

2018.02.18 ~ Kingdom of the Rod of Iron 5 ~ Rev. Hyung Jin Moon ~ Newfoundland, PA 18445

The Kingdom of the Rod of Iron 5. So, really what we're doing, we're doing like a whole Bible study in the New Testament about all the Kingdom Scriptures, and the Kingdom Scriptures through, obviously, the eyes of the Kingdom Scriptures, and all the Scriptures I show every week; and, of course the Rod of Iron, which is the way that Christ defines how he will rule that Kingdom. This not something that Pastor Moon is making up or the King is making up. I'm not making this up. This is in the Bible itself, okay, and the Bible itself, Christ himself, defines it as a rule with the Rod of Iron; so, that you cannot get around it. We cannot get around it. None of us get to decide how God, who will decide, and Christ, who will decide, how His Kingdom will be ruled.

So, we are going through these things. Once we sort of consolidate these things, we will like turn it into a book. We won't include all these Scriptures, because it's too much. It's way too much for a book, that what? Uses 150-200 pages, something like that. So, it's just too much Scripture to dissect; so, we'll probably use some of the key Scriptures. So, as we keep do this study, we're just going through, we are just going through however they're lined up in the Bible, and we are just studying them, okay; but, all of these different studies may not make it into the first book of the Rod of Iron. Just to give you a heads up on that, by the way. Okay.

Now, we are here in Matthew 19, and we in a section where Jesus is being asked by a young man. Now, he's a very wealthy man, very wealthy family, a very wealthy young man. He goes to Christ, and he says right here. You'll remember this story.

Matthew 19:16 And, behold came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? 17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? There is none good but one, that is God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

You know, that's a very important Principle. You know, when we have such incredible power as the Rod of Iron, we have to remember that God has not given us the spirit of fear, to be ruled by fear, but that of power and of love and a sound mind, okay, a sound mind. That is also remembering that you sometimes make mistakes. So, what you want to do, especially when you have the power of the Rod of Iron, you never can take a bullet back, okay. If you are lazy with your accoutrement, one mistake, you don't get it back. If you made a mistake because you are lazy and undisciplined, and a firearm went off and you hit somebody, you just screwed up their life; and, it's a 100% your fault. It's not God's fault. It's 100% your fault. You just mucked up somebody's life, okay. So, that's why this kind of drilling and disciplined culture is really, really important, because it's important to remember, even Jesus, who is a perfect man, he said, "Why you call me good, right? Why called thou me good? There is none good but one, that is God.

So, we have to remember, even when we have the Rod of Iron, there's going to be all sorts of issues that come up. You know, we have to be slow to anger, because you may have a hot temper, okay; and, you may be a person that wants to act on that hot temper. You're tempted by Satan to act on that hot temper. Well, you have to be disciplined about yourself. You have to know how to subjugate yourself, because now you have tremendous power, especially when you have a Rod of Iron.

You never can take back a bullet, and any mistake you make with that, you must live with that for the rest of your life; and, if you shot yourself, you're gonna go to Spirit World. Blow off your hip, whatever it is, whatever the case may be. So, there are serious, serious, serious consequences for those who have dominion over life and death, okay.

So, it's a tremendous responsibility. That's why we cannot stress enough how important it is to drill and practice. Drill and to practice. Drill and to practice. Drill and to practice. That is, when you have your Rod of Iron, you manipulating that machine constantly. You're not just touching it, when you have a ceremony, because then you forgot how to use it. One thing that is a big blessing for us, I have to touch my Rod of Iron pistol every day, because I got to bring it to the studio, right? So, every day, I have a religious ritual that every time I touch that weapon, I have a religious ritual that I go through to make sure that gun is safe when I bring it to the studio. Does that make sense?

You can't drop one day. It's a totally different lifestyle change you got to make, but it is something that is absolutely essential, and it's part of the culture of being disciplined. Okay. You can't just have it in your house stored away and not know how to use it; and, so when you try to manipulate it, you shoot your kids head off by mistake, or you shoot, I don't know, your own shoulder off, or whatever the case may be, you don't want to be in that situation. When you learn from somebody that's more skilled than you, right. Let's say one of the guys here showed you how to manipulate that weapon. They showed you on Monday, but if you put it away, and you don't revisit it Friday, three months from there, you forgot. You forgotten everything you're supposed to remember. Is that true?

Everybody knows. We're honest with ourselves enough to know we are going to forget. Jesus said, "Why you call me good? Only God is good." Don't trust yourself that much. You know what I mean by that, right? You don't have to remind yourself about how to have dominion over these things. That's part of being responsible. That's part of being disciplined, okay. So, if somebody helps you, which gave of their time, which is money for them, and gave it to you to show you on Monday, well, you should practice on Tuesday. Just practice on Tuesday the same thing. You practice on Wednesday.

You know, if you join us on The King's Report in the morning, and you see the Rod of Iron on the desk, well you use that like a bell. It goes, Bing! Oh, remind you, oh, while I'm listening to the radio or The Report, let me safely manipulate my Rod of Iron, so I remember what's going on; and, then you can be participating together in that religious ritual every morning with us, you know, where you have discipline over that weapon.

You have to understand, folks, that Rod of Iron can shoot through your whole house, okay. It's not going to stop. It's meant to penetrate. It's meant to do tremendous damage. So, if you got kids upstairs and you have improper muzzle control, and you're waving it around here, and you're downstairs and they're upstairs, and you're not cognizant of your lanes, or you're not cognizant of where this bullet can go, if you have a misfire, it can go through your whole house, and through your kids, and out the ceiling. Do you understand that?

Now, is that something that you can't handle? No, of course not. All of you can handle it; but, you have to be disciplined about it. You have to be disciplined. So, it's almost like a spiritual exercise. You know, the Samurai, when they touched their sword, every time they took it out, it's a ritual. They're offering thanks in this ritual. There's a reason for that ritual, because when you're dealing with so much deadly force, okay, you have to treat it with total, total discipline and respect, okay. You're always checking your muzzle. You're not flashing that muzzle around. If you are upstairs, and you have kids downstairs, you're not pointing it down, right. You're pointing it up to your ceiling. If you're on the first floor, and the kids are upstairs, you have to have a habit of not pointing upward. You have to a habit of pointing it down towards the basement, or whatever, where there's nobody, alright?

Be cognizant of the lanes in your home, so if there's an intruder coming in, and you are here, and an intruder will most likely comes from a particular direction, but your kids are on the other side, they're may be a problem, because if you're going to shoot the intruder, you may shoot your kids, too. Do you see what I'm saying?

You have to think of these things. You must engage your mind and be responsible, because now you have a whole new level of power that's come into your hands, and you can't be dumb about it. Do you understand that? I mean, one mistake, somebody easily can die. I mean, easily, okay.

So, it's very important to remember our own, even the most perfect amongst us, right, who has been in weapons training for years and years and years, sometimes, people can have an off-day, right? And, even somebody who has been very trained gives you a rifle, or gives you a Rod of Iron and says it's clear, it's fine, do you trust them ever? No! Out of respect, you check it for yourself, alright. You never trust somebody, you never trust anybody, anybody, who gives you a rifle, or you're on the gun range, whatever you are. You always check it for yourself. Does that make sense? Always, always, always. You never, never, never, never, never take somebody's word for it.

If Kook Jin Hyung gives me a gun he just cleared out, I saw him clear it, he gives it to me, I'm going to clear it again to show him that I know what I'm doing, and to show him that I'm respecting him by clearing it again and keeping everybody safe. I had a situation, where very trained people, just had an off day, by giving me a gun that's already loaded. They thought it was cleared; but, because I have the habit of clearing it, I cleared it, and boom! It popped out, alright.

So, that's the reality. Even the best amongst us have an off day. Everybody knows that who's done training. You have an off day, sometime. You're not always at the top. Isn't that true? Okay? So, we have to be in a habit of always checking, always being responsible. Every single person is responsible, okay? If somebody gave it to you, even if it's the King, it doesn't matter, you show me respect by showing you're going to clear that weapon, even if I had handed it to you. Does that make sense? You show me respect by you clearing it, and shows me that I'm safe around you with that weapon. That's how you show etiquette and respect. Does that make sense?

So, it is a tremendous amount of power; but, in the context, it's interesting, because these Scriptures come alive in a whole new way, looking at them through the lens of real power, and the real Rod of Iron. It really comes alive. Even a Scripture where Jesus says, "Hey hey! Why do you say I am good, when only God is good? How much more do we have to doubt ourselves. I'm not in a bad way; but, I'm saying, you're always checking. Does that make sense? Okay? So, make sure you have that habit.

You're going to see a beautiful demonstration. Beautiful, celestial, with gowns, Holy Robes and all that, and a Crowns, with the Queen doing some beautiful ritual like that on the Blessing day; so, look for that. It's going to be beautiful, esthetic. It's going to be reverent and all those kinds of things; but, also have embedded within it, tradition and proper safety. So, it's only practical. It's not only esthetically beautiful; but, it has a meaning, and it shows Father were practicing the right etiquette, with the gifts of power that he's given to us. We're not irresponsible stewards, and it shows that everybody's safe in that environment with us as stewards. Does that make sense?

So, that's a very important thing. In the future, of course, we're going to teach our kids, especially our son of thirteen has to learn this kind of ceremony, too. So, through the generations, the Kingship line has to repeat that, so they always showing that kind of respect, and that husband and wife are both involved in the proper dominion over the Rod of Iron. Okay.

So, you'll see it. I think, you will really enjoy and see we are offering all the glory to God; but, at the same time, deeply, deeply, deeply, meditating and fathoming the immense power that is there. We can't take this lightly. It's extremely serious business, alright?

So, back to Matthew 19:18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. 20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? 21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

Now, this is another huge trap of wealth. Now, we always talk about wealth here in the kingdom, too, because in the Kingdom, there's going to be a lot of freedom. When there's freedom, and it's just proven by economics. It's just proven. When the markets are able to interact freely, and markets can freely associate, it produces tremendous wealth, okay. The less government intervention, the less archangelic intervention that you have, in those interactions of daily life of just going and getting business done, the less interaction that you have, the more prosperity will be created, okay.

Now, you also have a problem with prosperity, because if you become too prosperous, the nation thinks that they made all the prosperity, and they think they don't need God anymore. They become secular, they become hedonistic, they become Satanists, and the nation crumbles again, okay. It started on the foundation of God and being grateful that we had all these freedoms, but then the next generations who don't understand that as well, and they just grow up in the wealth, they grow up driving that the parents are stupid, they're spoiling their kids, buying them Lamborghinis and all this crap at a young age, not teaching them moral values, and they become little secularist, immoral relativists, and they're the ones that ruin society, okay. So, that's why in the Kingdom, it's so important the kids be involved in peace police/ police militia training; so, even though they're from very wealthy families, they still have to get down and dirty with everybody else, okay, and wade through the mud and the crap and all the bleeding and all the training, hard training. Okay.

That of course helps them, number one, have compassion for all the people who are not as wealthy, they're the same as you, and also allows them to build friendships beyond the different levels of society. Do you see what I'm saying? Not, only just let them hang around with kids in their own age group, but let's them deal with a whole variety of people that are much stronger than them, etc.

So, they will learn those conservative principles, they will learn those principles of responsibility through training; but, that doesn't mean it's going to be one hundred percent, because people have free will. People have free will, so they can still choose to do evil, right? But, the majority of people will not do evil. Right? Evil will be punished quickly, because if somebody tries to use for lethal or bad ways, they'll be punished very fast. Very, very fast. Because everybody else is quite willing and able to stop dangerous threats, okay.

So, those kinds of people will have a very quick incentive not to be psychopathic, and sociopaths have a very strong incentive, don't follow psychopaths. It leads to your death, okay. Be a good person, work hard, be kind to your neighbor, you know. Practice for the sake of other people, things like that. Learn to love people, to love God. Love God, love your neighbor, okay.

But, we can see, they're a lot at stake is involved here. When Jesus challenges a young man, who is of course accumulated this wealth in a Roman society, which was an oligarchical totalitarian society. It was an imperial society. It was a total Political Satanist society. It was pedophile cult society, okay. In that environment, his family's rich; so, what does that tell you? He's connected into the top, he's connected into the matrix of the deep, deep state, we call it; or, he's connected into the top echelons of power. He's in the pillars of power, okay. Does that make sense?

So, wealth: when Jesus says, go sell all that you have, and then follow me; he's saying not only sell all the things that you have, you monetary, he's saying get rid of your status. Be hated by all those elites that you're working with, right. All those family friends. You know what I mean? Cut off all your ties with your super elite friends.

It's like Nancy Pelosi. She goes into office as poor, and she comes out with two hundred million dollars net worth. I mean, these people are one hundred percent crooks. They go in to rob the system and get government contracts, so they can make tons of money. They're psychopaths, okay. But, you try telling Nancy Pelosi, or some of these absolute, lying, mongering politicians, give all you have and follow Jesus. They can't do it. It's just too hard. They have to give up too much. It's not only their wealth, their assets. They have to give all their net worth. They have to give all their relationships they built over time, right. All their family's invested in. They have to get rid of it all. It's very hard; and, that's why Jesus says in the next sentence, as you see in the next section here. It's easier for a camel, right, to go through the eye of a needle than a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God, because the rich man in this context has forgot where his riches came from.

Matthew 19:22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions. 23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. 24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

He forgot that it came from God, and maybe this was a rich kid, or that his granddaddy was rich, or his daddy was rich, whatever. They colluded with power and got powerful, and he's got wealth now; but, you can see through Christ, this guy has no sense of responsibility for his nation. He has no sense of responsibility for his people, and Christ is calling him on it. And, as the kid walks away with his head drooped down, he couldn't do it. He said, he could do all the other Commandments, and be a good person.

Oh, this is important. You know how the Left is always saying we're such good people. We're not bad people. You know, Nancy Pelosi, always pretending that they're good people. We do good things. We donate to charity, even though they donate less than Republicans on average, okay. It's not about the truth for them. It's about a narrative. It's about propaganda. It's about a benefit, it's about stealing resources for themselves. They just cloak it in a very nice way, loving ways, and do a little media stunts so they come across as being some kind of caring people, but they're not. They're extremely psychopathic, extremely self-absorbed, extremely narcissistic. They have no care in the world for America, for people, for the poor, all that.

Remember that, when President Trump did the State of the Union address and he said, "The Black unemployment rate is the lowest ever in recorded history; and, the Black Democrats did not even clap. This shows you where these fakers are. They're such fakes. I mean, did the White Democrats do anything, either? They parade themselves as they're the ones that protect the poor, protect those who are discriminated against. Trump is saying, "Hey, we have the lowest Black unemployment rate in recorded history;" and, they can't even clap for that. You saw that, right? Everybody saw that in the State of the Union? I mean, it's so pathetically ridiculous, okay.

But, this is how they are. How they are. Try to pretend. "Hey, I did all the good things. I don't do adultery." They're Pharisees. They're Pharisees. You can tell this about people, because they want to nitpick about everyone else. They cannot say anything bad about themselves. They're total idolatress Pharisees, right? You probably know some of these people, right? They're moral posturing Pharisees. They're complete idol worshippers. They can say a list of fifty bad things about every single person; but, they can't see ten bad things about themselves that they want to repent before God. That's how weak and pathetic they are. They're Pharisees. They're moral posturers, okay.

Anybody's who in the will of God, anybody who's before God. I mean, the Lord Jesus Christ, the perfect man said, "I'm not good: God is good." So, how the heck to you assume that we can't admit our faults before God, right. It's absolutely critical that we're able to have that kind of reflexivity, and have that kind of character, when we have so much power, okay. The Rod of Iron in the hands of evil, it leads to Socialism, Communism, Oligarchy, Caliphates, Radical Islam, Sharia Law. It leads to that. It empowers that.

So, the Rod of Iron in itself, it's an inanimate object, folks. There has to be somebody who's controlling it, right. Just like a car in an inanimate object. There has to be somebody controlling the dang thing; and, who controls it determines the Kingdom of Hell or the Kingdom of Heaven. Does that make sense? It's an inanimate object. We're not worshipping and object. We're not worshipping our Crowns or the Rod of Iron. These are accoutrements God gave us. We are grateful for these accoutrements. We will be responsible for these accoutrements; but, we don't worship these accoutrements, we worship God, who gives us these accoutrements, and we are grateful for the sovereignty, the power, the authority he has given to us. But again, we always return the glory to God. This is the character of a Christian. This is the character of Christ, and it is the character you need, especially when you can carry a weapon of incredible deathly force. Okay. It really demands a responsible citizenry. That's why the Christian cultures so important, okay.

And Jesus in these parables, and he's talking about these Scripture about how he deals with these. He's teaching about the character of what it takes to be a King, because he is the King of Kings. It teaches us about the character of what we should be like, right, even with, and especially with, all that power. Does that make sense? Okay?

Now, you can see this in Matthew 19:28. Look at that? For all those who think they are going to enter the Kingdom of Heaven, and all those in the Body of Christ, "Oh, I'm gonna be on welfare. I'm going to play an angel when I enter the Kingdom of God. Oh, yes Jesus, bring your Kingdom. Yes. I going to be, you know, he's gonna do it all for me. Wipe every tear from my eye. I'm gonna be sittin' in heaven all day long with Jesus." Okay, but what about your work in the Kingdom? What about your responsibility in the Kingdom? "Oh, I don't want to hear that. I want Pina Colada, I want harps, and I want angels flying around me. That's what I want." No. You're a bum. You're a bozo. You're a fake.

The Bible's very clear. When the Kingdom of God arrives, we will be given responsibility in the Kingdom. You're not going to be laying around on welfare. You're not going to get free food, free money, free all this stuff, okay. They drive me nuts. You have all these Christians who are supposed to be conservative. They're really against the Democrats for the welfare state all day long; and, when they get into Heaven, they're going to have a welfare state. It drives me absolutely bonkers. It's totally nuts. It's totally antibiblical. It's totally against the Bible, and it's totally against God's actual definition of the Kingdom.

Look what he says in Matthew 19:28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

You have to be Judges. In Revelation 20:4 and 6, You will live and rule with Christ. It's not for power trips. It's to help Christ rule the Kingdom, okay.

Now, how many people have been enjoying those videos I have been uploading on the video page? "Active Self Protection," with those actual studies. Have you guys seen it? You guys have to check that out, okay. All the young people who are training, make sure you watch those videos. "Active Self Protection" video footage from different places. Brazil, Mexico, California, whatever; and, people are getting robbed, they're getting jacked, they're getting stabbed, they're getting shot. It's a police officer who runs that thing, and he breaks down the actual video tape. Sometimes, the good guys get killed. Sometimes they don't, okay. Sometimes they do a good job, sometimes they don't. But, actually looking at the reality of the interactions that happen, gives you a big reality check. Big reality check. Big, big, big, big, big. Right.

So, there's this one I just self-loaded. You guys should check it out. All the Ninjas, you should be watching that. It's called, "Third Party Encounter." It's about this one guy, and he's at a club, and this dude is yelling at his girlfriend. He's not hitting her or anything. He's yelling at her, and so, the guy decides I'm gonna get involved. I'm bigger than this guy. He goes, and he takes the girl, turns his back to the guy, and the guy tries to punch him and he falls down. The bad guy falls down. He pulls out a gun, and he shoots the guy in the chest. Boom! And he's dead. That guy died. So, you had a good guy that was trying to be protective of this woman, whatever, but he wasn't clear how to engage that target. He didn't pay to the hands, and he didn't pay attention to weapons. That's a problem. A lot of combat, even people who do BJJ & MMA, most empty hands combat, but again, diluted, because 40% use weapons. If you're not aware of weapons, and hand going into the jacket for weapons, you're completely diluted. You're not a real martial artist; and, this guy paid. He died. He was not aware of the hands, He did not see the guy going down, clearly going down to his waistline at something, and the guy at literal pointblank range, boom! Shot him right in the chest. One shot, he died.

So, the young people need to see this kind of stuff, because it teaches reality. If you get involved in a third-party encounter, you better be prepared, and you better go all in, okay. He breaks it down very well. He does that in a mugging. One guy was ice-picked with a screwdriver while he got mugged like five times, something like that. Just crazy. These are real captured on video, so you can see them; and, it's reality based, okay. So, maybe I'll also show that during the training, too; so, the young kids can also see them, too. Sometimes, they're slow and lazy in watching those videos. So, even in our training, I'll show them, even in armed conflict, and conflict in general. It doesn't happen in a BJJ/MMA ring. There's a lot of unseen forces that come out.

There's another one I uploaded about a cop, a Brazilian cop. He's fighting these bad guys, and he was winning. He was winning. The guy started shooting on him; and, he started shooting back. The guy started running and followed them. He didn't stay concealed. He didn't stay covered, and he started running after them, and didn't stay covered; and, they shot him in the street. Right in the middle of the street, right. So, these are things you must be aware of, okay. You must, must, must be aware of, okay.

But, again, when you're in the Kingdom, it says very clearly, we will be given responsibility. We have not only coheirship. That doesn't mean we sit on a welfare train. Getting to Heaven doesn't mean you never work again. I mean, some of these Christians, they drive me nuts. It so unbiblical to say that, or to believe that. It's so ridiculous. The Bible says very clearly, when you're in the Kingdom, you'll have to rule with Christ, and you'll have to be sitting upon a Judge's throne, judging. You actually going to have to judge people, okay.

So, there are responsibilities in the Kingdom. I mean, it's become like become just so standard Christian theology. There's no responsibility in the Kingdom. Jesus is going to do everything. He fights all my battles. You know, these kinds of Scriptures; and, the battle's not ours. It's the Lords. You know, all the time. These kinds of Scriptures over and over and over again; and, they're not paying attention to Scriptures, where Jesus is actually talking about the Kingdom, and defining himself. It's crazy. If you think you're not going to be involved in the Kingdom, I guarantee you that.

We have responsibilities. We have duties in the Kingdom. We have the responsibility and duty to obviously love God and love your neighbor, but also to judge wickedness; and, somebody who is acting evil, acting wicked, acting lethally with that wickedness, that person will be judged very quickly by the citizens that are there, by the Kings and Queens who are living and ruling with Christ in the millennial kingdom. Revelation 20:4 and 6. Look it up for yourself.

These are verbs. These are active verbs. We're not just sitting, watching Christ reign. We're not just sitting back and watching him fight all our battles. We're not just sitting and watching like movie, and say, "Yea!" And then reaping the benefits ourselves. We have to participate in the active ruling of the Kingdoms, that is given to us for inheritance. Psalm 2:8-9. All the nations have been given for your inheritance to the ends of the earth, to be given for your possession; and, you, the Bible says, and you will rule them with a Rod of Iron. That's a Scripture in Psalm 2 that says the believers will rule. And of course, Revelation 19, Revelation 12, Revelation 2:27, that describes who Christ will also reign with a Rod of Iron, okay.

So, getting back, these are the religious accoutrements that Christ himself determines in the Scripture. No welfare for Christians in the Scripture in the Kingdom. It drives me nuts, these fake Christians. They rail on the left saying welfares bad; but, then they want welfare when they go to the Kingdom. That is ridiculous. That's not a real, honorable person. If you're so against that thing in reality, how can you be completely for it when the Kingdom comes. Ah! That's crazy, even when the Bible never says that. We have responsible roles in the Kingdom.

So, it amazing, folks, 2/24 is coming up, folks, 2/28 is coming up down the line. 2/24, the GOA event is this Saturday, is that correct? Okay, so it's coming very quickly, and this is getting very big very fast, okay. We already have requests from the Washington Post to interview me, and come to the event; so, they're going to have a cover story on me in May or June. They say they want a cover story on me; and, of course, they're going to slander me. No, don't applaud. I'm not an idiot. These people are the enemy of America, they're the enemy of the Kingdom of God. They're anti-Christian. They want to slander me, okay. So, don't be diluted. I'm not diluted.

I know when I'm encountering a snake, okay; and, these snakes 100% want to slander me. They want to say I'm a cult leader. They want to say, you know, that I'm declaring myself as a King. I never crowned myself. They want to say I'm creating a terrorist organization. You know, everybody's going to be armed. I guarantee you they're going to be doing this; and, they're going to come to the event smiling saying, "Oh, yes. That's interesting." Taking notes as if they're listening with the purpose of complete slander, and to smear, and to destroy. I 100% know that, and they're watching us right now, too; but, it's like a Trump event: You know, everybody at the Trump event, what did Trump do? He just said, "Oh, CNN is here;" and, everybody would say, "CNN sucks! CNN sucks! WaPo sucks! WaPo Sucks!" That's what they would do, because people know how deceitful these people are. People know that the $600 million contract Washington Post has with the CIA. People know that the Washington Post is a propaganda militarized, weaponized arm of the Deep State that does literal propaganda for the Deep State, the takeover group of America, and it's obvious that they have been ordered to report on me, because they want to slander us.

Also, we got request from the Daily Mail, London, which is a newspaper out there in London. I believe it's Editor is Pierce Morgan. They also want to do an article on us. But, what's great about the socio media world in the modern day? We have to be real about it, okay. I don't worship these people. I'm not impressed with, "Oh, the Washington Post wants to interview you." You know, it shows a little bio, and shows its credentials and what it wrote for us. Is that supposed to impress me? I mean, most of them are un-American, enemies of freedom, enemies of gunowners, enemies. They want to disarm the public. They want to kill babies, you know, through abortion. They want the right to kill babies. I mean, these people are complete enemies to the United States of America, the Republic of America, and they know it. I rail on them every single day.

So, they can try and interview me. Go ahead; but, I'm going to be truthful. I not going to be impressed by you. Ooh! "Oh, you're from the Washington Post. Thank you. Thank you for doing an article on me, which you will slander me the whole time." No thank you. I'm not an idiot. We know how this game works.

And, there's some other local newspapers in the area that want to come, too. All the events are open to the media. We are not anything. We're exercising our freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of free association, freedom of the right to bear arms. We are exercising our constitutional rights; and, we are going to have a beautiful ceremony, where we thank God for all the liberty that he's given to us, and we pray for all the world that we will be able to experience these beautiful gifts of the Kingdom.

But again, you can see it's going from Mach 18 speed. It's becoming a national event, it's becoming an international event. The Daily Mail is an international newspaper; so, very quickly the Rod of Iron message, all these things, look, the more they try to slander me, the more the Rod of Iron message will get out. And, it's not going to stop. They're not going to be able to stop it, because we're talking about human rights, and the ability for human beings to determine their own destinies, and search and live with God, and not worship a state; and, that's for young, old, Black, White, Asian. It doesn't matter. We will bring the message of sovereignty and freedom and peace, and the rule of the Rod of Iron which brings peace, because it doesn't let predators succeed to the ends of the Earth.

And, we thank God and Mr. Larry Pratt and GOA, and the folks at NRA, etc, who are standing, and Mr. Larry Pratt who was just with us in Switzerland. Hopefully, he can come with us to Asia and Latin America, etc, to open up this revolution worldwide. And, it's really a revolution of ideas. It's a revolution of the spirit, because we're not calling on people to break their laws and arm themselves and overthrow governments. We're talking about to start a debate. That all we're telling people to do. Start a discussion about this in your country. Break the political correctness, which around this, which seeks to keep you disempowered and disarmed. So, you never have real power against a takeover force, okay.

And we have real patriots, real men of God, who are putting their foundation. Mr. Larry Pratt, he knows. I'm sure from every which way people are telling him, Oh, that's a dangerous Movement. They're Rev. Moon's boys." I'm sure he's hearing all this stuff; but, he's a man of his own word. He's a man of his own. He's a man himself. He doesn't have to be told what to do. He's going to come see for himself; and, he's going to come here for himself. That's why we love Mr. Pratt so much. He's just a real patriot. He's a real lover of human beings. He doesn't want to see people being killed, and you know, bullied by Mafia groups and violent crime groups. He wants them to be able to defend their communities. He's such a patriot. He's such an amazing man, and of course he will be coming in just a couple of days.

So, while we're preparing for all these things, and it's just now these events are coming to the international level very quickly. Look folks, when I going to do this Asia, they're going to be slamming like crazy, too. You know how the leftist media has been coming out on me. "You're such an unfilial child. You always curse your mother. Call her a 'harlot of Babylon.'" I know this about the media. Wherever I go they're going to attack me; and, the fact of the matter is, we're standing up for the Rod of Iron. The rights of the Rod of Iron and Christian culture for the whole world. They hate us even more, because we're talking fundamental, bottom-line business, which nobody is talking about.

The glitterbug preachers, the fake Catholic Priests, the fake Catholic Pope, they're not even good at it. They're telling people, telling people to disarm themselves, like the Catholic Pope. I mean, it's crazy. There is nobody in the Body of Christ talking about the Rod of Iron, and pushing a worldwide, human rights revolution, centered on sovereignty and the Crowns and the right to bear arms, the Rod of Iron. Not one. Only True Father and his fruit and his Kingship is doing that, now starting of course, going worldwide; and, that's why the left is so scared because they know. This is not only about ideas. This is about Kingdoms.

Whether or not the devilish kingdom of the Bilderberg group, or the Rothschilds, or the George Soros kingdom, we'll remain in power for the rest of eternity; or, God's Kingdom will rule and reign. They know what it's about. That's why they're freaking out. Why are they trying to bother me? I'm a small Pastor out in North East Pennsylvania minding my own business. My YouTube channel is not even that big. Why are you bothering me, trying to get the freakin' Washington Post and the Daily Mail out here to slander me? They know what's up. They know what is going down. They know these ideas are extremely dangerous for their infrastructure. They know they're extremely dangerous for their world government program. They know they're extremely dangerous for the stupid, you know, that's what's so crazy. These crazy elitists are calling their vision the New World Order; but, if you say that, people think you're crazy, even though those bozos were the one's coining their stupid world government as the New World Order. It's just nuts. Bush was saying that. Obama was saying that. Who was the guy in London? The British Minister in London? Cameron was using same language.

They're going to these crazy Bilderberg meetings, talking about this New World Order, which basically means world government, world Communism, where they centralize power, and they rule it from themselves. Essentially, they had it tied up; and, with Hillary in there, they would have had it tied up completely. They would have the whole gift wrapped up, ready to go right to your street purchase and tell, okay. Enslavement for all humankind. Carbon taxes on the poor. I mean, it's just ridiculous, okay. Totally ridiculous.

Why are they so threatened with a tiny little ministry? We're just insignificant. We're just very tiny out here, minding our own business, okay. We're just like, you know, we're bushcrafting in the woods. We're like, you know, we're exercising together. What's wrong with these people? What the heck is wrong with these people?

You see, it's getting Washington all stirred up. It's getting the elites all stirred up. The British crown is getting stirred up with the Daily Mail. Why are you getting stirred up? I've just a small YouTube channel. Why are you bothering me? Okay.

So, it's not about that. It's not about those fake determinations about success or reality. They know, because they're channeled in and tied in with Satan. They know this an actual spiritual fight. They know it's a spiritual fight. They know this a battle between kingdoms and bloodlines. They know that. The bloodlines and the Kingdoms that have ruled this Earth have always done the opposite of what True Father, the King of Kings and his Kingship, and his bloodline, and his Constitution is doing, which is the complete opposite. It's radically, radically different; so, why would they be afraid of such a tiny little group? Look at it. We're a very insignificant tiny people, you know, wearing Columbia vest and polo shirts, and golden Crowns and Rods of Iron. What's wrong with that? But, you know, very insignificant.

I mean, why are you bothering us? We're exercising our freedom of speech, our freedom of religion; we're exercising our freedom of the right to bear arms, to keep and bear arms. We're not doing anything illegal. What's wrong with that? They know what's up. They know what is up. It's existential. These ideas cannot spread for their system to exist. These ideas cannot spread for the kingdom of Satan to continue to exist, because if, only if people start connecting that they're identity through Christ is one of royalty and authority with the Rod of Iron, oh my gosh. Their system is in big trouble.

They can't keep the Africans under their foot anymore. They can't keep the poor Chinese under their foot anymore. They can't keep the North Korean citizens under their foot anymore. They can't keep the Venezuelans under their foot anymore. They can't keep the French folks under their foot anymore. They can't keep anybody under their feet, because the people of God will say no more, no mas, no more, no mas.

So, it's amazing that right as these events are coming, it's now going to the national level, international level. By the way folks, on the 24th, there's going to be some protest groups. They're already getting calls. The LGBT are probably going to be protesting. I don't know what groups. They're calling. They're going to protest; so, there will be people out there protesting, alright. You know, we should send some of you young people out there to just go video tape them. Maybe some of you guys can go and interview them. Go out and interview them, such as a Man-on-the-street and interview them. You know, as they're protesting, just go an interview them. "Okay, so do you support the Orlando shooting of homosexuals in a club that got shot up by a crazy, fanatical Sharia Law believing Muslim?" "Okay, so you want to disarm the public, and you want all your gay friends to die in clubs like that? Okay, great." Nobody in the GOA.

There's a reporter that just asked me the other day. A nice lady; but, she asked me the other day. She said, "So, can you talk with gays?" I said, 'There's a big difference between homosexuals and the homosexual political agenda, okay.' Obviously, as Christians, we have a biblical perspective. We see homosexuality is a sin. It's an abomination before God; so, we don't agree with that lifestyle, but we don't want to cut your head off, okay. We don't want to kill you; and, we don't want to throw you in prison, and throw you off roofs, okay. We have no problem dealing with homosexual on a day to day basis. We disagree with that lifestyle. We pray for them. We don't have to. We stay true to our religion and our words, the Word of God, okay; but, we have a problem with the homosexual political agenda, which seeks to censor the opposing view, and like in Canada, seeks to ban the Bible so Preachers cannot preach from the Bible that says homosexuality is an abomination. That's banned in Canada, by the way. That's called hate speech; so, that's a political agenda. That's not free speech. That's not respecting another person's view. That's not live and let live. That's controlled censorship authoritarianism, okay; and, that's a big difference. I mean, I went to Harvard. There's a ton. There's plenty of gays at Harvard, okay. It's not when I see a gay, I go "Ahh!" I mean, give me a break. I can disagree with them. I'm not going to freak out and pull my hair out that way, pulling it out like that. Give me a break. I shave my own chrome dome. Give me a break!

So, it's crazy. It's like because of the anti-LGBT thing, and the Southern Poverty Law Center writing about our message. "You know, they're anti-LGBT." We are anti-homosexual political agenda. Stop trying to indoctrinate our kids. Stop trying to censor opposing point of views. Stop trying to ban the Bible. Stop trying to infringe on my religious freedom. Stop trying to disarm me. You know what I'm saying? Get out of my life, and you can do what you're going to do. I'm going to pray for you, you know what I'm saying? I'm going to pray for you. I'm not going to agree with what you're going to do; but, if I'm at a Trump rally, and there's the pro-gay Milo Yiannopoulos folks, I'll stand with them, who are standing for Trump and America, no question about it. That doesn't mean I agree with their gay lifestyle, right. I mean, it's just crazy. Okay?

But, I as these events are coming, and they're becoming now at a national and an international level situation here, 2008, like I said folks. It's just changing so fast. The problem is moving so quick. We want to slow it down a little bit, but it is not up to us. But, they're no coincidence. That as these things are happening, then you have literally the whole nation paralyzed, and the whole debate erupting again about what? The Rod of Iron. The official rifle of Cheon Il Guk being the AR15. You know, the AK is allowed because it's a similar level of power, but it has a history in Russia, Soviet Russia under Communism; so, the spiritual birth of that is not as good, you see what I mean, as the AR, which was built in America, which has Judeo-Christian values, and they fighting, and those are the troops of course, help liberate Korea, help liberate Father from the North Korean death camp, okay; so, Providentially, the AR is a really – even they didn't use that gun to liberate Father. It was the same armed forces, okay, from which that came, okay. At the end of World War II, it was the M1 Garand. Is that what they were using? So, Father was liberated with the folks from the US with the M1 Garand's, okay, but very quickly after that, the AR became the rifle, or the M16. Anyways, the point is, where it comes from is very important, you know. Right from where it originates from. Which culture and civilization in which it originates from. There's a big difference, you know, being totalitarian Russia at the height of the Soviet Empire and Stalin, and American Armed Forces that were trying to fight for freedom in the world. Does that make sense?

But, it's no coincidence that again, this whole thing floods in, and now the Rod of Iron is put on focus in the National level at another school shooting with all these, oh my gosh, all these loopholes in it. Big loopholes coming out about it. Not as clean as the media was saying, not reporting the huge holes in their story that's starting to erupt through, such as this kid was suspected. The deputies called to suspected shooter's home 39 times over seven years. This guy was already on a list, already on a watch list. The FBI already knew about him. They didn't do anything about it, because they're too busy proving Trump had collusion with Russia, which completely blew up in their face, and now proven that he has no collusion with Russia, and that Hillary Clinton is the one who's paying for the Russian dossier, that they were trying to meddle in the election process. I mean, they're so busy working on that, they couldn't stop this killer, whom they visited 39 plus times, and whom they knew was probably going to do an active shooting, three weeks before the event, and whom they knew was a gun-free zone. Another gun-free zone. Another gun-free zone, another disarmed zone, another place where these lunatics, who's been on SSRIs.

By the way, he was on SSRIs. He was on antidepressants. He was on SSRIs hallucinogens. He was on SSRIs, the serotonin reuptake inhibitors that basically make you hallucinate; and, that say on their labels that this can cause homicidal or suicidal tendencies. He was on them. All the active shooter situations, Columbine, Fort Hood, Sandy Hook, you name it. Every single one of them. They were all on SSRIs. They were all on these psychotropic meds that make you hallucinate. I heard one mother whose daughter got on SSRIs, because she said, I feel a little depressed, whatever. I feel sad, so they took her to the hospital to the psychiatrist, and then gave her SSRIs from the beginning, because she said she was a little depressed; and, this mother was saying how her daughter's life was completely ruined. So, she's an advocate now to stop SSRIs. They're dangerous drugs that they just hand out to kids who say, "I feel a little sad." Well, you work how to work over that. It's part of being a human being. You work over, when you're a little down. You learn how to encourage yourself. You read a little Scripture, and you go exercise, you know eat healthy, drink some water to hydrate. You learn how to overcome it. You don't just sit and wallow in your own self-pity and say, "I need SSRIs now, now! Now, now, now! They're crazy.

It was totally insane, okay, while the pharmaceuticals make tons of money off these kids, and they're screwing up their brains; so, this is how the lady would describe it. She did the research on it.

She was saying, "It's like it makes you hallucinate, and it makes you feel like you're in a video game." So, all these kids that are brainwashed. You know, all these killing video games, Call of Duty, all this kind of stuff. They think they're b/a, because they could win a video game. Then, they're depressed, whatever. They're put on these drugs, and they think they're actually killing zombies, or whatever the heck it is, right. Then, they're like hallucinating. They're on these very strong psychotropic drugs, which make you mind literal vision bending, hallucination. People who did LSD, have you heard their testimonies, right? I heard a couple of people who did LSD. They said, like one person was saying, the walls were like skin, and it had these pores. Like the walls, and they were coming in on her or him. I can't remember whether it was a guy or a girl who was telling that story. Anyways, the people in the sixties, they did that. They did a lot of that stuff, right; and, that's what is happening. You start hallucinating. You start seeing a completely altered reality, and you freak out. I mean, some of these can be very violent, right? Some of them can be crazy like skin pores, like oozing stuff on to you like closing in. I mean, it could be crazy, crazy stuff. And like people who do these things, they're can be like screaming, like rolling on the ground like they're possessed, right, because they're terrified as to what they're seeing; and, the people who have been involved in active shooting, killing all these kids in gun-free zones, they're all on SSRIs. They might as well be on LSD, okay.

I mean, this is something that the media doesn't talk about at all. The big pharma drug companies behind there making these drugs, pushing the doctors to give it to the kids, who just say they feel a little sad. Well, run three miles, and you will feel better. Go lift some weights, get some fresh air and stuff, stop playing video games in your musty grandma's basement, get your ashtray on a bike. Ride around the community, just climb a mountain or something. You'll feel a lot better.

I'm not joking about this. I'm not being uncompassionate to people. There's studies in Positive Psychology. It's the number one class at Harvard. Positive Psychology started off at U Penn, okay; and, they've done studies, they done statistical studies that show that three times a week of 20 minutes of exercise is more effective than Prozac and other anti-depressants like Xanax, etc. So, I'm not saying this because I'm ignorant, even though sometimes I speak colloquially. I use a lot of slang. I come across as if I'm ignorant. I'm not ignorant. I'm extremely educated, even though I know slang very well, too. I know street language very well, but I'm very educated, okay; so, I'm not just making this up.

Goodness. This guy was on SSRIs. He was involved in this whole medical pharma, and of course, went insane. Nicolas Cruz was investigated after cutting himself on Snapchat, state report shows. He was cutting himself online. Cutting himself. This kid was mentally disturbed. He was seriously mentally ill. He had all the warning signs; and, then he started talking about he wants to be a school shooter, three weeks before that was reported the FBI. The FBI didn't do anything about it.

Now, there's another guy right after the shooting, because you have the copycat phenomena, which happens after a school shooting, there's a copycat phenomenon. There's other wackos, who are on SSRIs, who says, "Yeah, I want to do it, too." And get famous, and get media coverage, and within one week, within one to two weeks there's another school shooting; and, you saw one happen a couple of days ago in Seattle, right? There was one in Seattle right after Florida. Okay, so this is called a copycat phenomenon in mass shootings, okay. It's a pretty well, observed phenomena. These crazy kids, in essence, want that media fame; and, they see how much coverage this guy got. And then they had some other kid in another state, who was in ANTIFA clothing, all that stuff, had an AR15 in his hand, and was talking about, I'm going to be the next shooter, whatever; and, so they caught that kid, now. Okay.

So, that's what it means. When you report these things, the FBI tells people, report these people to us, right; but, then when they report them, they reported this kid Cruz to the FBI, the FBI was too busy to try to find Russia collusion on President Trump, and they didn't do anything about him. And now, 17 people, kids, are dead. But, it's interesting, all these little holes are falling through. The narrative of the media is, "Oh, there's one lone wolf killer. Oh, he was an NRA member," which he was not. I mean, these people, they're such liars. They had a frontpage page on the New York Daily News I think it was, that said the NRA, the NRA basically funded this guy, because the NRA the nationwide JROTC, the Junior ROTC program, which does air rifle competition, okay; and, the NRA is helping support that nationwide. But, they said, he was a part of that group for a little while; so, he was trained by the NRA. These people are complete lunatic liars. Talk about fake news. My goodness. This is how sick these people are. They are so agenda driven. They are so wick wide. They frothing at the mouth. They know the real issue is, though it's clothed in all this nice language and all this politics. No, it's a battle of Kingdoms, folks. It's a battle of Kingdoms.

So, this whole thing is starting to collapse. There's a young lady. I'll play this video as we talk it; but, just play it with the volume a little low. She talks about two shooters. She actually bumped into Nicolas Cruz. After the shooting was happening, she bumped into Nicolas Cruz in the hallway, and she heard shots firing, but she was walking with the guy. She's walking with the dude, Nicolas Cruz, down the stairs, and five minutes before, they heard shots. Did you hear this? They heard shots. They were told to evacuate, and Nicolas Cruz was walking out with her. So, what she's saying, there's two people. There's definitely more than one person shooting. It's not only one person like the media's trying to say. The lone wolf Christian. Where was this? Christian. In all his posts, he was standing up for Communist values, and he was dressing up like ISIS and ANTIFA, okay; and, this girl, this by a reporter down there, I think for ABC, whatever. But, they interviewed her right after the incident. Okay, go to the next one.

There's another girl, who also said there are three shooters, but you have none of the mainstream news showing this, even though what is that? 2NBC. They did the interview, but they don't show it. How come NBC nationwide show this interview, and ask the question, "Was there more than one shooter?" They don't do that. They keep on pushing NRA trained, White Supremacist, Trump supporter. I mean, these people are insane. They have no interest in the truth, folks. They are totally agenda driven. They are Kingdom driven, because they are fighting for the Kingdom of Hell. They are driven by their master, by the George Soros Palpatine and his flaking scalp, and his billions of dollars. Oh my gosh. When he walks the room, there must be a trail of dead like scalp skin. I mean, he's worth billions of dollars. Can't he solve his flaking scalp problem? I mean, my goodness. Get some eye salves and make him. He literally is the mirror model of Emperor Palpatine. I mean, it's just crazy. But, at any case, these are kids inside the building, folks; and, they're saying like, "No, no, no. Wait a minute. There's definitely more than two people in there.

AMMO was crazy, three weeks ago, there was this African American kid, who did an interview on the Alex Jones Show right after the shooting, and he was saying, "Yeah, the Secret Service was there three weeks before telling us there was going to be a drill in three weeks. They were telling us. And then they were doing drill practice. How to get up and walk out; so, on the day of the shooting, they already had a fire drill in the morning. Then the shooting happened, but prior to the shooting, there was a fire drill. So, they thought it was another fire drill. "Oh, come on. It's another fire drill." Now, the kids are walking out, and they're got shot at, and they're seeing dead kids on the street. Now, they're freaking out, and they're running away, running out. So, their story is totally starting to collapse; and, look at the leftist. As soon as this story comes out, it's 100% of the leftist starting to say, "gun control, gun control, gun control. NRA is bad, NRA is bad. Look at how this happened.

Look at this battle. All of a sudden happening on the Rod of Iron, when on the microcosm, we're just doing a small little event thanking President Trump, and now it's become an international event; and, of course, they're going to use this mass shooting. How much blood on your hands, you gun supporters? How much blood is on your hands? Like Jimmy Kimmel says, "When will you wake up President Trump. He didn't do anything." This fake little Hollywood, little mites, these little termites. What are these little things in the floor? Little ticks. Blood filled, fat bellied ticks. you know. They're despicable.

It's not the gun folks that are doing this. In all their laws and background checks, this kid passed the background check. It shows you it doesn't work. The background check, all that does is make an illegal registry of law abiding gunowners. It doesn't deter criminals at all, because criminals are not going to buy their gun at a gun shop. They're going to buy it on the street. They know this is the reality; but, they're so invested, and they're merchants. They're money merchants that make money off this type of lie and propaganda. They know that they're buying it on the streets, the criminals are. They know the criminals are coming through and trying to do a background check, signing this, and signing that. They're not doing that. Are you kidding me; and, even when they do that in the rare case like this crazy kid, they go in there and the background check doesn't stop anything. Do you see what I mean? All it does, it creates a legal registry of people and the guns that they own, which is illegal. Why does the government have to know that, if you're a law-biding person? Why does the government have to know that?

So, that's why the GOA is against the Fix NICS Act and all those kind of things, because they don't work. It just creates illegal surveillance on law abiding peoples; but, they'll try to woo the emotions of people.

Whoa! These kinds of shooters are all over, even though statistically they're near zero. But, their story is falling through the hole. Totally falling apart. Go on, play this next video real quick.

This is Larry Pratt's son, Erich, debating Richard Quest. That's Larry Pratt's son, Erich. He's running the GOA right now.

(Erich Pratt: It's good to be with you, and our hearts are broken. I'm a father of ten, and it really hurts every time we hear about a tragedy like this. Richard asked, what is your solution. Erich Pratt said over 98% of these mass shootings are in gun-free zones. That's why we would agree with our police officers. 81% of them polled say that the way you stop this in the schools is to arm the teachers, arm school administrators, arm the Principals. We think that would be a very successful strategy. You never hear about a mass shooting in Utah. They've been arming teachers since 1995. You don't hear about it in Ohio. They trained over a thousand. It was the way Israel got rid of the terrorist problem. They started arming teacher's years ago, and the attack on school children stopped. Why is it that our Congressman are better protected than our school children?)

Erich Pratt smashed him. He totally smashed him. You can see how bamboozled the redcoat was. Unbelievable. But, again folks this really is the debate. It really is a debate. It comes down to this. Who will control the Rod of Iron? Who will control it. Will it be the state; or, will it be people? Will it be elitist that have Armies around that rule; or, will it be people that can manage their own local areas? It is the fundamental war.

Look at this. Lawmakers move to arm teachers in response to Florida Massacre. Look at this. There's a couple of states that are now doing it, now. Let's see here. North Carolina where concealed carry is currently prohibited inside schools. Rep. Larry Pittman said he's working with police to draft a bill which would train and arm school faculty members.

Also, in Alabama is sponsoring a bill allowing some public schools teachers and administrators to receive some firearm training and be authorized to carry concealed weapons during the school day. Also, in Columbine, after the Columbine shooting, Colorado schools armed teachers to prevent another Columbine tragedy right after that shooting; so, obviously no more shootings in Colorado.

Isn't it interesting how, when you have a lot of people to be armed and the school teachers, who are law abiding people, the criminals really can't get away with a lot. They really can't kill a lot of people. So, already a couple of states in America are moving towards that and allowing concealed carry weapons holders who are ready. Some of these folks, like teachers right here. African American teachers, White teachers, whatever. But, they are training here. You can see their weapons right here; and, they are training to get training so that they can keep the children safe; and, if the killers don't know who is armed, then their chances of survival are way less. The killers, right? So, situations with the guns, 81% of police agree with GOA saying that the first responders, who are the teachers, because they're saying it takes the police to get there. The cops are only human. The police have to get there, they try to assess what's going on, and then they have to try and make their entry. They can't just run in on something; so, they have to make their assessment; so, it's going to take a minimum of fifteen minutes. I mean, that's pretty fast, right? 15 minutes, that's extremely fast. I mean, you know, even if it took them five minutes, that's still not enough, because this guy was shooting for only six minutes, and he killed that many people.

So, even if the cops by chance were doing a police parade right in front of the school at the time of the event, which is not going to happen. But, let's say all the cops were there at the time of the event, it would still take them 5 minutes to get into the building; but, by that time, this kid, this crazy boy had six minutes, and he killed all those kids. He only shot for 6 minutes, do you see what I'm saying? That's not enough time. It's just not enough time to stop the attacker. The only way to do it, you had that one big football couch guy who was protecting the kids, and I think he got shot and died. He was a Trump supporter.

If he was allowed to carry, I'm sure that guy could easily learn defensive firearms. If that hero, who sacrificed his life to save those children and was shot in the head, if he had the ability to shoot back, it would have been a different story. There's no way that kid would get away for shooting for six minutes freely bombarding, mowing people down. I mean, that's not going to happen when you're getting shot at from multiple angles, multiple directions. Women, men, trained teachers. You know, female teachers, male teachers shooting back at you. You're in big trouble, right? And, that gives a lot more time to get the cops to come in, and to take out the guy, the bad guy, too. To help at least; but, they're the first responders.

So again, they're moving, and it would be amazing if Trump were to say, "I'm just tired of this; and, I gonna, we're going to push a bill through that allows all school teachers to be licensed CCW cardholders to carry and stop this crazy mass shooting, false flag attacks, whatever they are. You know, once and for all, we're going to stop it completely; and, we're going to allow people to do their law abiding legal right to defend themselves and the children that they're teaching. I mean, that would be incredible. Wouldn't that be amazing? It would be tremendous.

But, it's no joke that this is happening, folks, right before the 2/24 and 2/28 events. You have to understand, folks, how incredible this is. I don't think you understand the context of how Cosmic, and massive this is. I mean, we're just a small little group in Pennsylvania. What is wrong with all these people, who try and slander us, and try to cover us internationally? This is way beyond the size of our congregation here. Do you understand? This is a battle between principalities and powers, between the darkness and the light. This is the battle between who will have sovereignty over this world, and who will not have sovereignty over this world. That's why it's becoming such a huge event.

We were playing just a small little event in Matamoras, PA in a Best Western, who nobody ever heard of. I mean, come on. We got a population of what? Of like, I don't know. We're a small town out there, you know what I mean? We were a firecracker town, you know. We got firecracker shops. That's about all we got. You know what I'm saying? We don't have a McDonalds. No, we got nothing. We got firecracker shops, because they're illegal in New York. I mean, we're just a tiny little town, okay; and, it's like international news who wants to cover this.

Of course, they know it's connected to Father. They know. Their celestial father, the Devil, is telling them, "I know who they are." He knows who we are. He knows who Father was. But, you can see how serious this is getting. But, again, it's a real battle, okay.

This is the Governor of Florida, who's calling for the FBI Director to resign, because they were alerted three weeks before. They were given a warning that this guy was going to shoot up a school, and they didn't do anything about it; so, the FBI Director should resign, because he's so busy trying to find Russian collusion with Trump. I mean, these people are so sick. It shows you how incompetent the FBI is; and, it's not like it's just like everybody in there. It's the top echelon, which won't let the normal good FBI agents do their job, and actually get about the business of trying to protect people.

This is also that's something very related, too, because we just talked about last week how the leftist worldwide leftist are using the Olympics to blame Trump for starting World War III. They're the ones that are saying through the Olympics, "Look, we brought peace. We brought peace through the festival that opened the Olympics. We made peace through sports and flowers and music." President Trump, with his barbaric mouth has almost created World War III; but, we saved the world.

All the K actors, and all the Hollywood elite, and all the leftists, they saved the world. George Soros, he saved the world through the Olympics; and, we made peace through the President of South Korea, who's a Communist, Moon Jae-In. The stupid Olympics are becoming an anti-Trump rally and they're doing pro North Korean propaganda. What are they smoking? CNN is smoking crack. They're the Crack News Network, now. They are ridiculous. They're doing positive pieces on North Korea. I mean, it shows you how evil they are. It shows you what they want. They're trying to paint North Korea. I showed you these things. I showed the Koreans on the Korean service. It's got over a couple of thousand views on it, already.

Lester Holt from NBC at a ski resort in North Korea. Did you see this, where he's praising North Korea? "Look at this beautiful ski resort. Ooh!" Patriotic music. Ooh, they're singing only patriotic music. You know, this is a regime that's murdering everybody, and they're gushing over it. "Hey, this beautiful ski resort. It's nothing like we imagined. Look at North Korea? Everybody's having a great time with their families." You can tell the people don't know how to ski. They're like almost falling over. It's just such fake propaganda. It's absolutely ridiculous.

But, this week, this is what Alex Jones was given through his intel sources. But, he released this video. It's a kind of a weird video, because he says, I've been told to basically give this message to the listeners who listen to Info Wars, basically the patriots, and that's that. Go ahead. Play it.

Alex Jones: "North Korean chatter and through human intelligence signals, stating that North Korea is at this time planning a pre-emptive strike against Tokyo, Japan with ICBMs starting in the last two days of March going into April 2nd So, anywhere within that 4-5-day period; and, that everyone, especially families of armed service members, should not be traveling, and should not be leaving the United States during that period. They don't want to officially put that announcement out. They want that announcement put out to this audience, because you're seen as the most patriotic Americans.

Here's the bottom line. We have been in a state of war since 1950 with North Korea. We are now facing the third hereditary leader of the Hermit Kingdom as it is called, the most backward, nightmarish, corrupt, starving, authoritarian, patriarchal, Communist nightmare that the left thinks is so cute and funny that the mainstream media have been promoting. Now, I want to be clear. I don't want to have a war with the North Korean people. I want to be clear. I understand that they are casualties of this evil, culturally, physically, spiritually, mentally. That said, they're being used as a detonator of the Communist Chinese and others to project power and destabilization into the South China Sea. North Korea has been threatening for a long, long time to attack Japan, to attack South Korea, to attack the United States. "

Alex Jones' sister is Korean. His adopted sister is South Korean. Did you know that? Isn't that interesting? They're connected to Korea. Alex Jones is connected to Korea. Isn't that weird? His sister, he has an adopted sister who is Korean, adopted by his family. The point is, anyways, that they're saying, and of course, they work with the top intel sources, they have top intel guys. Tim Kennedy, other top special ops guy, FBI, high level people in the intelligent community, that interestingly work with them, tell them; but, basically, he's saying that North Korea is preparing to strike Tokyo in late March, early April, because why?

They essentially started taking over the South through the Olympics. They basically gave them permission, the Moon Jae-In Administration has given North Korea permission to start to take over the South; and, of course by exacerbating, the enemies in China, the enemies not in Korea, it's in Japan. Japan is really our enemy. They're seeking North-South unity through the Reds, through Communism, because China already sees Korea as a vassal state, as you can see. You saw the map, when he was talking? The Chinese is huge. It's right there sitting on top of North Korea. China already considers Korea a vassal state of China. You understand that? In public schools in China, they teach in Beijing, that Korea is a part of China, okay; so, they have very clear intentions. They want to take the Korean Peninsula for the Chinese.

You know, this is the organ harvesting, anti-Christian hating, despicable, authoritarian Chinese. The elitists. The normal Chinese, they're fine. They're total victims, okay; but, the elitist Chinese are absolute devils. One hundred percent demons and devils; and, they represent the Red horse. So, they feel, it looks like they feel, the Satanist feel that they can take Korea, chase America out, start a war with Tokyo in Japan, get the Koreans to help them do that, and build up anti-American sentiment within South Korea, which they're starting to do under stupid Moon Jae-In.

It's only our people who are standing and say, No! We are going to stand for America. We're going to stand for President Trump. It's only our people that for a year and half been out on the front lines saying, "China's going to take us over." And you saw our banners? That was on nationwide news, because they had a clear message. Now, the Conservative Movement is finally catching up with what we were doing a year and half ago. They're saying now, "Oh, now China's a problem." China's the one behind this, okay.

So, too little, too late. I mean, the whole collapse of South Korea is happening; and, of course, if this happens in the new year, which President Trump was probably preparing for, because there was leaks that he was pre-emptively attack, even possibly before the Olympics, or shortly thereafter. He may have been preparing that, or thinking that, or strategizing, because he knew they're going to try to do another ICBM; but, this time even strike Japan.

Now, if they bring the US into war in East Asia, they're also starting a whole war with Syria, Israel and Iran at the same time; so, they're now starting two wars on two fronts, both in the Middle East and in the Middle East of Asia, which Korea was known as the Jerusalem of Asia, because it was so flourishing with Christians. America cannot fight both wars at the same time, folks. It's back to what we knew. We knew about this two years ago. It's not possible for America to fight both these wars, and both of these wars will likely get us into World War III, because the economies of the world are still quite depressed; and, even America in a couple of years will be $26 trillion in debt.

So, we are not out of the woods. People feel better, because of the Olympics. Everybody's on a dopamine high and are drug dazed. This is not out of the woods. This is serious problems still lurking. Everybody that is fighting for sovereignty, everybody that is fighting for the Rod of Iron, for human rights. We are risking our lives, all of us. We are risking our lives.

And, God is warning us. He's reminding us, again, that we have to be responsible. We have to be ready, because he knows. All these things are exploding to the 2/24, 2/28 events. You know, we could be at the Best Western having a Trump Fundraiser, and some lunatic on SSRIs could come in a try and shoot up the hotel. Probably not going to do so well, because everybody's armed there; but, it could happen.

We have a 2/28 event, which is spiritually the microcosm, which is, you can see, it's leading where Trump is going. Not yet. Trump is not coming out a saying to the worldwide community, everybody, all countries should have gun ownership. He's not going to be doing that, yet; so, you can see, the macro is still following the micro as we move and push this revolution; but, he is, he's getting near to just doing that.

But, with the 2/28 event, you know, we have a lot of rifles in the house; but, most of them, not all, not all, not all, but most, will be, unless they're key security, most of them will be checked. They will be empty. But of course, if you're a CCW carrier, and you have a legal ability to carry a firearm, you can do that; but, just keep it holstered. Again, we don't know. They're could be a crazy like Cruz, who gets on the drugs, gets psychopathic. He's stimulated by the SPLC writing a hate article about us that we're anti-LGBT hate group; and, says, "I want to stand up for my gay brothers and sisters," and tries to do something stupid. Probably not going to do so well against our community, because we're quite armed here, and we're openly armed, and we will have rifles on that day as well, so probably won't do so well here, if you lunatics try to do some crap like that, because all we are doing is, we're peacefully practicing our freedom of religion. Freedom of speech, freedom of association, and the freedom of the right to bear arms, and we're thanking God for all the gifts He's giving us. This is a peace event. This is an event of peace. It is an event of gratitude and prayer. We're not doing anything illegal, anything crazy.

We're not calling on people to arm themselves and fight the government like the leftists want to say we are. We are not domestic terrorists. We are supporting one hundred percent the rights instilled in the US Constitution, the Bill of Rights. We are exercising our constitutional rights as citizens of the United States of America. That we are praying, and we are thanking God for the accoutrements of the sovereignty that he's given us, as in the Bible. Revelation 3:11. Let no man take thy Crown. That's why we wear crowns; and, don't let anyone take it away, even Christians who say, "Ah! Why are you wearing Crowns? The Illuminati wears crowns." The Bible says, go and wear Crowns; so, get thee behind me. Don't be lecturing me. I have been given a Crown by Christ. Do you see that? So, you also have to stand up to Christians who try and bully you and say, "why are wearing Crowns? Are you a cult?" "No, I'm Christian." Do you understand? And the Bible says, including you. "Let no man take thy Crown." Do you understand? You have to hold on to the sovereignty and inheritance God gave you, as in accordance to Christ, and the King and Queen of God.

And, of course, he also gives the Rod of Iron. And that's why we show discipline, we show reference, we show respect, we show beauty, we show aesthetic qualities. I our gratitude and thanks, and our prayer, that God has given us, that He's entrusted us with this authority, power, love, and a sound mind. We're inviting the police to come. The State Police and the local Police, all welcome to come. The Sheriff. All welcome to come, and to observe the proceedings, okay.

But, again, at the same time, we have to be cognizant, folks. We can't be living in a daze. We have to still be alert and aware, because you know, you never know how Satan can strike. You never know when he can attack. They do target gun-free zones, because when they target non-gun-free zones, they don't do so well; but, there are crazies, two percent of the ninety-eight percent, of the one hundred percent, the two percent that are really crazy, that sometimes target zones that have guns.

So, what am I telling you? You have to be praying for everybody's safety. I'm telling you that if you have the CCW, you're more than able to bring it, but keep it holstered, and keep security around Sanctuary, which of course will give a list to the Police as well, who will be carrying real rifles, okay. Everybody's holding real rifles that also will be able to quickly be armed just in case some satanic attack tries to occur. We don't know, but we have to be prepared, okay.

So, when we stand up for these things, because we're not talking about just the state approved Christianity, which can only talk about spiritual Kingdom. State approved Christianity, fake Christianity, can only talk about only celestial Kingdom, even though Jesus says everyday "Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven." But, as soon as you talk about that, oh, the FBI wants to surveil you. Oh, now the FISA courts want to give them, you know, they're tapping my wire. They're tapping my phones, okay. The FBI, CIA, hello, I hear you every day. Yes, thank you. I know you guys. They're tapping my phones. They got their FISA court warrants, I guarantee 100% they have my phones tapped. They have my car tapped. Everything. No question about it. I guarantee it.

You can't be stupid here, folks. This is a serious thing, and it's not a joke. It's not a joke. Satan's Kingdom is on the verge of collapsing, and they know if people get wind of God's biblical vision for His Kingdom of God, and start wearing Crowns, and having Rods of Iron, oh my gosh. That's just going to be worse than even Trump. That's going to be worse than Trump, if people start waking up, and their true identity in Christ, because Trump is not Christ. He's not God. God alone will define His Kingdom. God alone will define how we'll be ruled; and, that's where it comes in. That's where we all come in, folks.

In the world of Rod of Iron, and the Crowns and Rod of Iron, honest, biblical, God-fearing, God loving people, who their neighbor as well have that power, that as the Scripture says, "He shall rule them with a Rod of Iron, and as the potter's vessel shall be shattered into shivers. That is wickedness, evil, will be broken into shivers. They'll have no place to stand. No place to set foot. No place to organize. No place to rule as Mafias. No place, and they know that, folks.

So, are our lives in danger? Sure. Is my life in danger? Yes. But, when you stand up for something this hot, you have to look destiny and the future in the eyes and say, whatever happens, I am in God's hands, and I trust the Lord my God.

Anybody who comes, everybody is transporting legally. Everybody owns their firearms legally. Law enforcement is welcome here. They can check. We are stating again, we're exercising our freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of association, freedom of assembly, and the freedom of the right to keep and bear arms. All constitutionally protected. All constitutionally protected for every single citizen that exist in these United States of America, whether you are White, Black, Asian, Red, or whatever. It just makes these total race-baiting, racist lunatics on the left angry that Asians are wearing Crowns, Hispanics are wearing Crowns, White folks are wearing Crowns, Black folks are wearing Crowns. It just makes them so angry that you can't accept yourself as a slave on their plantation, Democrat run. Oh boy, oh boy!

Alright folks. Anyways, please be praying for us. Please being praying for the events coming up. This is not a joke. This is the beginning of a turn in history of a revolution of ideas. A revolution of spirit. A revolution of Scripture. A revolution and a debate and a discussion worldwide will begin after this. But, again, there's all that danger looming in the background with the potential of North Korea attacking, all this stuff. Please pray for humanity. Pray for this time that we can get through it and encounter His Kingdom.

Alright folks. Let's end with Cheon Seong Gyeong 192

To achieve this, someone on behalf of God must be victorious over Satan, both as an individual and as an adopted son. Moreover, as a child of direct lineage, he must fight with the satanic world and win over it for God. Otherwise, no one can receive True Parents. This is why providential history has gone through a long course, from the Old Testament Age, through the New Testament Age, to the present day. Through restoring the position of the servant and the position of the adopted son, God restored the position of the child of direct lineage. In doing so, He laid the foundation for victory.

That foundation is now laid, and His Kingdom shall come. Let's all rise. SOS, come on up, and let's give praise and glory to the one who deserves it. Amen-Aju!
