

2017.12.03 ~ Kingdom of Resurrection ~ Rev. Hyung Jin Moon ~ Newfoundland, PA

(Today's report started off with a reporter talking to the people of North Korea; so, there will be comments related to the video clip.)

And there you go. The New York Times trying to pretend like it had nothing to do with covering up for Hillary. Meanwhile she was arming them, giving them nukes. The Clinton were giving nukes to North Korea. To be fair, they say Trump didn't start this. That's the one thing they said; but, of course, they didn't mention the fact that Trump didn't start this. Oh, they said we didn't get involved in Iraq and all, when we got involved in Afghanistan, in Egypt, in Libya. The New York Times was the main propaganda machine saying that the Libyan ambassador, who died during the Benghazi attack, they were the ones covering up for that. Totally covering it up.

So, again, you can see the pressure of the fake news, and Trump calling them out, you know, being disinformation agents, being operatives, basically, for the CIA and the Deep State. Now, they're trying to speak a little more obstinately more rationally. Some of the things depicted here, wherever they're going in North Korea, these are places are only sanctioned by the government. They're only allowed to go to these places; and, of course, if anybody said anything wrong that gets out and becomes a shame for their nation, they're dead. They are going to die, which is of course the reason why you see all those people thinking, "Oh, what if I say this wrong?" "Oh, don't worry. Just speak frankly, you know." The people who are speaking are like, "What if I say something wrong, it's going to get me killed." That's what they mean.

So, they're just terrified. It's very interesting. Let's go to Revelation 20; but, before we do that, I just want to make one point about the nice video by Stefan Molyneux. He's one of the top philosophers on Youtube. Even though he's an atheist, he's praises Christian ethics, because he sees Christian ethics as safeguarding the West, or being the foundational principles of the West. Even Dr. Jordan Peterson out there in Toronto, a Professor of Psychology there. Anyways, they praise Christian culture, even though it's kind of whacky. They say that they're not Christian; but, then they go on praising on how Christian culture is so important, because they see how critical it is to Christian culture to even allow atheists to exist, right, where other ideologies do not; and, he was making the point, when you look at Marx, and the ideologies in the early nineteenth hundreds, okay, that we're talking about Communism and Socialism, Marx believed that it would go from Feudalism to Capitalism, that Capitalism would naturally collapse, and as Capitalism collapses that naturally Communism would arise.

So, they actually believed the Capitalism was a necessary step towards their ultimate Utopia of Communism, okay, because at some point, the people in the capitalistic society, the people would get too angry, the proletariat would rise up, because they were sick and tired of being exploited by the bourgeoisie, right; but, of course, what actually happens to Capitalism in the nineteenth and twentieth Century, when you had Capitalism that any nation adopted, it didn't go away. It actually created tremendous prosperity. It created tremendous prosperity, and it didn't die off into Communism, naturally.

So, what did they do, because its not dying off naturally? Many of those ideologues entered into academia, entered into different places of learning; and, they started pushing for basically the legal overthrow of Capitalism by making new laws, by creating basically a Communist system, robbing the working people to pay for their cronies, pay for their mafia, pay for their secularization of power, pay for their legitimacy. It's so greedy. Capitalism is so selfish. It's so greedy. It's so corporate, all this kind of thing, and it's just naturally going to fail; however, in the real world, it does not fail, unless you have all this intervention coming in, and this central planning coming in, and these politicians trying to take control. That's why Father warned against Democracy, because Democracy cannot last. The freedom that we've experienced in Democracies cannot last forever. It cannot, because at some point, it's so easy to get young, dumb kids to believe that their victims, and that their life is so hard, and their disparages in life is because of that person over there, and that you have to have to help steal and vote for this politician to help steal from that person, so you can get what they have, do you see what I'm saying? It's very easy to brainwash a generation to do that; and, you have this structure in Democracy, where you can get that done. You just elect those politicians, who what to basically prey off of victimization, and use that as a political tool to get the power, and then centralize the power, become a mafia, and basically farm the population, okay; but, you can do that in a Democracy. This is the danger of a Democracy, because these people can get elected, and they control the media, the education, etc. to brainwash the population to vote for that kinds of stuff, which then eventually leads to the death of that Democracy. That, of course, is what we saw with Europe, and of course, now, with America. This is what they're trying to do.

So, it's very interesting, now you see the radical left is railing against Capitalism; but, they are legally trying to bring about the overthrow of free nations, and you can see this of course with Mueller, who is an unelected bureaucrat, a Hillary Clinton crony, who literally is trying to destroy America. Single handedly, he is trying to destroy America, creating these little special councils that can go after anybody, or after anything, and they could say this or that person did perjury, or this or that person is lying. I saw a lawyer for breaking this down with Flynn saying he testified, you know, that he was guilty of not telling the truth; and, the lawyer was saying, Look, this happens all the time. You go one day, and they ask you these questions. You go another day, and they ask you more questions, and they will try and nitpick any little small thing and say, "Look, he's lying before the court. He's lying. Look, look, look;" so, the lawyer was saying, if you you're in that case with Flynn, or anything, you go in and you say, "I will not say a word, unless you plead the fifth, unless I'm there with my lawyer."

Okay, so, this is a nothing burger. It's a huge nothing burger. Anybody on the inside is already speaking about that, about the left trying to take down Trump with this nothing burger, with this Russian collusion thing, which is not going anywhere. Of course, now, they're trying to get Flynn. They're isolating him away from President Trump, even though President Trump can reach out to him, and try and communicate with him directly. They're trying to isolate Trump. They're trying to isolate Flynn. They're using this, of course, as trope to say, He was colluding with the Russians; and, the Russians were involved in the overtake of America, etc. and getting Trump in; and so he has to be impeached; but, it's not going to be that easy, because it has to go to the House, then it has to go to the Senate, and there's going to be a lot of lot of politics, okay; but, that is what they are trying to do. That's what they're trying to do; and, you can see it. These are unelected Deep State officials, who nobody voted for, who are actually trying to flip over this entire country, and get what they want, which is to farm the people of the United States, to break our back, to mount our head to the wall, to break our will, and just to dominate us, totally dominate us, because America is the last standing sovereign large power. It's the last one. It's the last one, where the normal man can literally have the rights of Kings. Of course, that's faded quite a bit in America, okay.

So, we're dealing with tons of stuff, tons of stuff. That's the context where we live in now. So, we see that context, I know we talk a lot about politics here; but, it's important to know, because I know it makes people feel bad, and I know it make people feel, it's so depressing. Well, hello. It's like Satan's Kingdom still. It's still Satan's world. Anyways, these things are uncomfortable to look at; but, we got to understand what is going on in our environment, around us. These are the Kingdoms that do enact Satan's Kingdoms upon the Earth; and, these are the Kingdoms that do enact and envision His system, His Kingdom over the peoples of this world; and, a lot of people in the body of Christ are not aware of this, and their speaking only as spiritual things.

I was on Pastor Dave Show. He invited me on his show this time. A very nice guy. We had some theological debates there, all kinds of stuff. You guys can check that out on his channel. I think I shared a link on my Facebook. You guys can check that out; but, I was on his channel. We were getting into this, not all these political issues; but, this issue with the Messiah. How you guys believe this or that about Rev. Moon. What is this? What is that? We got into a nice, friendly debate; and, of course, it's interesting, because more and more the body of Christ has no direction. They're saying the same kinds of things. God Bless him. He's a wonderful Pastor; but, there's a lot of Pastors who believe in the pre-Trib. The pre-Trib is the idea that in the tribulation the Christians are going to be raptured away; and, they're going to avoid the tribulation. There's going to be a martyred church, basically, a small remnant that gets beheaded, and suffers, etc; but, they believe the majority of the church will be raptured up, miss the tribulation period, and then come back down to rule. That's called a pre-Trib.

And, Pastor Dave said he believed in that, and he could trace that back. Look, I haven't looked at the videos, where he's backing that up with evidence; but, I was just mentioning the fact, look, this was a theology that was being pushed in the early 1900s backed by the Rockefeller group. They were backed by international bankers, who were pushing this in the Seminaries, and funding Seminaries, who would teach this doctrine, because they didn't want Christians to be politically active, and stand up against the Communist takeover. The left pushing in with abortion, and/or breaking up the family, and/or raising the divorce rate, all these kinds of things. They didn't want any opposition to that. They know the main party of opposition were, in America at least, would be the evangelical Christian. The evangelical base will go against them; and, of course, the blackmailing technique of using the pedophile ring, and infiltrating these different organizations, they've been of course, been able to take over the Catholic Church, and "other Christian Organizations" that are now saying gay marriage is great, and God allows gay marriage, and abortion is fantastic. I believe the Episcopalian Church does that, I think. The Anglican Church does that as well, is that right? The Episcopalian is the US branch of the Anglican, right; and, then of course the Catholic Church, which is not saying that up front, but they're running one of the biggest pedophile rings in the world. That Cardinal Pell is the number two-man to the Pope. He is the Deputy Pope of the entire Vatican Church hierarchy; and, the guys on trial in Australia now for trafficking over one hundred little boys over the last forty years; so, you're talking about a massive pedophile organization in the Roman Catholic Church.

We had Dr. Williams on the show, maybe a couple of months ago; and, he did a study where like eighty percent of the Priests going to Seminary are gay. They identify as homosexual. It's unbelievable, as "Christian bodies" have been taken over; and, of course, the body of Christ, the real remaining Abel type realm is evangelical Christians; but, of course, within the evangelical Christian camp, there's also those who lean more toward ideologies that are pushed by big bankers, by international conglomerates, etc. that want Christians to be politically inactive, right. They're pushed by the Johnson Act in the 60s, to make it illegal for Pastors to speak about politics. I mean, what I'm doing every Sunday, they can actually come after me, just the fact that I'm speaking about out on politics all the time, you know what I mean?

So, this is the fear tactic. This is the intimidation. This is the bullying to make Christians disengage with the world, right. To believe, "Oh, no. Don't worry about all this stuff. It's all in God's hands. It's all good, and before the tribulation comes, we're all gonna go. We're going to be raptured." It's not difficult. It doesn't say that in the book of Revelation. It doesn't say that you're going to be raptured up; then, you going to evade the persecution. It says, you are going to be persecuted; and, in the End Time, the coming up into Heaven and meeting Christ comes after the tribulation period. It doesn't come before. There's a whole documentary, which I mentioned on Dave's show. God Bless him. He's a nice guy; but, obviously, we disagree on many theological points; and, it outlines why the pre-Trib rapture theology is so destructive to Christianity, and how it basically castrates Christianity from standing up against tyrannical ideologies, like Communism, Socialism, etc. which they pushed down our throats. It was pushed in public schools. It was pushed by Marxist Professors in the universities, etc; and, that very interesting, because the majority of mainline Evangelical preachers are top ones.

These huge evangelical preachers are supposed to be very hardened Christians. They're also teach pre-Trib rapture to their humongous congregations; and, it's so unbelievably irresponsible, because it does make people politically inactive. It shuts you off. "Don't worry, don't worry. Everything's going to be fine. Don't worry, don't worry. We're all going to be raptured away. Remember, don't worry. It's not a big deal. So, what, Hillary Clinton takes over. So, what, they're putting transgender bathrooms in your schools. So, what, they're trying to get male UK Guides. You know, Girl Scouts are called Girl Guides in the UK. Now, men, who identify as women, can be a Girl Guide, and the Girl Guide leader can shower with the five years old girls. Yep! That's the UK for ya. That's the UK for ya. Alright, this is the whole depraved, wicked gender dysphoric, mentally ill society they want to put upon the populations of world. Use the UN as an international organs, with the backing of the Rockefellers, the Bilderberg Group, the Rothschild banking cartel, etc. to make people completely mentally ill, because it's so much easier to keep you in the asylum.

If you are mentally ill, and your biggest concern is whether or not you're being discriminate, because you can't use a rest room you want to have pee-pee with, you pose absolutely zero threat to the establishment. You pose absolutely zero threat to the establishment, and you a hundred percent political tool to make other people confused, and divert attention away from the actual Communist, and the political Satanist, who are taking control, and surveilling you illegally, and you know, recording all your phone conversations and/or your laptop, it's ridiculous, but that's what we're living in.

So, it's an incredible, incredible state of affairs; so, we have to understand the context of what we live in, before we talk about theology. We talk about sometimes, people just want to come to Sunday Service, and kind of like zone out. Oh, let's just talk about love, okay; and, Jesus Word about love, and I want to hear some stuff about theology. I get like all this positive affirmation, when I talk a lot about theology. "Oh, that was such a great sermon. So great.;" but, I talk about politics, and it's like "Oh, yes." I know it's a little depressing; but, that's why God needs soldier of God. We ought to be able to see evil and stare it in the face, and down the throat, and be ready to the Iron Rod right down it. I mean, that's like reality, because the enemy won't wait, and the parasites won't wait, and the diseased syllabus, and the metaphorical AIDS virus of the Rothschilds won't wait. They are activity trying to destroy and disfigure, and overtake humanity, okay.

So, of course, I know we like to hear about theological things, and psychological things, and gives us a little mental break from the actual pressure of the world, which is real; but, that's also why the people are suffering so much. We're not praying as well, neither. It's not enough just to pray. It's not just to pray. The Church is not a matter of just doing prayer pow-wows, and prayer circles. Of course, it's absolutely critical. We have to pray. We have to be engaged in our relationship with God. We have to be engaged on the War Room, at that level; but, at the same time God doesn't come back to metaphysically take over the world; and, we're calling on all Christians who are Abel to understand their relationship with God; but, have private property, and have the means to defend that property, because that is a representation of a piece of the Kingdom God has given His people, as a body of Christ; and, just as the Bilderberg Group, or totalitarians are always seeking to control literal land and property, because God promises the Earth to His children. That's why Christian theology is different, see.

That's why private property is hated. They hate Christian theology, because the root of private property comes from God inheriting the Earth to Adam and Eve. To His children. It also comes in the whole Providence of Restoration, when the Israelites traveling through the deserted wilderness. He's saying, I've prepared a land for you. Take it. It's yours. They hate that. They want you to be in a religion, where you don't believe in any of private property, or land ownership. You should not believe in that. That's for crazy, crazy people. You should believe in only a metaphysical religion. You should believe in only emotionalized, psychologicalized religion, but don't think about private property. Don't be a land owner. Don't have that kind of stuff. All things should be owned in common by the government, which means the super elite, okay. That's why they hate Christianity, because the fundamental nature of Christianity is that, there is God, who is benevolent and good, and He has children, and He has archangels. The archangel is supposed to be the servant, not the master; and, the children are to inherit the entire Earth. The entire Earth, not because we are greedy or something. It's because we're the rightful owners. That's a huge difference. That's a huge difference. When I say, I am the successor to True Father, King of Kings and Lord of Lords, what I'm saying all this foundation is my private property. It's not because I'm saying this with arrogance. It's just because it's the truth. He Inherited it to me, even though they stole it, okay.

So, it's the same kind of thing. When God Inherits to be fruitful, multiply and have dominion over the Earth, to subdue the Earth and to own it, this is a Blessing given to Adam and Eve. To the people who will eventually create the Kingdom, the Kingdom of God; and, of course, you look at any of these totalitarian dictatorship ideologies, they hate it. They hate that part about Christianity, because real Christianity should compel you to work to become an owner of land. It should.

We had some scholars here asking about us. You know, we researched other new Christianity movements that are like Waco, TX, the Branch Davidian. They were of course killed by the FBI, and killed by the Federal government, etc. Massacred. We don't buy any of their theology; but, what are they saying, "Aren't you afraid that the FBI may be watching you? All these pictures of guns and all." We're totally different than Branch Davidians and Seventh Day Adventists. We don't own anything communally. This is all private property. Everybody has their own private property. We encourage everybody to have private property. We don't own things communally. We're not in this big Communist compound trying to create some militia. We are private citizens that own land and arms, and defend our collective beliefs, and our collective Kingdom. That's a completely different thing.

And, so, the Movement of Christianity, and of course towards this whole political inactivity, to Nazi politics is irrelevant. We're not fighting against flesh and blood; but, you know, rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places, yes, yes; but, the Bible says, we must stand against righteousness, and in the end, we will actually confront and fight the armies of Satan.

So, the inactivity doctrine, basically, that is being taught by pre-Trib Christianity. I'm not saying that Pastor Dave is doing that. We are aware of the whole international mafia, banking cartel crime syndicate; but, generally the pre-Trib doctrine does make Christians inactive. It makes them feel uncomfortable, when Pastors are talking about politics, because they're trained to believe that Christians should not hear about politics, and we shouldn't discuss this stuff. It's somehow weird and non-Christian, and it's somehow whacky. We should not do it; and we should just focus on just statements of Jesus' love for each other.

So, literally they use the Pastors to keep Christians in a daze; so, they can never become owners. They become true owners that can have dominion over the world. So, it is very important that we deal with those things. I know it stresses people out sometimes; but hey. The Word of God is like a two-edged sword. It sometimes hits you where you don't want to be hit. It cuts down to the bone marrow, and it sometimes hits you where you don't want to be hit, because it's real. It's not just to make you feel good all the time. It teaches you about reality. It teaches about our fundamental place in the Universe. We're not just floating around on a piece of rock, in an asteroid cloud in outer space. We have a fundamental purpose why we are here. Of course, it's the end of time at the last days. This is it. This is the final battle. This is a big, big deal.

Okay, so today, we're in Revelation 20 that we were going to unpack here. We're going to discuss a little of those things. I'm not going to go through the whole thing first. As I hit certain things, I'm going to stop; so, let's do it that way today. Alright let's go to Revelation 20, Here we go. Verse 1 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit, and a great chain in his hand. 2 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years. Let's stop right there.

So, it's interesting. So, with Dr. Jordan Peterson, he's trying to bring a psychological answer. He of course, praises the value of Christian Ethics, Theology, Morality upon Western civilization, even though he's not a Christian, so to speak. He's a Psychologist, he's Professor. He values Christian civilization, tremendously. He says it. It is the bedrock of Western civilization, and the freedom which we encounter. Of course, he sees it as a type of Mythology, he attributes most of the success of the Western world to fundamental tenants in Christianity in Christian doctrine. Christian doctrine, and of course, physical Cosmology under our theology.

So, here. I found it interesting. He analyzes the Fall like this: You have the Garden. He's doing this more psychologically. He's psychologizing the story of Genesis. This is very common in other traditions that are meditative like Buddhism. He says he psychologizes a lot of Buddhist Mythology, especially in the West, okay. So, there's a whole trend in Buddhism, or religion without belief, and you can use religion without beliefs. Big metaphors. You can psychologize and psychoanalyze ourselves with; but, they really don't have the inherent purpose beyond that. They're more psychological tools, okay; and, so he's maybe a little beyond that framework, but that's where he's coming from, just to make clear, even though Science points to an actual Genesis, and a beginning time and space, and the beginning of the Universe, etc, and of course, no jumps in fossil records.

Okay, those are topics we talk about all the time, but look at this? It's so, it's an incredible, incredible state of affairs; so, we have to understand the context of what we live in, before we talk about Theology. We talk about sometimes, people just want to come to Sunday Service, and kind of like zone out. Oh, let's just talk about love, okay; and, Jesus Word about love, and I want to hear some stuff about Theology. I get like all this positive affirmation, when I talk a lot about Theology. So, of course, I know we like to hear about theological things, and psychological things, and gives us a little mental break from the actual pressure of the world, which is real; but, that's also why the people are suffering so much. We're not praying as well, neither. It's not enough just to pray. It's not just to pray. The Church is not a matter of just doing prayer pow-wows, and prayer circles. This is the final battle. This is a big, big deal.

So, we have the bottomless pit. In Verse 2, he laid hold the dragon. Psychologizing of the Garden of Eden. He also compares this to story of Buddha as well, because he doesn't het at the level, where he believes in God, or Jesus as God. Who knows. He may become like Anthony Flew at the end, where he said, I can't deny it. He's showing the Aristotelian God as true. Anthony Flew was on of the top Atheist in all of the twentieth century.

Alright, so, he's saying that in the Garden you have... What is a Garden? He's saying, it's half civilization, half culture, and half wild. So, you have a Garden, which is civilized, so you don't have predators lurking around there like big ones; but, you also elements of the wild in there. You have a lot trees, you have nature in Gardens. Many times, they're trimmed and proper, whatever, but you have the balance of civilization, and you have the balance of nature of the wild, or the unknown, okay.

So, he sees the Fall of Man, essentially, as a snake comes in, and because he believes in evolution. Its very sad. He beliefs in the Mythology of evolution that we're basically advanced primates; and, he's saying, as we developed our ability to have visual color, definition, you know, we were living in the trees is what he says. We're apes; so, we're living in the trees. So, the Garden has all these trees. We have all this fruit, right. We developed color vision. He wanted to pluck the fruit and things like that. And God says in this whole civilization, in this Garden, which is half civilization, half wild, He says, alright, there's this one tree in there, which you can't eat from – the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, and he takes that as knowledge, right. He takes that as self-consciousness, okay. You can't eat this fruit, you can't be conscious without having a total devastating effect to you idyllic Utopian Garden.

Anyways, so let's break this down as we go through, okay. So, because he's coming from the perspective that were apes, or you know, we're developed Orangutans, or Chimpanzees, we then didn't have consciousness anymore, didn't have self-awareness. We're just operating on instincts. At some point, we developed some kind of self-consciousness, or awareness; and, at some point, our minds awakened, and we develop this idea, "Oh, my goodness. I'm aware of myself. I aware that I'm doing this behavior. I'm aware that I have these instincts." Look, this huge, incredible ontological jump between ape, which nothing of what it's doing, and it's just operating on instincts. Something now, that is completely self-aware, and then has the ability to imagine the future; so, it's aware that I have these instincts, this huge incredible ontological jump between an ape, which knows nothing of what it's doing, and it's just operating on instinct; and, its just operating now that it's completely self-aware., and then has the ability to imagine the future. So, not only are we self-aware, we can use imagination to look into the future, create actual images. We see in the future that our inner mined. I gave you an example last week. We can say, Oh, if I'm walking off a cliff, we can imagine myself falling off that cliff, splatting on the ground like an egg, you know; but, using our imagination doing that, instead of myself to actually do it to learn, because there are consequences. Learn the consequences in our mind, through our imagination. Imagine me, I can die in that imagination, and that will prevent me, or alert me to the consequences of what would happen to me, in reality, if I did that. Does that make sense? And, of course, Carl Jung was talking about this as an operative in dreams, or dreamscape. The dreams are the beginning of Mythology. Dreamscape in Art and Culture, all these kinds of things; but, how he Psychologizes the Garden of Eden is, basically, the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, is basically our awareness with self-consciousness.

So, it's this time, where we come into awareness of self-consciousness, and he goes on in this whole thing. He goes, that's why the woman comes into consciousness, first. She comes into consciousness when she comes into contact with the serpent, and the serpent symbolizes, maybe not the biggest predator, but at least a sneaky predator that has gotten into this Garden, right; so, psychologically what he's saying is a we become aware and self-conscious, self-aware, well then, this a devastating awakening into reality; and, we can see the predators. We can see our ephemeral nature. We can see our mortality. You have to stare mortality in the face. You know, as soon as you were able to imagine the future, we could think about death. You see animals. Their siblings or mama dies, their dad dies in front of them, they're just like, okay. "Hey, why are you laying down?" They don't know; but, we're able to imagine subconsciously. We can look forward. We face mortality. We face the inevitability of our death.

So, that's what he's saying. It's like the serpent represents that facing our inevitable mortality. One day, we're going to die. Something is going to kill us. One day we are going to meet the ultimate unknown, which is death; and, as human being ventured out from the hearth of the fireplaces, and into the wild, they developed different senses; they developed different skill sets, and they developed different types of technologies to help them survive in that unknown environment, to conquer that environment, and to bring back the harvest of those environments, right.

So, this whole meeting of this serpent in this Garden in this half-cultured civilization, half wild area. Where the Serpent gets into place is the meeting, in his view, of our consciousness with the inevitability of death and mortality, okay; and, once we have the inevitability of death and mortality in our minds, and in our self-awareness, then we of course, have all these different responses. We have fear. We have, "Oh, I have to get out there and conquer it. I have to get there and try to overcome it. I got to be victorious over death, and he's saying these different mythologies try to create hero stories around those things." See how this is all psychologized? Okay.

Now, he was going into actual study to show that, for example, women, more than men, when they see a snake, an actual form of a snake, your body, before you consciously aware you receive it, thinks about it, and jumps away. Your body naturally does a flight response, where you jump away from the snake, because the half second of delay will result in you getting bit by that rattlesnake, or whatever snake it is. Fast, fast, strike! And because, and he's saying women coevolve with a, you know, those type of predators, can sneak into the village, or the tribe, and also coevolve the color visualization, their ability to see color with fruit, ripened fruit, etc. because they were the gatherers of the tribe; whereas, the men were the hunters. So, men's brain developed in one way, going after these bigger predators. Women's brain developed in another way because they are dealing with others that are sneaking, slithering in, a biting their children, and you know, why they're sleeping, and you know, these snakes coming in, and hiding under something; or, even climbing into your own bed because you're warm. Snakes come in.

So, he's psychologizing the whole Garden, as that kind of thing that's going on in the human psyche, okay; and, then he goes on to say, what is a dragon in terms of our most baseline fear response, in terms of our instinctual fear response. What is a dragon? It's basically an amalgam of all predators. You put all predators together that we have to face in the dark, or that we have to face, and we have to kill, and we have to conquer, and bring into the harvest, and have to split into pieces, and feed our tribe, etc. He's talking about many different types of mythological stories. You have the dragon, in almost all cultures. It's like a representation of the lion, tiger, bear, puma, shark, serpent, viper, everything you can think of that's scary, you can put into this one thing we call the dragon. I mean in China, it's literally that, too; but, they cover other things that are non-predators, too, like fish or stuff like that, okay; but, anyways, the dragon has this otherly power. It has this mythological... you know, instinctually we're scared of obviously, predators.

Anybody here, who goes sleep outdoors, obviously, you be terrified of the first night you go sleep in the wild. You're going to be freaking out, and pee in your pants cause every little sound you hear your going to think it's Mr. Bear coming to eat you, especially if you sleep out alone. You will be terrified; and, that a natural thing, because naturally in terms of micro evolutionary, not macro, micro evolutionary things within the species, that's of course an epigenetic trait that gets past down; and, now in the study of epigenetics they're showing that now, we used to say seven generations, but fourteen generations. The decisions you make now affect your descendants for fourteen generations. Fourteen. Unbelievable. Incredible.

But, it shows how important our decisions we make today, literally, has a huge impact on our children, okay; so, that's why the people who had the response when they see a snake, boom! They jump away from it; and, they're able to not think. They just twist their body around, and get out of the snake's attack. That type of epigenetics, we'll have a better survival potential for the next set of gene sets going down the line; and, of course, those are not able to jump away from the snake, boom! There the one's who are going to get killed, they're going to get eaten, you name it. okay.

But, the dragon, in terms of if you think about it, and what Dr. Peterson was saying. That it's kind of like the amalgam of all these predators we're afraid of. You know, it's lurking around. Sometimes, it has four legs, sometimes no legs. Sometimes, it flies, sometimes it just breathes fire, you know what I mean? Fire is another powerful thing that brings all. Psychologically, it was fire that was able to bring us to the next level. With fire, we're able to scare away the most dangerous fire predators. We're able to cook meat. We're able to do all these kinds of things; so, fire becomes awe-inspiring, very powerful. Sometimes, lightning in the primitive cultures, boom! Lightning can start a forest fire. It's awe-inspiring, right. Great power. You face your mortality. Fire makes you your mortality, especially if it gets out of control. It gets too big, right.

So, even in the Scripture, he was bringing about, for example, in the Book of Job, where God is talking about leviathan. Leviathan's like this big dragon. It's got like big scales, you know. It breathes fire; and, it has eyes like fire. You see this imagery in the Book of Revelation as well, right. With eyes of fire. Awe-inspiring, powerful, right. Hard to control.

And, of course, you have all these in the bottomless pit, of course, symbolizing this darkness. This unknown that we don't know. The unknown that we don't know; and, there's this reason why we have this fear response to the unknown, it helps us to stay the heck alive. If you don't know what's in that cave, and you try and venturing in like a fool without identifying what's in there, you may die; and, those gene sets won't be passed down, because those epigenetics will last about fourteen generations, right.

So, micro evolutionary speaking, the Christians can believe micro evolution, not macro. Macros lacking, and there's no evidence of it in the fossil records. We know there's so much fraud in different type of ape species. I'm not saying they try and transition into humanity, which of course, they've been talking about the missing link for a hundred years, and never found it. We don't have any evidence for it, etc. The closest thing you got was Lucy, which was an Orangutan.

So, again, we're talking about the micro evolution; and, if you talk to any person who's brainwashed in evolution, just ask them. "Give one example of macro evolution, from where a species becomes another species. Just one. Just one example." Then, of course, you saw Ray Comfort talk to all the Biology Professors, and the evolutionary Professor out there in UCLA and UC Berkeley. What was it, the University of Santa Barbara, or something like that? Anyways, you saw the video; and, he asked the Professors, and they say, "Well, there's this fish, and this fish evolved to have these kind of gills, and this kind of coloration." And, he goes (Ray Comfort) "Yes, but that's still a fish. Give one example." All the Scientist say there's thousands of examples. There's so many, I can't count." "Okay, give me one. Just give me one?" And, of course, none of them can answer the question. None of them can give you one example. Some people say, it's Darwin's finches. Well, hello, are you braindead. The finches are still finches. One has a big nose, one has a small nose. They're still the same species. There hasn't been an ontological jump to a different species like a reptile, or whatever is along that line that they claim.

Okay, it really is a religion, when young people were brainwashed, were confronted with that. You saw the video saying, "Oh, that's interesting. I never thought about that, that way. I just kinda believe what my teachers told me;" but, meanwhile, you're not supposed to do that anywhere else, but you're supposed to believe, when you're a Marxist Professors tell you something. You're just supposed to believe it like a faithful child. Yeah, so faithful. So faithful.

So, you have that micro evolutionary. Even Christians, they have no problem with micro evolution. For example: Human species may move up North, and they develop more Caucasian skin; or, they move down South, and they darker skin to protect themselves from the sunrays. That's micro evolution. You're not becoming different species. Darwin's finches are not becoming different species. The shrimp and the fish example the Biology Professor was giving them; there not becoming different species. They're still fish, and they're still shrimp, right; but, there is a point, and I think there is a point to the description in the Scripture for example, of not only the lake of fire; and, the Bible describes Hell in many different ways. Not only a lake of fire; but a place of scorpions and darkness, etc.

So, it's using all these things to give us those instinctual feelings that we fear, when we do face the unknown, when we do face predators and dragons, etc. The fact that Satan is described as an old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan. It's not like Christians actually believe that he's an actual snake, right, but he's a spiritual being. That he is an actual snake, for example, is not going to be talking, is not going to be, you know, seducing. It's not going to be seducing a woman. It's not going to be doing that kind of stuff; and, of course, God said He made Lucifer an Archangel; so even in the body of Christ to some, not a lot of people, but to some people are saying, Lucifer's an actual serpent, right; but, when He gets hold of the dragon, He says in the end, God's Kingdom, God comes down; or, in this case the angel, but it's the harbinger for God's Kingdom, and he takes control of this dragon. He takes control of this amalgam of predators; and, that's a very interesting thing, because that has relevance to our political science hermeneutic on Scripture, cause the idea that God's people, that God's culture comes in and takes control of the dragon, the serpent, means that we can come and take control of the predators, and the predator class, which of course is the most dangerous species on Earth, right. It's the most dangerous enemy, and of course, Chief can tell you that. Anybody like who finds those vets, who fought in those wars, they'll tell you. The most dangerous thing out there thing out there is not a bear, or lion, or puma, or tiger. It's a deranged human being. That is the most dangerous threat to other people, and because it's very intelligent, too, right?

That was the whole futuristic movie about the predator the big monsters coming down hunting people, because the humans are so dang smart, and it's fun to hunt them, because they're so smart. They give a chill cause they're a challenge; but, this whole, this biblical Scripture that shows us, that if people of God will in the End of Days, with Christ, take hold of the dragon; and, if you see the dragon as this amalgam of all predators, it's about taking control over the predators.

So, this is a very important thing, because when we look at any sociological breakdown, Marxism will try and divide into class warfare, idyllic warfare of the bourgeoisie and the proletariat, you name it. Any of these false dichotomies, right. Rich, poor, Black, White, North, South, East, West. What else we got? Men, women. Hey, that's a big one. Gender war. It's all about dividing the species, and then, conquer it. Instead of uniting around freedom and sovereignty, uniting around private property, and the ability to defend ourselves, and loving our neighbor, etc. They don't want that. They don't want that. They want you to divide it up. They want you dysphoric, which means you're like in a daze. There's many different types of that; so, that you're easier to control, and you're not politically active, because the left and the political Satanists know that it is through politics, you're going to get power to rule people, and they are frothing at the mouth, seething at the mouth, control freak lunatics, who want power.

They want to rule your life. They want to rule your family. Tell you what you can say. Tell you what you can't say. Tell you what you say is hate speech. Censor you, if they don't like you. Brainwash your children. Split up your marriage. Increase the delinquency in your family. Make your children your enemy, and make the parents of your children your enemy, visa versa. It's classic divide and conquer social engineering; and, they know exactly what they're doing, because they're experts human studies. The Bilderberg Group, Soros and these fools pump billions of dollars into research into human behavior, because that's who you understand the animal you're trying to farm. If you understand more about their brain, and neurological functions, and human behaviors, and the biases they have, you can farm them more easily.

So, the thing that they hate the most is, and you can see it on the left, is this vial hatred toward what? The Christian culture, cause the Christian culture, they're ready to be strong, they're ready to be persecuted, mocked and hated. They're not trying to impress the world. They're trying to impress God. They live for a higher purpose, and they have a tremendous power and focus, and it's based in goodness. It's based on the idea of Grace. It's based idea of love God, love your neighbor. It's based and rooted in the idea of men and women are made in the image of God, unlike Islam, where women are fifty percent the value of men; and, of course, where you can have sex slaves, and you can marry five years old girls like Muhammad did, the Prophet of Islam Muhammad did, and having sex with nine years old girls, that's lesa, and you can also hold sex slaves.

So, it's the hatred of the actual civilization, which scholars are starting to recognize, because the Western world is declining and getting completely overthrown. Finally, these former haters of Christianity are coming forward. A major Professor Emeritus at Toronto University, Dr. Peterson and these people, they're starting to come out and attack the leftist doctrines, the leftist pillars, the leftist cult. This religion of the left to worship the State, and elect these god-like politicians to power, which they of course will farm human beings, and distribute it to their mafia, and their in-group; and, that's supposed to be good, and that's supposed to be legal, and that's supposed to be modern and liberal and trendy; and, if you don't like it, you better shut up. You're going to be censored. We hate your family. We hate you. We don't want you to have any strength. No guns, no arms. You just bow down and suck it up like a man, even though you can't call yourself a man, because that would be gender biased. That would be a biased, you see.

So, the thing that they hate is the body of Christ, because Western civilization is formed on the fundamental Ontology, Anthropology of Christianity. The idea that men and women are equal before the law, comes from the Book of Genesis, because it didn't have to say, you had this patriarchy that wanted to oppress women. It didn't have to say men and women are made in the image of God. It should have said, man is made in the image of God. Woman is his slave and servant. That's what it should have said. How did you get that they're equal before the law, men and women? You get that from the Book of Genesis. How do you get the inherit, intrinsic value of a human being, beyond what they do; so, even a criminal has some type of intrinsic value that has to be honored; and, that's the whole process of due process and juris prudence exits. You're innocent until proven guilty. All because some freaks tell you that this person is guilty, doesn't mean he's guilty. He's got to go before the courts, tried before a jury of his peers, and then will see if he's guilty with evidence.

Where do you think that comes from? That doesn't exist anywhere else. Where do you think that comes from? It comes from idea that even criminals and bad people are also made in the image of God; so, even if you don't like them, and you may think that they allegedly did something, you still have to be tried. You have to show evidence. It is the fundamental nature of our jurisprudence in the West, this idea of innocent until proven guilty; but, you can see it the left now just says so, "No, he's just guilty when we say so." If The New York Times, if CNN says you're guilty, then you're guilty. That's Commie, that's totalitarian, that's North Korea, right. That's not this culture that we're talking about.

We're talking about, of course, when we saw that video, that's what you get, when you get centralized planning. That's what you get when you get the Archangels and predators ruling your nation. Remember, the Marxist always believe that the window had to go through Capitalism. Feudalism cannot jump to Communism in their Utopia. It can't. They believe, Marx believed that it has to go through Capitalism, and the abuse of the Capitalists will naturally create Communism, of course, what it didn't do, which is the reason they developed many types of political movements to bring that about, to actually bring that about the destruction of Capitalism, so they blame them, and the answer will be Marxism and Communism like in Venezuela and North Korea. That's what you get, when you go down that line.

So, in the end, look at this? In the end, all those things that we feared, and this is what's interesting, because the left and the political Satanists had made the population fear more than us seeking the truth, the fear that being called names. For example: If you say, "I don't believe there is two genders." "You're a bigoted transphobe. You see, it's all about labeling you, and making you fear of being labeled. They're just trying to guilt/shame you into making you feel labeled. Meanwhile the left will do slut walks and say, "We're going to be liberated from this guilt called slutiness." They're like literally in a cult smoking heroin and on marijuana all day. They're literally potheads. They don't know what they're talking about. It's a total cult.

For example: You can see, it's this creation of fear. Instead of fearing the problem, which are the predators, and we saw the sociological breakdown, right. You can have people in upper economic classes, which are predators. You can have people who are middle economic class as predators. You can have people in the lower economic status that are predators. Do you see what I'm saying?

So, the problem is not the low, middle or high brackets. The problem is the predators within each bracket. That's the problem. It's not about Blacks, it's not about Whites. It's not about that. The predators in the different brackets that want to work together, allied with radical Islam, allied with leftist radical ideology, allied with Marxist Professors to build a state, to use force, that is coercion, to make, to force you to pay for this you don't want to pay for, to give the things you don't want to give to, and rule your life. It's about those predators. Those are the predators that are identified by the big mafia cartels, paid for by the international cartels to then use media, etc, to get into political power, and then take over America. Take down America.

So, it's all intertwined. This whole idea of not being able to see the predators. Getting the body of Christ that we're so in a daze that we're not able to identify who the heck predator is; and, we're fighting amongst White, Black, or this or that stupid thing that they're setting up now. They're doing race politics, they're doing identity politics, they're doing every which way they can divide us. Men vs. women, probably telling that there's some kind of patriarchy, and they can't even define, and/or prove that it exists, and they're living in the most free nation in the world, where they can go blow us up in the streets, and chant Allahu Akbar, which they do; but, in Saudi Arabia they would be killed for that. Braindead, dumb down kids; and, if you look at the studies on IQ, a democracy cannot survive a high 80s, low 90s IQ on average. Your population has to have about a high 80s average to low 90s on average IQ to survive in a democracy, Isn't that interesting.

So, when your general population IQ level, because IQ is highly correlated with income, right. Ashkenazi Jews make more than East Asians in democracies, because they have the highest IQs. East Asians make more than Caucasians, because of higher IQs on average, etc; so, it's highly statistically correlated. Now, when your general population drops below, basically high 80s, low 80s, you're screwed. You're going towards Communism. You're going towards Socialism. You're going towards victim politics, identity politics, race-baiting politics; so, that the predator class can get into power, while using the people to be sexually farmed, and create a monopoly.

So, look at this, it's very important. That why the founding fathers talk about, you have to have an intelligent population; and, they poo-poo the Bible, this or that. The Bible, oh my Gosh. Dr Jordan Peterson, who was a Psychologist. He wasn't even a Christian, by the way. He made this incredible picture. Dog gone it, I don't have a picture here. I'll show you next week. He has this incredible, beautiful graph. It looks like an art piece, of all these places in the Bible which are linked to other places in the Bible. Remember, this guys an Evolutionist, okay. He's not a Christian; but, he sees the value of Christianity, and why it's so central to Western Culture, and just why Nietzsche, and free thinkers like Dostoevsky, who talked about, look, if we lose the God ideal, we're going to collapse into genocide, and that's exactly what happened in the twentieth century. Once you get rid of God, all things that come with the Judeo-Christian God, which is not the God of Islam, it's not the God of other religions, pagan gods, no. It has a particular morality, a particular standard of what human beings think, which is right or wrong, you leave that, you throw that away, you start worshiping the state, you're going to get genocide. This is exactly what you got in the twentieth century. Nietzsche, who didn't believe in God was right. Sorry for being educated. Sorry for knowing things; but, when you know things, then you can see history and reality much more clearly. You can see how wicked and evil and how similar all the ages and Kingdoms were. They're based on the predator class monopolizing power. It's so simple. The predator class monopolizing power.

So, in Cheon Il Guk, the Kingdom of God, the predator class never gets to monopolizing power; and, the normal man is the King and Queen standing with the King of Kings, and his Kingship in the Kingdom, and they are the ones that have the use of force, they are the ones land ownership and private property, then the predator class cannot get them. Quite simple. Quite simple.

All these power mongering, evil frothing at the mouth little, you know, power lusters, who try to fake, and try to pose as nice people, they are hard core totalitarians, who want to rule you and your family, strip you of your guns, and your ability to defend yourself against people just like this, who can organize massive mobs, says you're guilty if you have firearms to defend yourself; yet, they could walk around with Secret Service, with millions of guns on their person like Hillary Clinton. Talking about we're going to disarm this population. Well, you disarm your damn Secret Service first. How about that? Talking about disarm the people. Why don't you disarm your stupid little Secret Service? See how happy you'll be about that. It is absolutely ridiculous; and, of course, with the leftist ideology, all you're going to get is what we saw in this video, we saw just now. You are going to get just that. North Korea's not special. North Korea's not an anomaly. It's exactly what you get, when you go political Satanists. That's what you get.

That's like the old kingdoms of the past. That's exactly how they were. That is the repeat of history over and over and over in the Garden of Eden, and the damn Archangel predator taking over the dang country; and, that's why in the end, the body of Christ, Christians must own land and have the Rod of Iron to defend that land, not because we're looking for a fight, not because we want something to go down, it's so God's civilization can exist forever, because it will be. It has the moral high ground. It has the moral high ground to actually uplift humanity to become children of God, and Kings and Queens of the Kingdom of God. It doesn't want to pick a slave class. It doesn't want to make a serf class, and a post neo-feudalist model. There's nothing neo about feudalism. There's nothing neo about Socialism. There's nothing neo about Communism. It's the same damn power lusting, whore mongering, devilish predators monopolizing power. That's all it is; and, that's why no man or woman, all of you, that's why the Rod of Iron is so important. The Rod of Iron is so critical; and, of course, you use that with freedom and responsibility.

Revelation 20:1 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. 2 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, 3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season. 4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. 6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years. 7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

So, it's interesting, here in Revelation 20, were talking about the dragon being held down. The predator, the amalgam of these predators made into one entity, essentially, that also is the Devil Satan, and bound him up for a thousand years. There will be a restraining of this class of predators. Oh, I don't even know what I said. The Spirit of God said it like Kaboom! The class of predators, they will be bound up. Bound up. Cast them into the bottomless pit. Shut him up. Oh Lord. That has a new meaning, doesn't it? Shut him up, and set a seal upon him; that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years should be fulfilled, and then, after that, he must be loosed a little season; so, we know, even when the Kingdom comes, and God's Kingdom of basically locking up the predators, or holding down, set up those, you know, controlling the predator class, when that comes, it's going to go for a while; but, then it's going to be loosed.

There's also going to be a rebellion of the predator class. Does that make sense? They're going to try and get power, again; and, Christians have to be aware of that. That's why we're not lulled into sleep. That's why, in the Cheon Il Guk Constitution, it doesn't allow the population to be lulled back into sleep.

That's why there's no memory process, and Socialism is permanently desegregated through law, kept out, and at bay; but, you'll have to expect that. Even in the Kingdom, children, young braindead children get brainwashed by all sorts of Satan's ideologies. In the West, it's been these far, far, far, far, far left ideologies.

These brainwashed dumb down children, who have been walking around with a hammer and sickle flags on our universities. Are they freaking crazy. You idiots. That's murdered over two hundred million people, you piece of crap. You stupid idiots. You talk about swastikas as being some kind of peace symbol. The hammer and sickle are a symbol of Hell. It's killed ten, twenty times more than Hitler did; and, you got these brainwashed lunatic children waving this, as if they think their modern and trendy. Holy crap! It's ridiculous! Cast them into the bottomless pit, shut them up, shut them up and set a seal upon them.

Thank God for Cheon Il Guk, because in Cheon Il Guk, if you do that, you walk around with a freaking hammer and sickle flag, and you try and start something, your going to have some citizens deeply offended by that. You got to remember that there is no federalized police force that you can take over. There's no federalized military, which you could take over. You are part, all those citizens, who may be upset with you, are part of the police and military force; and you try to promote some stupid thing that's murdered over two hundred twenty million people, seventy-seven million poor Asian people, people, may get deeply offended and arrest you. Wow!

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Boy, you are going to be in big trouble. Oh, my goodness. My, my, my!

Okay, I got to get ready. I got to get ready and do that thing. You see, they want me to do the prayer there at that meeting. Oh, okay, folks. I got to run quick, okay; but, let's get through this a little bit; or, as much as we can do.

Verse 3 ...and after that he must be loosed a little season. The predator class will be taken down. Will be kept under control, but after a time, like what it says here, a thousand years, the predator class will try and come up again. They try and coalesce. They will try and regroup, reorient itself. It will try and monopolize and take control and power again.

Verse 4. And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Wow! Now, this is interesting. This is very important. These are the people, look how persecuted these people were? Look how persecuted these Christians were? They were not going along with the establishment Christianity. They were the ones who were being utterly persecuted, because establishment Christianity is going to say, "Hey, take the mark of the best. Come on, you don't want to die." You remember me saying that. "Hey, come on. Sell out. You know, we got to be with modern times. You know, the Episcopalian Church, the Catholic Church saying, Hey, we got to love homosexual marriage. Hey, we got to love abortion." You know the establishment church is going to go with it. Wherever the trend of Satan goes, it's going to go with it to gain power and more congregants; but, there will be those, who are the witness of Christ, beheaded, and/or punished mocked and hated. They did not worship the beast, that did not worship the predator class, that did not sell out their souls to Lucifer. Did not soul to be some part of some stupid in group, and feel like there some part of some kind of powerful, you know, codery.

“Neither received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands, and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Look at that? The ones who are mocked, beheaded and harmed. Hated, and scathed and laughed at and mocked. They’re the ones who are going to reign with Christ. They are the ones, who were not the predators, and not sell out to the predators like the sociopathic class, and there’s a lot of sociopathic Christians, and a lot of sociopathic churches, who will go along with the establishment, and for their benefit. They are the ones, the ones who are being persecuted, and hated, and beheaded, and killed, they’re the ones who are going to stand, and rule with God. Look at that. Reigned with Christ, reigned with Christ. He will appoint them judges, judges over the land; and, that’s why it’s so critical. That’s why the Rod of Iron symbolize. That’s what the Rod of Iron symbolizes in Revelation 19. We have the Revelation AR19 camo Crowns and the Rod of Iron coming out; and, it talks about the Rod of Iron. It’s not so you bully people.

Okay, we’re going to flip it, psychologically. Psychologically we know that predators create an instinctual fight or flight mechanism in your brain. When you fight, when any of you do real fighting or training, you kids who are training with us, you know that you are doing real fight training. When your fighting, you get that butterfly in your stomach. What is that? That is a natural mechanism in your body, shutting down your digestive system, so more calories can be put up into your fighting, so you’re not wasting calories. Like ten percent of your calories go to your digestion, so when your body shuts your digestion down, you have all those potential energy and calories being pushed towards your ability to fight. That’s just a natural response called fight or flight system. Anybody, who does the fighting arts, you know that, and you’re going to have that. You do kick boxing, hitting people in the face, MMA, Jiu Jitsu choking, you know it. You’re going to feel it. I mean, you are going to feel like you are going to throw up. You, young people, who like to do that, you feel like you want to throw up. That’s normal. That’s fine. No problem. You’re just having a natural shutdown of your digestive system; so, that ten percent energy can be put into your fighting, okay.

But, flip it. You are human beings. We see a predator, and feel, “Oh, crap.” Immediately, you have this flush of incredible history of how we fought predators from a distance for thousands of years, right; and, you have all that knowledge of this imported knowledge, that have been downloaded from the gene set down. So, when you see that predator, “Oh! Your eyes open wide.” That’s why in shooting training, that’s why you shoot with two eyes open.

Don’t shoot with one eye closed, because when you’re in a fight, your eyes open up. Both eyes dilate. Your trying to suck up as much information as possible; and, both your eyes are going to be open, when your trying to hit somebody, if your doing combat firearms. That’s why Chief teaches us this way; and, I’ve seen a lot of people in combat, who say that, because you won’t be able to control it. You’re going to have butterflies. You can’t control that. Your eyes are going to open up, both of them, and your eyes are going to dilate. Your pupils will dilate. You’ll absorb as much information as possible, and your going to have two dang eyes open, when your trying to hit somebody. Isn’t that interesting.

I’m sorry. I saw the cops training with one eye open like this, and in an altercation, they missed so may times. Fifty percent of their shots, they missed, cause their eyes were forced. Their eyes just instinctually open up; and, you're trying to hit the target with two eyes open; but, they only trained with one eye open. Interesting, interesting. Anyways, that's combat sports; but, at the same time, you flip it.

Now, from the predator's perspective. Okay, let's look at it from the predator's perspective. From the predator's perspective, what do they fear. They fear the small little man, this guy, this humanoid figure. Why? Not because it's more. It's not bigger than a hippopotamus. It's not bigger than an elephant. A human being, he's not bigger than a saber-toothed tiger, or whatever, a massive lion. It's not bigger. It's not physically stronger. What is it though? There's something strange about this humanoid figure. It can use tools. It can use technology, right; so, you can imagine the African lion, or whatever predator, you know, a Bengali tiger, or whatever. They can see this tribe of hunters crouching down, carrying something in their hands, and that silhouette gets imprinted in their epigenetics. Animals now. Predators. So, as the generations go by, and this gets past down for fourteen generations, the predators start instinctually, just like when we see a snake, we say, "Ooh." We jump back, right. Just like we do that, the predators see something, and he sees that shape, and its been passed down through his survival mechanism in his gene set, throughout the generations. He sees that shape of a human being, with some tool, and it creates a tremendous fight or flight, it shuts down his metabolism, and it makes him run. Ooh, now we flipped it. You see we flipped it on the predator.

So, the most fearful thing, if you think about it, for the predator class, it's not a lion, it's not a tiger. They try and get you with that, by putting their little icons with their big football teams, their little beasts, and bears, and lions. That's not what their scared of, see. What they're scared of is the normal man, the normal man with a weapon, that's what their scared of. They're not scared of the lion or tiger. They know they could kill that easy. A normal man has very high intelligence. A normal man can use this weapon. At least that's what they should be able to do. All the girls in our community know how to use weapons, too; but, that's what the predator throughout all the generations, for fourteen generations down, have been brought down in their gene set to see that silhouette, and to feel fear, to feel fear.

Ooh, that's really important. That's what Cheon Il Guk, that what Christ with the Rod of Iron, when he comes with the Rod of Iron, and all his saints are with him, with a Rod of Iron, that is a picture from a predators perspective, that's a picture of good men, good humanoids people with weapons in their hands; and, if you think about that, psychologically, of how the gene set, of how information is passed down through the different gene sets, think about that is going to invoke the most deathly fear within the predator class. That's why its so important that all of the Kings and Queens of the Kingdom of God, that you have to buy property. You're not a slave. You own the land that God has given. Your supposed to own the whole world, not on some ego trip, so that all of us can have that experience of ownership like God, and to have the ability to defend it. That silhouette that strikes fear into the evil, and to the wicked.

When, they deposed me in that stupid deposition, they brought up the pictures with the AR15s and all that. They show me a picture of my family, my kids; and, I'm holding a fifty caliber, and the kids are holding pistols and knives. Weapons. They said, "Are you aware of these pictures?" And, I said, "Of course, they are on my Facebook page. What do you mean, am I aware of them?" I said, "God Bless America and the Second Amendment." And all the lawyers looked at that. There were twenty lawyers in that room, and they started laughing. I mean, in a good way. They're actually laughing together with us.

Anyways, it was crazy; but, they were trying to guilt/shame me about that silhouette; and, you could see it. The control freaks, and the liberals, they always try to guilt/shame you. You should not have that.

That's a dangerous silhouette. You should have a silhouette where your very nice and calm. This is the silhouette you should have. That's what they want. They want you broken down, broken up and weak. They don't want a strong man, and a strong woman, who loves one another, and raise beautiful children, and raise them with peace police/ peace militia training. No, they don't want that.

They don't want that. That's a terrible silhouette to look at. Why? Because, they have predators for generations built into that, generations of fight or flight response. Generations, and they know that silhouette. They know it. I have to get running, folks. We couldn't get halfway through this. There's so much more. Okay, I get to get running. I have to get running to the Bloom and Grove Republican thing there. I need to do the prayer there; so, just pray for me, when I go.

Let's jump to: Cheon Seong Gyeong 601

Unless your longing becomes stronger than any adversity, hardship, sadness, or death that you may encounter in your actual life, you will become people who feel regretful before death and draw back from pain and sorrow. As Jesus surmounted the summit of death, entered the eternal world, and built the sphere of resurrection, we today are also destined to surmount the summit of death. Amen-Aju!
