Now, all you folks know, this week has been crazy, because it was last Sunday, wasn't it? We had Slauson Production Company, big time company. They do documentaries for A&E, Showtime, and Netflix, etc. Did you see the type equipment they came and brought here? It's like a hundred thousand dollar camera. It's like a $100,000 camera. They had like twenty people here on staff. Each one of those people are paid five hundred to a thousand dollars a day. They had like all those crazy stuff. It was like a million dollars on stage. They brought a huge production team down here, okay; and, they brought one of those liberal interviewers trying to throw me off. You can't throw the Second King off. Come on. You can't throw me off. Trying to bait me into stupid questions. Give me a break. I am no fool, you understand? Goodness, it was so ridiculous. Anyways, you could tell, it's amazing. Apparently she's some kind of famous interviewer person; and, she's like. I haven't seen her. Tim said, he's seen her a lot on different news broadcasts and stuff.

Of course, after that, we had Washington Post. The Washington Compost. There you go, working with the CIA, you know. Six hundred million...billion, billion dollars. Million. I'm sorry. Six hundred million. Boy, these numbers translating back and forth into Korean. Boy, it's driving me nuts man. It screws up my English, too. You know what I mean? The numbers are crazy when you're translating back and forth. Totally insane. They they set up, you know, different shoots outside. We had to do different shoots. They wanted the Crown.

But, a six hundred million dollar contract with the CIA. These guys are completely in bed with these things. Anyways, totally Deep State people, but they came out again. They set up their camera crew. It was one guy; but, they have tons of camera stuff. They shot us and the Ninjas training, and then some BJJ training, and the entire flipping training, and cross fit training; and, then they came again in the morning for taking photos of the studio. I mean, he was taking pictures all over my desk and everything, you know. He was taking pictures of everything. What a weirdo.

Anyways, then they set up these, you know, these different shoots outside; and, we had to do different shoots. They wanted the Crown. They wanted the Golden Rod of Iron, etc; and, so they took some nice pictures; but, don't be fooled. It's going to be a slam job. These people are a hundred percent Commies; so, it's going to be a slam job like they always do. That's how the media works. They're the nicest to you. Oh, they're so nice. They're so nice. "Oh, could you do... Oh, thank you so much. It's beautiful." Whatever, you know what I mean? "He has like a military compound, training groups of terrorists, and children of fifteen and thirteen years old training firearms ready to be revolutionaries to take over this country." You know, they're crazy. They're nuts. That's how they are.

That's how they are. You got to understand the way, the character of the beast. The character of the beast. They will woo you. They will try to bamboozle you with it's power, and it's glory. You know, the Bible says that when the beasts appear out of the Earth, that people will actually worship them. They get power by Satan, the Dragon; and, then people actually worship the beasts. You can see that within the Deep State with it's infrastructure they're creating, you know, with all these Black Op organizations within these shadow governments that are ruling this permanent ruling class that is above all these politicians, etc. They are completely worshiped by these people. It's a total cult. It's a total cult; and, it's like amazing, you know. It's like all the psychopaths just converge into this, you know, this non-transparent shadow government. You know what I mean? It's just so...and, they're a big apparatus. The Washington Post is a big apparatus within that.

You know, they're exactly... their President is the owner, is the Head of Amazon; and, of course, he's a total enemy to you and your family, and an enemy to anybody who wants to be free, and a total enemy to sovereignty, you know, freedom and the ability of self-defense of the normal folk. He's against everything. Total totalitarians, authoritarian. Total wicked Political Satanism, okay.

So, don't be fooled. These guys are not here to do a nice piece on us; but, this is what the insanity of the age. All publicity is good publicity; so, they try to slam job us. They try to mock us, and say we're crazy, and all this, and they promote it; and, they have it on the cover of their magazines, and their little newspapers, which are trailing and collapsing, and only the real cultists are reading them. I mean, the millennials don't look at the Washington Post. Young people don't look at CNN. Nobody reads CNN under forty, or maybe forty-five. Hardly anybody watches CNN under that age group, right?

So, it's completely dead; and, it's like they're trashing, it's like their death throws. They're still wanting to be relevant, pretending that they're powerful, because they can still steal government money through taxation; but, they're dying, they're totally dead. So, the ideas of their self-relevance is so pathetic. In fact, the more they try to slam us, the more publicity it gives us; and, people can click on a YouTube Channel, and just watch for themselves as we say, and we're not actually that crazy. We're not crazy at all. You'll see as you listen. We make a lot sense, okay. We make sense.

So, it's been nuts. They want to send now their video team to film us, you know. We don't know what they want to film; but, they're putting hundreds of thousands of dollars out. Thousands of dollars into this article. They're doing quite a big piece on us. You know what I mean? It's pretty crazy. But, apparently, they'll send a video team. We're kind. We're nice to them. We've nothing to hide. We are completely doing everything legal. We are training our people to be empowered. You know what I mean? And, it's hard for them to attack, especially one of the interviewers. "So, is everything here like a Patriarchy? You know, does the wife have to do what the husband says, right?" I said, "My wife is a very dangerous and powerful woman, do you understand?" The Queen, that's how we train. We train together; so, our spouses are strong, and their deadly. Do you know what I mean? And, I said, "Hey, the Bible says to love and respect;" and, we got into a whole discussion about love and respect with this lady. She couldn't say anything. She couldn't say anything.

I mean, that thing is so blasé, so blah, trying to say, "Oh, you're a Patriarch." We got so many girls that are like training, and they're in power. You know what I mean? We have probably one of the biggest girl communities for training these kind of combat arts. You'd be hard-pressed to find other places that has this many young ladies, who are training these kind of hard arts, cause they're not easy. They're not easy at all. It takes a lot of emotional and mental fortitude to get through this stuff, cause it's so depressing. Sometimes, you get beat up, constantly; but, it's so absurd when they try to come in, and play that game. Absolutely ridiculous. But, you see, of course, wherever the Kingdom of God Gospel is preached, it upsets people. It really does. It really upsets people.

We're going to see that again in Mark 15; and, of course, this is the scene were it upset the hierarchy and establishment so much, the Deep State, because the Pharisees you understand, were part of the Deep State. They were the intelligence agency for the Jews. So, let's say they were like a little Department of the CIA, you know, that were specifically for the Jews, to keep the Jews in line. Just like they'll have Al Sharpton to keep the Black communities in line, or, what is it? Jesse Jackson to keep the Black community. You know, they work directly with the CIA. I mean, Al Sharpton has openly said, he's working for the FBI in doing "drug busts." That guy is totally connected in; and, they'll use people of the same race keep that community oppressed, and in the Plantation under the hierarchical control.

So, whether it's Al Sharpton, or whether it's the Pharisees, they're operating in the same way. The same way. We can see, wherever Christ started preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom, it started upsetting that entire narrative. It started upsetting the entire structure they are creating. We can see that Pharisees hated him so much; and of course they're calling for his death, death, death, death, death, death; and, of course, they eventually get the Romans to say, "Okay, fine. We're going to kill him;" and, of course, Jesus ends up on the Cross, and he dies here. This is the scene where Christ is killed.

Mark 15:36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying: Let alone let us see whether Elias will come to take him down. 37 And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. 38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. 39 And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God. 40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; 41 (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him:) and many other women which came up with him unto Jerusalem. 42 And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

Mark 15:36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let atone; let us see whether Elias will come to take him down. 37 And Jesus cried One of the soldiers ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar and gave it on a reed, and gave him to drink. After this, he was stabbed here in the heart, which was the killing blow to make sure that the person is dead on the Cross, right? He came right to here into the heart. Boom! And stopped the heart. And this is the scene here: And Jesus cried in a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. He gave up the ghost. He cried out, and gave up the ghost.

And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom, fulfilling prophecy again; and, the centurion which stood over against him saw that, and he so cried out, and he gave up the ghost. He said truly this man was the Son of God. Immediately, they had recognized that they done something wrong. They knew that this man was different.

There was also women looking on from afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less, and of Joses, and Salome, who also, when he was in Galilee, administered unto him; and, many other women, which came up with him unto Jerusalem.

And now, when the even was come, the evening had come, because it was the preparation, that is the day before the Sabbath, Joseph of Arimathaea, an honorable counsellor, which also waited for the Kingdom of God, came and went in boldly unto Pilate, and graved the body of Christ. This is the body of Jesus Christ, or of Christ right there.

Okay, so we see here, the Kingdom Scripture here, is referring to Joseph of Arimathaea. He is a rich man, he is a wealthy man. What's interesting here, is that, the Kingdom Gospel does resonate across socioeconomic status. It doesn't only apply to the poor. Of course, there's the poor that get tremendous strength from hearing the Gospel preached; and, course, we know that early Christianity burgeoned. Expanded very quickly amongst the slaves and other classes - slaves, servants, etc; but, they are also people across the strata of society, like Joseph of Arimathaea, like different people who encountered Jesus, even soldiers, right? Centurions who encountered Christ.

Of course all, and they're part of the Deep State. They're part of oppressing force of the world; but, the Gospel of Christ appeals to them, because they're not... They may be acting out their sociopathic sort of aims; but, in their hearts their not psychopathic. They're operating in a system, where in order to get ahead, they have been totally brainwashed that they have to buy into the system, to become part of this in group, and then they could succeed. You look at Korea. You look at Japan. It's kind of like that, too. Look at the Left in America. It's totally like that. It's a cult; but, there are people who have a yearning for something other than that totalitarian, that authoritarian Political Satanism, that know that in the end, this is wrong, and know that this is evil; so, yeah, people in the Deep State in America as well. Even though it's so corrupt at the top, it's rancid; but, there are good people who do leaking. They leak to Breitbart. They leak to Info Wars. They leak to the alternative news. They do good things to try and expose what's happening, and to stop, for example, the government's going to try and do a false flag attack. They're going to try to leak it to good people, so that before it happens, the public knows about it, and they're awaiting. They're waiting for it.

So, we see the Gospel of the Kingdom does cross, across socioeconomic strata; and, we also see that in those graphs that we show, maybe a couple of months back, but breaking up society, not in terms how the Left breaks it down. Black versus White. Rich versus poor. That's not the proper breakdown, because you can have predators who are White. You can have predators that are Asian. You can have predators that are Black. You can have predators that Hispanic. It doesn't matter what race you are, you still have a population of that, of any population that will be predatory, that will be psychopathic, right?

Psychology say up to five to ten percent of the people have psychopathic tendencies; and, maybe less than one percent will enact them out. They'll act them out. You know, doing mass shootings, or crazy stuff like that; but, there is the tendency to come to crave power, right, coupled with a large part of the population that if it's in their incentive, they will go along with evil. They will do it. They will do it.

And this is the scary thing about power, because when you say for example: If we lived in Germany during the time of the Nazis, and you know, we don't have of this fifty, sixty years of understanding of how evil that was, and we're in it, and just slowly it's becoming more and more centralized, etc, you would know people who would work in the government. You would know people who were law enforcement. You would know people, who within a couple of years will be at your door shipping you off to death camps to kill you. You would know them; but, in your mind you'd think, "Oh no, they would never do something like that. That's kind of crazy." You know what I mean? "They're so nice. I mean, I know their wife, I know Karl's wife," you know what I mean; or, his children. You know what I mean? I know Michael's wife, right? You would know these people; so, in your mind you'd think, "No, no, that could never happen here in German, because we're modern. We have technology. We have airplanes, you know, etc. You got to put yourself back in those shoes.

In the same way here, there is a Deep State, which is totally creating a mutiny against President Trump right now, that is trying to go against, that is trying to brainwash him. Politically assassinate him, tear him down. That is trying to make him into a Neocon, and start useless, crazy, crazy, interminable, I mean, these endless wars, which we're constantly fighting, which of course collapsed the Roman Empire. Just endless, endless war, war, war, war, war, war, war, war, and exploitation.

But, there are good people in the Deep State community. That doesn't mean its ninety percent. I mean, Joel Skousen in that interview with Alex Jones we showed a couple of weeks ago, he was saying, "Maybe it's, we don't know, it's fifty-fifty. Maybe it's sixty percent. It could be thirty percent that would resist it. Maybe sixty percent of the Deep State would follow the order to put gun owners and evangelical Christians into death camps. Maybe forty percent. We don't know. It's a proportion; but, it's people who usually say who are in the military say, Oh, it's five-ten percent. I don't know about that. When you can squeeze them, when you squeeze their future courage, you their, you know what I mean? Squeeze their pensions. Oh, you do this, you'll lose everything."

You know, people give in so quick. "Oh, I got to think of my wife. I got to think of my kids. You know, I can't let them go starving. I am just following the order, following the law," you know what I mean? "I'm just trying to follow the law." You see what I mean? And just people do it. It's very hard to actually be politically present in the moment, understand an evil authoritarian system coming over you, and realize, "Whoa! I got to stop and stand up against this." That's a very rare mind, actually, especially... (Rev. Hyung Jin Nim is talking to Pierre Tardy:) What was that? 95% in Weimar Germany, in Nazi Germany. Oh, in your opinion. Okay, so Pierre says 95%. He's European. He may know, okay. That's what happens in Europe, okay.

So, you do have a population of good people. The problem is, with the centralized form of Political Satanism is that it magnetizes people who are lusting for power, and using that power for the exploitation of others to get resources. That's the problem. It's like the magnet for parasites. It's a magnet for wicked people, even though they dress nicely in suits, and their little elites, you know, in Washington DC, going to little Park Avenue Starbucks, or whatever. They're still retched and rancidly evil inside. They have no qualms about killing you and your family to get rid of the bitter clingers and firearms in the country, and all those Second Amendment crazy gun lovers, and all those crazy Christians, who believe in Mythology. They like Thor and Zeus. That's what they say, right?

So, we see that what the Gospel can touch is not going to be just along those classically dividing lines that Marxism delineated, or cultural of Marxist 101 delineated. It more touches people who have a heart, or people who lost their heart by selling their soul to power, right? People who are psychopathic, or have psychopathic tendencies, who are now saying I going to enact upon that. I'm going to join this cabal so I can get more power, or sociopaths who do the same for a little pension, saying, "I have no problem being a B or C man to this power structure, this elitist power structure. The Bilderberg Group, to the George Soros' etc, as long I get my money, and I can enjoy, you know, five-star restaurant food quality, and to have Starbucks every day. I mean, people are like motivated by very, very small things, you know what I'm saying? Go and do a little shopping spend a couple of thousand dollars, you know, if you don't mind going shopping. You know what I mean? Get some nice little food and stuff. You know what I mean? Get your little Starbucks. I mean, from the Deep State, they'll do it.

So, really, society is divided up by, who is going to be psychopathic, and who is not going to be psychopathic. Whether you can be in a low economic strata; but, you can still be psychopathic. You can be in the middle economic strata, and still be a psychopath; you can meet the upper echelons. There are psychopaths. Look at Jeff Bezos. Look at that guy? That robotic, two-eyed, two-faced, you know. The guy has eyes that look like, you know, they face in two different directions. He's got this maniacal laugh. He walks along with dog robots that could tear your head off. That guy is a nut. He's crazy.

See, you got really psychopathic people at the top, too; but, it's not only on top, it goes all through the strata, and they're kind of, it's almost like a species. They kind of putting out signals, and pheromones to attract their same species, you know. Hyenas. Hyenas converge, so we can take this over. You know what I mean? It's crazy. It's so insane.

But we can see, when the Gospel is preached, it's so disruptive, because the Gospel of the Kingdom is talking about the Kingdom, that will supplant and replace the kingdom of authoritarian and totalitarianism; that all of history, continually, in cycles of depression and suffering have experienced over and over again, and they keep on falling into the same old trap over and over and over again; and, it's amazing, it's like watching a slow car accident happening in every single generation. It's like a disaster; so, when the Kingdom is preached, it does upset the ruling class, it does upset the other classes.

Now, I want to show a video, which is brilliant. Of course, everybody knows that I like this Philosopher, even though he's an atheist; but, he's very, very, very appreciative of Christian culture. Let's put it that way. But, this is one of his most, sort of a famous documentary. Not documentary, pieces. Let's look at this real quick.

YouTube 1:12:52 to 1:25:42

(Stefan Molyneux tells a story of how you can finally be free. At first we could hunt and fish off the land; but, we became afraid of death. When we become afraid of death is when become so controllable. The greatest resource becomes another human being. Creation has no long-term memory; but, humanity can be threatened to get him to do things, because one can be controlled into his future. Human farming is the result of this. Slaves was the first attempt. This was limited, because the whip could only do so much to motivate people. The second phase is the Roman model, where they were allowed some creativity, which raised their productivity. This increased the wealth of Rome; but, it eventually collapse because it became an Empire, which went back to the older system of control, and collapsed. After that, the consumer model of livestock ownership and taxation developed in feudalism. Instead of being directly own, peasants farmed land that they could retain, as long as they paid off the local warlords. This model eventually broke down due to the continual subdivision of productive land, and was destroyed during the enclosure movement when land was consolidated, and hundreds of thousands were kicked off their land, because of new farming techniques, which made larger farms more productive. The democratic model is that we only have freedoms as long as the rulers are gaining wealth. Thus, human farming. Three phase: Indoctrinate the young. Second phase is to get citizens against one another. Third phase is to have continual external threat; so, that the frightened livestock cling to the protection of the farmers. This system of farming is now nearing it's end. Wake up! To see the farm is to leave it.)

And that is Stefan Molyneux. Wasn't that amazing? You notice, there's one point he's talking about this one point, you know of course, if you listen to his podcast, you can see how it breaks down so intelligently why the state, you know, in his words basically Satan, okay, and he's so much more positive about Christianity, because he was saying... Of course he doesn't like Christianity who colludes with the State; but, he's saying, look, with Christianity, because of the Left, and the indoctrination camps of young people who colludes with public schools, they'll teach them, "Oh, it's the religions that keep you oppressed in your minds stopping you from being allowed to be free, or it's traditional values. It's your parents. Your parents are keeping you traditional, right? But notice they'll never say anything about the State. Never say anything about the State. When the State has power, it is something so much more evil that will control you, that will take your property, that will surveil you, that will exploit you, whether you like it or not; and if you don't like it, you're going to prison, or you will die.

So, it's almost like, of course, we see they're forms of religion for example like radical Islam, that it is a political system tied in with a theocracy. That's a very... obviously, that leads to totalitarianism. Did you notice what he said in the beginning? He said, some people confuse it, because they see the State. It provides healthcare, it provides water, safe water, food; but, also farmers provide their animals healthcare, medicine, water and food. Isn't that incredible?

But, think about it. Think about it, all these young people here: When did the young people ever hear this? Will they ever hear this in a public school or a college? You will never, never hear this, because as he pointed out, the colleges, and the institutions of education are apart of the control, the farming; and, they of course are dependent on the State, like all the colleges now predominately in the US upon federal grant money. They want that money. Send us that money. We'll collude with the government, allow it to be an immoral power that steals from people, that plays these little tricks, that subdivides our land, or that allows to feel we're free cause we choose our occupation, but really, the more successful you become, the more they steal from you, and it only goes up and up. It doesn't stay the same. Income tax use to start at one percent. Less than a percent. Like one percent.

Now, it's what? For some people are paying up to sixty percent of their income in the United States. Do you see this? It's the State. It's that system, where the centralized power that killed Jesus Christ. Persecuted him. Hunted him. Same thing that hunted True Father down whatever country he was in. It was the State that constantly persecuted him, and of course many of the types of state Christians churches that were run by the State; but, basically organized people to keep them under control like Al Sharpton, under a political fascist, or political central model. Basically, become like the Joel Osteen churches. These churches that teach a Communist Jesus that hated Father. In fact he was persecuted by the North Korean government, South Korean government, Japanese government, and the American government. Wherever he went, it is the governments that came after him. Same as Jesus. Wherever they went they disrupt the structure of centralized power, and centralized government.

The Gospel of the Kingdom is so disruptive. It's so, in their minds, it's so evil, because it stops and puts monkey wrenches into their very profitable human farming. The idea that those animals, these livestock should have proper education understanding what the farm is, understand what these people are trying to do to them, and that should be armed with AR-15 is crazy to them, and that these livestock should think that they are Kings and Queens. How dare they. How dare you pigs and cows do that, right? I mean, that's what it is. How dare you hogs think your Kings and Queens, right? How dare you ducks and chickens. What else do they raise? What was that? Pigs. Pigs. How dare you think that you have the right to defend yourself, right? How dare you think you have the right to private privacy, that we can't just intrude on your lives at any given moment, or take your land. You see that? If young people understood this from an early age, this is exactly what Communism is. It's human farming. Communism, anytime there's a centralized government, it is human farming.

This is an education young people should be getting at Elementary school. They should be learning what Political Satanism is, and how it seeks to continually increase human suffering in this world, but they won't You'll never hear it. I mean, our Japanese brothers, these young people in the Academy, or Korea, they know too. They are from very highly centralized nation. You dare to think differently, you'll be ostracized, and you know, they're very homogeneous, they're all the same race, they're all the same clan; so, being ostracized is the most scary thing for the Asian person. It's like death, you know, if you're ostracized, right? But the young people should be learning this. Do you see why the Political Satanist fears so much. If the citizens ever thought they were sovereign, they should own property, they should have the right of Kings, they should not be taxed, and they should defend their land against any intruder, including those farmers who try and come to farm them, you understand how much a problem that is? That is a serious problem for those exploiters.

Now, do you see why, even though we're such a small community, we have the largest media institutions in the world spending thousands and thousands of dollars to try and cover what we're doing here. I mean, tens of thousands of dollars of their own money that they probably stole from the government. You know, they got from the government. Why? Because it's crazy. We're telling the livestock, not only what Stefan Molyneux was saying, not only be awake. Like you see the farm is when it ends it. To see the farm is to be free of the farm, right? That's like the gist of what he said at the end, right? To see the farm is to be free.

But, then again, that's a mental step away, you're able to see the farm; but, in the Kingdom of God, you are totally other, you're not even categorized as livestock, cause you have the blood of God, the blood of Christ in you. We have Royal blood. So, even though we may be small, we may be little, and we maybe made to free, that we're isolated, and we're weak, we are powerful. We are strong in Christ, cause we have the blood of royalty. That's true and legitimate. That's from God and the King of Kings; and, oh boy, if the livestock start believing that, that crap is what they think it is, okay, boy if they start believing that, it's going to be a problem. That's going to be a serious problem to the world order that they created. I'm talking about to the world order.

That's why these predators and these wolves, they smell these things. You can see it? They smell the danger of that type of Gospel; and, they're releasing these pheromones, like these hormones into the atmosphere to work up all their other hyenas in a great attempt in their narcissism, and their diluted sense of power, cause they know they're running like a mafia cartoon. They know it's unstable. They know there's competing groups. They know there are cartels competing with them, and have to stay in power, and they have to create their hidden hegemony, and they have to beat those other guys. They know their in a constant rat race of trying to stay in power, and exploiting populations; and, they know they have to ally with some of the evilest forces on the planet like radical Islam, or ally with Saudi Arabia, or ally with North Korea, or ally with Iran, etc, to bring this about. The Bilderberg Group, the Roman Catholic Church, centralized Christianity, which will teach its Socialist message to brainwash their congregants.

That's not Christianity. That's a total Satanist Christianity, where the people are not understanding their relationship to God, the Creator, the Christ; but, they're being put under a Roman Catholic Church hierarchy. The biggest in the world. A billion followers, which is totally one with the State. It has its own federal bank, which is above the law. It can't be audited. And the leader is, of course, saying all the talking points of these evil Political Satanists. Global warming, human carbon taxes we should do, you know, no borders so we could deplode and destabilize countries, and use the prosperity to get humans to be somewhat productive; then implode it; then steal all the resources that they created. That's why these crazy waves of migrants coming through. Destabilizing Europe. Taking it down. Eradicating its Christian history, because if people remembered what the Gospel of the Kingdom was that Jesus was talking about, that early Christianity was spreading like wildfire, and inspiring the hearts and minds of men, right? Like brush fires that have been set in the hearts and minds of men. That's what the patriots, the founding fathers said.

It was setting fires in the hearts and minds of men. That's why people were saying, "I'm on fire with the Holy Ghost." The people were getting on fire. "I'm not going to be a slave anymore. I'm not going to be a serf. I'm a good person. I'm saved blood. I'm a sinner; but, I know I've been saved by the blood. I'm not here to oppress people. I'm not here to control people. I want to free. Free to worship God. Free to love God. Free to love and protect my neighbor. I want to be free from these totalitarians."

Ooh, and that fire was building. You see, if this Completed Testament, where Father is giving us the Constitution, he's giving us the actual Kingdom, he's giving us the final piece; and, it's like so good, cause remember, why are you focusing on the Rod of Iron? Cause it's in the Bible. The Rod of Iron is the rule of Christ and his coheirs in the Kingdom of God. I'm not making it up. You have to read it for yourself; and, he does it for a reason, because you can be livestock, but if you're livestock that has no teeth or fangs, you're dead. You may think you're free, you may be able to see the farm; but, if you don't have teeth and fangs, you're never gonna get out; and, sometimes, it's not like you have to have to use them. Sometimes, just by having them, you'll never be put in a cage, especially if you have a group. They won't even try. And of course, as the video showed, in places where they do try, it results, even when people disarm, it results in tremendous upheaval. It's very unproductive for the farmers, the human farmers. It's a loss. They lose money, even when the population is unarmed, let alone if the population is all armed. Oh! Whoopsy-daisy! That's why the accoutrements of the Kingdom of God are so important. The accoutrements. The Crown that symbolized our knowledge, and our relationship, and our lineage to the King of Kings. Do you see what I'm saying? The direct connect that no one can break.

The people can mock us, the people can laugh at you. It doesn't matter. I know who I am. I am a child of God, the King of Kings, and the God Almighty and the Most High. I am a child of him. I am a coheir with Christ the Kingdom of God, which he will rule with the Crowns and the Rod of Iron. Thank goodness we'll succeed; and, finally, finally, after the millennia of human suffering, and cyclical suffering, over and over and over and over again, we'll be freed from these totalitarian farmers, these human farmers.

Really, what Satan is. That's what he's like, right? He's feeding off, the Bible says, "He's like a roaring lion to maim and kill you." (1Peter 5:8) Roaring and wondering to maim and kill. He's like trying to feed off of you; and, that's why they hate, they hate the notion of the Rod of Iron. They hate it! Oh boy, they wish the Bible would have just said flowers, or something like that, or like a, I don't know, water. Whatever, water! They just, they hate that it's the Rod of Iron, that it's the biblical rule, because they know that the world has the Crown, and they have the Rod of Iron. They know who they are. They are not on a farm. They have their Kingdom. That's a world you cannot control. You cannot control that population. It's not possible; and, of course, on top of that, you have the Kingdom of God Constitution, which then further puts more checks and balances; but, the real checks and balances are right there. It's where the men and women, all of us equalize one another. That's the real check and balance.

It's the ability for every single person to be able to equalize everybody else, which keeps us honest, which keeps us good, which keeps us knowing not to exploit other people, unless we get big consequences. It's when the Kingdom, when the world can inherit, not the spirit of fear as the Bible says in 2 Timothy, but the spirit of power, love, and a sound mind. See, God wants humanity to inherit power, and that power has to be centered on love, and love has to be centered on a sound mind, which is connected and yearning towards God. I love that piece. You know, we should show this piece, you know, to people if they have a DP class, or something. You can show that piece to visitors. I mean, we didn't produce it; but, it's a fantastic piece. It's a great piece. I really like it. (He was talking about Stefan Molyneux)

(Video showing woman shooting and discussing in the background)

Alright, just go play this. Keep the volume down. Play this real quick. This is what the controllers don't like to see, okay. They don't like to see this, because you can have, yeah, the males in a population could be dangerous. If you look at livestock, if you look at animals, and let's say you have two; alright, the male animals have more testosterone. They fight together a lot. They're prone towards violence; but, if they see, not only the male population, cause it's kind of natural. The males who aloud to free, they're gonna understand, and have arms to defend themselves, because they know that's the safety for their genetic progeny. That's their safety for the children they'll create, okay. But, in a civilization, where also the women, the women from a young age, understand self-defense, understand their value.

They're not brainwashed by literal Leftists. "Oh, just be safe. Let's not have this. It's just sex. It's just a boyfriend. He's hot, he's cute. Ah, do it, baby. You'll love it;" and, then they're crying afterwards saying it was horrible. I didn't feel anything. It was terrible; and, they just got their virginity snatched from them and stolen, right? Total lies that are sold to you by Hollywood, and all these movie making, and porno, and women porno, which is, you know, dramas. Same affect on the brain. A women's brain, as pornography is on a man's brain. It's like being trained by the fallen Eve, if you're watching dramas, and getting addicted to dramas in Korean, and drama porn, right; whereas, it's men, too. If you are watching porn, you're addicted to porn, you are going to be trained by the archangel. It's going to screw up your life, too, right?

But, this is what totalitarians don't want to see. They don't want to see law abiding people have access to these, cause they're going to show, it is the weapon of choice; when, the AR-15 is really not. 70% of the mass shootings are done by pistol, by the way. Did you know that? By pistol. They're done by pistol. The mass shootings are done by pistol.

But, these are ladies, who are saying, I love to be empowered. I love to train. I love shooting. Black, White, it doesn't matter. I'm a human being, I know my follow, and know I have to be protected, I know I have to do something about it. I know I can't rely on somebody else to do it. I know, I am capable of doing so. Think about it. It's a very, it's a very empowered way of thinking. It's a very entrepreneurial way of thinking. It's a CEO type of mindset, right? I can do it. You know what I'm saying?

So, this kind of mindset is great, if you're starting a new business, you know what I mean? It's like you have an empowered mindset. it's like not letting someone do it for me. You're willing to take the risk. You're practicing to take the risk. Look at that? These women are training to take the risk, if they have an encounter at some point; and, they're going on, they're talking about they love the AR. I mean, once you understand, once you come into the firearms community into the firearms world, into martial arts Wow! You realize that there's a hierarchy of fear. Like a pistol is one level, and that's scary; but, you bring an AR, it's like a whole other level of scary. You know what I mean? You bring a shotgun, and you show those videos last week with Karl from, you know, the Tactical Rifleman, he was shooting bird-shot, but I mean, it shows you the huge disadvantage of the shotgun compared to the AR15.

So, what is a tool that would have access to that normal people who would are not be super Ninjas, that who are not of an age group, but who love God, love their neighbor; but, who are not psychopathic, not exploitative. They do not want to dominate and control people. They want to live their life. They want to have a great life with their family. They want to have a great life with their children, their community. They want to have a wonderful life. Love God, they want to help God, their neighbor. They want to help people. Do you know what I mean? They don't get off on these power trips of colluding, and breaking the law, and doing things illegally, but you know, making laws that prohibit people from doing stuff; but, you can do it, because you're part of the elite class, part of the in group, part of the Bilderberg Group, whatever it is, you know. They don't get off in being evil like that, normal people. It's like these psychopathic, you know, people from a young age craving power, who always been dumped by the girls, or whatever. You know what I mean? It's always these wackos that are like lusting for that power, like, "Oh, if I only had that, it would make me so happy." Right? They're crazy.

But, having access and technology in the Kingdom of God, which the Bible says will have access to certain items, that Christ will give us certain items, which will help keep rule, it will help keep protection. It will help keep shepherding over the nations of the world.

Alright, realistically, realistically, now let's pretend you never heard me speak. Realistically, there is nothing on this planet that allows the normal person to do that other than this type of technology. This type of Rod of Iron technology. You can keep predators away with smart phones. You can keep people away with even mace, or something like that. People on PCP, they're like zombies. They don't get affected at all. You saw the guy got shot three times in body right through the heart, three times. The guy kept moving. You had to put one in the brain-box. You see, I've shown you the videos on "Active Self Protection." People get stabbed; they're running around still fight for two, three, four minutes; and, they got stabbed in the heart. Straight in the heart. Right?

What is the power that a normal man, that a normal woman, who may be injured, who may be handicapped, who may be small in stature, who may be disabled, what kind of power do they have over somebody that's trying to use force and evil upon them? What physical accoutrements? There is none. You can't do it with a knife. You can't even do it with empty hand martial arts. You can be highly skilled, and even then, if the person's highly skilled, he'll dominate you. What is the true equalizer that we have access to in the modern day, when the peace is centralizing, and there's a whole world system now of surveillance, and Zuckerberg and Facebook, and them openly admitting that they're datafying your information, and they're selling it to marketing companies, etc? I mean, how do you stay free from these people? They don't know.

Number one, you cannot understand that you are livestock. You cannot understand that you are pigs and cows and chicken. Number one, you can't have people understand that, okay. Can't let people understand that. Got to make people believe they're free. Got to make them they're choosing their carriers, and going college, and "Oh, look at my life? Oh, I'm so free. Oh, look at my job? And, ah, I'm so free," before you slowly put the noose around them. You start paying more taxes. You name it. Own, your little business; or, more restrictions, more laws, more regulations, more money you got to give to this government, more this governmental department, that governmental department. More and more strangulation.

You can't have the population see that they're being farmed, you can't have them understand that they're seen as pigs and hogs and cows, and that they're being treated exactly the same, exactly the same way. You have to lie to them, telling them that the Left is calling, "We're fighting for your rights. We want people to have a living wage, and we want people to have, you know, the one person. Let's get the one percent." You know, all these talking points on the Left, to usher in what in Venezuela, to usher in what in Argentina, to usher in what in Cuba, to usher in North Korea? Thanks a lot. Thank you. It's always the same program, the same system, the same computer, you know, software implementation matrix, and they all know it. This is what's so funny. They all know it. These evil people all know it. They all know it.

(Picture of Mao Zedong is shown) This is one of the biggest mass murderers of poor Asian people in the world, and of people in general. About a hundred million of poor Asian people. Not only poor, rich ones, too. I mean, the ones that went against him, kill them all. Mao, one of biggest Political Satanist devils on the planet in the twentieth century, and they all know it. He just said it. It's all their little game, it all their little secret code of conduct, it's all their little agreed upon tacit implied rules that we know that is true, but we never talk about it. He said that,

"All political power comes from the barrel of a gun. The communist party must command all the guns, that way, no guns can ever be used to command the party."

Sorry, that the bottomline folks. That make you feel bad, that make you feel sad. Sorry, that's the bottomline. That is the bottomline. Whether we recognize it or not, it doesn't matter. It doesn't matter whether or not, I sot doesn't matter. They can even recognize God sometimes. You know, a lot of Satanists recognize God. They just do everything to piss Him off, and besmirch Him. What is it, to defame Him, to blaspheme but they all know. They all know. This is what's so crazy. It's like, it's not people who are saying citizens have to be armed that are gun nuts. They just know the bottomline. We understand history of human suffering, and history of human farming, and vocation. It's not enough. It's not just enough to see the farm. You can't just see the farm, and that's it. Yeah, you'll see the farm, and be mentally free; but, look at Europe? They see the farm. They can't get out. Korea, they see the farm. They can't get out.

That's why the Gospel of the Kingdom is so fearful, because it not only talks supernaturally, but also naturally. It address the supernatural need for us to live In a loving community in a world one day, where we won't be oppressed by these totalitarians, oppressed by these slave holders; but, also it's realistic in a way that will ruled with particular accoutrements, which have devastating power.

That's why a lot of these state run churches don't even teach the Kingdom will come to this Earth, because they completely sold out, and they're selling the Communist Jesus, a satanic Jesus. They don't want people to be free. They want them to remain as hogs and cattle for the elite class. They're in bed with the Russians. They're in bed with the Germans. They're in bed with the Wiemar state; and, you would just see this history play itself over and over again.

There's an article we covered here, and this is a great article. Everybody should read that; but, let us just briefly run this through you. I mean, will run it through with you:

“How the Nazis Used Gun Control”

The perennial gun-control debate in America did not begin here. The same arguments for and against were made in the 1920.

It's interesting. The Jehovah Witnesses believe that seven years before 1920, about, was the age of the Last Days, that the Messiah would come in the 1920, about. Right? They believed that. The Jehovah's Witness, apparently that 1920, or around the date, is the date of the Messiah. Who knows. Maybe God is preparing the Jehovah Witness, we don't know.

In the chaos of Germany's Weimar Republic, which opted for gun registration. Law-abiding persons complied with the law, but the Communists and Nazis acts of political violence did not.

In 1931, Weimar authorities discovered plans for a Nazi takeover in which Jews would be denied food and persons refusing to surrender their guns within 24 hours would be executed.

Why are they fanatic about getting rid of the Rod of Iron? Why are they so fantastic? If it's a dangerous thing, why would they want to take control of it so lasciviously?

They were written by Werner Best, a future Gestapo official. In reaction to such threats, the government authorized the registration of all firearms and the confiscation thereof, “if required for public safety.” The interior minister warned that the records must nlt fall into the hands of any extremist group.

In 1933, the ultimate extremist group, led by (Hillary Clinton, I mean) Adolf Hitler, seized power and used the records to identify, (George Soros, that probably should be.) disarm, and attack political opponents and Jews. Constitutional rights were suspended and mass searches for and seizures of guns and dissident publications ensued, Police revoked gun licenses of Social Democrats and other who were not “politically reliable.”

That is exactly what Obama was doing. You know, if you understand it, this is why in the gun community, the gun community opposes registration, because there's historical examples like this. The gun-control is, “Oh, we're just trying to register them. Come on, what are you afraid of? You just have to register them. You register your car, don't you. You register that, right?” I don't have to register every blade of my hair, which I shave off. I don't register, you know what I'm saying, parts in my property. You don't have to register flowers that you buy. You don't have to register, you know, TVs, phones, refrigerators, tables.

It's all about controlling the livestock. What do they have. What can be used potentially against us. What do they have, what do they own. We have to know; but, of course, they never follow the rules that they implement for everybody else. That's like Jeff Bezos saying, “We need to rise, rising, we need to pay more. Rich folks need to pay more.” Michael Moore, these total hypocrites. “We need to pay more.” You know, it's like Warren Buffet saying, “I need to pay more taxes. We need to raise taxes on the middle class and upper class, cause I need to pay more taxes;” and, then okay, they'll make the laws to make everybody pay more, but then he opts out of them. But then, he has an Army of lawyers that get him out of the loopholes, and get him out, and he's tax exempt. Bezos is tax exempt. All these big conglomerates are tax exempt. They're getting all this government credits saying, “Oh, I pay this much in taxes; but, they get grants from government for ten times the amount. They get bailed out. These banks get six hundred billion dollars after they wasted and lost it all. How are they paying taxes? They're getting paid. Oh, give me a break. Ridiculous!

During the five years of repression that followed, society was “cleansed” by the National Socialist regime. Undesirables were placed in camps where labor made them “free,” and normal rights of citizenship were taken from Jews. The Gestapo banned independent gun clubs and arrested their leaders. Gestapo counsel Werner Best issued a directive to the police forbidding issuance of firearm permits to Jews.

Even today with the terrorists, this whole thing under Obama and Hillary Clinton, “Christians are terrorists, oh, Evangelicals are terrorists. They're terrorists, there radical.” Whenever you bring up anything about radical Islam, “Yeah, the just bombed, radical Islam just bombed, you know, Jerusalem, or bombed France. Well, you Christians have extremists, too.” That's all they say. Where is it? Who are they? Where are they going bombing places, where? Where are they. And then, they'll make some Klu Klux Klan, which they funded. The CIA themselves, the FBI Director, what was it? The Grand Master was working for the FBI, and FBI informant run by the Democratic Party. I mean, what a total pack of lies they tell the livestock. Ridiculous.

In 1938 Hitler signed a new gun-control act. Now that many “enemies of the state” had been removed from society, some restrictions could slightly liberalized, especially for Nazi Party members. But Jews were prohibited from working in the firearms industry, and .22 caliber hollow point ammunition was banned.

See, the Left is not really anti-gun. They're super pro-gun, but it's just for them only. It's for them. It's only for them. They love the Rod of Iron, but they only want it for themselves, cause they're the farmers, you are the livestock. You're the hog, you're the pig, that's going to be farmed, that's going to be killed.

The time had come to launch a decisive blow to the Jewish community to render it defenseless so that its "ill-gotten" property could be redistributed as an entitlement to the German "Volk." The German Jews were ordered to surrender all their weapons, and the police had the records on all who registered them. Even those who gave up their weapons voluntarily were turned over to the Gestapo.

Oh yes, the Jews, they got all that property by theft; and, they stole they're greedy Jewish people, so we got to confiscate their land, we have to disarm them, and we have to kill them, and put them in death camps; and yes, we'll use that land and redistribute it to you, we'll give it to you, and we'll pay off the banks. They didn't say that, but that's what they did to justify the genocide. The Jews were obeying the law of the Weimar State. They were operating businesses and jewelry stores and restaurants, whatever, but they were targeted. When you have about a 20 trillion dollar debt-load, oh, you got to kill about 35-40 million people, which Hillary Clinton and the George Soros', they are willing to do it, confiscating the land, the ill-gotten land of the Capitalists. The hard working Americans, it's all ill-gotten, because they're Capitalists, they benefited from a Capitalist society. We're now a Communist nation, America, right?

Obama said, "You didn't build it. You didn't build your business." He told you. He said to you, "You didn't build your own business." Ooh, they were starting on that train. They were starting on it. It's ill-gotten. What they did is ill-gotten. "Ooh, the government did it for you. We made it all the roads. We made all the teachers, your teachers, who taught you in school. It's all because of the government. All your brilliant ideas, and your art teachers, and all your, you know, schools, you know, the computer design programs, they were all funded by us. We built your business. Now, we own your business." Do you see what I'm saying?

And you don't want to give that up? Well first, you better give up your guns. If you don't want to give them up, "Well, we're going to come in and kill you. If you don't want to be killed, give up your guns, then we'll be okay with you." But, then look what they did after that? They gave up the guns; but, what did they do? They killed them anyways, and they stole their property to pay off the bureaucrats, and the Nazis that went along with it, just to get their little crumbs; but, then they paid off the big bankers, cause that's what it really was about – the funding for the bankers, to go in as a criminal group, to take over that country, to repay the banks, because they raped and ravaged and destroyed that civilization.

This took place in the weeks before what became known as the Night of the Broken Glass, or Kristallnacht, occurred in 1938. That the Jews were disarmed before it,

There you go. They had to register their firearms, right? Before they were disarmed, they had to register. You got to register first before we disarm you, right? "Yeah, then we know how many guns you have. We're getting ready to disarm you."

minimizing any risk of resistance, is the strongest evidence that the program was planned in advance. An incident was needed to justify unleashing the attack.

They needed some resistance. They needed a trope. They needed some false flag. Some occasion to say, "Yeah, we're going to go after these Jewish. It's ill-gotten property. We got to take, we got to confiscate their land. pay off the bankers. Yeah." What did they use? They used an incident, where a Polish Jew teenager killed, shot a German diplomat. I don't know if he killed him; but, he shot a diplomat in Paris. They said, "Look, look, look! The Jews are doing it, right?" And they used that as a catalyst, because they had no internet then. People couldn't think out of the box. They had radio then, right? They didn't have the nightly news, but they had they had radio. You had to listen to Hitler everyday, right? They were broadcasting everyday, and all the families had to listen to them. Is that right? Did you live through that, guys? No, you didn't live through that; but, you actually had to listen to the radio broadcast from the government. No other sources of information. No internet. No YouTube channels. Nothing. You had only one source of information coming from Hitler. You understand? It's crazy. Alright. Ridiculous!

The incident would be the shooting of a German diplomat in Paris by a teenage Polish Jew. Hitler directed propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels to orchestrate the Night of the Broken Glass. This massive operation, allegedly conducted as a search for weapons, entailed the ransacking of homes and businesses, and the arson of synagogues.

And they just stoked it up. "Oh, the dangerous Jews, the terrorists. Ill-gotten land, robbing from all the poor Germans, stealing their jobs, and stealing their neighborhoods, and accumulating all this wealth, and jewels and jewelry. The Jews. They're greedy. They're not even human. They're evil. They're ravaging your family, they're ravaging..." You see, this is how it begins. "...and, they're now killing, they're now killing us. They're now murdering our police officers, and murdering our citizens that are trying to be just good people. We must get rid of these Jewish cancers." You see.

That's exactly what they were saying about Christians, gun owners, and Constitutionals in 2012; and, Hillary Clinton, if she got in, would have been running with that program; and, that's why Trump, dead as a doornail, cause he doesn't want to run with that program. Incredible.

SS chief Heindrich Himmler... I guess to the Germans, it doesn't sound bad. Do you know what I'm saying? It doesn't sound wacky. Hillary Clinton, the name itself; but, in the future it will be "Hillary Clinton." You'll have to say it with some emotion, you know, so you understand this is a bad person, okay. That's how dumb down people become.

SS chief Heinrich Himmler decreed that 20 years be served in a concentration camp by any Jew possessing a firearm. Rusty revolvers and bayonets from the Great War were confiscated from Jewish veterans who had served with distinction. Twenty thousand Jewish men were thrown into concentration camps, and had to pay ransom to released.

All those FEMA camps that were... Oh man, I showed it on The King's Report. I didn't show it during Sunday. Jesse Ventura, who was the Governor of Minnesota, took a camera team to a FEMA camp on his show. He took a dang camera team. He was the Governor of Minnesota. They would not let him in, and he was a public government official. They didn't let him in; and, he was like, "This is free and public, created by taxpayer dollars. I should be allowed access to see what's in here." They had barbed wire fences, they had kids playing around, you know, these playgrounds. "Well, that's kind of weird. If it's a nursing home, then why does it have barbed wire fences all over the place? How come you don't give me access? I'm a Governor of the sate of Minnesota, and I demand access to this FEMA camp. That's the Federal Emergency Management Agency, you know, camp.

They wouldn't let him in. Made by public money. Everybody should be able to have a tour through those things. What the heck are they doing in there? We know this is a corrupt, rancidly corrupt establishment, rancidly corrupt criminal cartel, rancidly corrupt foreign paper plate Bilderberg filled with George, Soros'. We know that it's the most wickedly criminal enterprise on the planet, and they're creating huge facilities with massive black baths.

Did you see the black bathtubs that are all stacked up that Governor Ventura's camera crew took photos of? They had parking lots that were further from the camps. Black bathtubs, like polyurethane black bathtubs stacked up. I mean, millions of them; so, what the heck's that for? Why are the taxpayers paying for this? What the heck is it; and, by the way, they happen to be human size? Oh, it could never happen in the US. You know what? The Germans all said that, too, in Weimar Germany. They all said the same thing.

The US media covered the above events. And when France fell to Nazi invasion in 1940, the New York Times. Reported that the French were deprived of rights such as free speech and firearm possession just as the Germans had been. Frenchmen who failed to surrender their firearms within 24 hours were subject to the death penalty.

Isn't it interesting that we live in the technological age, where all the prophecies of the twentieth century into the twenty-first century, where all the prophecies of the Book of Revelation can't possibly become true, because they're such crazy prophecies. For example: Like you have to get the mark of the beast, and if you don't by into this beast, you can't buy, you can't sell. The world didn't have this kind of system back then in Roman times. The whole world will be ruled by a ruling government, a ruling class. Back then, it could never be ruled like that, until the modern age, with this advancement in technology, which are now allowing these things to actually happen; but, amidst that, we have the Kingdom of God that comes during that period of time, and that Kingdom has those two accoutrements – the Crown and the Rod of Iron. Look at them? Look how ravenous they are to take away the Rod of Iron.

No wonder in 1941, just days before the Pearl Harbor attack, Congress reaffirmed Second Amendment rights and prohibited gun registration.

Again, cause registration leads to what? Confiscation. That's why Congress stopped the gun registration in 1941, because they saw, that's what Germany did; but kids now, going to high school and college, you know, middle school, they don't learn this at all.

In 1968. bills to register guns were debated, with opponents recalling the Nazi experience.

They brought up the Nazi experience again twenty years later. They said 28, 27 years later, "Hey, wait a minute. The Nazis did that. Don't register them. We can't register firearms. We can't put that upon the American people;" but, now what's happening? Look what's happening now with the Federal government, especially under the Left. Of course, they're trying to remove Trump. Make him a Neocon, so he goes on with the plan, and/or a new Leftie comes in. Bernie Sanders is trying to say, he's going to give everybody a free job, free salary. "Every American is gonna get a free salary."

And supporters denying that the Nazis ever used registration records to confiscate guns. The bills were defeated, as every such proposal has been ever since, including recent "universal background check" bills.

Of course, not the "omnibus bill." That's in there.

So, standing up at the End Time is so important, folks, because if we lose the Rod of Iron, it's over. Just like those Jews in Nazi Germany you're dead as a doornail. Door knob and doornail. That's why the American people must understand how dangerous the situation we're living, especially the power of the Leftist and the state in America has grown. The twenty trillion dollars in debt; and, now consuming, I mean, almost half of GDP. Just devouring it. Devouring the people. Devouring their prosperity. Devouring their production, eating and feeding off them. That's what they don't want to see.

They don't want to see good men, and especially women. Good women. Boy, that's their worst fear. That their worst fear, that theirs a wave of young girls that start leading. They start making guns look good. They start making training, and owning, and making them responsible, and being a good citizen with the Rod of Iron, tremendous power. It's not only doable for all girls, it's not only a sign of success and power and sovereignty, but it's a God given right that they exercise. That's what they fear. That's what they don't want. That's why want to ban us on YouTube, and cut down on live streaming. That's why they want to ban the Ceremonies that we have; and, we're such a small little channel. Get off our back, you crazy demon monkey. They don't want to see.

Now, if those civilians, if those women are controlled by a large centralized government, they like that. They like this, too; but, if these women are militia women, if they're decentralized, if they're training with their husbands and their children in their community, and doing, you know, doing sporting gun shooting tournaments, and they're understanding how to use those tools, and they're empowering other women in those neighborhoods and communities to just train, ooh, then these women become dangerous. These women become very, very fearful for the farmers, the human farmers. Bad, bad, bad, bad.

No, no. No, don't look at that. Don't listen to Pastor Sean, the Second King, or whatever you want to call him. He's a crazy man. Lunatic. He shaves his head, and he's Asian. He's a racist homophobe, anti-GLBT, bigoted racist; so, don't listen to him." That's crazy, folks.

But Satan knows. The bottomline, you see, we never want to talk about it. We never want to talk about it. This is what's so incredible. The Rod of Iron and the Kingdom Gospel forces us to talk about it. It's uncomfortable. We've been trained to make it uncomfortable. We've been trained to not think about it. We've been trained to brush it off the Rod of Iron. We've been trained not to ever bring it up in public, unless we ostracized by the other livestock. They say, "How dare you question the farm. You bad pid. Bad hog. We're going to ostracize you. You don't get no gruel today." Oh Lord! Exactly. "Get back in that pen" is what they're saying. "Don't listen to that racist homophobe, anti-GLBT bigot cult leader Rev. Moon, Second King. Self proclaimed, you know. Don't listen to him. He's a nut bag. He's crazy." Okay. "Don't listen to the Gospel of the Kingdom. Don't listen to having Kingship. Don't listen to having to having the rule of the Rod of Iron. Don't listen to love God/ love your neighbor. You should be able to kill your neighbor, and exploit them for your own benefit, and for your own power." Ah, that's really what they believe.

Let's go to Cheon Seong Gyeong 231. Let's read together:

Today's Unification Church families constitute the Adam domain; so the spirit world is meant to support the Adam domain;

Woo! Those who are under Father's Authority. Obviously, then the UC was under the Father's Authority "constitute the Adam domain." Look at the war on Adam that the Family Fraud has done by the Han Mother? Look at them. But those who are under Father's Authority, we constitute the Adam domain.

So the spirit world is meant to support the Adam domain, (and of course they do,) and not use it for its own advantage.

And you can see that in the miracles that are happening. Mr. Larry Pratt coming on with the GOA, etc. You name it. You know, this small event going worldwide, and all these crazy liberal lunatic worldwide, world level media. I mean, these are massive governments that run these institutions of propaganda, and they're coming to film us. They're really afraid this Gospel of the Kingdom will spread. They don't like it that I am going to the NRA Show, and meeting a lot of NRA members. We're going to be networking down there, and I got my new business cards out, too, fool.

Through this, the land wherein Satan can interfere and operate is disappearing.

It's like the Scripture said in Matthew 24, "And this Gospel of the Kingdom will be preached to all the nations as a testimony, as a witness unto all nations; and so the end will come." Because when the Gospel of the Kingdom, and the people start understanding, Nope, we're not livestock. I'm a child of God. I have a King of the King of Kings. I have a Kingly Royal bloodline. I'm a Blessed Central Family; and, I have sovereignty, and I have Kingship, and I have the Rod of Iron; and I stand collectively, not only individually, but collectively with the other families worldwide that's now spreading the globe, and as this trend happens in Latin America, in Brazil, etc, all the more people will be open now, spiritually, to the Gospel of the Kingdom that talks about the poor, the oppressed, the heavy laden, those who are poor in spirit that will inherit the Kingdom of God. Not to exploit and oppress other people, but to keep sovereignty and dominion in it's proper place, and the blessing of God, which He bestowed up us.

There is no room for him. Satan is being expelled.

Alright SOS, come on up. We must never forget that in the Kingdom there are accoutrements. We must hold fast to those accoutrements. It's not that we worship them, or anything, but we understand that God knows why we need them, and all the demons know too, because the good folks who don't want to oppress, and don't want to kill people, and don't to assassinate them for power, and want to live their life, and help other people grow and succeed, finally the Kingdom, where the predators can never succeed will come. Let's give God praise. Amen, Aju!
