

2018-04-01 ~ Kingdom Rod of Iron 11 ~ Rev. Hyung Jin Moon ~ Newfoundland, PA 18445

Happy Easter everybody. This is a time when Jesus rose from the grave with great power and authority. He changed the world. He changed the world.

Okay, we're going to the Kingdom of the Rod of Iron 11. We are in Mark 10 today. Let's zoom in on the top section guys. Tech team help me move in the top section there. There you go. Perfect. That's perfect right there. Let's read together from verse 13, and this is Mark 10:

Mark 10:13 People were bring little children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them, but the disciples rebuked them. 14 When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. 15 Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." 16 And he took the children in his arms, placed his hands on them and blessed them.

Okay. That's a very important Scripture there. These are the children who are willing to go to Christ. They're excited to go to Christ. They want to be in his presence. They want to receive his blessing. They want to come into alignment with his power. They want to come into his presence. They want to feel the Kingdom of God around Christ, okay.

So, these are children who have that kind of pure heart and nature, alright. These are the children that even the disciples said, "Oh, you annoying little things. Get out of here;" but, God said, "No. Don't rebuke them. Let them come to me," okay, because he will train the youth and he will train the next generation.

This is very important, because look, Satan knows this as well, and so Satan will go after the young people. It's part of Marxism. I mean, it's part of the ten planks of Marxism. You have to take over the education system, and you must indoctrinate the kids. You got to brainwash the kids, right? You got to take over the school system, and you got to brainwash the young kids, so they become Socialists and Communists; and, they don't understand that position, that philosophical position of Socialism. It's an immoral position. It's an unethical position. They believe, what is it? Our car Queen up here, our Instagram, the wonderful little graph. I didn't have it today. Can we get that? No, we can't get it now, right? But, it's an amazing graph. It said, it had a picture of a class. It had the upper class up here, and the lower class; so, this is what Socialism says, "The upper class is a problem, the rich people are a problem; and, everybody else are the victims," okay. But then there's another graph that has a different slice, and that goes through all socioeconomic. It goes through lower, middle and upper socioeconomic status. It's on the right side, it's a red sliver on the right side, and that's the red box. And it says on that graph, "People who will use government to take your things." Okay.

So look, you can have people who are of the lower economic status that are Socialist, that want to immorally take other people's stuff for themselves and their friends; you can have people in the middle class that also immorally want to take other people's things to give to themselves and friends; or, you can have people in the upper class that want to take things, you know, illegally take things from people, and give it to themselves or friends. You see, you could have people from every single class. The problem is not the class distinctions. The problem is the predators in those different strata, okay. It's the people that will use immorality, or the state, to forcibly take resources, and "redistribute themselves and their friends. It always goes back to themselves or friends, okay.

This is what you call social redistribution. How many heard that, right? You've been to college. You heard that one. Social redistribution. "Hey, it's good. Everybody should have health care," you know. Bogg was saying, what was he saying? "Oh, school is a human right, or was it free condoms are free, too." "Oh, free college." I thought he said, free condoms was a right. Oh, my Lord. You know, golly. Give me a break.

But, this boy, he's just making stuff up, okay; and, you have to make a difference between a commodity and public good. For example, in a Socialist system, a Socialist will say to you, "Hey, but you don't believe in a military, or you don't believe in law enforcement, okay That we got to pay taxes for that, right?" They got to bring that up; but, there's a difference between a public good and a public necessity, and a commodity. The security of the state against foreign invasion, that is a public good. That is something which is in economics the difference between that and a commodity.

A commodity which is something within the free market. I'm not an expert on economics, but it's in the free market, and it's something like healthcare. It's something like schooling. It's something like this or that product, or this or that business, or this or that you know, service. Those things are given through exchange, free exchange, mutually beneficial exchange. We're talking about the public good like the military. If there's foreign invasion, obviously people will then be able to contribute to their local law enforcement, or their militia system; and, Cheon Il Guk will have a federal government has one responsibility of federal government is to make anti-monopoly laws so that big corporations can't take over huge markets; and, of course the second thing is to gather the militias, okay, - a decentralized military - gather the militias in times of foreign invasion, okay; but, that can't have like a huge hierarchy in the federal government with this huge military bureaucracy like the Military-Industrial-Complex, which then can be taken over with somebody like Hillary Clinton, or a Hitleresque type person that's funded by the Bilderberg Group and the big bankers to foreclose on the people, steal their assets, and pay the banks back, which Hitler did by the way.

How many know that during World War II, when Hitler was, you know, sweeping through Europe, guess what? Germany's national debt went down or up? It went down. He was paying back the bankers, which is the reason why they wanted him in there. They wanted to foreclose on the national debts, and that's what happened. You know, when the mob comes into your local area, if you're in a city or something, and you haven't paid up on your thing, they come to collect, right? They come to collect; so, they're going to bust up your house, bust up all your kids, you know, beat you up, all these kinds of things, right? In Asia, you have this with the Yakuza. In Korea you have the Kkangpae. They are going to come in a beat you up. They're going to ravage you, and threaten you, and maybe even kill you, right, until you pay it all back. That's how the gangs do that on the local level.

This is just a bigger level. That's all it is. This is on the national level. You have a big, big, big gang, which is the federal bureaucracy of, you know, the Weimar state there in Germany, and the big bankers are funding them to hurry up and collect the money and pay us back. It's like the Kkangpae, or what is it? It's like the Italian mob. That's all it is. It's just collecting on what you owe, or what they say you owe them, and it's a big protection racket, right?

Mobs always have protection rackets, right? You guys have little stores on your street; they come in and say, "Hey, you know, we're going to protect you in this area," right? Okay. "Youse don't want nothing going on over here, right?" Something like that; and, something happens, and obviously, it's one of their bogies, or one of their feigns. They come in and mess up your business, and say, "Oh, look what happened? You didn't pay the fee, right?" And this is what the mob that does this, right? But, at the bigger levels, this is what government does. It's a protection racket. "Oh, for your safety, we need to collect your debt. For your safety, we need we need to do this.” It’s always for your safety, safety, safety, safety, safety, and it’s a protection racket; but, once a nation gets prosperous enough, and realize, wait a minute, we don’t want the government to just protect us, we don’t want the government to just involved in those kind of things. We want the government to protect our assets, cause we’re developing powerful businesses, we’re developing assets, we’re developing these blessings, you know, through our ingenuity and mutual trade, and win-win scenarios we’re building. The government should help preserve our assets, okay.

They should not be in the business of trying to, you know, save the latest class of people who say they’re victims. They got to help us preserve our assets; and, of course, one of the biggest ways to do that is those anti-monopoly laws. Really, really important. But again, always, always people are leaning on the government. They want them to do things for them. Keep me. Do my responsibility for me. Take my responsibility from me. Do this for me. Give me this. Give me that; but, you’re always forgetting if you say the government gives you something, it has stolen it from somebody else; so, it is an immoral act. When is it not immoral to steal something from somebody else?

You can’t have like 30%. Okay, I’ll 30% rob you and steal you and rape you; then that will make it moral; and, a lot of Socialists will say, well, we should have a little of Socialism combined with free markets. We’ll have like 30% or 40%. Alright, so can you rape somebody 40% of the way, and that would make it okay? Alright, can you rob somebody 40% of their assets? Can I go in your house and rob 40% of your assets, and that would make it okay? The problem is that it’s fundamentally immoral.

The basic tenant, the ideology itself is unethical, immoral; and, that’s why we call it a Political Satanist ideology, because it creates the environment to completely legitimize evil, completely legitimize theft, completely legitimize, you know, mobs ruling over you.

What is it, it was Plato that said, “If you do not remain politically active, your inferiors will rule you.” You’ll be ruled by your inferiors, okay; so, that’s why good people, I know good people are busy working, and busy building businesses, and you know busy making success, and beautiful win-win relations, I know everybody’s bidding; but, you got to remember the wolves are still standing around. So, it is critical that good people are also awake. Of course, fighting back as well. Don’t let the inferiors rule over you, folks.

Now, the good thing is, when the Kingdom comes, and you see the Kingdom of God’s Constitution, boy, we don’t have to be ruled by inferiors anymore. Boy, that burden is lifted; but, until the Kingdom comes as Matthew 6 says in the Lord’s Prayer: Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven, see, the Kingdom that Jesus’ is talking about is a physical Kingdom. It’s not just a spiritual Kingdom. It’s a physical Kingdom. A Kingdom that’s physical, that real people will live in, okay. So, in the Kingdom of God, when it comes, that burden will be lifted; but again, there still needs to be vigilance in the Kingdom, right? Cause we know there’s still going to be free will in the Kingdom as well.

We know that in Revelation 20 Satan can gather the four corners of the Earth, and as many as the sands of the sea, says the Bible, to fight against the believers in the war of Gog and Magog. Just read from Revelation 20:7 and on. You’ll see that even though the millennia of Christ’s reign has come, there’s still evil. Whoa! That not your Pastor telling you that; or, your Catholic Church not telling you that, because they already believe that the Catholic Church is the actual Kingdom of God, even though it’s one of the biggest pedophile protecting networks in the world. You know, the normal Catholic is a fine person, you know, a nice person; but, I mean the organization is gone totally decrepit and corrupt.

The Methodist Church teaches that there's no Kingdom of God that will come to this Earth. Many Christian denominations are teaching this. This is an other worldly type of Christianity, when Jesus said himself, his Christianity, his faith will be on this Earth. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven. At the time he said, my Kingdom's not of this world; but, if it were, my believers would fight.

So, it is a Kingdom where and which we saw is ruled with a Rod of Iron is the way in which the citizens and Christ and his Kingship rule the Kingdom. It's not done by centralized militaries, and centralized police forces. It's done by the coheirs with Christ. Romans 8:17, who are heirs with God, heirs with Christ, coheirs with Christ, not only to suffer in his glory, and in the Kingdom of God, they will stand together with authority. In Matthew 19 we see that. Matthew 24 we see. it. He will appoint you as Judges to judge the nations; so, you're not going to be on Christian welfare. Sorry about that. All these Christian Churches, you know, railing on the liberals saying, "Oh welfare state, welfare state, this and that;" and they're teaching the theology which they believe when the Kingdom comes, they're going to be on Christian welfare, cause they're the good ones. They're the believers. No, in the Kingdom, the coheirs will have the responsibilities with Christ. They will rule, poimaino with Christ; they will rule, they will shepherd with him. They will rule what? The Rod of Iron. That's their accoutrement. That's their heavenly accoutrement as described in the Bible. It is a Rod of Iron weapon of tremendous power. It will dash the potter's vessel into pieces you see. It will smite the nations. Also, in Revelation 20, it will send fire from Heaven. Whoa! Some of them wolves are scared of the Rod of Iron; but, as Psalm 23 says, "Thy rod and staff, they comfort me."

They comfort good people, okay. Good people are comforted by the presence of the Rod of Iron. Bad people are put on notice and displayed. It's kind of like Project Veritas and James O'Keefe, who went up to the Democrats, the Congressman and the gun grabbing people; and, they had signs, they had signs. I got to show the video. They had signs, and they said, "This is a Gun Free Zone," because they want to put that sign in front of the schools, right? The Democrats want to put that sign, "This is a Gun Free Zone" in front of the schools. Is that correct or no? Okay.

So, we had Project Veritas undercover. They went to the Congressmen houses on the street; and, they said, "Sir, this is a Gun Free Zone. We like to give this sign to you; and, we like you to put this sign in front of your house saying, your house is a Gun Free Zone? You're willing to put in front of the Elementary School. You're willing to put it in front of the Elementary School with the kids; so, we want you, cause we really believe in gun-control, okay; and, we want you to put this, "This is a Gun Free Zone" in your yard just to show your support for the gun-control." All the politicians, all the liberal Leftists, every single one said, "Well, I'm not going to do that. That might invite somebody in."

They're the ones saying it. They're the ones that might saying, "They might think that they can come into my house." They caught on film. Hello, you idiot. That's exactly the argument. That's why we don't want these signs in front of the Elementary Schools. 'Oh, you know, how about a nice human figure. You know, the cute ones they have in front of the bathroom. A little head, and a little thing. You have their arms bending down like that; and, you got an AR15 right there; and, they say, "Anybody who comes in and tries to harm these children, you'll be met with lethal force." Hey, that may deter them. That's the type of sign you put on your house, right? Alright, it's just so ridiculous these people. Anyways, it's a cult. It's a cult, okay.

They want to call me a cult; they want to call us a cult. They want to call everybody a cult; and, anybody's who's an evangelical Christian is a cult. They're in a cult. I mean, literally there in a brainwashed cult. They can't even see what they're saying, or backup what they're saying.

But, getting back to that, you'll see in the modern day, look what they're doing? They're using the young people. They're using these kind of propagandist children. They're using children, folks, okay. They're using children to say, "Yeah, we claim the youth." The youth are all on the Left, you see. The Leftist is cool, cause Hollywood is on the Left, you see. All the young people are Leftist, you see. We own the young. We speak to the young people, okay.

So, of course, this is a strategy of the Nazis. Stalin did it. The youth brigade of China. Mao. You know, China. Any place where there's Communism, always its the optics of getting the youth. "Oh, we got the youth. The youth want Socialism, you see. The youth want Communism. We're doing it them. Stop trying to blame us. We're doing it for them." You see how they do it?

And then they're going to have these kids that are obviously in a tragedy. This kid, David Hogg, his story is on two different interviews. One interview he was saying, "Yes, I was in my AP environmental studies class when the shooting broke out." He's on film saying that; and, then there's another interview where he said, "When I heard there was a shooting, I got on my bike three miles away from the school, and I rode to the school as fast as possible; so, I could interview as many people as possible." I thought you were in the AP class? He's caught 100% lying. The fact is, that, he can't get his story right. Were you at school, or were you not at school? His dad is in the FBI, okay. His mom works for CNN. On the top floor he was parading around.

Another girl with a shaved head. She's wearing a Cuban flag. Cuban flag? A Commie flag. She's wearing a Commie flag. You think that's Progressive? You're going to lead us to hell. What's so amazing, Soros and the big bankers and all the Leftists, they thought this is going to destroy the optics. We're just going to kill the Conservatives. We are going to kill anybody with common sense and logic. We're just going to destroy them, because we got these young people, and everybody's starting to buy in. We got CNN Town Hall, which is totally staged; and, only have Leftists and gun-control from CNN, you know, talking points reciting their thing. We're totally taking back America towards Socialism.

So, they were promoting this "Marching for Lives" thing all in Washington DC. There was going to be a million people marching. It's going to be so huge. All the youth, and all the kids are going to do a walkout out of their schools; and, of course, the Department of Education, all these teachers were saying, "Walk out, walk out. We're not going to punish you. You're not going to get any DD," which is ridiculous, right? You can't just skip school. You can't just skip school. You're going to get detention; but, of course, they didn't do that. Teachers were giving a free walk.

If you want to walk out for the opposite view, you don't want to do gun-control... You see, guns are not the problem. You see the failure of government. The FBI visiting this crazed lunatic 39 times. 39 times they visited his house. My gosh! You're telling me. Look, if you got one visit from the Chief of Police one time to your house, you're in trouble, right? You know your child is in some poop, right? If your child gets a visit from the Chief of Police, the FBI, the Department of Health Services, whatever the other organizations were, 39 visits to the house, and this kid was pointing guns at people's heads. He was doing aggravated assault. He was saying on line that he was shooting up schools, which is a federal crime in Florida, okay, and the FBI did nothing about it. The FBI did nothing about it. The Sheriff did nothing about it; and, the Sheriff's Deputy just stood down for four minutes letting the kids heads blown off letting the kids die.

They didn't do anything about it, right? But, they don't want to show, they don't want to show the other kids, the other three thousand plus kids who have different opinions that Hogg. No, Hogg is the return of Jesus Christ. Hogg is the untouchable Saint, and Hogg is the holy man from Heaven; and, you can't touch him, you can't criticize him. If you do, you're a racist, bigot and homophobe, and Islamophobe, even though he's not Muslim. Ridiculous! Absolutely absurd.

But they get these, they get these kids, they get the youths. They were so hoping that it was a big youth parade. Guess what happened? Even NBC had to admit that only 10% of the march, only ten percent of the march was under the age of 18; so, that means the high schoolers didn't show up; and, actually secretly they're rebelling. They're saying, "No. It's not the problem with the guns." Most of the high school kids, there was many of them trying to come out, trying to say, "Hey, Hogg let's debate? I want to debate? Hey Hogg, let me get on CNN? How come you don't let our view be heard? How come you only let CNN George Soros talking points, you know, for gun-control be heard? Where's the debate?"

And that's why folks like there it is also. "Save Lives Control Guns;" all this kind of thing. This was "Love Your Children." "Assault Weapons, No!" Okay, these were more images from "Save your life" thing. Now you're having from the Conservative side voices like this young man who's only 15 years old. Let's play this clip:

YouTube 1:09:08 to 1:11:30

(This was a 15 years old son of Alex Jones on YouTube from Info Wars. His name is Rex Jones. He challenged David Hogg to a debate. "Name the time, name the venue, name the date. It's been on Drudge Report and I have no response. I know you've seen it. Why won't you debate me David Hogg? Are you shaking in your boots?" Young Mr Jones is 2 years younger than Mr. Hogg. He accused him for hiding behind CNN and others. He said let's have debate.)

Alright, alright. That is Rex Jones challenging David Hogg to a public debate; so, now if you want to hear the Conservative movement side saying, "Hey, hey, I'm not going to take this." Did you see how articulate that young man is? 15 years old. Dang! I mean, he is really ready go a debate these guys in the realm of the public, and Hogg is hiding again. He's hiding. I don't get this whole thing in America, because, you know. I grew up in America. I'm born here; but, I don't get it, because we were in an Asian home; so, I mean, if you're a teenager, you can't be criticized. Where the hell did that come from? That is nonexistent in an Asian home, you understand. Give me a break! You're a teenager, and you can't criticize a teenager.

I mean, I don't know where they're getting this; but, they're guilt/ shaming the Conservative saying, "Oh, you're just bullying them. How dare you disagree with David Hogg who's speaking George Soros talking points, CNN talking points. How dare you criticize the fact that his dad is an FBI agent, and that his mom is working for CNN. How dare you criticize the fact that he doesn't mention the 39 times that the FBI and law enforcement failed visiting Nicholas Cruz, and weren't able to stop him. How dare you criticize any of that. You're just a bully picking on young kids." Well, Rex Jones is two years younger than him. Rex Jones is like six foot, and he works out in a gym every day, and he's lifting weights, you know. Alex Jones' son is incredible, because now the Conservatives are saying, "You know what? We're going to stand up against this." This is so important.

Remember our Scripture today? We're talking about the children, the young people. The Satanists, the Political Satanists, the Centralists, the Globalists, whatever name you want to put. Whatever name you want to put down the centralized government, they know they have to control the young people. They know they have to get into their minds. They know they have to make them feel isolated and strange and weird, if they have the opposite view, especially if that view is towards sovereignty, towards freedom and responsibility. They have to make them feel like they're the outcasts. They have to make them feel like they're the isolated group, they're the inferiors; and, they got to morally posture them up there with Hollywood and Academic Professors and say, "Ha, ha, ha! We rule over you. Look how smart we are. Bow to us;" but, there's a huge revolution that is happening.

Actually, the eighteen and under group, folks, they're called Generation Z. They're no longer millennial in the category. So, now it's started. Generation Z. Generation Z is one of the most awake generations we had since World War II. They are one of the most Conservative generations that we've had since World War II, because they've seen their liberal parents. They've seen the hippies in the 1960s and all those, you know, liberal Socialists, the lot of them, who then moved on to fight for Bernie Sanders, and fight for Hillary Clinton, all that kind of thing. They've seen them run up the national debt to over 20 trillion dollars, and now they're screwed with over two hundred thousand of personal debt, because of the national debt. How crazy is that? They know they're the ones who are going to have to pay for it. They may not understand the details, and all this kind of thing, but they know that irresponsible way of living, and the free sex culture, and licentiousness, and multiculturalism, and relativism didn't do it for everybody. They screwed everybody.

It increased, what is it? Women's depression rates. It increased divorces. It split families. Women on average are less happy, because they're now just be like men. On so many fronts sociologically, the society has become unhappy filled with despair and nihilism, because once you leave God, and Nietzsche who sort of fathered nihilism, he was the one who said that he feared that if we lose our notion of God that our future will fall in great despair. He actually predicted genocide in the twentieth century, and he predicted correctly. Over two hundred twenty million people genocided and murdered by their centralized governments in the twentieth century. Isn't that incredible? Two hundred twenty million people murdered by their own elected officials, their own government. Don't ever tell me that can't happen here. That's why we got a Second Amendment, folks, to stop tyrants from taking over; and, that's why in the Kingdom of God Constitution, the Second Amendment is the Second Human Right. Not an Amendment, but a Human Right, which of course at the end of it, "shall not be infringed." Amen!

So, this is amazing, because this whole Generation Z, these young people like these guys age, under eighteen you see, these kids age, that's Generation Z. Like these boys here, right? That's Generation Z. That generation is growing up not watching MSNBC. They're not watching CNN. They're not watching the Washington Post.

The Washington Post came up here to do an axe-job on us. They're probably going to do something on us in the May issue. They want to do a big thing on us. They came to our training. "Oh, yes, I went to the Second King's military base on top of the mountain, in their secret bat cave of the garage. Yes. I finally found the cause of the Peace Ninjas studying the arts of strangulation and crippling. There was military accoutrements all over the place." Oh my gosh. You know they're gonna write something like that. Give me a break. I mean it's so obvious. They're always doing that kind of thing; but, the point is, they think they're actually still relevant. The new generation is not even watching them. They're not even paying attention; and, the more they try to lie, the more they try to make up stuff, the more eventually they try to censor us... They have on one of our channels; and, they're messing with the other one, too.

People can find us on the internet. If they shut us off on YouTube, because we're talking about the Rod of Iron, biblical Crown; we're talking about the Bible, they want to ban us from YouTube, fine. We're gonna go to D.tube. We're going to go to what is it? Full 360. What is it that the gun community is going to, as well? Big channels in the gun community are going there. Full30, or something like that. Full30, is that the one? We're going to migrate.

They can't censor us in the age of the internet; and, young people have smart phones. They have access. They can see. They can watch, and get access to ideas, and different things from their phones, from their smart devices. They cannot ban all ideas; and, the more they try to do, the more they spread them. This is what's so wonderful. This is the arrogance of the elites. They think that because we're small, and we don't look like we have a voice, they are just so eager to just stomp us out and destroy us. They tried to stop an AR event, and they spread it to a billion people across the globe, literally. I mean, two billion peoples.

We were just on with NTV. That's Russia. Four million people watch that show in Russia. Four million people. We had an interview with them on Friday; and, they broadcast I guess on Saturday. That's four million people. They wrote us saying, they were begging to interview us, and they were saying, we have terrible gun-control laws in Russia; and, what you did was so attractive. That's what they wrote us. And their channel gets 43 million viewers; but, that program gets four million viewers, so that four million people in Russia who have seen the Rod of Iron. Heard about it, I mean in more depth. I'm not talking about the Reuters, the BBC, the New York Times articles. Way more in depth, explaining it.

Alright. We just had an Argentinian team. Flew up twenty-two hours to interview us. The guy looked like a liberal trendy. He looked like, who's this dude man. Oh man, this guys going to be a hundred percent, a hundred percent Hillary Clinton supporter. Something like that. They come in and interview us, "Oh King, come here and sit, please. Oh King, come here and sit." I said, "Okay, you want to start the interview?" So, I'm ready. I'm thinking he's a liberal trendy, and a hundred percent trying to hacksaw us.

Turns out, after we're talking to him, as we're talking to him some more, turns out the guy is actually super-excited about what we did. He's been begging his producers to come up here and interview us. Why? Because Argentina has a rape rate which is astronomical. Every 36 hours a woman is getting raped; and, I said to him, "Look, your politicians have guns, right?" He says, "Yes." I said, "There body guards have guns." He says, "Yes!" I said, "The criminals have guns, haven't they?" He says, "Yes." You're the only one's without the guns; you see this? There you go; and, he says, "Yes! It's hypocritical. It's so crazy. We are like sitting ducks; and, our women are getting raped, and our houses are getting broken into, and we can't do anything about it." I was totally, totally shocked, cause I thought this guy was a hundred percent, you're going to try and mess with us, guys. He was like totally opposite. He was, you know, a nice dude; and, he was actually excited about what we're doing. Got to make a documentary on it. Maybe even promote it in Brazil, because also micro-macro, Brazil, there's a new presidential candidate who's coming out saying, "Hey, we need a Second Amendment here in Brazil, folks." Yeah!

The whole world is changing. It's like after the 2/28 event, after the 2/28 event it's like people's consciousness. The Spirit World has changed; and, it's like, people are of course the top news, the AR15 is the top news everywhere right now in America, let alone everywhere in the world. I mean, it's like the core issue now. It's the core issue worldwide. It's crazy how this is sending out repercussions into the atmosphere.

So, this is a very exciting time to be alive; but, what's amazing, I want to give you a little encouragement, because we saw the Scripture about the kids. Kids are natural worshipers. They want to worship God. That's why they look toward their daddy; or, that's why the young people can be mesmerized to be tricked. They'll start worshiping idols, like Hollywood stars like Miley Cyrus, and these kind of sluts, because the young people want to worship something. It gives them identity. It gives them this in-group preference. It gives them this, "Oh, yes, I'm part of something that's cool and trendy." But, when you look at it from a Godly perspective, God has put the desire for them to worship inside of them, okay.

So, the Devil knows that; so, he'll switch, and twitch, and spin, and twist to get them off the worship of God, to say that's stupid, to say that's an allusion to prove God doesn't exist, to say we don't need God. There's no intelligent designer. It's all, you know, random mutation, etc. They're going to do every spin and twist to try and get them off of worshipping God; and, then have them worship other things like money; or, the next Scripture in Matthew 10 right there, after he's talking about the kids, he's talking about the rich guy. Remember? The rich guy who said, "I did all the Commandments, Jesus. What else do I have to do to get into the Kingdom of Heaven?" And Jesus said, "Sell all your stuff and follow me." And he said, "Aw, I can't do that;" and, he runs away, right? Remember that?

So, he shows them that he worshiped money, right; and, it's one of the things like some of the young people, they want to go into business, they want to make money. Good, that's fine. You want to be successful, you want to make win-win solutions with other people, you want to mutually trade, you know, mutually beneficial free trade interaction. That's great. But, I did it with my kids. I sat them down to watch this little program about an entrepreneur. He made a very successful company. He said, one of his principles was, "If you want to get into business, this is one of the failures, the traps. One of the ways to fail in business;" and, you know what he said? He said, "If you start your business to just want to make money, you're going to fail. You're going to fail."

You need to have a larger purpose. You need to have a mission. You need to have something that can gather people, and they want to support your business, that makes your business look and feel like something different. That's changing the world. That's impacting it. That's influencing other people. Then they feel happy about giving money to a business as well." I mean, it's not the only thing, but it's one factor. You can't just go in there just to make money. If you do that, you're not going to secure your business, cause you got to get all this buy in. You got to get people to help you. You got to get bank loans. You got to get this or that. You got to get your customers to come in, you know what I mean; and, it's not only about your product. It's also what you're selling. It's who you are. What mission you have as an individual business owner that there inspired about to support you on. Does that make sense? Isn't that interesting?

There's a guy who made tons of money, and he's telling the young kids, "Hey, one of things that you learned, and that you'll fail if you do, if just go into business for money, you're not going to make it. You got to have a larger purpose. You got to have a vision and a mission. You got to have something that will empower people, hey, and that vision or mission will automatically cause other people. That's fine, because then even though they hate you, other people will love you and support you, right? You see that?

So, I'll give you an example. It's about Black Rifle Coffee that is a coffee company owned by veterans. They're super Second Amendment. They're in your face Second Amendment; and, they're the fastest growing coffee company in America, and they're juxtaposing themselves against Starbucks, right.

Starbucks says they're going to hire 440 thousand illegal immigrants; Black Rifle Company says, we're going to hire 40 thousand veterans. Yeah! Excellent! And they're the fastest growing coffee company in America. They're super trendy, they're super cool; but, they got the AR15 right on their logo, okay. But they have a mission. Yes, they're hated by the Left. Yes, CBS Today Morning Show did a positive interview on them, actually, because they love the floral notes in the black coffee apparently; but, they did do a positive thing on them. But, liberal trendies, a lot of them, Starbucks scions, they don't go there. They're from the planet Klingon or something like that. Wherever Star Trek, or something. They don't go to Black Rifle Coffee, right? But, guess who goes?

The Conservatives said, "I'm not going to go to Starbucks anymore, because they're anti-American, they're anti-freedom, and they want to, if I don't support gay marriage, they're gonna say, 'Kick me out as a customer.' F you!" That's what the people are saying. "I'm going to go to Black Rifle Coffee Company; and, I'm gonna buy their black coffee. I'm gonna buy their AK47 coffee." That's one of their coffees. "I'm gonna buy their Glock or their AR15 coffee, okay," whatever they name it.

So, they're hated by the Left; but, then there's a group of people that love them, because they stood up for something that was politically incorrect. They stood up for something that was brave and courageous. They stood up for veterans. They stood up for the Second Amendment. They stood up for people to be able to defend themselves; and, everybody said, "Nobody in the coffee world will ever accept you. Oh my God, you have an AR15 on your logo, okay. Nobody will accept you. You're not going to look like a barista." They're the fastest growing coffee company in America, cause people are sick of it. People are sick of being told of they can or cannot believe. They are sick of being told of what a Conservative is, because you're a Nazi. No. They're standing up for freedom, right? Isn't wonderful?

And so, this is one of the factors that young people had to learn, too. You want to start a business, you want to make money; don't just go in there because you want to make money. You got to have a purpose. You got to have a purpose. This is what's so great.

Now, you see this sweeping the nation. Queue this next video. This is Steven Crowder, who's a libertarian philosopher. He's open Christian. He's open Christian, okay. He's a comedian, but he's an open Christian. He's at SMU in Dallas, TX. That's Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. Sold out auditorium. Sold out auditorium, okay. Sold out auditorium. He did the Crowder, the Louder Crowder Show. Play it, but keep the volume down. He did the Louder with Crowder Show at SMU Auditorium. The liberal trendies and professors were protesting, okay. Yes, yes, the professors were out there protesting, because he's a Nazi and racist apparently, and sold out! It was packed. Complete huge success; and, now he's going to other universities. He's going to be doing a whole college campus tour. He's an open Christian, he's openly Conservative, and Sven the Computer is also coming with him.

YouTube 1.29.10 to

Sven the Computer is one of his co-hosts, okay; so, what he did, he did like a Letterman Show. Letterman's a show, a late night comedian show. He has that kind of program. He has a late night show; and, that's not Gay Jared. He's not gay; and, they had this show, which is libertarian based, which is freedom based, which is logic and freedom based, and of course, he's openly Christian. He made an incredible soliloquy about God at the end.

There's Sven Computer. That's Sven Computer. Sven the Computer is the one who went into the transgender group meeting, and infiltrated the group meeting with a camera, and asked them, "Um, Sven Computer was saying, “You have to refer to me as a whatever.” I mean, you got to see the video. He just boggled their minds. He boggled their minds, and he said, “There’s only two genders,” And all these people were so offended. And Sven Computer was saying, “You want to force me to put windows on my computer.” Oh Lord! People, this guys hilarious.

Now, they do cuss a little bit; so, parental advisory board here. But, they’re a comedian show, but based on sovereignty principles; and, he’s very philosophical. He’s very theological first of all. He’s not a Master in Theology; but, he’s high level into Apologetics. He’s extremely high level in debate; so, he knows his stuff. He knows his stuff; and, the young crowd, college aged students, high school over there. Sold out. Sold out!

See, the liberal Left thought they had control (Turn that down a little bit. Turn that down.) The liberal Left thought they had total control over the students, because they’re in the big schools. North Western this and that. “Oh, we got control of those kids. They’re in our camp. They’re in our indoctrination camp. We got control of them. Now, the libertarians are going in there.

William Lane Craig did with the Apologetics with Christian Theology against the highest level atheists in the world, like Oxford, Cambridge, Harvard. He went and challenged them all, and he went on the campuses and debated them with Christian Apologetics versus Evolution, versus different types of atheistic philosophies, etc. So, he did that with the Campus Crusades a couple of decades ago. Now, what Steven Crowder was doing through comedy is that he’s making conservatism popular again, because it’s such a hilarious show. You should definitely watch this. It’s an hour and thirty minutes long. I’m not going to play it here; but, it’s so hilarious. Nothing makes the dictators more angry than laughter. People are laughing, They’re having a good time making fun of the Left, and they’re insanity; and, they don’t care. They don’t care they’re called White Supremacist or Nazis. Everybody knows that’s a joke. Everybody knows that’s ridiculous. Everybody knows that’s a smearing, you know, a guilt/shaming technique of the Left. They already used it. It doesn’t have no effect no more.

It’s trying to do the same, there’s Joe Biden saying he’s going to beat up Trump, and he’s going to beat up Timmy, Timmy hiding behind the garbage there. There’s Joe Biden, who you know, molests young children. There’s another reason why Joe Biden wants to be on the playgrounds. So, absolutely hilarious show these guys have.

Let us watch a little bit of this here, and I want to jump to the end. Okay, look, he’s going to talk about theology at the end. Watch this: And there goes Biden. There goes Biden.

YouTube 1:32:49 to 1:42:42

Okay, that’s Louder with Crowder at SMU. Now, let’s jump to the end here. Watch this whole section. Now, he’s talking with atheists. It’s a Methodist University; but, there’s a lot of people of all different religions there, okay. Watch this at the end, when he’s doing Q and A. He has the fun at the show like David Letterman style; and, then does Q and A style like a philosopher, like philosophy professors like Jordan Peterson, or like William Lane Craig like theology philosopher professors; and, they go to audience questions. Watch this segment. Go ahead. Jump to the end, not that far. There you go. Right there.

Alright, that was Crowder. Now, we must have missed over that section; but, he brought in the whole section about God. From God our inalienable rights come. "I know some of you are atheists. I know some of you don't believe in God, etc; but, they come from God." You see this whole thing about God. I guess we just jumped over all of that towards the end; but, you can see how the young people, Generation Z is the most open. They're the most open to understanding Conservative values, and reevaluating Christianity, and getting away from this weakened Christianity, this beta Christianity, which will lay down before all governments, and becomes slaves to them, and see them, and see the Scripture in a totally new way, which will see themselves as coheirs with Christ, Kings and Queens of the Kingdom of God, with the Divine Right of Kings that is given to us by our Creator, and by the King of Kings.

This is a totally new radically Christianity that's why of course I'm banned from China, and I'm probably going to be banned from the UK; and, I'm probably going to be banned from every other country that's starting to interview me now, because this is the thing that we're talking about; and, we're the only ones out there that are speaking about the fact that we have the Divine Right of Kings. That Christians should not lay down before the state. They should understand that Christ himself, who comes with a new name, who's seal is from the East, and who wraps a woman Revelation 12 by the Sun and the Moon, who wraps a woman and gives birth to a male child who will rule the nations with a Rod of Iron.

So, we see all those kind of things that are happening, and when we understand that the hot topic now is the Rod of Iron. The hot topic now, not only national, worldwide, worldwide is the Rod of Iron. People are starting to change their consciousness. It's like something happened after 2/28. Something is changed in the atmosphere. People are starting to ask the question, "Wait a minute. Can we also have citizens have the right to keep and bear arms?"

Well, from God's perspective that is a human right to be able to have self-defense, and to defend yourself against predators and wickedness and wolves and psychopaths; and, to be able to stand with coheirs with Christ with accoutrements of Kingship. That is the Crown of sovereignty and the Rod of Iron that stands as a defense for all citizens of the Kingdom of God. To love God and love thy neighbor.

We ourselves become the protective force. We ourselves become our brother's keeper. We ourselves be those who stand against and for our brothers and sisters against evil, against psychopathy, against the wolves, and that we'll stand with God in the Kingdom of Heaven, as it shall be on Earth as it is in Heaven, folks.

So, this is really an amazing thing. This kind of thing is shifting the world; and, Generation Z, folks, they're prepared. Generation Z. We want to encourage the young people. Get your voice heard. Get your YouTube Channel up. Generation Z is ready. They're ready to be talked to. They're ready to be ministered to. They're ready to understand a whole new dynamic. This type of beta Christianity is passing. It's going. And now the true alpha and omega Christianity that standing with the Father God. The Father God, not this feminized Christianity. The Father God with his strong sons, and with his powerful brides with Christ and powerful daughters standing in Kingship with Him, this is the new wave that is coming with Generation Z. So, get ready folks; and, young people, get ready. Start getting ready for Generation Z for they're coming for the Kingdom. Amen! Let's give God a Holy Ghost praise for that.

Those who know that their youth is the time to prepare for young adulthood will become prosperous. The prime of life is the time to prepare for old age. Old age is the time to prepare for the spirit world. I know very well that life is like a training course, a period of preparation in which to attain a great and universal character.

How important, folks. How important. Youth is a time to prepare for young adults. Look, all those youths, you know, these kids age. We need these kind of kids, not only you training combat arts. You got to also train your mind. Also train your ability to tell people things, and to convince people of things. You know, you have to be able to preach the Gospel. You have to be able to convince people using stats and logic. You have to know things. You can't just expect me to do it for you. You can't just expect other people to do it for you. You have to be able to do it. And, you are the ones that is to connect with the next generation that is waiting. They're waiting for leadership. They're waiting for guidance. They're waiting to be guided, not by people in their forties and fifties and sixties and seventies. They're waiting for people in their twenties to lead them. They're waiting for people in their upper teens to lead them, who understand weakness of Socialism, the weakness of relativism, the weakness of multiculturalism, the weakness of all the fake ideologies that lead us into the kingdom of hell, and who understand very clearly the way to the Kingdom – not because you're God, not because you're Christ, any of that; but, because Christ has defined his Kingdom. He's explained it as the rule of the Rod of Iron, and to have sovereignty of citizens and coheirs with Christ. He's defined it. He's shown us the way; and in so far as he's done so, now you young people, you got to start thinking. You got to know be challenged. You got to start being activated and open your YouTube Channel like some of you have done, and have become big stars.

You know, we have some people from the Korean group, and different groups that are going up. You get hated, ooh, trust me. Once you started a YouTube Channel, you're going to get hated. You're going to get scorned. You are going to get cursed. You may even get death threatened; but, that's only going to make you stronger; and, as you stand up, and fight that, and resist against that, that's not only preparing your mental spirit, your spiritual spirit, your spirit man, that's activating you to be prepared for the revolution of the Kingdom of God that is quickly coming to this world; and, you will stand on God's side in that Kingdom.

The prime of life is the time to prepare for old age. Hey, look at that? The prime of life is to prepare for old age. Old age is the time to prepare for the spirit world, and these are all things. See, it's not only the young people. Of course, the young people, it's critical to go out and lead and show young people that they're smart people. Smart, intellectual young people, young voices that are arguing the Kingdom perspective. Very important. But, all people of every age. There's people who's minds can be changed. that the time is ripe. The harvest is ready, you know what I mean? The spirit is moving so powerfully. Things are changing in the atmosphere, in the spirit world, in the entire atmosphere on this globe; and, there's a new wave of thinking that's starting to come.

People are sick and tired of being ruled over by totalitarians. They're sick and tired of being surveilled by the Zuckerberg's, and the Twitters, and the UK governments, and the federal NSA illegal spying machine. People are sick and tired of it. They know in their hearts, they yearn for their relationship with God the Father, and the King of Kings. They yearn for the relationship to understand their own self-identity within Christ, which makes them a King with Christ, which stands with the King of Kings; and, that allows them to understand the gift of sovereignty and the Rod of Iron, which is that through decentralized power, decentralized forces of good people, good people, can have dominion over, because statistically about one percent that are truly psychopathic, right?

There's psychopathic tendencies up to five to ten percent of the population; but, real psychopaths fall in about one percent, or a little less than that, that actually act on psychopathic ways; but, these are the kind of people that get into power, folks, and these are the kind of people that centralized power to themselves. But, it's the reality and the statistics and it's the Science that show that when it's decentralized normal good people, good people like you and me can have the power of life and death. We are the ones that will protect society. We are the ones that will protect our brother. We are the ones that will protect our neighbors. We are the ones who are going to make our community safe, neighborhoods safe, society safe, nation safe. We are the ones that stop the wars, that stop the banking wars, that stop the international, you know, crazy conflicts that are created just to make profit off them. We are the ones who keep the peace. As Scripture said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for they will inherit the Kingdom of God;" and, the oppressed, those who were slaves, who were serfs, and those normal citizens who are always treated as second class citizens, they are the ones who are the oppressed. They are the ones are downtrodden. They are the ones who who know in their heart that they have a larger role than what the society and elites governed for them; and, they know, once they know they their identity crisis, once they know who they are, and stand with Christ and his Kingship and his Constitution, they will see why Christ has prepared them for an hour such as this. That they may rise up, stand up, and they may face with courage, with confidence, with mercy, love but strength and authority against the wicked forces of darkness, which will fail, be eradicated; and, God's Kingdom shall prevail. Amen!

That was a long sentence, by the way. 765, I know life is like a training course, a period of preparation in which to attain a great and universal character. That is our Father. Let's give the Father all the glory and praise. SOS, come on up. Let's all rise and offer Him the praise and worship He deserves. Amen-Aju!
