Persecution to now Execution

August 1, 2021

Let's go to Luke Chapter 16 today. This is a very interesting parable, a very interesting scripture, and it's not what it seems like. At first glance, it's very, very strange, and we did cover it before; but it's a very powerful scripture. So let's read together:

Luke 16:1-13 KJV

1 And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. 2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. 3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. 4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? 6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. 7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. 9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. 10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? 12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

All right, folks; remember that mammon is the god of money. This is a confusing scripture because it seems like Jesus is saying, "I command this man who got fired." Okay, he got fired, he's too lazy to dig;

he didn't want to do manual labor, and he doesn't want to beg. So he's going to call the debtors, the people that owe money to his lord, and he's going to say, "Hey I'm going to cut your bill in half; I'm going to cut it by 20%" etc. And then the Lord commands him! That's kind of strange; at first glance we wonder what is going on?

Now you have to remember: in the current time when we pay somebody to do a job for us, we may pay them hourly, or we may give them a monthly salary. But 2,000 years ago in ancient Judea and in Jerusalem, it was almost like on a commission basis. The tax collectors that went to collect taxes from the Jews, these were Jewish people who were collecting taxes for the Roman Empire. So basically they were sellouts to the Roman government; that's why they were hated so much. They would come to your door if you're a Jew, and they'd say "Okay, you owe this much to the taxes, so pay up your taxes."

So let's say you owed fifty dollars. They would charge you eighty dollars, and they would take the difference. You owed fifty to "the government" and they would take the thirty for themselves; they pocketed that money. This is how the tax collecting or in this case, this is how the cancelling of debts would take place. This person who went and said, "Hey, I'm going to lower these debts for you," it's likely that he was actually cutting his commission off the top, and then saying, "Just pay back what you owe to that person," in order to gain favor from the debtors. Because he knew he was going to be fired, and then later on he has a light at the end of the tunnel so -to- speak; he has a job waiting up for him. Are you with me folks? So it's interesting to understand how debting and lending was done 2,000 years ago. There's some scholarship on that and there's some evidence that points to that. So that's most likely what's happening here.

But the point is: Christ is obviously not saying that being unrighteous, being sneaky, lying and going and changing these debts is good; those kinds of things are bad obviously, because in the end, in the final verses that we see here:

"12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?" Christ is obviously saying, "You have to be faithful in another man's possessions; you have to be faithful. If you promise to keep the whole of that, then you have to do so." So this scripture sounds confusing at first; it almost seems like he's endorsing going there and canceling these debts.

But the context of the ancient world is the commission system. So this man is going; he's canceling those debts, and he's saying, "Okay I'm going to cut this much off; you take that. Just pay the debt off and I'll work with you if you so please. I'm going to be fired from this job. I just want to let you know I cut you a nice deal; I took away my commission," things like that. God juxtaposes the believers with the people of this generation and the children of this generation are the children of light. The children of this generation are clever, they're shrewd; they know not only how to do business, but they know how to make deals. Trump is the king of the deal, right! So they know how to make deals, etc.

What He's criticizing here is that many times believers or people of the light, who have Christ in them, don't understand about deals. We can make deals that transcend our earthly life, we can make deals obviously in business or with "The Art of the Deal" or whatever the case may be, for our temporary life here; but also we can make deals with people that have impacts on our everlasting habitation. After we perish and die, we go to the spirit world and now we're in the presence of God, and that person can see us and say, "Oh man! I remember when you did this; you helped me with this and you invested into me." You see what I'm saying, folks?

It is important for us to be shrewd in that manner; as Trump many times talked about, we don't know how to win well on the Republican side. We are always just letting the radical Left take more and more, take more, take more, "Okay, we'll concede; okay." A little more down the road, we'll concede a little more, "Okay, we concede, concede, concede," until we have nothing. There's no shrewdness; there's no ability to negotiate properly with the long-term in mind.

That is to say we don't want a civilization that is political Satanism that has all the values of real Satanism; that will kill the children, will destroy the family, and will go after the marriages. It will prey on the children; it will hypersexualize them in public education, etc, etc; it will divide and conquer by race or by class division. Whatever system or branch of Marxism they want to use, they're going to do that. And if we keep conceding, conceding, conceding, what do you have at the end of it? You have only chains for your own slavery; that's all you have.

So Christ here is talking about the fact that we have to also be shrewd; we also have to be wise in the sense that we don't let Satan take everything away. We have to be able to know the ways of the world; not be of them but know them, so that we can have impact for God's kingdom in the world. Amen! And that's a very, very, important thing.

The Scofield Bible & the Pre-Trib Rapture

The Rockefellers funded the Scofield Bible into most of the modern seminaries, whether Catholic or Protestant. That Bible had a huge commentary on the Pre-Trib Rapture, that is to say, "Before the Lord comes it's going to get real, real, bad, real bad; but when things get real bad don't worry. You're going to be taken away. You're going to be taken away and you don't have to deal with it." Even though the Scripture says, "There are going to be martyrs; there are going to be people killed." How do they explain it? "Well, there are going to be two groups: those people who are the martyrs are the people who will be witnessed to, after everybody gets raptured up"; that's how they explain it. But of course Scripture does not support that.

It was this kind of Commentary Bible which was forced into the seminaries with humongous money from some of these very common socialist names: Carnegie, who was an avowed socialist; Rockefeller -they were together in many of his clubs. You're talking about open socialists that have billions and billions of dollars, and are then using that leverage to push a certain narrative onto Christianity. That's why a lot of the pastors or priests that went through seminary in the 20th century got hit with the Scofield Bible Commentary and got hit with that worldview, that narrative that Christians are going to be whisked away.

But what does that do? That takes away all accountability, and it takes away any ability for us to even mentally prepare, because all that is unnecessary if you believe in this rapture. It is a heresy! This type of a Pre-Trib Rapture never existed pre-1800s; it only got popularized through Darby and of course through the Scofield Bible from the late 1800s to the 1900s. Before that, all Christians knew that, "Tribulation is coming and we're going to endure through it. There's going to be a lot of suffering; there are going to be martyrs; there's going to be persecution of the saved." Are you with me, folks? There's not going to be running away.

This modern type of teaching has influenced Hollywood; they've made movies on this kind of stuff with that whole series "Left behind." You see people driving in the car, and zoom, they're gone, or they're washing dishes and swish, gone; driving a school bus, and gone! This kind of Hollywood dramatization of this terrible doctrine kills the Christian power against an evil culture! It totally kills it because it makes it passive; it makes it completely weak. It makes it not stand up and see our duty, as the Bible says, "Stand up against unrighteousness! Resist the devil and he will flee!"

"That's not our duty," if you get into this kind of view. Your duty is just to wait around; just play, play, play, play, enjoy the fruits of the Lord, and then you're going to be taken up. You don't have to deal with anything. All that, you're going to be watching from heaven on a big LED TV screen or something like that, and you will be whisked. You have nothing to worry about; you don't need to prepare. You don't need to prepare food, don't need to prepare water. You don't need guns; you don't need anything. That's a lot to bank your life on folks!

The point is: this is important because this kind of doctrine published by Darby does not exist pre-1800s; it doesn't exist. They're using one scripture to try to say that this is what's going to happen, and of course traditionally for 1800 years Christians have never believed that. We've all known that there is going to be tribulation and we're going to go through it. It's going to be painful. There's going to be groaning and moaning; there's going to be pain in that tribulation. Now, that's a big deal because if you have the perspective that you are not going to encounter any tribulation and magically you will be whisked away as in the Hollywood movies: you'll be watching and swish, you're gone. You have the teacher teaching in front of the kids and swish, she's gone; all the kids are like, "Where did she go?"

Come on! Come on! So, if you believe that then you are obviously not preparing. Why is it important to prepare? Preparing is a blessing not only to you and your family but also to other people.

Marxist revolution

Why? Because as we see in many different countries, there is societal collapse, there is civil war. South Africa right now is exploding in civil war. Cuba is exploding in civil war; the Cuban communist government is shooting Cubans for protesting. Right now, folks as we speak, in France, you have millions of people on the street right now, because they're trying to do another lockdown, as they're doing here as well. Of course the mainstream media doesn't show you, but we have churches in France and in Europe, and every week when we have the international meeting they're sending us the actual video footage of France. The word is that in August, they're going to do the next lockdown. Australia too: you heard that? They have the lockdowns; the military has been called to enforce the lockdowns; in Australia! This is, “the Western world,” folks; this is “the places where you are supposed to have freedom.”

So, you see this age of revolution now happening across the globe. People’s souls are screaming out for freedom because of the draconian nature, because of Fauci and the lies of the CDC and the Chinese Communist Party and all these propagandists in all these positions of national power telling you, “No! Mask on, mask off; mask on, mask off; mask on, mask off. One mask, two masks; one mask, two masks! Zero mask. Off, on; off, on!” You see how this is a training? You see how this is training you? “Take it off, put it on; take it off, put it on. You must wear this mask, you must wear that mask; you must not wear a mask, it's not going to help you. You must get vaxxed. If you get vaxxed, you're a hero,” but then yesterday the CDC came out: “now vaccinated people can still spread coronavirus just as fast as regular unvaccinated people.”

So now you got this liberal lunatic, Hollywood actor, John Rappaport: He thinks he's all tough; he talked like he is from Brooklyn, as in a boxing movie- and this boy he has gone off on Trump like crazy, “I'll kill you Trump!” This boy he's coming out and now he's saying, “Oh, I was a hero for being vaxxed, and now that I got vaxxed, you tell me I'm a super threat! You piece of sh... !” Now he's cursing at the CDC; he had an awakening moment towards the very man whom he was blaming of being a white racist nationalist. Now this guy is waking up; he's the most arrogant, pompous, Hollywood actor that you can get. But it is what it is. And now he's crying; he's on his Instagram crying to his followers, saying, “I believed that I was a hero and now I'm a super- spreader!” Well, you may be super dumb because you believe them. It's so ridiculous, folks. But this is kind of what's happening and you see the societal breakdown.

And in that scenario where things do break down further, in the last couple of weeks we've been covering the study on the Ten Stages of Genocide. We're going to look into that a little deeper on the actual website www.genocidewatch.com/ by Dr. Stanton who presented to the UN, who presented to the Department of Defense; he's the actual scholar who made the Ten Stages of Genocide. So we'll look at that, but let me tell you something before that.

Marxist revolutions, communist revolutions never tell you that they're doing Marxist revolutions or communist revolutions. Do you understand, folks? In Cuba, Fidel Castro promised his people, “This is not a Marxist revolution; this is not Socialism or this is not Communism.” You know what it was? “Democratic Socialism!” That’s what he said, “We will do democratic Socialism. We don't want Socialism. We don't want Communism. We will protect our democracy and we are doing democratic Socialism.” That's what Fidel Castro said, and there is tons of video evidence of him saying that.

The point is: they never tell you that they're doing that. There's no communist regime that's going to say, “We're going to do a communist revolution on America.” If they do, they're usually going to be in trouble. Why? Because Communism has a track record of genociding and massacring 220 million people in one century alone; one century! What did the Crusades do? What? Fifty thousand; sixty thousand people? But you're talking about 220 million people in one century; one century, folks! That's unfathomable! If the number is so big we can't even grasp it with our mind; it's so ginormous.

Marxist professors in American universities

New studies have shown that in the college education system which is supposed to be called "higher learning," it is complete indoctrination. 20% of college professors openly claim that they are socialist ideologically; 20% of college teachers, folks! Now, that's a big problem. Why? Because America, this country, has fought wars against socialists, like for example the Nazis. They were socialists, right? It was the National Socialist Party of Germany. We have fought wars against socialists and communists; we have gone and destroyed their countries when they tried to enact that plague upon us. So in America you have a situation where many of the wars that we fought in the last 50 years were against Communism, Socialism, and now you have 20% of communist teachers in higher education!

Let me flip that on you: if we said, "We want 20% of white supremacy professors in schools," everybody would be against it. Is that not true? Because we fought wars against the Ku Klux Klan which the Democratic Party started, and of course that the CIA ran with the Grand Dragons! We're against white supremacy okay, that's a given. But, imagine if you said that in America you had 20% of the college professors of higher education openly white supremacists, would you think that would be a problem for the people sending their kids here? It would be, because that's an ideological world view that is diametrically opposed to America.

Then why isn't it so with Communism? If teachers are saying they are openly communist, how can they be teaching? This is an ideology that is directly against the foundation of our country; it's actually the enemy doctrine, being taught to our citizens. So why isn't there uproar when 20% of the professors say that they're socialist or communist? And by the way, hello, we fought wars against those kinds of ideologies; we went and killed people for that! Hello! But how is that not a problem in America when you have 20% of teachers openly communist?

It's the devil; it's Satan!

You have of course different branches of Socialism and Communism. In classic Marxism you have the distinction between the bourgeoisie and the proletariat, the capitalist and the worker etc. Those are like the classic forms of Marxism. But then of course you have offshoots of that which then go and try to penetrate into different types of classification such as the distinction between races.

And that takes us to Dr. Stanton, and we are going to go into a little more depth. I brushed over this real fast during recent services but it pays and it's important to go deeper, because as we saw in Luke 16, it's important that the children of light are shrewd and wise. Amen!

How are you going to be shrewd and wise if you don't know the modus operandi, how the enemy, how the cancer is operating, and how it will destroy every single Christian pillar that exists, from the family to marriage, to man and woman? Hello! Hello! Man and woman! Gender! It will destroy every existing pillar of the Christian worldview: that we are made in the image of God, thus we have natural rights that must be what? Protected! These are pillars of the Christian faith; freedom and free choice is a pillar of Christian faith- pillar, because if you don't have freedom, if you don't have the ability to choose, then you cannot choose God and you can't get saved. Are you with me folks?

It's a big deal; it's a very, very big deal! You are facing a demonic force disguised under all these different names, but really it is political Satanism, and it's coming to eradicate, to wreck and topple and destroy every single pillar that we have as a civilization. Well, then you have to understand this enemy. Amen! We have to understand how this demon works, how this Beast moves, and what are the processes by which he takes over nations and destroys them, consumes them, devours them as the Bible says, "He is here to steal, kill and destroy." Are you with me folks?

So let's get into it a little deeper now. Again, as a disclaimer, I'm not trying to scare anybody or try to do fear porn or something like that; this is not about scaring people. It's about understanding the Beast and the enemy. That's why we're so grateful to True Father: he clearly identified Socialism, Communism as political Satanism. It is really Satan that's driving that ship; it's Satan. It's not some demons; it is the devil, it's Satan that's driving that ship, folks! So, when he's coming with that Beast to the Western world and taking it over, ravaging it - and of course America is the final, the last domino - we have to know what we're facing. Okay, so let's look at it!

The Ten Stages of Genocide by Gregory H. Stanton, President, Genocide Watch

1. CLASSIFICATION:

All cultures have categories to distinguish people into "us and them" by ethnicity, race, religion, or nationality: German and Jew, Hutu and Tutsi. Bipolar societies that lack mixed categories, such as Rwanda and Burundi, are the most likely to have genocide.

We naturally classify ourselves into groups: it could be by race, ethnicity; it could be by religion; it could be by political affiliation, etc. This is not a bad problem, everybody does this. We do this in order just to discern the world and make sure we protect our kids from groups or people involved in those groups that may be dangerous. Amen! So that's a natural process; there's nothing wrong with that, and that's naturally how human beings do, because we have to protect the next generation. So that's a natural self-defense mechanism for our DNA set and our gene set and for our community at large.

But you see that last statement:

Bipolar societies that lack mixed categories, such as Rwanda and Burundi, are the most likely to have genocide.*

Look at the rhetoric that's now being pushed on the market, and that has been accelerated in the last one year! How many people heard of Critical Race Theory (CRT) before the last year? Not so many, right. It's been in critical legal studies' departments; these scholars have tried to make the case that in the time when America did enslave Blacks, there were laws put against Blacks. There is systematic racism in those laws. The whole idea in the legal scholarship was that, "Okay, that existed, and maybe we have vestiges of that in the current time." This was mostly in the legal departments: people who were going to become public defenders, lawyers and attorneys.

You're now hearing about it heavy and big, because they're trying to isolate it further, and trying to literally make class division between black and white. They're saying, "Bipolar societies that lack mixed categories, such as Rwanda and Burundi, are the most likely to have genocide." And quickly America is becoming that. Hello! Are you with me, folks? Am I scaring you too much? I'm not trying to scare you; this is just facts. This man is an expert on Burundi.

(Sound off for 3 seconds)

Law enforcement

You're going to have explosive things happen. Mao Zedong's Communist Revolution took about thirty years to gestate from seed formation to where it started sprouting in the late 1940s, but it was starting in the early 1920s. He established the Communist Party in China early 1920s and it had to germinate for almost thirty years before he actually started killing people; getting his communist leaders established in all the different local rural areas - notice rural areas- paying them, making them agents of the state, then creating this bipolar society where you had landowner versus worker. Once you have that though, you're able to foment, using media and using the power of the state.

Dr. Stanley will get into this and he will have to admit that genocide is mostly perpetrated by - surprise, surprise- the state. Almost all genocides are perpetrated by governments against people; this is called democide, and those are the numbers in the 20th century: 220 millions and that's probably a low estimate average.

By the way that is excluding wars, folks! That doesn't include the Korean War, Vietnam War, the World Wars; it doesn't include any of that. It is during times of peace that governments have murdered 220 millions of their own people! Now you understand how this is cloaked in the language of political studies. But really, look at the spirit behind it: it is Satan; it's Satan all the way through, all the way through, folks!

We have folks from Eastern Europe or folks from North Korea, people who actually lived under communist regimes. We want to support law enforcement and make sure that they do the right thing. Amen! They have to protect the Constitution; the military too, they have to protect the Constitution. There's a reason why the military and the law enforcement has to be apolitical; because if it becomes politicized what happens to that? It becomes like the Stasi, it becomes like the Nazis, it becomes like the Gestapo; it becomes a militarized police that a dominant group can use to enact violence upon its opponents. Every American is aware that this is a bad thing. Amen! Bad, bad, bad thing; every American knows this is bad.

So we pray that the law enforcement do the right thing. They are the lowest level of government, and of course 90% of them are patriots, especially in rural areas; they're not commies. But you get closer and closer to the centralized locations of power, big cities, Washington DC! Now you've got these cops, they're supposed to be defending the Constitution and the citizens; they're supposed to be servants of the citizens, but you had the four cops testifying before Congress about how January 6 was the greatest insurrection in all of history, and they're crying, they're crying!

You know this is D-level acting at best folks. Schiff and the other Leftist guy, crying, "Oh, I'm choked up. I'm choked up; I can't even speak!" and you have these law enforcement agents coming out saying, "These people were terrorists! I spent time in Iraq; this is worse than Iraq!" What are you talking about dude? What are you talking about? Tucker Carlson has done humongous reports on the fact that the FBI was responsible for the 1-6 Event, opening the doors to let people in. Tucker Carlson has been hitting this on Fox News; he's the only one on Fox News that actually tells people stuff, and he's been showing how the FBI has been involved in this.

Oh my gosh! God bless this man! He's an Iraq War veteran, so we thank him for his service, but stop politicizing this, man! As a cop or military personnel you have to be apolitical. It's not supposed to matter whether an American is Left or Right, Democrat or Republican; it doesn't matter! You are tasked to protect the Constitution and protect our rights; you're not supposed to deal with politics. Are you with me, folks? That is a problem; that's a very big problem!

In America even people on the Right, Republicans, are now realizing, "Holy Shmita! My goodness, these guys especially near the big cities, near the DC area, this law enforcement is totally corrupt!" You're calling us terrorists when we were just waving flags in front of a building! And then it has come out that the FBI agency was there organizing to let people in and then trying to call it an insurrection; then you're crying about it on national TV!

You see: this is why they want to control the media, folks. The media is a critical tool that the genocide Beast and machines will use; the media is absolutely critical. It's a big part of their weaponry and their arsenal when the Beast starts moving on a nation.

CRT in the military

Let's get back to the study here.

Bipolar societies that lack mixed categories, such as Rwanda and Burundi, are the most likely to have genocide.*

So, the goal for the people that want to do genocide, that want to eradicate their opposition is to create the bipolar society; that's what you're seeing with CRT, even in the military with people like Lt. Col. Matthew Lohmeier who stepped out of Space Force. He said, "Hey, for the last year I've been seeing this stuff bubbling up, and now it's coming up. Now I've black airmen coming up, telling me, 'Hey, I'm not having tension with my white airmen.' I'm having Asian Americans airmen coming up and saying, 'Hey, you guys why you keep talking about black and white? Stop talking about it. I'm leaving the Air Force.'" He said he had people like that. And then he has white airmen come to him and say, "Sir, I'm sick and tired of being calling a racist. I didn't do anything. I get along with my black airmen; I get along with my Asian American airmen. I have no problem with them. I'm sick and tired of it! Why am I being called racist? Why do I have to sit through this and being called a racist; that I have internalized racism? Why do I have to listen to this? What does this have to do with dropping bombs and killing the enemy?" It has nothing to do with it whatsoever! But this is dangerous.

By the way this institution is most trusted by the US; we trust our military. We thank them; we thank them for their service. Let's give it up for all our service men and women! (Applause) God bless you! It's a really trusted institution in America, and it's purposely built to be apolitical, that is to say that, the military has to defend the liberals and it has to defend the conservatives. These institutions should not be political; they're purposely built to be apolitical, because they have a specific task to protect the Constitution, to protect the citizens. Is that a true statement? Veterans here, would you agree with that statement? I mean you're not supposed to make it political.

Once you start politicizing, you start pushing CRT and making white airmen feel like they're racist, and black airmen now have trouble with the white airmen, and Asian American airmen are saying, "Hey, why are you white and black people fighting all the time?" Now you're creating a bad problem, folks? This is not unifying a critical institution. Are you with me? This is not unifying this. That institution needs to remain apolitical; it doesn't matter what view you have. If we're fighting enemy we fight it together; it has no bearing on how well you fly a plane, how well you drop bombs on the bad guys, or whatever. It has nothing to do with that. We have a mission; we finish that mission. There shouldn't be this internal strife.

In the political world, i.e. our normal society where politics dominates with media, we saw a lot of strife in the last year; we saw crazy things, folks. How many people saw some crazy stuff last year? You saw American cities burning down, you saw people rioting and looting; you saw cities on fire, literally on fire, while CNN is standing in front of the fire saying, "This is a peaceful protest." I mean the fire is burning behind you, brother! You're telling me, it's a peaceful protest, but you have an inferno behind you; that's not a normal occurrence. I don't drive down the street and see infernos left and right; that's just something you don't see too often, unless you're in Rwanda or Burundi. Are you with me, folks? So we're seeing some real crazy stuff.

The point is: this type of bipolar society which they create is absolutely critical for their Beast to start rolling forward; absolutely critical. It is really a critical piece. You really can't downplay this enough; it is a critical piece to this apparatus.

Not the state

We have classification. These genociders want to make a bipolar society then they want to do what's called symbolization. We'll move on to that.

The main preventive measure at this early stage is to develop universalistic institutions that transcend ethnic or racial divisions, that actively promote tolerance and understanding, and that promote classifications that transcend the divisions.....

Now let me just give a little a context here: see, the second paragraph is Dr. Stanton's remedy or his preventative measure. But since he's a liberal, he usually says that government agencies should be dealing with these problems. There may be a conflict of interest there, I'm just saying, okay; I mean maybe a slight conflict of interest there.

But the point is: he's saying that government institutions should get involved or the UN should get involved. Oh yes, you know, the very trusted UN, okay the very trusted UN with the Chinese Communist Party as the head of their Security Council! Now I don't know what you think, but there are a lot of dead Chinese people because of the CCP. There are a lot of refugees that live here in America from Falun Gong -and they'll be at the Festival as well -they've been organ harvested; a million of their Buddhist followers have been organ harvested, because they are pacifists, and they know Communism is evil. Unlike different sects of Buddhism they actually believe in a Creator - which is interesting just from a scholarly perspective. But the UN is not going to solve these issues, folks; if the UN could solve these issues, we wouldn't have any of these issues.

Then of course they say, "Media! Media is going to be used." We'll see as we go through this. But again, how can you curb media if it's all state-sponsored and state- controlled? The answer is obviously "not the state!" The state is the perpetrator of the genocide, so how can the state curb its genocidal tendencies? It is the perpetrator! It's like: "okay I'm going to come into your house. I'm going to rob you, but I'll stop the robbery from happening. I promise." Does that make any sense? "I'm going to rob you in your house, I'm coming to your house to rob you, but don't worry I'll stop it." Do you understand the stupidity of such a proposition? It's blatantly stupid.

2. SYMBOLIZATION:

We give names or other symbols to the classifications. We name people "Jews" or "Gypsies", or distinguish them by colors or dress; and apply the symbols to members of groups. Classification and symbolization are universally human and do not necessarily result in genocide unless they lead to dehumanization. When combined with hatred, symbols may be forced upon unwilling members of pariah groups: the yellow star for Jews under Nazi rule, the blue scarf for people from the Eastern Zone in Khmer Rouge, Cambodia.

Okay, so in the next phase we have symbolization: we have the association between the classified group or those identities, and then symbolizing them with different symbols or names, or whatever the case may be. That's a natural process and it's not necessarily bad. It's just a natural human sociological trend, but it can be used for evil.

3. DISCRIMINATION:

A dominant group uses law, custom, and political power to deny the rights of other groups. The powerless group may not be accorded full civil rights or even citizenship. The dominant group is driven by an exclusionary ideology that would deprive less powerful groups of their rights. It legitimizes the victimization of weaker groups. Advocates of exclusionary ideologies are often charismatic, expressing the resentments of their followers, attracting support from the masses etc. Examples include the Nuremberg Laws of 1935 in Nazi Germany, which stripped Jews of their German citizenship, and prohibited their employment by the government and by universities.

A dominant group uses law*

Did you hear that? "Uses law!" Why in the Kingdom Constitution does every law expire every ten years? All the laws expire; every year 10% of the laws are erased. Why is that? Because laws are not to help the people! The more convoluted the laws, the more legal, the more confusing the laws, the more you need armies of scholars, you need armies of lawyers and armies of accountants to even penetrate those laws, and know what you're talking about. And of course, as every lawyer will tell you, they are there to do what? Interpret the law, folks! They're not there to represent it; they're there to interpret it for the winning of their case. Are you with me, folks?

I know we say "Law and order, law and order." But when you look at it, the laws are what suffocates the small businessman. The unrestricted, endless, useless, 40,000 plus new pages of laws on the books against a small businessman or woman is a burden to a person who's trying to start a small business and has limited capital. And if you are scared and if you are breaking all these laws, the bigger groups can use lobbying power to kill you and destroy you. So laws are not actually people's friends. People think, "Well, if we have no laws, or if these laws get eradicated every ten years, or if every year 10 % of them are gone, well it's going to be chaos; there's going to be anarchy."

But think about it: if you are on the King's Report, or you're on the show, there's an agreement: I'm the host, I invite you on, we talk about stuff; there are rules. There are no laws, no laws; you're not breaking laws. But maybe there are rules. See, just because there are no laws, what makes you think there are no rules? There are rules of behavior; there are rules of behavior. Whenever you have any human interaction, you have rules of behavior all the time. You can't just act like a lunatic and then expect people to respect you.

There are plenty of rules that we have in dealing with people, that don't lead to violence at all on a day-to-day basis, that don't involve any laws. This whole notion that, "Whoa, the laws; yes, we need to pass more laws to protect you!" No, no! This is becoming more convoluted; it becomes harder and harder to operate in that kind of country. It becomes harder to open a business, harder to make a living. You have to walk on eggshells because everything you do, you've broken some obscure law. And if somebody doesn't like you, and has lots of power, they can come after you with those ridiculous laws that you didn't even know you broke. The average US citizen apparently breaks eight laws a day or something like that. Per day - per day- that we don't even know about! Let alone Europe or let of the more tyrannical states! Oh my gosh! Do you understand? The law is not there for the people; the law is there for the elite class, folks.

No, no, no, no! Just because a law's sunset - every ten years laws are disappearing- well the elected officials that can only be voted from a pool of 2,100 eligible age voters, their laws are disappearing constantly; so they're busy having to re-pass and reinstate that law- which is good. They're busy bodies; they're always trying to pass laws. Well they disappear and then they try to pass them again, and they disappear. It's like a gerbil: you got to keep them as a gerbil, keep them running on the wheel. Are you with me, folks?

So again here, "a dominant group uses law" and if you have tons of laws that you are unaware of, and you've broken eight laws today, now if I don't like you and I have power- I'm in some office, I'm the mayor or something like that- you are mine. Do you understand, folks? See how that works? That's why in the end, the law is not necessarily your friend.

A dominant group uses law, custom, and political power to do what? To deny the rights of other groups!

The powerless group may not be accorded full civil rights.*

As Anastasia was praying this morning, the 500 political prisoners that were there on 1-6 protesting, waving flags, they are in solitary confinement, folks! A place that we reserve for Charles Manson and mass murderers and serial killers and rapists; that's where they go: solitary confinement. Why are Trump supporters who at the most have a misdemeanor of trespassing - their crime is mostly misdemeanor - how are 500 US citizens without any due process - no due process; they haven't even stood before a court- how are they in prison for six months in solitary confinement in the United States, folks? This is what happens in China; this is what happens in North Korea! This is America! This is what's happening right now in America.

And even the Leftist mainstream lying political Satanist media has to admit it. If CNBC has to admit it, you know it's probably ten times worse. What about all the people that they're planning to send SWAT teams to? Uh-huh! Those are political prisoners! They haven't committed any crime! And they're being held, not even able to stand before a court for six months in solitary confinement. Can you believe the terror? You are put in a place of serial killers; the worst of our society; the most crazed, the most lunatics. You're placed in that place because you went and waved a flag! And it wasn't even a BLM flag, which is openly Marxist; and it wasn't even a Commie flag; it was the Red, White and Blue! And now you're sitting in solitary confinement! And I'm not exaggerating; you saw the liars on CNBC propaganda news tell you that they have to admit that it's way worse.

Let me tell you, as people whose families have come from communist countries, that we don't trust media; I'm sorry. People from Russia they say openly, "We don't trust cops," because they lived under authoritarian cops. People from North Korea they'll tell you, "We don't trust cops," because they lived under authoritarian cops. People from China they'll tell you, "We don't trust cops."

See, in the West, this narrative is different, because we want to believe that law enforcement is going to do the right thing, that they're never going to arrest the patriots; they're never going to arrest people who defend the Constitution. Yes, there are people like that in the military and law enforcement; there are a lot of them still. The majority of them voted for Trump in the military and law enforcement, but there are active systems that are trying to change that culture. That's a very dangerous trend, folks; very dangerous trend. It's a trend that 100% leads to genocide down the road. I'm not saying now, but down the road it leads there, it leads there. Every authoritarian government has it; it's a bad way to go. So, obviously we have to stop it.

The dominant group is driven by an exclusionary ideology that would deprive less powerful groups of their rights:*

How many people just experienced the Covid lunacy -the Chicom virus- people yelling at you, angry at you, calling you "a super- spreader killer" as you are not getting vaxxed and that, "because you unvaccinated people are vaccine hesitant, millions of people are going to die?" We all got attacked that way. Because we don't trust an experimental shot that is a chemical cocktail with no ingredient list, from a government that has constantly lied to us and from an institution that has done numerous false flag operations on America; like the Gulf of Tonkin, like in the Cuban Missile Crisis, preparing the Joint Chiefs of Staff with declassified information saying that, "they're going to fly planes into shopping malls," and blaming it on Cuba. This is what they've done!

Tucker Carlson exposed all different things about the FBI knowledge and the FBI allowing for the 1-6 Event to happen in the way that it did; having full knowledge of it. And then they say, "Well, we're going to give you a jab. There's going to be some chemicals in there; you'll be fine. We're not going to tell you what it is, okay, but just trust us. It's going to be totally healthy; it's totally approved. You're going to be fine." Why would you do it? Are you with me, folks? We were told that stuff, and of course we've been attacked: "You are crazy people, you're in a cult, you're domestic terrorists; you're vaccine hesitant, you don't listen to science, you're anti-science people!" You heard this folks? How many people got labeled that stuff? Come on!

Now, they're coming out crying. They were bragging "we're so heroic"; some people even got a tattoo of the Covid shot. Boy, they're regretting that tattoo now, aren't they? That's why we don't get them; a lot of people get tattoos they regret like these Lefties. But it's like, "Oh, my goodness! You were calling us killers and super -spreaders; you were calling us the plague of humanity for not trusting an experimental shot which has no ingredient list, and which already 5,000 people on record in the US have died from, in the first two months." That's not hesitancy; we're watching the science. Now, if you want to be a guinea pig and you want to run the gerbil race that they tell you to run then do it; that's your choice. I'm not going to make you do it, but stop trying to force me to do it. Are you with me, folks?

And of course they're going to ramp up that coercion, with the new lockdown coming, and the Department of Health, DOH, allying with the Department of Education, DOE, to get the children involved on a "social justice project." "We'll have a class trip, kids. We're going to help save the neighborhood from radical super- spreaders; we're going to save this country, because Dr. Fauci said the coronavirus is going to kill everybody. So you must wear your mask -at five years old, in preschool- and you must come with your teachers now. Let's go save the world and let's go help these unscientific uneducated country bumpkins from their own ignorance, and let's be part of the solution!"

And they're going to come up to your doorstep: "Mr. Anderson, Isabel and Monica are here. We'd like to give you information about the vaccine; it's totally safe. They're here to support you. Go, Mr. Anderson!" Oh man! They're going to use all sorts of social tactics on you, folks! It's coming; trust me, it's coming!

It legitimizes the victimization of weaker groups. Advocates of exclusionary ideologies are often charismatic, expressing the resentments of their followers, attracting support from the masses etc:*

That's what they say Teddy Daniels is. But they're the ones that produced Teddy Daniels, as he said. He's like, "You know who made me? The Left made me." Big 300- pound Teddy bear! If you want to blame somebody who's now fighting you, well, it's you, who made him. You are the ones that kept on assaulting; you're the ones that kept on coming after our kids; you're the ones that try to put LGBT in five-year-old students' curriculum; you're the ones that try to teach them at five -six years old how to have anal sex. I mean, are you crazy? Are you crazy? You're crazy. This is what you're doing! You're doing that! So you're making a group of people that say, "Stop doing that!" You can't say, "Why are you so rebellious and resistant, while I'm trying to rob and rape and pillage your house?" It doesn't work that way when you are the assaulter.

But that's what it's about; this is crazy; it's nuts! So that's why they say I'm brainwashing all of you. See, I have a spell; I have powers of spells. I can mesmerize all of you, make you believe this. I brainwash you. Charismatic people you know, they brainwash you." No, no! You produced us! You made us, because you're constantly trying to destroy our family, our marriages, and our children! (Applause) So we are the product of you and your lunacy and your evil!"

Examples include the Nuremberg Laws of 1935 in Nazi Germany, which stripped Jews of their German citizenship, and prohibited their employment by the government and by universities:*

Well, just like they do in China, folks, if you don't have your vaccine passport. You know in the very liberal and awakened Western country of France, Macron has come out, and he was sitting there with the Eiffel Tower behind him as he made his wonderful proclamation to the citizenry of France, "we will have vaccine passports and mandatory vaccines for all staff and all public officials and all bus drivers, ..." and he was going on and on, "that's how it's going to be. And if you resist this, if you say no, you'll be a domestic terrorist." You understand, folks, where this is going? This is the Western world with the Eiffel Tower; you know the city of romance and "l'amour."

They're jabbing you with a little bit of deadly stuff now, mandated, as in China. The vaccine passport's already there; you can't travel on public transportation if you don't have a shot. You can't use the bus, you can't fly on a plane; you can't leave the country. Are you with me, folks?

Again that's not fear-mongering. There are countries already doing this, folks; already doing it. And remember when they promised us, "In 14 days -15 days; we'll stop the spread." What did you hear at Sanctuary Church on that same weekend? "It's not ending!" You heard that; you heard that right here. We're not bragging or anything but we told you it's not going to end. This is how Commies do it; it's just history. It's patterns of behavior; this is modus operandi. It's just being a scholarly student of these wicked demonic programs. That's how they work; they don't stop.

So they're saying now, "The Delta variant can be stopped in 14 days." They can slow the curve. Have you heard this one before in the last year or so? We're on the second year; have you heard this before? "This is deja vu." This is the matrix, "I saw a glitch in the cat; I saw a glitch in the cat!" You just heard this less than two years ago, folks. They just said, "14 days," and they're now saying it again; for the new Delta variant, which has killed almost nobody statistically, even though it's three times more contagious apparently, and now the vaxxed can be spreaders of the Delta variant. I'm sorry these are the facts.

So of course this goes against all the Nuremberg Laws of 1935 in Nazi Germany, which stripped Jews of their German citizenship, and prohibited their employment by the government and by universities.

We have friends that are ringing us, "Hey my daughter, my niece is in the Air Force or the Military" whatever, "and they're pushing a vaccine on her, man; threatening, 'you don't do it, you're out.'" Well what does that say? What did it just say? You're prohibited from employment. Walmart is now starting to roll that out; notice how all the Fortune 500 companies can do fine during the Covid; they have no restrictions. Meanwhile your mom and pop shops all have to die.

The American Communist Party & the 1929 Crash

Let me show you real statistics, the numbers of the American Communist Party that was founded in the early 1920s. Remember there's a financial crash around when? In 1929! What happens precipitously to the numbers of the American Communist Party after 1929? See? You see the small bars in red; that's their numbers in the beginning before 1929. Now, what happens to the American Communist Party after 1929? What happens after the crash? By golly, gee whiz! The Communist Party numbers skyrocket; don't they, folks? Look at that! These are the numbers of the American Communist Party, okay. What happens after the financial crash? The commies can witness and evangelize with tremendous power. Now remember, they don't have social media at the time, so if they have social media it's going to expand even faster.

So, what is this infatuation? What is this incredible desire to want to collapse America economically by these fascists and by these communist political Satanists? Why do they have such a lascivious desire to implode our economy? Because that is a strategy of warfare, folks; without shooting one gun or dropping one bomb, you blow it up from within ideologically, and the numbers show it. Look at that dramatic rise statistically proven after the financial crash!

Now that's without social media; imagine with the advent of social media and the crazy propaganda: CNN and all of them hammering this, day in and day out! You understand, folks? 150 million plus Americans got this experimental unproven chemical cocktail jabbed into their body! Over 150 million Americans were violated and penetrated- that's the right word for it, isn't it- penetrated with potential poison. 150 plus millions, folks! You understand? That should really be cause for worry; it shows you how strong the mainstream media still is.

So you have on top of that the mainstream media that has the power to literally tell 150 million Americans, "mask, no mask; mask, no mask," and they'll just do it: "mask, no mask; mask, no mask; mask, no mask." There's another meme that one of our friends put up, it's a funny one. All the people are crawling on the street, and they ask, "Why are you crawling?" He said, "Oh, the coronavirus floats at three feet and above so we have to crawl. That's what Fauci said." And you have lines of people crawling. But that's how crazy it is.

Look, when we were telling people that six -seven years ago, and Father was telling that his whole life, everybody thought we were nuts. But look how people are behaving; they're the ones that are behaving like they're nuts, "mask, no mask; mask, no mask; one, two masks; two masks, three masks." Oh, my gosh, you're going to die; you're going to suffocate yourself! It's crazy; it's crazy land!

But the point is: it shows you how much power the media still has. They are dying for an economic crash; they want it so bad, they want that crash. Why? You see the numbers, folks; this is statistical evidence. You know what's going to happen after an economic crash? They have an environment of existential crisis, where they can appeal to people's hearts and say, "We need to overthrow this wretched system. We have to defund the police." They start with the police; most of them were Trump supporters, and then by extension they go on, "we got to get rid of the white domestic terrorists," which are basically the Trump supporters, even though many of us are not white. Highest rates of support from the Black community, highest rates from the Asian community; highest rates from all of these different races! But that doesn't matter; they're all white supremacists. And it goes on, and it moves forward.

So they know the numbers, folks: economic chaos, big depression; it will absolutely increase the number of Marxists. Sorry, that's what it will do. Now it makes a little more sense why they're trying to drive the economy into the ground and crash the dollar doesn't it? Because this is what they're going to get; they're going to get massive support. Social media and media will be hammering this daily; media will be slamming this daily, daily, daily, daily: "The revolution is here! The white supremacists must go. They caused this; they made Trump. Trump must die! "Oh boy, you haven't seen anything yet!

If we're in a crashed economy and the dollar has collapsed, all these unemployed, crazed, brainwashed young people in the cities, what do you think they're going to do? They're already listening to the mainstream media, even though they believe that they are anarchists. You can't be anarchist if you're listening to the establishment! Hello! Stop tattooing yourself with the A (Anarchy). You're not the A, you're the E (Establishment); you're part of the establishment, you're talking the same way as the establishment. It's ridiculous! But what do you think they will do? Unemployment, crash of the dollar, they can't buy anything, they're angry; burn stuff down; riot, loot, loot, riot. What do you think is going to happen?

The commies can witness and evangelize great in that environment; perfect, perfect, that's what they need. They need the environment of chaos, so they can say, "Look, look, look! This is what capitalism has produced. Look this is what the white man's system has produced! Rise up; rise up against it!" You understand? That's how they're going to do it, "This is what the racist George Washington and Thomas Jefferson have produced: this chaos, the crashed dollar!" You see what I'm saying, folks? And then of course they're going to have flags of Mao Zedong, t-shirts of Fidel Castro and Che Guevara. Give me a break! We know exactly where it is going, folks. The Beast is moving.

That's the numbers right there. Just keep this in the back of your mind, as they're trying to crash the economy and let the Fortune 500 companies and conglomerates do fine, but kill the moms and pops. Just remember this chart, because that's what they're doing.

4. DEHUMANIZATION:

One group denies the humanity of the other group. Members of it are equated with animals, vermin, insects or diseases. Dehumanization overcomes the normal human revulsion against murder. At this stage, hate propaganda in print and on hate radios is used to vilify the victim group. The majority group is taught to regard the other group as less inhuman even alien to their society they are indoctrinated to believe that we are better off without them. The powerless group can become so depersonalized that they're actually given numbers rather than names as Jews were in the death camps.

One group denies the humanity of the other group. Members of it are equated with animals, vermin, insects or diseases:*

Have you ever been called a super-spreader? Hello? We are the infection; we are the disease that's spreading the virus. We're not listening to big old government telling us to get shot; we're not listening. We're rebellious bad boys, bad girls, super- spreaders "you're killing everybody. Because of you, grandpa and grandma will all die." Not because of Cuomo who put the Covid positive patients into the nursing homes, to push the numbers up! That doesn't matter. "It's you! You are the super- spreader; you are the virus. It's not the Covid; you are the virus, and especially if you voted for T.R.U.M.P. Oh, you're not only a virus; you are a terrorist!"

Dehumanization overcomes the normal human revulsion against murder. At this stage, hate propaganda in print and on hate radios is used to vilify the victim group:*

Like the Trump supporters, law abiding Republicans or Libertarians being called domestic terrorists for exercising their First Amendment rights! That is insanity.

The majority group is taught to regard the other group as less inhuman even alien to their society they are indoctrinated to believe that we are better off without them:*

Ooh! "We are better off without all these Trump supporters; we're better off as America, without all these crazy anti-vaxxers. We're better off in America without all these white supremacist Republicans and country bumpkins!" Ah, you see folks; you see what's happening?

The powerless group can become so depersonalized that they're actually given numbers rather than names as Jews were in the death camps:*

Do you know the new Covid passport that they want to push? They haven't pushed it yet but they want to push it; they're obviously going to start in the countries that are more liberal progressive. But of course those are all just barcode numbers; you're going to get a number. We already have one in the social security program, but anyway, we're going to get a Covid number, and a QR code.

Did you hear about the Austrian parliamentarian with the new Covid quick test? He opened a bottle of Coca-Cola in front of the TV, poured it into the Covid quick test, and he got a positive result from Mr. Coca-Cola. He just did that yesterday, just to show on TV that this is ludicrous; that this quick test doesn't work if coca-cola has Covid! But he's being derided as a right-wing extremist; he's a right-wing extremist because he wanted evidence and because on national TV he used Coca-Cola to put into a Covid quick test and he got a positive result. God bless him! Praise God for him!

It's just so crazy; when I say this, people think I'm literally making it up and trying to brainwash you. No, that literally happened; okay that literally happened.

5. ORGANIZATION:

Genocide is always organized, usually by the state, often using militias to provide deniability of state responsibility. An example of this is the Sudanese government's support and arming of the Janjaweed in Darfur. Sometimes organization is informal (Hindu mobs led by local RSS militants during Indian partition) or decentralized (jihadist terrorist groups.) Special army units or militias are often trained and armed. Arms are purchased by states and militias often in violation of UN arms embargoes to facilitate acts of genocide

That's the organization phase.

Now remember, this doctor always has a "government solution," but that's as imbecilic as the example I gave you, "I'm coming to rob you, but don't worry I'll stop it." It's ridiculous okay.

Obviously the answer is what? It's free speech, it's freedom of assembly, it's freedom of internet, freedom of information, freedom of the media, where the little man has access to shared information, and people can try to decipher what is true and what is not, and it can't be controlled by a centralized power. Obviously, that is the answer: the answer is not government trying to curb themselves like the robber trying to stop the robbery, right? The point is to give liberty; liberty is what curbs that behavior. Same with the government trying to use militias or different organized groups, to arm them and then kill the population!

How are you going to stop that? His suggestion of the UN trying to come in or stuff like that, that's not going to help it. What's the solution? It's called the Second Amendment. You let everybody be armed, and that's the check and balance on crazy people and crazy groups. Because your group is armed too, so "you want to go get it, we can go at it, but you're going to get hurt too," and that's a good incentive to stop the bad people; big, big, big, incentive.

6. POLARIZATION:

Extremists drive the groups apart. Hate groups broadcast polarizing propaganda. Motivations for targeting a group are indoctrinated through mass media. Laws may forbid intermarriage or social interaction. Extremist terrorism targets moderates, intimidating and silencing the center. Moderates from the perpetrators' own group are most able to stop genocide, so are the first to be arrested and killed. The dominant group passes emergency laws or decrees that grants them total power over the targeted group. The laws erode fundamental civil rights and liberties. Targeted groups are disarmed to make them incapable of self defense, and to ensure that the dominant group has control.

Moderates are people like the Kennedy Democrats, who are like, "I don't know; I vote Democrat because my parents voted Democrat. I watch CBS because my dad always watched CBS, and CBS is not really getting me angry about stuff. Yeah, it's fine to keep on while I'm eating my dinner so that's what I watch and I'm learning something." This is what they think; they're the moderates in the Democratic Communist Party.

Now, the goal is to get these moderates to get real radical like AOC, (Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez) real radical like Bernie Sanders, real radical like these other Lefties; or kick them out, get rid of them, filter them out, or make them capitulate to the more extreme communist propaganda and agenda and support it. Now they're having trouble with this, even with Manchin in West Virginia; he is a Democrat but he opposes the filibuster. He even opposes the Waco mass murderer, the mass killer Dave Chipman. So there are still some Kennedy Democrats. Praise the Lord! They're not all red-flaming Mao flag- waving commies yet, but there's a majority that is heavily leaning that way.

In other countries it's way worse. Remember this is the last line, so we have the best case scenario; every other country on the planet is worse, folks; it's worse. Do you understand? This is the best case scenario and it's not even that good.

The dominant group passes emergency laws or decrees:*

Oh, oh! How many people heard of some emergency laws, huh? Y'all heard of some emergency laws? What is this whole thing with the Act 77? Remember this? The emergency mail- in voting ballots? In Pennsylvania all the registered voters of the state voted; everybody, plus 200,000 more. So, everybody who's registered voted, everybody; nobody called in sick, nobody's grandma was ... Everybody voted and 200,000 more voted. But they don't want to do an audit. Why? We never had a situation where everybody who was registered voted; that never happens. It's usually about 40, 50%, nowhere near 100%; of course nowhere near 120%! That can't physically happen. Are you with me, folks? I mean, come on! This is total crazy town. Hello!

This is the state we live in, folks; that's how the Beasts moves. See, while we're busy with this and that; we're just having a peaceful day and trying to get through work and come home and enjoy some steak and some mashed potatoes, with some cheddar cheese on top, some A1 steak sauce, with a little steamed broccoli on the side. We are just trying to do that. No, no! They're busy, busy, busy; they're busy trying to wreck everything, wreck the peace.

The dominant group passes emergency laws or decrees that grants them total power over the targeted group. The laws erode fundamental civil rights and liberties. Targeted groups are disarmed to make them incapable of self defense. and to ensure that the dominant group has control:*

So even this Leftist professor has to admit that they disarm the public; even this Leftist professor has to admit the truth; that whenever it happens, all the communist revolutions, all the centralization of state power, any totalitarian government must disarm the people. Even he has to admit it!

7. PREPARATION:

National or perpetrator group leaders plan the "Final Solution" to the Jewish, Armenian, Tutsi or other targeted group "question." (The Trump supporters or the patriots) They often use euphemisms to cloak their intentions, such as referring to their goals as "ethnic cleansing," "purification," or "counter-terrorism." They build armies, buy weapons and train their troops and militias. They indoctrinate the populace with fear of the victim group. Leaders often claim that "if we don't kill them, they will kill us." Acts of genocide are disguised as counter insurgency. If there is an ongoing armed conflict or civil war, there is a sudden increase in inflammatory rhetoric and hate propaganda with the objective to create fear of the other group. Political processes such as peace accords that threaten the total dominance of the genocidal group, or upcoming elections that may cost them their grip on total power, may actually trigger genocide.

They often use euphemisms to cloak their intentions, such as referring to their goals as "ethnic cleansing," "purification," or "counter-terrorism."*

Did you all hear about some counter-terrorism joint task force to investigate all the Trump supporters? Well, they're doing it to stop terrorism, you see; it's counter terrorism. Because people who want to just peacefully operate a business, and peacefully want to live in a free country, and peacefully don't want things to be rammed down their throat, and peacefully don't want to be told to "put a mask on, take a mask off; get jabbed with this poison, get jabbed with that poison," people who just don't think that's smart. Terrorists! Terrorists! Are you with me, folks?

They build armies, buy weapons and train their troops and militias. They indoctrinate the populace with fear of the victim group. Leaders often claim that "if we don't kill them, they will kill us."*

Oh, you haven't heard of "the insurrection?" That was the most peaceful insurrection in all of human history. If taking pictures in a building is an insurrection, Gee Whiz by Golly; come on! Are you kidding me, folks? That is not an insurrection; give me a total ridiculous break!

We have the midterms coming up, and they know they will lose greatly. That's why of course, in Pennsylvania they don't want to do any audits; Mastriano is the only one who is calling for an audit. What's that about? Just like some of the speakers yesterday were saying, "These people forgot that they're supposed to represent us; they're supposed to be our voice." They're not supposed to just spew what they want to do; they're supposed to be our voice.

When you clearly stole an election which is by the way the fundamental bedrock of a democratic republic, and you steal that; when you've taken that away, we have nothing. The people then that we "select" are not our representatives. If there's no integrity in the vote, if 200,000 extra votes can just pop on, and if everybody who's registered apparently voted for the first time in human history. Are you with me, folks? This is a problem; it's a big problem.

So as they face that midterm coming up, then of course their fear is what? The people will win dramatically; obviously they will. We'll come in a stronger force to support the candidates that actually want to represent us, and we will take back the House. They know that. So before the people do this, this is the mentality they're building up now, "Well, if we don't stop them, they're going to destroy us." And they've just been caught; even Tucker Carlson on Fox News is calling out the FBI for instigating the 1-6 Event. Which is supposed to be a federal law enforcement agency that serves the people, not does false flags against us, and blames it on us.

Here's where it gets bad, folks, and we're on the precipice, getting close to this. We are real close; we're probably the end of 7, near 8.

8. PERSECUTION:

Victims are identified and separated out because of their ethnic or religious identity. Death lists are drawn up. That's already done.

In state sponsored genocide, members of victim groups may be forced to wear identifying symbols. Their property is often expropriated. Sometimes they are even segregated into ghettos, deported into concentration camps, or confined to a famine-struck region and starved. They are deliberately deprived of resources such as water or food in order to slowly destroy the group. Programs are implemented to prevent procreation through forced sterilization or abortions.

Ah, there's the pro-life; there's abortions!

Children are forcibly taken from their parents. The victim groups' basic human rights become systematically abused through extrajudicial killings torture and force displacement. Genocidal massacres begin. They are acts of genocide because they intentionally destroy part of the group. The perpetrators watch for whether such massacres meet any international reaction. If not, they realize that the international community will again be bystanders, and permit another genocide.

Just like they did at Waco! That's why they want to plan another Waco. They want to test it out, "Let's do another Waco; let's see how the international community responds. Let's see what the other Americans do." See, that's phase 8: we're right there folks! We're probably in the beginnings of phase 8

9. EXTERMINATION

Extermination begins, and quickly becomes the mass killing legally called "genocide." It is "extermination" to the killers because they do not believe their victims to be fully human. When it is sponsored by the state, the armed forces often work with militias to do the killing. Sometimes the genocide results in revenge killings by groups against each other, creating the downward whirlpool-like cycle of bilateral genocide (as in Burundi). Acts of genocide demonstrate how dehumanized the victims have become; already dead bodies are dismembered rape is used as a tool of war to genetically alter and eradicate the other group. Destruction of cultural and religious property is employed to annihilate the group's existence from history.

The era of "total war" began world war began in World War II. Firebombing did not differentiate civilians from non-combatants. The civil wars that broke out after the end of the cold war have also not differentiated civilians and combatants. They result in widespread war crimes. Mass rapes of women and girls have become a characteristic of all modern genocides. All men of fighting age are murdered in some genocides. In total genocides all the members of the targeted group are exterminated.

When it is sponsored by the state, the armed forces often work with militias to do the killing. Sometimes the genocide results in revenge killings by groups against each other, creating the downward whirlpool-like cycle of bilateral genocide (as in Burundi):*

"You're all terrorists! See, it's good, because we cleanse the world of terrorists." Are you with me, folks? See, that's why they've got to demonize and dehumanize Trump supporters, calling them terrorists. There's a reason for that; there's a reason why they do that. It's not because they want to play patty cake with you or jump rope with you.

Acts of genocide demonstrate how dehumanized the victims have become; already dead bodies are dismembered. Rape is used as a tool of war to genetically alter and eradicate the other group:*

Why are they allowing jihadis into Europe and pushing the propaganda that if you're a white European girl, you should date a jihadi and that makes you not racist? They want to eradicate the European race. What is it? It's a tool of war: it means what? The biological and genetic alteration! You see, they're letting the jihadis in; they're propagandizing so that you're more of a hero if you take in one of the jihadis and have children with them and become Muslim.

Okay! Well if you want to do that you're free to do that. But if it is propaganda and you're doing it to be a social justice warrior, if you're doing it to virtue signal, well you may be doing the wrong thing, honey; maybe you're being led down a trap, and the devil is there to devour you at the end.

Rape is used as a tool of war genetically altering and eradicating the other group. Destruction of cultural and religious property is employed to annihilate the group's existence from history:*

This is the same in all the satanic wars? Rape is used as a tool to genetically alter and eradicate the population. Except for the God of the Bible who said it was illegal to rape your victims if you took over the country. And you can't take their resources either. So you can't do it for money, you can't do it for girls; you have to eradicate and destroy that civilization if it has become so wicked and evil, like it's killing the children, it's doing child sacrifice, it's doing sex trafficking of the children in the temple prostitution cults of Asherah and Ishtar, and if it is killing the babies in the fire of Baal. That's what the Bible talks about.

So when those kinds of human rights crimes are being committed, then God calls for the hammer of justice to be dropped; but you can't take their stuff and you can't rape their women. Do you see what a humongous difference it is in the ethics of war; whereas in the normal ethics of war, you go in and you do rape all the girls, because you wipe them out biologically? That's what jihad allows; it allows for four wives, endless divorce and Mut'ah wives, which are endless women and sex slaves.

Muhammad having many, many, sex slaves in addition to all the eleven wives.

Destruction of cultural and religious property is employed to annihilate the group's existence from history:*

Did you see them going after the Jesus' statues in front of the Catholic churches? Now, there are problems with the Catholic Church; they got major, major problems. But, why are you tearing down their statue? You see that; you see the BLM folks tearing down; they're saying, "it's a white Jesus," so they're tearing it down.

The era of "total war" began world war began in World War II. Firebombing did not differentiate civilians from non-combatants. The civil wars that broke out after the end of the cold war have also not differentiated civilians and combatants. They result in widespread war crimes. Mass rapes of women and girls have become a characteristic of all modern genocides. All men of fighting age are murdered in some genocides. In total genocide all the members of the targeted group are exterminated:*

This is just history folks; America now is in this process. Our family came from North Korea, folks; North Korea, probably one of the worst commie countries in the world. All these things are happening right here, now. Not a joke, not a joke.

10. DENIAL

Denial is the final stage that lasts throughout and always follows a genocide. It is among the surest indicators of further genocidal massacres. The perpetrators of genocide dig up the mass graves, burn the bodies, try to cover up the evidence and intimidate the witnesses. They deny that they committed any crimes, and often blame what happened on the victims. They block investigations of the crimes, and continue to govern until driven from power by force, when they flee into exile. There they remain with impunity, like Pol Pot or Idi Amin, unless they are captured and a tribunal is established to try them.

But good luck with that, with the UN Security Council which the Chinese Communist Party runs! Let's involve the UN! That is the suggestion. Well, the Chicoms run the UN. How will that help? You're helping them create the whole world into Chinese Communism. How will the robber stop himself from robbing your house, when he has all the power to do so?

With God, all things are possible

So we are in a critical time of our history, and for people who are asleep and continue to sleep it's terrible because along these stages of processes we're probably already in the beginning of stage 8.

And stage 10 is not really a stage; it's just denial. So really we are in the last two phases.

Again I'm not doing that to scare anybody; just look at the historical evidence, folks. This Beast, this cancerous Beast, the 666 Beast, the political Satanist Beast has devoured every country that it can get established in. And when you have a civilization now where 50% of the next generation is positive towards Socialism and thinks that the founding is racist and thinks that America has an evil history, you have a big problem, folks. I'm telling you, it's a big deal!

Only by the power of God can this be turned around; only by the power of God. That's why I see that the Beast is meant to make you feel weak and powerless, because in the state of helplessness and feeling powerless we get consumed with fear. It's a natural thing; I get it, because it is scary. These people don't have good intentions; they're here to kill, maim and destroy. When we feel powerless and we feel helpless, the devil can give us fear, and fear is used to paralyze us, to make us give up; because if we give up resisting him he can stay. The Scripture in James 4 says, "Resist the devil, and he will flee"; but if you don't resist the devil, then what? He will not flee; he will stay. It is the opposite truth to that scripture, isn't it? If you don't resist him, he will stay. And his purpose as the Bible and Scripture describes is to steal, kill and destroy; so if we don't resist it, he stays.

See, maybe God is making us realize that we have to rely on Him in the end, because this Beast is so big, the network of these heads of the Beast that we see in Revelation is so intertwined; there are so many heads to this international Beast that it looks impossible by our own human effort to defeat this. And it's true, it's true; by our own human effort it may be true, but as the Scripture says, yes with man it may be impossible but "with God all things are possible." (Applause) So that is the key.

The key is of course resisting, knowing that God is on our side; He will not forsake us if we don't willingly choose to leave Him; if we stand by His side, don't give up our rights, protect the gifts that He's given us, we will see the way through this tunnel. It's like Winston Churchill says, "If you are going through hell, keep going." If you're in hell keep driving through because you'll poke out to the other side. It's the same thing. We may be descending into a bad situation.

But the point is: the roller coaster ride is just beginning, so if we're getting scared and paralyzed now and we give up, it's over. It's over for the whole world; it's over for the whole world, folks! Do you understand?

We're coming into an age of total totalitarian domination. Unless the American righteous person who at least has some basic Christian values and morals, and doesn't want to implode the family and implode marriage, and have children sex- trafficked and given to the pedophiles starts resisting; as long as you have those basic values and want to protect liberty, God can use you. God can use you, and in a mighty way. He can use you to resist this wicked, wicked, wicked evil, which is coming for our children. By the way, just to let you know, it's coming for your children, grandchildren; all of them.

So it is the time, folks, for the final epic battle; we are already in.

Pastor Sean's Prayer

Father God, we thank You for this day. We thank You for illuminating our eyes, waking us up, giving us a swift kick, so that we would know the time and the age. Dear God, we know that even though it seems so helpless, so disheartening to see and study history and the terrible, terrible atrocities that have been perpetrated upon millions of people; it's so depressing to look at this dear God, because we're humans.

But, God, we have to realize that You are there, and we have to realize that we cannot be paralyzed in the spirit of fear because You rebuked that spirit of fear. You told us that "You have not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." You told us that we would not be dominated and possessed by evil demons.

And so, dear God, we ask Your spirit to be in us; to fully, fully fill us, purify us of that fear. Let us realize and have the confidence that we serve a supernatural God, not just things in the natural; because in the flesh and in the natural it seems and looks impossible, as if all the odds are stacked against us. But maybe that is just what the world needs, to believe again in You! Maybe, that's just what the world needs to realize that we're down in the fourth below by 60 points, and somehow we manage to win by Your glory!

Dear God, we pray that You would fill us with that spirit. Animate us for this contest of liberty! Don't let us give up in the fourth quarter. Let us have the fortifying spirit that will see this through. Let us finish that race and let us defend the gifts that You have given; pouring out your blood, sweat and tears to give us. Let us never take that for granted, and let us always resist the devil, as You promised, that he will flee.

We give You the praise, we give You the glory and we give You the honor; all those gathered here today, in Your precious name. Amen! Aju!

All right folks; let's all rise and give Him the praise! Amen!

The Battle Hymn of The Republic

*Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the lord,
He is trampling out the vintage
where the grapes of wrath are stored,
He hath loosed his fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword,
His truth is marching on*

Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! Glory! Glory! Hallelujah Glory! Glory! Hallelujah! His truth is marching on
