

But, look, when Christians stand up to that, and under pressure say they're going to fight back. If you going to kill us, we're going to kill you. When they do that, Islam gets conquered very quickly. Very quickly, people convert very quickly, because actually they don't want to stay in it. They're being forced by death. If convert out of Islam, you die. It's not exercising free will, you see; so, Cheon Il Guk culture does not have to stray away from the blessings of science and technology that God will give us in Cheon Il Guk that are produced by the people that are making incredible products that are competing with other in this healthy cycle, and incredible technology that are being built.

So, getting back to Hiromatsu's question about brushing teeth, or dental hygiene in the wild, primitive dental care is very, very primitive. Very primitive. Basically, what people used to use was smashed up willow branches, because willow branches have the main ingredient for aspirin; so, it is like a pain killer. You can chew on that, and as you chew, the fibers are very long and thin, so as you chew, it becomes like a brush, and you kind of brush your teeth with that, and get a novacaine effect, if you have a toothache; but, it can't really get in there. It can't get rid of cavities. You can't really have dental floss. Maybe a small sinew would work. I'm not sure. I never tried dental flossing with a sinew. It may or may not work, I don't know; but, it's not going to be so strong. In Bushcrafting, hygiene is very important, when you're in the wild. It's very important.

You need to take care of yourself. Take care of your feet. Take care of your crouch region. It depends if you sweat a lot. Your armpits, all these things. It's important you take care of that, and keep it clean, because you may develop rashes, tearing, chaffing, blood, that kind of stuff, and then you're open for infection. Actually, that's an interesting question; because, that's tied with medicine. One of the things of Bushcraft for wilderness knowledge is, you have to take care of your body. I'm not the guru about it. You have to tend to your body. You have to attend to hygiene, by tending to the health of your body. If you don't, you're going to be paying for that. Again, for dental hygiene, in the wilderness, that's very hard. You know what people use. Ash. It's an absorbent; so, you can brush your teeth with ash, if you have nothing else. Let's say you went camping, and you forgot your toothpaste. You can use ash. Your mouth will turn black, and your tongue will turn black. That's not a problem; but, you can basically crush it up, and use the powder as a paste, and mix it with saliva to allow it to absorb. I did that. It really feels clean, very clean. Yeah, hygiene is important; and, technology is okay in Cheon Il Guk. We don't have to be like the Amish. We don't have to wear eighteenth century, seventeenth century clothes. We can still be modern, and high tech, and technologically advanced; but, we're not slaves to it. We are not slaves to technology. We can utilize it; but, we are not slaves to it. It doesn't replace us.

The Queen ~ Bring dental floss, toothpaste, and toothbrush, and whatever you need.

The King ~ I always have in my survival pants, I always have dental floss. You want to see it? You don't believe me. I keep it with my AA batteries, as I keep it for my flashlight in another pocket. It can become a headlamp, when I'm in the forest. There's the dental floss (without the box. Only the string on a spool) It becomes cordage, too. Cordage. Dental floss is very strong. Very, very strong. If you make a shelter, you need cordage. Cordage is very important, if you want to make anything. That's a way you can tie things together, or extend things. If you want to hang things. If you want to lash things together to make tripods, or shelters, you need cordage. It's very cumbersome to make natural cordage; and, you can clean your teeth as well. Have the minty fresh flavor.

Dr. Panzer ~ I just want to make a comment. Aren't we lucky? Our King knows about so many things. I heard so many things about marriage, parenting, surviving the wilderness. It's amazing. It's amazing. Thank you!

The King ~ As you know, Father's adventurous. Father knows so much, and I think that's Father's spirit. Father's so self-reliant, especially with nature and things like that. Father's super into that. Watching hours and hours of fish farming, we watched fish farming. We watched martial arts, because that's defense is also self-reliance. It's part of self-reliance, by learning how to defend yourself. Nature, knowledge videos, understanding about ecosystems, about different species. That all adds to your knowledge of self-reliance.

Dr. Panzer ~ Family Federation, you're missing out. I have to say, you're missing out.

The King ~ So, Richard Panzer got his CCW permit. (Conceal Carry Weapons) Let's give it up for Richard Panzer. Richard Panzer went training on the range.

Dr. Panzer ~ I'm on the pre-K level. The only way I can go is up.

The King ~ It's better than being on the delusional level. He's stepping into reality. That's great. I bet you, Richard is a great shot, because people who don't put their ego into it, are really good. They don't try to prove to somebody, "Yeah, I really good..." That's why a lot of women, for example, they're excellent students. They shot really well, beating out the boys many times. The Queen is a good shot, too. She doesn't flinch. She doesn't flinch, because she's like natural. I heard it described like this: It more like a male dominated sport, or hobby pastime; so, when the woman enters into that field, she feels she doesn't know anything, so she's very receptive. She wants to learn. Just like if a man went into a female dominated activity, let's say sewing, he's not going to say, "Oh, I know how to sew. Come on. I already know how to do this. Ah, I know that hitch. I know that stitch. That's ridiculous teaching it that way. That's absurd." He probably would not do that. Isn't that an interesting observation? It has more to do with kind of entering into a foreign environment you don't know, and actually you'd be more receptive to learn, and that's why you'd get better, faster.

Robert Pickell, American ~ Just going back over the comments you made over time, and also today, one of them was adultery and fidelity are mutually exclusive, but my real question is, the lineage of God is established, what God wanted in the Garden. I study history a lot, but when I look at it, I look at the example, and the most clear, to me, was in World War II, where the Allies, in essence, the United States dominated Japan and Germany; but, one of the interesting things is, when America entered the war, it told the Allies, in particular Britain and everyone else, we only come and fight the war, if one fights the war for unconditional surrender. The other thing I noticed from history is, when that was the case Germany surrendered unconditionally. In other words, they humble themselves completely. Japan, the same case. Father said, America gave of itself, so those countries rose up greatly; but, then we look at the Korean War, and other wars, and this whole concept of negotiating people. My question is, "What's your thoughts on this?"

The King ~ Well yeah, when there's something of that nature, where the battle has to happen, the good side has to go for complete and utter victory. You cannot go for half. There's no half victory in a life or death struggle; so, in those case, you have to go for 100% of unconditional surrender. There's no question about it; so, in the case for example, as Family Frauders come back, and they try to negotiate, and they try to bring back the Family Fed culture here, No! You have to unconditionally surrender. You don't come in here trying to sneak your way in here, and try to make your little "slave-base" for you, you know what I'm saying? It's the culture of Sanctuary, and for all the Kings and Queens of Sanctuary that are standing into their position that make that more impossible.

That's why the whole crown Providence, the bearing arms Providence, all these things. You have to understand, folks, evil is very big into symbology. They're very much into symbols. There are hyper-focused, and they are infatuated with symbols. That's because all their secret societies have these secret handshakes, and secret language, and secret postures, and esoteric forms, that's only given to those people they vet, and to those people they include into their dark circles. You see what I mean? So, they're very into secret knowledge and symbology that only a select people can understand.

It's like a secret language of communication, where normal people can understand it; but, it's like they can understand it to let people in their evil group; so, they hyper-infatuated with symbology. You can even see it from the Rockefeller's or the Rothschilds family crests to the different Free Mason symbology, different occult symbology. Very Kabbalistic symbology. The Buddhist symbology. Buddhism and Hinduism Yoga symbology is absolutely huge in Yoga body positions, postures. It's absolutely humongous. It's one the core of their metaphysical universe. Symbols have tremendous power. Evil is more sensitive to symbols than the normal person. The normal person is not trying to get into all these dark circles. Does that make sense?

The normal person is not trying to weave his way up into these occult esoteric unique circles. They're just trying to put food on the plate for their family; but, the elite are very symbolic, so they're very sensitive to symbols, and one of the greatest fears for the political Satanists and the real Satanists is the resistance against them with arms. It's an absolutely terrifying symbol. A symbol of hand, it could be a man or woman, but a hand holding a weapon. The more powerful the weapon, the fear, the anxiety it creates. You see this? You see what I'm saying? It creates more anxiety, because they're more sensitive than the normal person about symbols. So, that's why such a huge reaction when Family Frauders are proven to be totalitarians, proven to want to be sociopaths, proven to want to get temporary salaries to supposedly get some temporary power, but they are powerless. They're whores and prostitutes. They're slaves to lust and the psychopathic class, and so, they're very sensitive to suits.

When I put up my picture with an AR15, there's a huge backlash about that, so what was my response? I put up more, and dress really nice at the same time. So, I wear my little tuxedo, and my little cute outfits, and show my gun and show my knife. You see, you can't dress like an elite, and have all this power at the same time in their world, you see. You're supposed to have this all hidden away. What is it? It's juxtaposed to the mind. It's confusing. What is this? So, they want to blast at you. So, just put up more. "Go, go, go. Yes, yes, yes. I'm helping with your digestion, and your vocal chords. I'm showing how pathetic, and a control freak you are.

It's very important for people who bear arms, and have the symbology, do not shy away from guns, because the totalitarians want you to be ashamed a little bit. They want to get you in the political pressure cooker cult; so, anything that could be a potential threat to them, they could pressure it out of you by guilt/shaming you. Again, their most feared symbology is the normal hand, the normal human hand being able to bear arms against them; but, of course, probably the cross is very fearful, too; because, that civilization is based on Jesus Christ, based on Christian ethics, based on Christly ethics; so, they're very sensitive to symbology. That's why they'll invert crosses. They'll make them upside down, or they'll have upside down crosses, or three crosses in the form of a pyramid, or change a cross into an onk by putting a circle on it, symbolizing their conquering of it; or, they'll break off the cross hands, and make like a peace sign. Smash off the two limbs, like they're broken, and you have like the peace sign, the hippy peace sign, which is really a broken cross. Of course, all that anti-Christian culture. That comes from the Satanists, who are very into symbology; so, when they see Christian people, who are honorable, the Satanists know that the Christians have the moral high ground. They just pretend to be moral people. Meanwhile, they're pedophile networks, and they're raping kids, necrophilia, there killing children. Meanwhile, they are posing themselves in public as this kind of politician, or a knight of the British throne, whatever he is. Sir Edward Heath. That means he would be a knight, right. He would be knighted, right?

It's all about illusions or lies; whereas, when people of sovereignty of the Kingdom, when we wear our crowns with pride, so what, laugh at me. I don't care if you laugh at me. This crown, I'm not wearing it, because I want to do it. I'm not wearing this to glorify myself. It symbolizes that which I defend, and that for which I stand for. That with whom I am indebted to, which I am in salvation with; so, when we have the crown, combined with beautiful clothes, and you have your symbol of arms, which is firearms in the modern day, because in the modern day, that's the technology we have, which is Firearms or knives. This shows that I will protect us, and I'm not afraid of you. You cannot guilt/shame me, and even if you tried, physically tried to take this, I will fight for this. That attitude is so infuriating to archangels and political Satanists and elites, that want you to bend over and surrender, thinking evil nice, make evil nice, treating evil nice makes it worse. No better, worse.

So, it's about setting those symbols into the atmosphere of sovereignty, and not being ashamed of it. That's why these girls are doing that. They're Korean girls, and have AR15; and, their Korean friends from Korea are saying "Wow, what are you doing?" Like one sister, she's a nurse, and they're saying, "Is that what a nurse is supposed to be doing? What kind of hospital are you working at?" So, she gets cursed, too, by her own society. That's because these symbols have been trained into people as seen to be evil, because that's what evil wants them to believe; but, when we take dominion, no, these are tools, and I have complete mastery and dominion over them; and, I perfectly capable of using them for my defense for my loved ones, and the neighbors that I love, and I'm an honorable, virtuous, good moral person, who loves God, who understands I'm a sinner, and I'm saved by Grace, and I stand for my Kingship.

Now, that package all combined together, really says it all. Look at this picture of these Korean girls. That's symbolic. A lot of people are from Buddhism here, or Shinto. You know everything is symbology. Symbology is so important to the occult. It's so important to the elite. That's why counteracting their symbology with real symbology of dominion and sovereignty. The police police/peace militia logo, we have that finalized. It's coming out. I mean, look at it. It's got the Tongil mark; it's got the shield of faith; it's got the sword of truth, or the Word of God; it's got the three Kingship with three crowns, and it's got the sword, shield and two AR15s. It looks absolutely beautiful, and it looks absolutely stylish, and it's got give and receive action, and the brown symbolizes territory and sovereignty. Yeah, this is going to be out peace police/peace militia symbol.

Next time we do the main ceremony, we will prepare. I already told the bothers here, who are responsible for our security team, experts that they are, and we told them, after the National Anthem we'll have the whole ceremony of a gun salute. In any nation, you see, after the National Anthem, you'll see the Marines come in. If you've been to a veteran's ceremony, here, even in America, they sing the National Anthem, they say the Pledge of Allegiance, then the Marines come in, whatever, the Veterans come, they have a ceremony, and then they shoot into the air or wherever, depending on what their meaning is. That symbolizes that they're ready to stand up as a force against evil. You laugh at it, because you're not thinking in terms of a real nation. To you it's still symbols, but to the Second King, who Father's Kingship, it's not symbols. It's a real Kingdom.

So, just like any other Kingdom, it has the coat-of-arms, it has the gun salute after the National Anthem. In Cheon Il Guk, too, we will prepare the arms salute, representing our physical ability of sovereignty, and our physical ability to defend our Kingdom, which is centered on the physical lineage, which is centered on the physical Constitution, on the physical returning Christ, True Father, Sun Myung Moon – the King of Kings.

So, we will prepare that beautiful ceremony, and beautiful outfits as well. These guys, they're working out now to lose that weight. They'll look beautiful. (Logo shown on the Screen) You see that. Maybe we'll prepare that on a white blazer that they'll wear. The Marines got a white blazer, and maybe the King's peace police/peace militia logo will be there. Maybe a nice golf jacket, with a sidearm. We'll decide on the design. What a very beautiful symbology that will be there representing. Then they'll come out in the beautiful white suits, just like the Marines with the sword, and also the rifle; and, then of course, they'll wear their crown like their tribal Kingship.

There's never been in the history of mankind a nation such as this. Never. When I say it will be a sight to behold, a site to see. You have to understand this not from a normal perspective, you have to understand the demons, who are so into symbology. When they see this site, how unbelievable their mind will be wacked, because they'll see that God's Kingdom is not only spiritual. Even the Korean and Japanese military have these ceremonies, right? Even in Japan they have these ceremonies. Even in Japan, they have these ceremonies, even though it's been disabled for the past 27 years. Even the most "pacifist nations" have it, because you can't be a nation, without being able to defend yourself. People may think it's weird, but I don't care. I don't care about how other people feel. This is establishing Father's Kingdom, culture and sovereignty, and the rights of the Kings of Cheon Il Guk that stand with the True Father, King of Kings, forever and ever.

Robert ~ May I ask a follow up of the Queen? I remember when the battle with Family Fed really started. I mentioned, when going to battle wives, and their very foundation of faith would be shaken, or lost, where people can spiritually die; and, the Queen commented that we have to hold on to Father even tighter; and, also, I know that she has gone an incredible course. My question is, "Could you expound it that, and your experience of how you, because, when I see you, the way you support the Kingship and the lineage is just awe inspiring." I would like to hear from her, because I know for women the social side is so much stronger than men. How does she go through it all?

The King ~ Wow! Isn't that beautiful. Let's give it up for our Queen one more time. She's a real woman.

The Queen ~ When I sit here, he encouraged me much more, so I will keep sitting here. This whole good talk is coming for that reason.

The King ~ We're proud of her. She's really setting a great example for the young girls. Could you imagine, if she's on the sideline saying, "Oh, I can't. You go train those scary martial arts with the King. Oh, I can't. I'm so old."

The Queen ~ I actually want to do that.

The King ~ Could you imagine she'd do that? That would be terrible. That would be horrible.

The Queen ~ It's actually very simple. He's a good husband. He knows his role as head of the house. You know what, brothers and sisters, you guys are very nice and you guys say all kinds of good things to me. I'm very grateful. I really feel that I never earned this position; but, I received it as the Grace of God. I really, really see that it that way, because I'm an unworthy person to be here. That is really true. Many times, whether it's techno-cute, photo shooting, or Jiu Jitsu, or praise/worship song, boxing, and even painting. I was really encouraged, and put it up. All these things he encouraged me to do over time. I never really was over excited over the next thing. The next challenge, I didn't say, "Let's go!" I'm not like that. I'm not like that at all. One thing I know, when he gives me a new challenge, this is the mindset that I have. I lived with him for twenty years, so I know this about him, it's actually not a personal thing, and that he makes me do it, because he wants me to do it, or he wants to pressure me to make him look good, or to oppress me, all those negative things. It's not that negative reason. I know, he trusts me enough that he has a very specific reason; and, he does that, because it's good for the nation, and it's good for me in the end. He won that trust from me; so, that's why I'm willing to try what he has to tell me, although I'm very scared, and afraid, and worry, and I'm reluctant many times; but, in the end, I agree to do it. I choose to do it, because he won my trust.

It's kind of funny, I'm Second Gen, so I don't have a spiritual father. I always testify to everybody. Hyung Jin Nim's my spiritual father, and I really mean it.

The King ~ Look at this beautiful picture she painted. It was actually about repentance, the metanoia thing we talked about on Sunday. She painted this incredible little picture. I think, one of her best works. I mean, in terms of composition and style. She tried new lettering. Absolutely beautiful little picture, and she's still being herself in the gifts God has given her, and is still able to do these wonderful paintings, and give glory to God with those skills and gifts; but, at the same time, she's also stepping up and doing. Which always don't make her comfortable, but the proof is in the putting. She sees herself getting stronger, better, more mentally tough. Every aspect, she can see. Even our daughter can see. She's really tremendous. Girls benefit from getting that kind of training. They become way more mature people; and, so the Queen sees that. She definitely sees that she has grown tremendously in the last year, tremendously. We're of course proud of her, that, she's doing that; and, of course, she has a lot of epigenetics that we can encourage to be unlocked, but that doesn't mean she throws away all the things, or her passions that God has given her.

Art is still a huge part of how she brings value to God's gifts, do you know what I mean? I love her art. I've always been supportive of what she does, and her art. I'll be honest, and critique what she does, but I've always loved the fact that she's painting all the time. I was telling the King's Report, hey, we should have all these beautiful pictures the Queen is painting, and we'll put it behind me as like the background of the King's Report. That's what I was saying, but then they're saying, "Oh, we can't do that. The colors aren't right... blah, blah, blah." We'll see what happens. She's gathered like ten beautiful paintings. It's wonderful how she's evolved. She's now producing all this art that's glorifying the King, but everything is Scripturally based; so, all her art has a Scriptural root that's giving honor and praise to God's Word. All the Art she produces, now, literally is based on Scripture, is based Bible Scriptures, Father's Words, these kinds of things.

It has so much meaning. We talk about symbology, it has so much meaning, and so much depth, instead of seeing some kind of amorphous invaluable collage of paint. It has meaning, it has culture, it has a whole nation behind it, which is the Kingdom of God. We're grateful. I've always been grateful that God gave her those kinds of talents that she can share, and utilize, but I don't want her to stop there; so, like any good coach, or any good personal trainer, who has the skill sets to train her, I make sure she unlocks as many epigenetics, that she becomes badass, in a good way, as she can. In a good way.

The Queen ~ I never knew I could do all those things; so, if I can do it, you guys should be able to it.

The King ~ She's become like Superwoman. Girls come in here from Japan and Korea, and literally look and say, "Oh, you're my new role model." They see what they want to become. She's beautiful. She's has such incredible relationships with her children. She's a faithful wife. She is supportive of her husband. She lifts her husband up. She has a powerful marriage and Blessing. She has skills in dangerous things that they're all afraid to do. They literally come here and are amazed.

The Queen ~ Okay, let's move on. Give all glory to God...

Takeuchi from Japan ~ the reason I came to Sanctuary Church, is because my second son. The second son ask me to watch a video of Hyung Jin Nim just once. My son went to Seong Hwa University, and I studied Father's word there; and, in Father's words, there was a passage that said after six generations I become a completed person. It said, we don't need the Han Mother; but, it also said, we don't need the Kingship. It would be a lot easier on all of us, if the Han Mother and the seventh son were to get together, and have harmony. All we have to do is maintain your faith for six generations; then you become perfect.

The King ~ Well, then you're saying, you don't need the Messiah.

Takeuchi-San ~ Just have faith in Father's words.

The King ~ and Father's words said to establish Cheon Il Guk; and, Father's words also said to establish his Three Kingships.

Japanese brother ~ I would like to speak to those people who understand the Han Mother's mistake, but are sort of floating around and wondering without any place to go, like my son.

The King ~ I think, you have to realize, that, there are central figures in the Providence. That which Providence moves through. It is the common conception of people that they want to believe they are the central figure, when they're not. Do you see what I mean? So, this is the problem of idolatry. You want to believe, you are the center. Then, only you reach perfection, then you don't need God's Kingship; you don't need His Kingdom; You don't need the Messiah; you don't need God.

That is separating yourself from God's Blessing, if you do that, and it is your choice to do that. I don't know if that's what he means, but just to clarify that. What the Han Mother, she's not like any other woman in the Providence. She's not like any other person, because she held a central role in the Providence. Divine Principle speaks of that as well. Central Figures, when they fail their responsibility, they create catastrophic consequences for the world. That's because they're chosen to be in a central position, okay. Now, when you try to hold to Scripture that say, "Oh, you can be perfect, and thus you can be a central figure;" I don't that's what you're saying or not, but anyway, some people can go to that conclusion, but it's a conclusion that is archangelic, because you're leaving the center of the Providence, which will not be you. The center of Providence will be True Father through his Kingship, through time and actual Kingdom. That's the problem with people who don't come from a Christian worldview; because, a lot of Japanese members will suffer with. Asian members who don't come from a Christian background, you will suffer from this. You have to understand the centrality of Christ. Without Christ, you are nothing. You are only dirty rags. You are only a sinner before God, even though you did all the perfect deed and Buddhist prayers, and all the Shinto prayers, and you lived "the most perfectly human life that you've done, being ten times greater than Mother Teresa, you're still total, dirty sinfulness before God; because, you're still filled with selfish thoughts; you're still lying as you try to worship yourself. You're still stealing from God's glory, and robbing Him of his glory, taking things for yourself.

So, you are a greater sinner. This is a problem with the Pharisees. They were like those of many religions, who believed they could earn by their merit their salvation. This is a big difference in all the religions on one side and Christian religion. This is a huge difference. All religions say, if you do good things, you can get good things. If you do good things, you can get good things like salvation. You can get into Heaven, or you can get into Liberation or Moksha; but, it's all based on your actions. It's solely based on you. All religions say that.

Now, if you don't understand why Father established the Kingship, I would say you're under the realm of fallen religion; because, you do not understand the centrality of Christ. You do not have a Christian worldview, which means you don't understand why the Kingship is critical, and why your individual perfection is not going to be found outside God's Providence, and God's intergenerational Kingdom and Kingship, which he himself established. It's the arrogance of man to want to be the center; but, we don't get to choose who the center is. The center is where God chooses to be, just like why I didn't choose to be the center. God made me the center, not because I want it, because I had to do it. I did not choose this. Do you see?

This is the difference between all Pagan religions, where it's merit based. You are working for your salvation. You clean yourself, and Christianity, which tells you the reality. Even Mother Teresa. Without Christ, she is a sinner. You could have done all the good works, build one hundred orphanages, you're still selfish. You're still doing politics. You're still stealing from God's glory, if you're not giving to the one who actually deserves it and gave you glory, who gave your life, who gave you breathe and all that. Your perfection, besides from God, means nothing. The Pharisees thought they were perfect, too. They thought they had the Word of God. They thought they had the word of Moses. What was the problem? They didn't serve Jesus, who was the living Temple, who was the living Christ, the living embodiment of God. They did not surrender to him, you see.

So, Father left you his Word, yes; but, he also left you his body. He left you me. He left you my son Shin Joon, whom he chose. You are not in Father's Authority, just because you read his words. Family Fraud reads his words. You are under Father's Authority in the line of Providence, which Father himself established. I did not establish it. He established it. Do you understand? That's why the Kingship is essential, because it is your way to attend True Father through the generations. Through the Kings of Cheon Il Guk that come directly from the King of Kings.

Your rights coming from the Constitution don't come there, because you perfect yourself over six years and you are some kind of Buddha, because Christ suffered for all humanity, bled and walked the path of 10,000 crosses to give you Grace, and establish his Kingdom and his Kingship, which protects your rights which you received. You have not earned these rights. You have not done good deeds to merit these things. They're given to you by God, not because you're great, but because He is great. You see, this is the difference.

You have to understand the difference between all religions. That Buddhism, Shintoism, and all of you come from different cultures; so, you may have an understanding of religion and faith based on that culture. You have to separate yourself from that culture, because it's not God's culture.

You cannot go to Heaven just because you read Father's words. Do you know the devil reads Father's words? Do you know the Family Fraud has three heretical books that they say is Father's words, and they think their reading Father's words, but they will not be allowed into Father's Kingdom, or his house, do you understand? Just because you read Father's words doesn't mean you get into his house. Big difference. Father did not only leave you his word. He left you his physical Kingship line of which I'm only the Second King, but there will be many beyond me; and, that is each generation's direct physical connection to the King of Kings, the center of all the Kingdom of all the world of all the universe, of all God's intention and purpose of creation, who is Christ.

You see, in Christianity, you are nothing without Christ. I am nothing without Christ. In Buddhism, in Shintoism, in other Pagan religions, you can be anything. You can be greater than a God. You can become a God. You can become perfect; so, I think, many of our Asian brothers coming from a non-Christian background, your ideal of perfection is more Shinto or Buddhist in nature. You have to be aware of that, because that is not biblical.

So, really, your perfect within yourself being cleansed through six generations, okay, it's not of importance. Importance to God's Kingdom, and the lineage and the center of how Providence moves, and moving intergenerationally with your bloodlines.

I didn't understand the nuance of his question; and, I'm sure he didn't. Anyways, there are some people out there taking in a more radical way. That's why I'm kinda answering this way. Not that he believes that or something. Does that make sense?

The Queen ~ If I say just short answers, along with what the King says. They said, they are going to study Father's words, and each couple studies Father's words, and whatever splitter group, they study Father's words, and they say whatever, whatever, whatever; but, when they truly believe True Father as the Messiah, and his words are so precious, what is most precious to him? His appointment of his representative body on Earth. That's also his words, and that's almost like his last word. If you truly think Father is the Messiah, and you want to uphold his word, then that is the most important thing to True Father; so, if I want to say that I follow Fathers words for six generations, then I will be perfect, then they're contradicting themselves in the end.

Hyung Jin Nim, the Second King, always says, I never chose this position, but, it was given, then you really understand this position that we're in is not because of our merit, but, just the purely Grace of God. That's our position; so, we are not boasting that we are thinking, "Oh, yeah! Father chose us. Too, bad, he didn't choose you, or whatever." We are not like that. We truly want to uphold Father's Word on this Earth, together, with you. That's why we are where we are.

The King ~ There is our 5% responsibility, right? I mean, when Father gives me responsibility, I have to do my five percent. I have to do my four percent. I have to come into agreement with that; otherwise, I'll fail, and Father has to move on. It's the same thing. The Queen has to do her responsibility, when the Third King takes his place. Same thing. So, there is a portion of responsibility and free will; but, again, if I understood your question correctly, the Kwak group says, "You don't need the Three Kingships.: The Han Mother says, "You don't need the Three Kingships; and you just need the Word of True Father; yet, they're in the business of constantly redacting and choosing the words that they like. So, it's the same, whether the Kwak group or Han group. You will not be welcomed in Father's house. You're the same, if someone was saying that. It's like saying for the Jewish people, "No, we don't need Jesus." You just have the word of Moses. You are doing the same thing. No, every Christian knows, you absolutely need Jesus. It's not possible to go to God without Jesus. You need Jesus, and when Jesus established his Kingdom, and when Jesus established his Kingship, that is the Kingship which he established, physical on this Earth. To be with his Word. His Word doesn't make us separate from his Kingship. You can't separate. It's not your choice. Father didn't make it that way neither. You can't choose it. If you do so, you're choosing to be a heretic. That's your choice.

Dr. Panzer ~ I have to say, this is a thousand percent clear; but, you got to have a PhD, not to understand the simple truth.

The King ~ Again, I'm not saying this to brag. I'm saying it to state the truth. Again, I always have to remind people, because, I did not choose this position. I did not choose Father's actions. I did not choose him to establish a Kingship and/or choosing me to be the second heir, or my son to be the third heir. It's absolutely critical to salvation. Without the Christ, you can't have the purpose of salvation fulfilled. You can't have it fulfilled. It's impossible. You can't do it by purifying yourself. You can never purify yourself in front of a totally perfect pure God. You can never get to His level. Never!

Pierre Tardy from France ~ I have a question concerning the Three Kingships. When do we consider the Three Kingships completed? After the Third King a gift, or after he passes away, is the fourth King something unclear?

The King ~ I think, we talked about this because of the failure of the Han Mother. The mission of True Parents has to be completed, now, in three generations. The promise of the True Parents will come in the third generation. Just like the promise of the nation of Israel was given to Abraham, but it had to wait through Isaac, and then to Jacob before the actual nation to be given. Do you see what I'm saying? The promise was given before. Father fulfilled as Adam his perfect responsibility. It was the Han Mother who was to offer the dove and cut in half, which was herself, but she didn't do it; so, that Providence extended to the Isaac, and then the Jacob generation. We're in the Isaac generation, so that is, everything else was taken, because the dove was not cut. The raven swooped down and stole the offering. In the same way, because the Han Mother did not cut herself away from Satan, and completely bow down to Father's lineage and Kingship, she then was taken by Satan; and, so Father's Inheritance was also taken by Satan.

So, the Isaac generation is the generation to get on the alter to be ready to be sacrificed to reclaim that, which was lost; and, the inheritance will be with the Third King, when that's all brought back. When his reign begins, and the Queen what she has done symbolically in the prayer on this Sanctuary; but, what she's preparing for now through all her training is preparing, manifestly, in history. When she does that, then the mission of the final piece of the mission, which is the True Mother position will be fulfilled. Will actually have a True Mother, a True Queen, who has stepped away from her narcissism and her own desire to want to control with her own power, and to throw that away to honor what the King of Kings desires, even when his presence is not here, right. Yeah, so that was the real test, when Father was not here, then Mother had to act on her own faith and her own ability. In that test, she failed; but, I am confident that when the Third King takes his place on his Throne, that our Queen, who will become the True Mother for all humankind. She will be the True Queen.

Pierre ~ I have a second question. Hyo Jin Nim and Heung Jin Nim are in the Spiritual World; and, they ascended as the filial sons of the True Parents, of the True Father. I would like to know, how can we relate to them, or did you have experience with them?

The King ~ Heung Jin Nim is actually twenty years older than me. No, he is almost eighteen years older than me, but they were a different generation, but I remember a lot when I was very young, when Heung Jin Hyung was still around, he used to take care of me a lot. I have a lot of pictures. He took photography, so I have a lot of pictures, because he thought I was so cute when I was a baby, and so, I have a ton of pictures of when I was a baby which Heung Jin Hyung caught; and, I remember he drove a jeep that he drove around; but, I can't remember too much about him. Now, Kook Jin Hyung knows a lot more, because he got dice thrown at him by Heung Jin Hyung. He got beat up by Heung Jin Hyung. This is also the flipside of the reality of a person, you know. You kinda want to deify him, but he was a young boy. He was a young boy, too. They play and beat up his younger brothers. That's what Heung Jin Hyung did. Hyo Jin Hyung, too. I never really knew Hyo Jin Hyung so well. I just knew, even though he had a lot of issues, he had loyalty to Father. That was definitely. Everybody knew that.

But again, we should not and cannot be in the business of deifying. This was a similar question a couple of months ago. Someone was asking about Mother's mother, or Father's mother, or Father's father, all those things; but, really, we have to be careful of not deifying those people, and understand that Christ is center. He is the Head; and, True Father holds the unique position of our worship. It's very important for us to understand that.

Heung Jin Hyung and Hyo Jin Hyung, I know, were of course very faithful sons to the Father, even though they had personal issues. Their love for Father was true. They didn't want to do evil against Father. But again, I would caution people, don't deify them. They're not supposed to be worshiped as minigods. There shouldn't be a pantheon. There's a living representative of True Father on Earth, and there's a King of Kings.

Gregg Noll from PA ~ I just want to report that I heard about the fourth Adam. Your reading this morning talked about the fourth Adam, and I was just wondering if you could elaborate on the Fourth Adam concept from your understanding?

The King ~ I think Father talked about the Fourth Adam for a period of time. Of course, this was heavily popularized by the Kwak group, who was trying to say that Preston was the Fourth Adam, etc. etc. Because, they deny Father's Kingship and who he Crowned, which is a historical fact, three times on two continents, which you really can't deny. Again, I did not choose to be Crowned. I was Crowned by Father, by his decision.

So, it was heavily popularized, so I think the Fourth Adam theology, where they were claiming that he's really higher than the Messiah, because even when Father was on Earth, they were using that as excuse to say that Father's orders should not be listened to, because he was ordering them to give back the foundation that they stole. They were using that. This Fourth Adam theology they were trying to create saying, "No, No! Even though Father, you're alive and you are telling us to give it all back, we're not going to do it for your sake, right. You remember this.

So, the way that it was popularized, and the way they propagandized it was, of course, a bogus use of Father's intention of what he was talking about of the Fourth Adam. If Father talked about the Fourth Adam, generally, like in terms of the next generation of people after Father, who have to inherit the culture of Adam, the Third Adam being the perfected Adam and the returning Christ, who inherited that culture, so that each person in the next generation, and who stands as the Blessed family as a husband, basically has to be the Fourth Adam position. In a sense, they're inheriting the victory of the Third Adam, and really making a new start in their Tribal Messiahship, or in their line, etc.

Again, they don't replace. It's like these people who want to worship themselves in the Family Fraud, and they say, "Oh, Father made me a Tribal Messiah. That means, I'm the Messiah, and I don't need him. It this kind of lunacy. Again, from a new age, Pagan culture interpretation, they're not understanding Christ's uniqueness, and are utter, utter, utter improvised and separated state from God without him. So, Father didn't make Tribal Messiahship that you are replacing Father, and now you don't need him, and now you're a Messiah, is that, you become his mouthpiece. You become his ambassador in your tribal line to what? Teach about the Messiah. To lead people to the Messiah, as a Tribal Messiah, to lead people to the Messiah, who is the Central Messiah, the central one who makes a difference to the way of truth and life.

It's absolutely, and you'll see pagans to try and do this all the time. People who from this kind of backgrounds are trying to interpret Father's words outside the Christian context, which you can't do, because the DP is within the Christian context. So even from a historical religious study perspective, it's so sloppy, it so sloppy, sloppy theology; but, they are trying to get away with it, because they're trying to either justify their actions against Father, or have their own things. But it's very sloppy, sloppy theology. Even from a religious study perspective, very sloppy. It's more political justification than it is actual theological integrity.

So, you cannot separate the Christian worldview ethics and Bible and the Divine Principle, which is the core of our teaching, including the OSDP. You'll see how the people want to conveniently omit Christian culture and ethics, and the Bible, and biblical revelation and the Word, the Word of God; and, those things like Tribal Messiahship, because it's convenient for them to do self-worship, which they want to do. Believing themselves as God. They want to believe in themselves. Well, Father gave them permission to be God, so I'm going to... You know, this kind of thing; and, totally, obviously betray Father by doing such a thing. Of course, those people would not be allowed to come into Father's house. You understand, when you're in Heaven, you try to come near Father, you're going to have some very strong dangerous men right there with Father that will be able to condemn you, namely Kook Jin Nim and the Second King. So, Father's not an idiot; and, he knows who centers their life on him, and who centers on a twisted self-serving adaptation of his teaching, separated from Christian context and biblical Scripture, so as to make themselves in an image, or to make God in their own image. You'll see this in the Han Mother. You'll see this in the Kwak group. You'll see this in all the heretical groups, who are of course were never Crowned, who of course were never anointed as Father's Successor, Heir and Representative Body, TaeShinJa. There's a reason why they were not Crowned. Because they were illegitimate people.

Gregg ~ If I could have a follow up question. This is from Kerry Williams. Father said in the read this morning, God is the first Creator, Adam is the second Creator, Adam and Eve are the third Creator. What does it mean that Adam is the second creator? How is that different from Adam and Eve as the third creator?

The King ~ Well, God is the first creator; then, from Him comes the seed; then comes Adam, and Adam as the second creator, he holds the seed, and so when he unites with Eve, then seed is implanted within Eve; then, they become creator of the next generation, together, but Adam has the creative aspect of the seed that was given from God. Yeah, so he would become the second creator in the sense that through the seed that is given to him by God becomes the creative element in Eve's womb, which then, together, with Adam's creative element from the Creator, creates the next generation, but it's all tied around the seed. All those kinds of things are tied around seed. Obviously, the whole language of creation is tied around birth, and tied around the seed.

The King explained the following: a Korean Sister asked that September 23rd, some major thing is happening. After that, I heard that the Second King said, that the salvation for Family Fed members will no longer be possible. I'm telling her, I don't know where she heard that, because I didn't say that. Okay. Then, on September 23rd the signs in the Heavens happen. That's the sign in the Heavens from Revelation 12, where there's the woman clothed in the sun, the moon at her feet, wearing a garland of twelve stars giving birth. That is one of the signs of the middle of Tribulation in the Book of Revelation, okay. We talked about that; and, in the middle of Tribulation, we can expect things; and, she's saying in response to her question about, there's no more Family Fed that can be saved after September 23rd, I answered. No, I never said that.

There is room for people to repent, but they come back as fallen people; so, they have to go through the criteria to be re-established as God's lineage. But, it's one thing if a Family Fed member comes back and repents as a sinner and fallen person, who then has to go through the three-day-ceremony. Blessing in marriage, a forty-day separation period, indemnity stick, all the things that Father set to restore lineage, it's one thing about them. Now, it's another thing if the public officials of the Family Fed come back. They, of course, have to go through the change of blood lineage as they do, but again, depending on their level of crime, they will also be held accountable in terms of Cheon Il Guk law and juris prudence, because they have participated in treason and sedition against Cheon Il Guk. So, that's very different, if you are a Public Official helping Han Mother as a Public Official, through propaganda, and take money to control the population, and steer them away from God's Kingdom, you helped a coup d'état. You help treason, and you aided and abetted sedition; so, now you are punishable by law, and when Cheon Il Guk is a real nation, those people will be punished by the law. Of course, they will have a court date, and they're will be evidence brought and all those kinds of things. Yeah! That will be solved at that point.

The normal member was not part of that bureaucracy, or that predatory elite class of paid government officials, even though they went along with it. They're more like the dumb, you know, NAZIs, that went along with Hitler's doing his thing. They're just dumb. So, because of their dumbness, they fell with the Han Mother, left God's lineage, entered into Satan's lineage, entering into the Han Mother's heresy and lineage; so, when they come back, they have to come back, not with a posture of entitlement. They have to come back with a posture of repentance, and going through their condition set by Father to restore their lineage. But again, that's the normal member. They can be invited back into the Blessings of Cheon Il Guk, because they were more like into the herd mentality, and they were kind of funneled to follow by the leadership, which was socially and strategically engineering them. So, there sin is less, but still, nonetheless, they have free will, so they did choose to do that, so they kind of have to be accountable for that, but they weren't in the position of a government official committing treason and sedition. Do you see what I am saying? There's a difference in aiding and abetting a coup d'état. They weren't necessarily involved in that. The normal Family Fraud member.

So, we know from Scripture, that Middle of Tribulation period signifies the greater persecution towards the believers of Christ and real Christians. So, we can see that now starting to happen, and we started talking about that this week on the King's Report. They're making a new video game – What's it called, "Far Cry Five" is coming out, and the main enemy of the terrorists in that video game are American Bible believing Christian gunowners from Montana.

So, you can see the political Satanist starting their propaganda stream to demonize Christians, Bible believing, and Second Amendment, gun-owning Bible believing Christians, and in this case, they're White, but it's generally for all Christians; but, we know, and we warned you for over a year, it's going to get worse, and you can expect worse by persecution. That's now starting to become the main stream leftist trying to push that main stream. We know they're political Satanists, and they're trying to push that main stream, so we know it's only going to get worse. You see, the whole attack on Christianity, the whole attack on God, the whole attack on Christian ethics, the culture, the relativizing of the Christian culture. They're saying Islam is the same., which creates a better civilization. This kind of thing will only increase, and become more main stream. Meanwhile, you have the evil demons live Soros, and these idiots trying to fund literal Civil Wars in the United States, and riots, starting July 2nd and beyond.

So, we see there's an escalation. We see they're calling for violence. We see they're calling for Civil War. The Left has decided to push the button on Civil War. Why? Because, God side and Trump are going after the pedophile networks. Over 3,000 pedophiles arrested in four months by President Trump and his law enforcement agents. Over three thousand in 4 months.

So, Trump is not a pedophile. He's not part of that Satanic network, where they are raping children, killing children, there eating children, and having necrophilia. He's nor part of the satanic cult, but all those three thousand people that he's arresting with law enforcement all across the country, they're starting to realize, "Oh, Wow! All these roads go to one area. Where's that? Washington, DC. Where's the main roads go? Democrat Party, and of course, the RINO Republicans, especially the ones that ally with Bush, who Father told, "You are King of Satan's World, and you better listen to Rev. Moon, or you will perish."

Okay, so, that's the real reason why they're putting the button to say, "Kill him, kill him, kill him now!" or "Make Civil War now, because if you don't start Civil War now, we're all going down the pedophile networks." All that stuff is being taken down by Trump. In the spirit of Christianity, in the spirit of protection of the children of poor and the widows are coming; and, the demons feel that, and they know that's coming. That's why they're trying to start the war with Trump.

So, we know that the persecution against Christians will become worse. They just had a Manchester terror bomb, right, one day after Trump is in Saudi Arabia saying, "You better help with Islamic terrorism, otherwise, you're the enemy." One day later, they blow up Manchester. Yeah, they killed innocent children, mostly. The Lefties, but innocent children, okay.

So, it's not stabilizing as people wanted to, or hoped that it can, but it's not stabilizing. It's only getting worse. We told you about this for over a year, now. It's only going to get worse, before it gets better, and that's where the cleansing. It's God not taking back the Kingdoms of the world by force, because Satan didn't surrender. The Han Mother didn't surrender her satanic bloodline, and surrender to God, and his Kingdom; so, she stole what was left of God's Kingdom, but she didn't steal the core of it, which is the King and the Kingship. She can't steal it, because it's not hers, and this is the whole process of God not claiming the Kingdoms of this world through taking back what Satan has taken from the Kingdom of God. The Bible says, "The Kingdom of God has suffered violence, and the violence taken by force." (Matthew 11:12) "The measure you give is the measure you receive." In the last days. (Matthew 7:2, Mark 4. 24, Luke 6:38) So, all those demons who have been taking it by force, will get it flipped on them in the end, and they get their Kingdoms taken by force; but, it only gets worse, before it gets better, but it's a necessary step for the establishment of God's Kingdom.

Okay, is that good? Thank you!
