We have Ezekiel chapter 46 today. It's a book of prophecy. See, people have to understand: the Word of God is fearful; it's scary, it's scary. How is it that John in the Island of Patmos, 2,000 years ago, when he's writing the Book of Revelation, how is he predicting things that are happening to the 't' 2,000 plus years later? It's unbelievable, unbelievable! Of course this is known in the academic or scholarly study of Scripture, as apocalyptic literature or prophetic literature; it's one of the genres of Scripture. Ezekiel is a prophet; he can see visions in the future. We have different chapters of Ezekiel, we have chapters in Daniel, and of course we have the Book of Revelation which are talking about the future times; the End Times. It has become quite a popular topic nowadays; hasn't it?

Most standard interpreters of Ezekiel 46 are looking at this Scripture as future prophecy of Christ as he returns and rules in Jerusalem. It doesn't really say 'Jerusalem'; it just says 'the inner court'. It talks about a court and talks about a place where he's ruling; and it's interesting because in Ezekiel 46 he's ruling. Of course he's called the Prince of Peace through Scripture, even though he says very clearly he comes "not to bring peace but to bring a sword"; to bring justice and righteousness, and in the End Times he punishes evil. He clearly identifies evil; curses and punishes it.

In this chapter 46 we see remnants of that, but also we see something like a religious service. Let's take a look at it!

Ezekiel 46: 1-9

1Thus saith the Lord GOD; The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

4 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And the meat offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

Let's jump down to verse 9

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the Lord in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

So, if you came through the North gate, you got to go out by the South gate; if you came in through the South gate, you have to go out through the North gate.

10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

So the Prince of Peace, as everybody comes in, then he comes in; as they go forth, he goes forth.

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

You see? There is some kind of religious ceremony going on in this worship.

Let's first jump down to 19. Now this interesting:

19 After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, to sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

24 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

These are the meat offerings and the sin offerings, etc.

Let's jump back a little bit because there are a couple of verses on inheritance which are very interesting. Let's go back to verse 16

16 Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

Huh, did you hear that? Father was always talking about inheritance and kings and sons. What's all this craziness going on in the Kingdom of God, and the Millennial Reign?

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

Now, this is very important. See, in the western world, let's call it the democratic world, we are used to meritocracy. So we're used to: the most competent CEO and the best person who can do real estate will make the most money, etc, and there's a tremendous amount of positives on it. But when you're talking about kings and sons and inheritance, this is different.

Jordan Peterson

This is very interesting because just last week, and someone showed me a video of Jordan Peterson. Who knows Jordan Peterson? Dr. Jordan Peterson is one of the biggest psychologists in the world, who is conservative and he is actually saving a lot of young people who want to leave Christianity to staying in Christianity, because he explores the psychological benefits of the Christian narrative; for example, the narrative of Christ triumphant over evil through love and sacrifice etc.

Anyway, he's done this whole thing at the academic level. He's probably saved tens of thousands of young Christians who got sick of the church, and wanted to leave the church thinking it was just mythology, because they've been brainwashed by the public school system to believe that. And that it has nothing beneficial to offer, and it's like believing in Thor or Zoroaster or something like that.

He has gone through tremendous clinical psychological analysis into all these stories of the Bible, whether it is Abraham or whether it is Adam and Eve. He's gone through all these in painful detail sometimes from a psychological perspective. He's a clinical psychologist and a professor emeritus out there in Toronto, Canada. And of course he got famous for standing up for free speech in Canada where they have the draconian censorship laws, which they call 'hate speech laws'.

They have them in Europe and Canada and of course they're trying to bring them to the US. You say something that's antithesis to them that they don't like: "this is hate speech; you are white supremacist; you are a domestic terrorist." Parents who are against CRT that is reverse racism, teaching white people that they're inherently bad because they're white; if you are against that you are a domestic terrorist. That's what they're saying.

Loudoun County & Youngkin

It was so crazy! I think it was in Loudoun County, VA, where that 14- year- old girl got raped in school by a boy posing as a girl, because they're allowed to use the girls' restroom. By the way it's the reason why I took my daughter out of school, the public brainwashing camps; because no, no, no! There's no boy that's going to be coming in there pretending he's a girl okay! That's not happening!

But then she was raped, she was assaulted; she was sexually raped in that lavatory. The father came to the parents-teachers' conference to complain about it because his daughter was just raped. Do you understand? Is that a just thing to do? Of course it is; of course it's a just thing to do! That man was 100% filled with the wrath of God in a good way and had 100 % justice on his side! He was standing up for his own daughter who got brutalized in a violent rape by a boy wearing a skirt. And what happened? That man was brutalized; that dad was thrown on the ground, put in handcuffs, etc. He was the one arrested! The school board who covered it up, all those principal and administrators who covered it up, they didn't want the politics. No, no! They're not the ones that were participating or promulgating injustice! No, it's the man who stood up for his child!

What planet are we living on? What planet are we living on? See we're living in a post-modern post-Christian culture, a demonic culture. The Book of Isaiah said it very clearly: "In the End Time, good will be called evil, evil will be called good." Great, great, great, confusion in the land, folks! If you can't as a culture, say a man is right for standing up for his daughter who was raped by a boy posing as a girl in a bathroom, and you think that man is the guilty one and he's a domestic terrorist., YOU are the terrorist! Are you with me, folks? YOU are the domestic terrorist! I'm sorry to say that; that's reality.

So this kind of craziness is going on. That's why you had that huge flip in Virginia with Youngkin coming in, and winning at the end. He's not a saint, okay; we've got to pray for him. If you don't know about Youngkin: he's got 25 years of work with the Carlisle group and ending up as co-CEO. That's a dangerous group, folks; that's like a George Soros' organization. You understand? This man is not a saint.

Vertical split in society

But the point is: even in a revolutionary period, God has to split society in half, especially the leadership. Why? Because, for example, in the French Revolution they didn't have the buy-in of the upper class; since they didn't have the buy-in of the upper class, it became a "people's revolution," and what happened? They replaced the monarchy with another tyrant. Are you with me, folks? You have to have splits throughout all society.

Father talked about it as the vertical split through society, not the horizontal. The horizontal split: if you split and the lower class decides, "Okay, we're going to do violent revolution," well you're going to have Marxism. Even if the middle class decides it, you may still get Marxism.

You have to have a split from the upper middle and lower; they all have to split. It's going to be divided between the sheep and the goats as Matthew 25 says, or Cain and Abel so -to- speak. You're going to have people that stand on one side, "Hey, we're going to defend liberty." You're going to have others that say, "No, we want centralized control." This vertical split is critical because you need the buy-in of the upper class to support and fund the resistance against the evil, against the people who are trying to bring in tyranny.

Let's just be real: the upper class has lots of resources. So even let's say in the worst case scenario, we're pummeling towards global collapse, economic crisis, and supply chain crisis across the globe; it's just a reality. Bioterrorism really is what's happening with the Covid forced mandates; if you can't say "no," to the experimental use of a vaccine that has never been done. It is unprecedented in history; it has never been approved. This experimental use of the vaccine especially on children has never been approved in the history of vaccinology. Never; not once; not once, folks! It's the first time, first time ever. New studies are showing unbelievable things about it; I could show you all these things because I read them.

The point is: you could have all this collapse, but you need to have unity in that form. You need to have unity of people throughout all the strata of society that say, "Hey, we got to stop this stuff. We've got to stop these lockdowns; we've got to stop them from killing black and brown people in sub-Saharan Africa, starving people to death at record numbers." Because now they're imploding the Third World into UTTER, utter, poverty, the likes of which they haven't seen. We're complaining about little shortages in our milk supply here in America. No, in other countries like Afghanistan people can't eat; okay, folks? The list goes on and on; I don't even need to go through it. It's so crazy.

But you need to have that vertical split, where Satan's side and God's side are split all throughout the strata of society.

The Boston Tea Party

Look what happened with George Washington in the Revolutionary Period in America! You had the Boston Tea Party; you had the initial resistance against the British tyranny, against the taxes, against the tea taxes, the ammo taxes that were coming down the line, the black powder taxes, and all that kind of stuff. You had the people with DECADES of mandates, being told what to do by the British throne. You had to be a part of the Anglican Church, etc. Religious freedom didn't exist; all that kind of stuff. Are you with me, folks? This is American history.

So, you had the Boston Tea Party. People actually said, "That's it! We're going to resist you. How are we going to resist you? We're going to throw your little Lipton tea bags in the water, okay; that's how we're going to resist you. We drink coffee in America, dang-on it!" Even though it was discovered in Ethiopia; but that's okay.

They threw the tea bags in the water. So they had a big party there. Now the British crown was not so delighted about such an event; they were not delighted at all about that, and they had bounties on those people's heads. Now it's interesting because George Washington who is idolized in American culture; at least on the conservative side let's say it that way. I guess that's true: half the country thinks he's a slave-owning white supremacist Satan or something. That's where we are in America. But anyway, the point is: usually we see George Washington as a good guy; usually. At least when I was in high school, we thought George Washington was a good guy- even though he had a fake wig on! Okay, it doesn't matter; he was a good guy trying to stand for liberty.

But notice this: George Washington, he had a lot of assets, about eight billion dollars worth of current time assets. He was a billionaire; he was like a Trump. But in the beginning he did not support the resistance. He condemned the Boston Tea Party; he condemned it. 50 years later after the war and after the Revolutionary Period, and he won, etc, he said that was the beginning of America. George Washington in his own letters wrote that the Boston Tea Party was the beginning of America. Now, this is from a man who was against it at the time. You see how that works, folks?

Because at the time there's so much politics involved; there's so much name calling. Your whole life is going to be ravaged. If you support the Boston Tea Party, you can have people who are for the British with torches and trying to kill you. You understand folks?

So this is interesting because what happened in the Revolutionary Period also mirrors what's happening now. Even in the Republican Party we have a group that is more libertarians; they want freedom, they want to stand for freedom, liberty, et cetera. Then we have more established Republicans, which we call multiple names: Neocons, RINOs, whatever you want to call them. But if you think about it, George Washington was a RINO; he was a RINO. "Boy, those people throwing that tea in the water! That's too extreme; it's not time yet!" He was like a Neocon.

Why the vertical split?

The point is: why does God have to split the society in half especially when there's a cultural crisis, an existential crisis; when one new operating system -let's say talking computer language- one new operating system is being placed upon the other, and the other one being replaced? When you have that type of turmoil and change, you're talking about fundamental beliefs being overturned. That's why they're after the family, that's why they are after marriage; that's why they are after "love God, love your neighbor." They're for "report your neighbor!" Not "love God, love your neighbor" REPORT your neighbor, if they have more than six people like in Canada right; with our loving man doing "blackface" for fun, white supremacist Justin Trudeau. Where's all the BLM about this fool, huh uh-huh?

But the strata must be split through God's side and Satan's side; especially when there is a new operating system which is satanic, trying to override ALL the traditions of the culture which is predominantly Christian.

There is something very unique about the Christian God. He's against pedophilia, against homosexuality, against sex- trafficking children, against slavery, against abortion; He's for marriage, for protecting the unborn, et cetera et cetera. These are critical civilizational values. You can't have a civilization that believes you can kill babies in the womb, and another group that thinks you can't. There's not a lot of wiggle room there. It's either you say, "No, you can't kill babies in the womb. They're human beings, you can't kill them." Either you say that or you say, "Okay, let them be killed." Which one is it? What about all the talk of the grey room in between?

No, no, they're after the babies; there's no grey room. It's either:

*Can you kill a child in the womb, or, can you NOT kill it?

*Is it a human being or is it a clump of cells?

*Is man and woman a biological reality or is it gender fluid; something that we can imagine, that we can create? Because the difference between gender and sex is the new talking points of the leftists. They are confusing the kids in the schools, "Your parents obviously don't know the difference between gender and sex, okay? Oh my gosh, like what grade did you graduate from?" Huh? That's what they're doing to your children and my grandchildren, folks.

I've got two grand babies and I don't want them to grow up in North Korea. That's where we fled from; that's where Father and our family were freed from by the US forces. That's why we live as free people; of course our tribe in North Korea has been killed off and genocided. There are no more living Moons in North Korea; they've all been killed. But the remnant that God brought to freedom and allowed us to live free, look at us! We can be in a free country. We as North Korean Americans, we can have a powerful Rod of Iron and guns and freedom, and freedom of speech without being killed the next day, etc. This is unbelievable.

Metaverse

There are real consequences to which operating system is on top, folks, SERIOUS consequences. That's why Mark Zuckerberg wants to live in his new Metaverse. Because Facebook is getting all those lawsuits, they're now changing their program to Metaverse. Have you heard this? "Yes, yes, I want to announce to you all meta, we are going to bring technology to everybody, and you'll be able to create your own universe; because I'm Mark Zuckerberg and I work with the CIA and I get billions of dollars. But don't worry you'll be able to make your own universe, and feel like God in your little landscape."

You think people being addicted to ten hours a day of Facebook is a problem? Folks, if this guy has his way, he wants you addicted to that internet portal. Look at the young people now, how they are brainwashed, spending 20 hours plus a day on video games! You got people falling into serious depression just playing video games all day. They're sucking you into a world, just constantly hitting your dopamine high; these dopamine highs which make you completely addicted to this type of stimulation the likes of which we've never seen in nature. They want you to be totally mesmerized by this, "you are God; you are God inside your metaverse. You get to control everything." He said, "You will be able to project artificial reality, or 'virtual reality.'" That sounds a little trendier than artificial and mechanical and sterile and robotic; 'virtual' sounds a little more marketable, doesn't it?

You'll be able to holographically export your holograms into the universe as you wear your crazy 2021 slavery goggles that are that thick, and have Mark Zuckerberg's stamp on it. Here, I'm walking through the street going shopping, "okay Honey, I need to pick up some prosciutto and mozzarella cheese. Okay, let me put on my virtual reality goggles so that I'm entertained along the way and I catch my Pokemons; I can go Go-Big." People are crazy; you understand? It's crazy! And it's imposing these holograms in reality. So you're walking on the street, you can see the street, and apparently now the holograms are placed in front of you. So there's music playing, "you're going to see the music playing; you'll be in the music video, wow! You'll be in this fake synthetic artificial cold robotic world, wow!" It's so terrible; if you think about it.

What about face to face; meeting somebody face to face?

What about eye contact?

What about shaking somebody's hand? Huh?

Look at what we've become in the span of two years! Humanity is scared of one another: "where's your mask? Oh! You're going to get me infected! -Even though I got vaccinated and the vaccine's supposed to stop me from the infection- but I'm still going to get it because of you!"

Did you understand what I said? If you got the vaccine you're supposed to be protected from the virus, then why are you worrying about whether or not another person wears a mask? You're protected, apparently; you're supposed to be. But it's obviously not true.

Look at the new studies in Israel, New York, Vermont; all the new studies coming out tell us what? The majority of people that are hospitalized and dying are what? They're vaccinated; because of the NIH. And Rand Paul was railing on Fauci, Dr. Satan Fauci there; he was ragging on him saying, "You are lying! You're covering you're a...! You changed the definition of vaccine on the NIH website, and that's why you're calling it now this and that."

- "Oh excuse me Senator, but according to the definition on the NIH website I spoke correctly and I did not perjure myself."

This is crazy! These people are crazy! It's like watching a terrible Hollywood drama, terrible, horrible! Are you with me, folks. (Yes) So it's incredible; it's credible what they're doing and what they're getting away with!

But the point is: people have to understand; that's why there has to be unity.

Look yes the liberty people like the Boston Tea Party people, they didn't like George Washington; he was against the whole Boston Tea Party. They finally took to some resistance. They didn't do anything violently; they just threw the tea in the water. That's all they did, they threw the tea in the water, "Say no to Lipton! My body, my choice!" literally! (Laughing) or whatever it was. And George Washington was against it; he called them extremists. Later on they would stand side by side with George Washington; later on he would bring a lot of his assets and monies into the war. Do you see what I'm saying folks?

How Ellie Wiesel survived

So the point is: even with Youngkin, we got to pray that this man is not an operative of the 666-Beast system who's been allowed to win just to appease the Republicans and to give them a little glimmer of hope.

Look, Mr. Ellie Wiesel wrote a book on the Holocaust and his survival through it. He wrote about two different types of future- looking optimism:

1- Irrational optimism

One was a type of irrational optimism. He said the people in the death camps who die quickly have a very irrational form of optimism. They believe we're going to be free tomorrow or next Sunday. Remember that whole Q thing? "Oh, President Trump is organizing the military; he's going to be able to take it over and Biden's going to be elected for just a few minutes!" You remember this? For six months they said all that, "President Trump, he's just letting him fall into the trap! He's going to get up there and save America."

Okay, but meanwhile the whole time we were saying, "No, no, it's not happening, folks! No, these are communists. Communists don't behave that way; they're real people in the real world that are evil. You understand they actually are Satan's hands and feet. This is not a video game; it's not like a Hollywood drama which you can watch at home. This is actual real demonic people and force that exist."

But the whole point of the Q - which later came out to be a Deep State operation- was what? It was to give people this false sense of optimism; give them a little bit of hope, so people would cling to that. I mean if you put out a video about Q, you would get thirty thousand or forty thousand views. And people are so desperate, because look, the country is being stolen: there is voter fraud, there are all sorts of criminality happening now and they're aware of it. So of course it's desperation, and it's like, "Oh my gosh, someone's got to do something about it!"

It was breeding what? This type of false optimism in the people, because they had never faced Communism; the new generation was not aware of Communism, how it is a military apparatus that takes over EVERY part of society. Probably a lot of people may be hearing this for the first time, but this is what Father had been preaching about for 50- 60 years. That's why the New York Times hated us so much; we had the Washington Times of course, and the Washington Post hated us too. But you had all these Moonies, all these Koreans, and they were freaking anti-communists! "Why can't you be pro-communist, you stupid Koreans, and just help us?"

No! Because we saw that Satanism is there; real political Satanism! It's real, it's real! Satan is not just an ethereal force that comes and whispers in your mind. Yes, he does; he attacks you. But also just like

God has hands and feet on the earth, Satan has hands and feet too. And that apparatus is REAL! It's not some type of la la land, fantasy land, mythological tales; it's real and has real world consequences and millions die because of it. That's what Alexander Solzhenitsyn wrote about in The Gulag Archipelago, right? There are tomes of writing about that.

But anyway, Ellie Wiesel said there's a false sense of optimism. The people believe, "Oh, we're going to be freed out of this by Wednesday next week. I swear, God told me we're going to be out of this; we're going to be freed next Tuesday." And everybody's "Wow! Hallelujah!" That day the service was great; everybody's crying, everybody's slayed in the spirit, falling over saying, "Hallelujah!" Next week, Tuesday rolls around, "Hey, well it's going to happen at midnight today, at 11 59 pm!" So they wait all day, "Okay, well it's now 6:00 pm, just a couple more hours." Are you with me folks? "Okay, oh it's like 6:43 pm; okay, just hold on a little more. Just stop trying to think about it; time goes slower when you think about it. Just don't think about it, okay? It's 8:23 pm, oh it's almost there; it's almost there, but don't think about it!" Okay, you get the picture. A couple of hours later 11:58 pm, "It's here! It's almost here! We're going to be free; it's almost here!"

Because people are desperate: their compatriots are dying, they're being gassed, they see people disappearing, so people are desperate, okay. It's 11 59 pm and then the clock strikes 12. "Well, maybe the clock was inaccurate; maybe we have a couple more minutes." Do you understand, folks?

So, what is this type of psychological operation that's done on people? What does this make them do? It makes them stop trusting their hope. It builds their hope up so strong, and then it kills it. You can handle that once; sure you can handle that. Resilient people that can survive death camp; sure you can handle that once, but what about when that happens again? It's a little harder; not as easy, not as easy. And then, "Okay, all right, fine; all right, all right, it's going to happen next Wednesday."

Unfortunately folks, this is what happened; those are the people that died. Ellie Wiesel writes about it in his book. They had an unrealistic type of optimism. And of course when we were going through the whole Trump campaign I remember when the Q stuff was getting big, we were always warning all our folks, "be wary; be careful of this." Why! Because it was totally irresponsible; it made you believe that you had no responsibility in this. All you had to do was watch TV and let the drama unfold, and there would be some miraculous turn of events and you wouldn't have to do anything. You could just sit in your basement and watch, and this miraculous ending would happen. You see what I'm saying?

And of course it didn't! The opposite happened; exactly what we said. Why? Because the communists are not in a drama, folks; they are real entities with real organizations, real dangerous military people and organizations that they run. It's a real Beast. It's not something in Hollywood; it is a real apparatus with many heads.

That's why in the Bible, in Revelation, we don't see actual monsters coming out of the earth or coming out of the sea, with actual leopard heads, actual goat heads, etc. We see it as the 666-Beast, the Antichrist system; which has many heads on this apparatus. You cut off one head; there are other heads to deal with. It's a real thing; it's not some kind of mythical thing. It's a real thing and there are serious consequences if it controls and takes over a society.

2- Realistic optimism

Then of course Ellie Wiesel talked about the other type of optimism. What was that? A realistic optimism and he said that's why he survived the Holocaust death camps. Which of course they're doing now worldwide internationally; they're going to kill more people than the Holocaust on this one. Oh boy, Hitler is a midget compared to what's happening now!

But the point is: Ellie Wiesel said the reason why he lived through the death camp was, "I didn't say Wednesday, Thursday, next week, etc." He said he didn't believe in that, "I may be in there forever. I don't know when they're going to come, so I may be in there forever. But you know what? Today I'm going to find something to be grateful for." Whoa, okay. Now he's in the death camp and he's disarmed so he can't fight, so this is basically the only thing he could do.

He said, "I'm not going to have that type of foolish optimism which is getting people killed. It's ravaging their soul. They're believing and then it just gets torn from under them, and they're believing and it gets torn from under them and they're believing and it gets torn from under them, and at some point you don't believe anymore. You become a nihilist; you start blaming God, "God! I believed! I had faith in You! What are you doing?"

But Ellie Wiesel didn't say that. He said, "No I don't know when I will be going. I may never get out. Okay I may never get out, but I'm going to try to find something that I can be thankful for, and thank God about today." So he turned that terrible situation around and tried to find something to be grateful for.

No, no, no, that doesn't mean he's living in a la-la land, only thinking, "oh, positive thinking, positive thinking, positive thinking," because you can become delusional that way, and you can lead yourself up to tremendous mishap by just doing, "positive thinking, positive thinking, positive thinking." You're segregating yourself from reality which has many ups and downs and unfortunately in the reality we live in today there are many tragic situations worldwide.

He's talking about the balance point where you acknowledge the craziness that is going on around. In his case, he acknowledged the torment of the death camp, the torment of the death all around him, the torment of seeing his own people be massacred and genocided. He sees all that; he acknowledges that to be true. But at the same time he's not going to let all that have dominion over his spirit. He's going to try to find something in his spirit that he can thank God about; despite the terrible tragic events that he does acknowledge to be true. You're with me, folks? He's not a delusional man who's thinking, "Oh, none of this is real. I'm living in the matrix. Oh, nothing is real; it was only illusion and I'm just going to happily just meditate on my navel and breathe in, breather out." No! There's a real reality; it's not just illusion.

Of course this is the same thing that they're doing on us in the western world, right? A little bit of glimmer of hope with Youngkin, "Oh he's a Republican." That doesn't mean a lot in today's age, folks, if you say you're a Republican; we've found Democrats in the Republican Party. Lindsey Graham in the 1/6 Event he was telling the cops, "Use your GUNS on the people!" This is supposed to be a Republican! Now it came out; he was telling the cops, "Use your guns and KILL them!" That's what he was basically saying, and he's supposed to be a Republican. And isn't that funny how those Republicans in Georgia had ties with the Chicoms, the Chinese Communist Party, how they had multi-billion dollar deals with them? Oh, whoops, whoops, they flipped to blue and "oh, that's terrible; oh my gosh, what a coincidence!" It's tragic, it's sad, it's terrible, but it's real; it's real. And that's the point.

The point is: yes, we understand the truth of the tragic events that are happening because of the evil of the world, and people acquiescing and submitting themselves to this evil. But at the same time we must have hope. I'm not talking about illogical optimism like the Q thing. No, that's not real, and everybody knew it was not real. Most people who actually understand how commies work knew that Q stuff was not real; that was definitely a Deep State operation.

What brings joy to God?

So, looking at it from God's perspective, what is it that God is joyous about? Because in the end it's not about our own happiness, but what is God happy about? In the midst of free people using their free will to do terrible, terrible evil wicked things that are impacting the normal white suburban mom in the suburban areas of America now; forcing their children, five- years old, to be muzzled, not being able to breathe oxygen. Are you kidding me? We are dealing with this in the rural areas now! We're talking about the five- to- eleven years old now being forced, FORCED, to be vaccinated without parental consent.

In 2017, WHO already released their documents about how to circumvent parental consent through the state; they've already been talking about this and thinking about this for decades, folks. This thing is not just rolling out by accident; this is strategic. It's engineered, it's planned; there are many intellectuals and many evil academics behind it, many technicians, many scientists.

I mean, unbelievable things; we have folks from New Zealand here S. and his sisters. Look what's happening in Australia! It's CRAZY land! Oh my gosh! But that's what they're bringing here. New York is now looking like Australia, and so is L.A.; it's not looking any better.

So, when I'm talking about these things, I'm not trying to be the harbinger of bad news and make people depressed; I'm not. That's why people should be ready, that's why we should be praying, that's why we should have strong marriages and we should have good relationship with our children, because in the end those things bring joy to God, folks. We should be training together, praying together, fellowshiping together; these are all critical things that require human contact not robotic AI stuff.

Disciplined vs. beta super heroes

Mark Zuckerberg wants you to have hope in this kind of stuff. Are you kidding me? And they're beta testing it heavily on the Japanese. Did you see this? Oh, so sad! They work the Japanese to death, literally 10 to 12 hours a day; because the taxes are so high there and the cost of living is so high especially the food and the fruits and stuff like that. The cost of living is so high, it's like Switzerland; an apple is four dollars, one apple - ONE apple. The cost of living in Japan is so high, so they're working the people in the cities 10, 12, 14 hours a day; people have no human interaction skills. They've been brainwashed by manga; that's Japanese animation like Disney cartoon kind of stuff.

By the way in America the young people are now addicted to Japanese manga. Let me tell you all a little bit about it. You think those little cartoons are not harmful for your children, but let me tell you a little bit about Japanese manga. The basis of all Japanese manga- all of it -is paganism. It's not Christ; trust me, it's not Christ. It's about acquiescing to the future artificial world of transhumanism and robotics, and that all this technology will set you free and give you power, and you can be a little beta boy doing nothing and not building your skills and trying to become an alpha male. No, you can just sit in your basement playing video games all day and you'll be the savior and heroes of the world like Harry Potter.

I remember an age where I used to look up to Superman because he had big muscles, and I wanted to build big muscles. I wanted to be a man. I'm kind of a tall Asian; I'm 6:2 two hundred and twenty pounds, so I'm a little big on the Asian side. I wanted to be a big guy, big, big; I wanted to have big muscles. Then I went into combat arts and stuff that takes most of your energy.

But the point is: I remember when superheroes used to be strong, virtuous masculine men with nice muscles, big muscles, big thighs, big biceps, big pecs; looking good. I remember that; I'm telling you I remember that. But you see over time as the feminization of the culture begins, the heroes that they place up for the young boys, "No, no, the big guys, the disciplined people; no, they're the evil people, they're the oppressors! Oh, they're so disciplined. Oh goodness, you don't want to be with those disciplined people; you want to be with the creative people that are into artificial stimulation and unicorns and rainbows. You don't want to be with those disciplined people!"

Well, hello! The central aspect of the Protestant work ethic is discipline; it's discipline. Because if you have discipline and you train yourself to have discipline, you can make money wherever you go, folks; it's not that hard of an equation. If you have discipline and you abide by your promises and have discipline over your promises you're going to succeed. Don't let any person, especially if you are a young man, tell you that you can't. No, you can; you can! Wherever you go you can succeed if you have discipline. Discipline is one of the core ethical values of the Protestant work ethic. Amen! Encountering and facing difficult obstacles, being invigorated by the challenge, and facing them!

But now that's called sadomasochism, "oh my gosh, you're so aggressive! Oh my goodness, we need to give you a new vaccine that will get rid of your ADHD!" I hate to say it; I'm not trying to make fun of it, but this is literally what they're doing, folks.

Look at the superheroes nowadays: it's Harry Potter. I mean when I was a young man I was into Bruce Lee. I was not into Harry Potter. Are you kidding me? I was Bruce Lee; he whooped Chuck Norris in The Return of the Dragon. He whooped the Korean guy Jhoon Rhee, and the world champion karate expert Jim Kelly. Now I understand; these are all choreographed scenes. But the point is: I was looking up to men that them. Okay, Bruce Lee was kind of thin but he was ripped, and he had the biggest forearms in the world. You would look up to men that also had control of physical prowess, and you'd think that's a good thing; it's not a bad thing. You'd see that as a good thing, and as something you have to work towards. And you don't just get it because you asked for it. You got to actually work for it; you got to earn it. You got to actually work for it. To develop all that skill or to get big and strong, you have to work your booty off, to a level which you can't imagine. The normal person who doesn't do that kind of training can't imagine how much training is involved!

But there used to be a time when we would look up to people like that who did the hard work and were so disciplined, and they were able to achieve those things. And we said, "Wow! It's so incredible," because that's rare. Now it's: no, you can be playing video games all day and save the world. "Just play videos games all day, read Harry Potter, believe in yourself and make a little abracadabra spell," and you've done it all. No hard work involved. "All you got to do is believe in yourself! You're God." This is ridiculous. Are you kidding me, folks?

Kings & priests

That's why there are so many problems within marriage, etc. Why? Because society has not been teaching the Christian values of men. Men, when we get married we become kings; we're supposed to become kings like King David King or King Solomon, in the image of the King of Kings. We're supposed to be kings; that means we're supposed to be able to rule with justice, patience, forbearance, endurance, but also pursuing the larger noble and epic aims of God.

The Bible also calls us to be what? The priest of the home. I'm not talking about the centralized church priests who have a lot of problems, especially with children in some churches. No, I'm talking about the priest, the royal priesthood, to protect God's people and raise up the queen and your evangelist and your children in the art of fighting Satan, because the Bible says it's a spiritual warfare, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." (Ephesians 6:12) That's what we're fighting.

But no, it's: man gets to make money, bring it home and then he'll go away; he'll go bye-bye. But that's just materialism; that's not what God commands. Now, God does say, "he's worse than unbeliever, he, who does not provide for his family." Yes, worse than unbeliever; yes it's true. That's a part of the husband's God-given responsibility, but it's not the only thing. More important is what? Raising the family in God as the head of the house, as the priest; raising your congregation, raising that ministry so that family becomes strong in God, and as a king to strengthen your people, to empower your queen, to train together, to become protectors together, to become shepherds together.

Because, look: if Christian marriages were like that, husbands and wives were like that and they would exhibit love and respect just as Ephesians 5 says that we're commanded to do; if we were raising the family up in the image of the shepherd -1st Peter 5-, think about it: how much more powerful Christianity would be!

The Christian men

Where at an anti-vaxx rally, are all the other churches? They should be there standing with the people of America. We're not asking them to convert, to become Moonies or something like that. No, just stand up for freedom! Stop hiding! If there's something evil that is clearly against the Bible, you have to stand up against it; that's your calling as a pastor or minister. You're supposed to stand up! If you're a minister of the Gospel you've got to stand up against evil, whether that's LGBT, whether that's transgenderism, whether it's abortion, whether it's forced mandates! You are a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ; you must stand against evil! That is your DUTY! (Applause) Give me a break!

Why are people so scared about being harassed and harangued by the LGBT all day long? Yeah, it inconveniences life. Okay, join the club! We've been living like that for 50 plus years. Of course it inconveniences your life to face and confront and reprimand and rebuke Satan; of course it does. Of course it inconveniences your life. Jesus didn't say, "Come grab your country club access pass and follow me." He said, "Pick up your CROSS, child, and follow me!" He didn't say, "Bring your golf clubs." He said, "Your CROSS! You know that bloody one that I'm carrying? That one!" Are you with me folks? What has happened to the power of the father in Christianity? What has happened to it? Where is the warrior?

I'm telling you: if Christianity gets neutered and castrated like that, guess what? The only civilizations that exist now are Communism and Islam. That's it! Those are the major civilizations that will take over and conquer the world. I'm sorry, that's it. You have three choices.

*You literally have Communism or centralized government.

*You literally have jihad and Islam, with the total subjugation of women and children, child bride marriage and the legalization of pedophilia.

That's all! You got those two choices and then,

*You got Christianity.

That's it! You don't have any other choice than that!

So what does it profit you to weaken the Christian men? What does it profit you to harangue them and tell them they're bad and they're evil for being masculine? How does it help you to stand up against the dangerous civilizations that are salivating to destroy you; like the wolves circling the farm? How does it help you? No! All churches should strengthened the men and women into becoming alpha males and alpha females in the spirit of the Father; being ready to confront and face evil spiritually, vocally, with your heart, your courage, and in self-defense if necessary. Why is that bad? Why is that a cult? Why is that evil? That's the FOUNDING of America! Hello! America literally was founded on those principles! Hello, folks! (Applause) They're history turning around saying, "that's bad!" This country was literally founded on that! Oh my gosh, come on. Are you with me, folks? It's crazy.

The Stockholm University study

So again look; we have the articles right there. Mike Adams who's a scientist published the article on a non biased research that came out Stockholm University, one of the most prestigious universities. Basically your immune system has within it what's called the NHEJ system- the non-homologous end joining system, which is essential for DNA repair. DNA damage is done to you via radiation; if you're a pilot you have ionic radiation in the higher atmosphere, or if you have carcinogens in the water, or if you're eating burnt foods all the time, if you're drinking fluoride, etc, there are chemicals and different things that hurt your DNA your telomeres, your chromosomes, etc.

So there are things that damage your DNA. Your non-homologous end- joining system, your NHEJ, is responsible for repairing that DNA and maintaining what's called genetic DNA and genetic integrity; so that your DNA doesn't keep shifting and you literally become a different thing. It's maintaining your genetic identity, so that's a big deal.

What they found in those studies in Stockholm, is 90% suppression in people who are "vaccinated!" 90 % suppression! 90% suppression! 90% suppression of your NHEJ system! Because the spike protein keeps getting in the way of genetic repair, and since it keeps getting in the way of genetic repair, when your cells multiply again, they're also producing the spike protein.

This is why it's not a vaccination, and that's why they had to change the definition of vaccine on the NIH website, which Fauci was called out for by Rand Paul this week. Because it's a genetic modifier; it's not a traditional vaccine. And we've been harping on that for how many years now?

But anyway, you can read the article for yourself, and you can actually see the article from Stockholm University. I mean this is unbelievable. Do you understand? The proof is now coming out more and more that these are not vaccines; these are dangerous gene manipulators. There's never been an instance in history of immunology or virology in which an emergency use "vaccine" was ever used and especially forced on children. Never, never, never, never was it done; NEVER!

You also have Dr. Robert Malone, the inventor of mRNA vaccine. Hello! What would the inventor know, huh? Well, you know, when I'm driving my ford or whenever I'm driving, my Jeep Wrangler, I don't care what the inventor says. I want to know what our news reporter says, who doesn't know anything about Jeeps. That's proper, right? Wouldn't you want to know what the inventor says of your Jeep Wrangler? You want to get your information from a reporter who's been paid big bucks by some leftist commie? Uh, maybe not such a good idea! But, what would the inventor know, right? You know, if we had problems with the PowerPoint and the Samsung TV over there, and said, "I don't care what Samsung says. Yes, they're inventors of this particular TV and model, but I don't care what Samsung says; this is irrelevant. What's more relevant is what some newscasters say about that TV." Does that make any sense? Hello, folks! See, this is why they say I'm a conspiracy theorist. Does it make any sense? It doesn't make any sense. Of course you want to know what the inventor of the mRNA vaccine thinks of the mRNA vaccine; which he says "don't get!"

Because if you cannot repair your DNA, then of course these doctors are saying, "Well, we're going to see explosion of cancer, autoimmune deficiency, immunodeficiency, autoimmune disease, accelerated aging." You're going to see all these terrible side effects. But of course what a great thing! Because if five-year-old kids are now permanently sick - do you hear that? Permanently sick! - Well they now have to rely on Big Pharma for LIFE. Do you get it, folks? You get people permanently sick, constantly having autoimmune disease, "Oh yes, but we have the vaccine for that! Oh, we can help you. We just developed a new vaccine and Bill Gates will be your savior."

I'm sorry to be sarcastic about it but you understand folks? This is literally happening in front of your eyes. I'm not the crazy one here if you look at this thing, and what's happening; it's ridiculous.

Waking up to the real story

But what's the good side? The good side is with all this craziness going on, the more people are feeling the impacts of tyranny, the more people are seeing the empty shelves, the more people are seeing the supply line collapse, they are now starting to realize, "Whoa, something bad is going on! Whoa! Uh, maybe, maybe I should buy a gun, or some rice that I could store. It looks kind of bad; those conspiracy theories may not be so kooky." That's the good thing; people are waking up.

One thing President Trump did tremendously well: he exposed the fake news. Think about it: before President Trump, even conservatives believed in CNN. Conservatives watched CNN! Remember "The Headline News: 30 minutes and you get all your news?" The conservatives were watching CNN, and they were calling themselves conservatives! You were getting brainwashed. But President Trump woke up the normal brainwashed conservative to realize, "Whoa! CNN is lying to me! Whoa! CNN wants to take my children! Whoa! CNN wants to call me racist and white supremacist because I'm against teaching white kids that they're racist! Oh my gosh, whoa!" You see? That's something President Trump did tremendously well.

But you see what's happening: now people are waking up, but at the same time we have to remain rationally optimistic, folks; not irrationally. I understand there has been a pushback; Virginia is pushing back. "2022 looks great. Oh yeah, Republicans are going to have a landslide; a red-wave. A tsunami is coming. Oh, yes, it's going to happen, and we are taking back our country; we're going to take it back. All conservatives, we're going to kick out the liberals." THEY go nowhere folks! Those people are entrenched. They literally live their lives every day from nine to five in their little federal office buildings that look like college campuses in Washington DC, and their purpose is to intervene with your daily life forever. That's literally their job description. ALL they do is interfering!

You are a normal person; you don't have a lustful desire to interfere with other people's lives constantly, because that would be psychotic. You want to go about your business, work hard, make money; make a happy family and treat your kids to a restaurant once in awhile. You know what I'm saying? You see? These are not the same type of people! Do you understand folks? Communists are not like that; they may look like you, but they are different on the inside. They sold themselves out to Satan; their desire is to fulfill the desires of the father of lies, Satan's desires.

Which is what? Intervening in your life, making you stray from God, making you hate God, making you blame God, making you blame Christianity and Christian culture, and talking about the Crusades and the evil Christians. Oh my gosh! You poor, poor people! Oh my God! Do people ever learn their history anymore? The Crusades were a defensive war against the jihad of the Arabian Peninsula of the last 300 years. Spain had already been conquered; they had already come out of the footsteps of Italy. They were trying to take over Europe, folks! That's why the Christians had the Crusades; they had a defensive war because they were being taken over.

But what you learn in your government school: no, you learn "Oh the evil Christians! Oh the blood lusting Christians, they wanted to KILL people!" No, no, that's what the jihadis were doing! Oh, my gosh, it's so frustrating! It's like people are in a brainwashing camp and they don't know real history. And then they call me a brainwasher, but I'm telling you the real history!

It's important because last week you have Bill Gates on TV coming out saying, "Well you know, we just want to prepare you. Now, Covid and this type of pandemic is not the greatest threat. We believe the greatest threat is bioterrorism. Can you imagine if ten airports suddenly were attacked by bioterrorists with smallpox bombs? Well, with technology that we are developing at the Gates Foundation, we believe we could take decisive action to save humanity." Why is he talking about bioterrorism now, folks? Because people are waking up to this COVID lunacy; people are starting to wake up. They're starting to realize this is a fraud, "You people are lying to us, you people are fraudulent; you people are trying to get after our KIDS!" Now the supremacist white moms are saying, "Hey, wait a minute! The Democrats are after my kids! Oh my gosh!" And now they're voting Republican.

Now people start to wake up. So what's the flip side of it? Well, you understand bullies and communists start with a lower level of force; then if you don't obey they go to a higher level of force. You see how that works? That's what terrorists do; communists -who are terrorists - they do that. You understand? Their world is force. The normal person is not dealing in the issues of force so they don't understand that world at all; they don't understand the dynamics of that world. These are not people that you negotiate with and do business deals with, folks. These are CRIMINAL dangerous organizations that genocide populations! They're not in it for morality, they're not in it to get your approval; they're in it for power and money and resources. I'm sorry, sorry; it's reality. Anybody who's been to war, you know that's true. Anybody who's lived under a communist regime, you know that's true.

Remember how the Republicans were worshipping, "back the Blue; back the Blue!" We said: support our cops as long as they don't become Nazis. They're the lowest level of government; they're supposed to be the public servants and they have to serve the people. That's why we had the sheriff model in America, not the European model, which is the state police model. We had the sheriff model which means we can fire the chief when the elections come around. That's the American model. Why is that scandalous? That's the American model. All our Founding Fathers were for the sheriff model, not for our state police model which is European. I'm sorry, this is reality; look at history.

Look at what's happening with the police in Australia! How can you say, "Back to Blue," there? They're acting like Nazis, folks, because they have to fill quotas and they're being ordered to do this and that. They're acting like Gestapo! How can you be in support of the police in Canada? They are arresting people for having over six people in their home. This is ridiculous! No, no, we don't worship ANY servant of government, folks; all of them must be accountable. I mean why is that a crazy statement? This is America; we're founded on that. Why is that crazy? I mean it just drives me nuts honestly speaking; it drives me crazy. This is literally what the country is founded on.

Any level of government can easily be corrupted, easily be taken down. That's why the CIG Constitution shows it very clearly; that is not the model of the Kingdom of God. The Kingdom of God is after the model of kings and priests; it's not a centralized government. The centralized government is the Beast.

Inheritance

That's why this talk of inheritance in Ezekiel chapter 47 is very critical because when you are raised in an educational system which conditions you basically to be a slave, you can't process how royalty are trained. I'll give you one example: if you grew up in public schools, you're indoctrinated by cultural media to believe in the power of the Benjamins, the hundred dollars and the fiat currency and the paper money. Well, if you've ever seen a country in collapse, when the currency crashes that paper money is worth nothing, folks; nothing.

There is not one royal family on the planet- not one, not one - that trains their children to gather paper money and digital money in bank accounts; not one, not one! You know what they teach their children about inheritance? They teach them about gold and silver and land and networks and alliances. Uh, how come you don't learn about any of that? They teach them about skills and storage.

They also have means of succession. See, this is what's important. Everybody loves their children 100%; that is your heart. There's nothing wrong with that; it's 100% good. But then what do we do? That emotion makes us manage the country towards leftism, for example welfare, "Oh, we got to take care of everybody." That's how they do it.

Look at how you are setting up your inheritance: kings do it from father to son, father to son. The Bible talked about that right there in Ezekiel 47. Why is that important? There's a reason why kings do that by the way, and there's a lot of sibling rivalry; Father chooses me and my brothers want to kill me. Oh yes there's a lot of this. But you know why royalty does that over time? Because it preserves the assets and value of that royal family throughout time and generations; they'll never tell you that but I'm telling you that's the reason why they do it, folks. They don't do a democratic thing where they say, "I'm going to distribute to my children all equally." That would be more of a communistic style. They literally transfer the majority of the assets to one successor. There are practical reasons for that; there are issues of tradition that are related with that, but that's a big deal. It's called succession.

Why don't Americans ever talk about this? Why is that a taboo topic? Think about your bloodline. Isn't your bloodline important? Aren't your family and your tribe important? Isn't it important to think about future preservation of your tribe and your people, your children, your grandchildren?

Why are you all trained to believe that:

#1- they should be all trained in the fiat currency and

#2- you have to distribute equally?

I'm sorry royal families don't do that for a reason. That's because it gets dispersed, and that asset value just gets destroyed over time, because per generation people are less competent, especially if they have not made their own wealth. Aha! So there are reasons why royal families do that and the reason why monarchies last the longest out of any political system.

Holding up the symbolism of the narrative of the providence of the Kingdom of God

This is very shocking. On the Steven Crowder's show, Stephen Crowder, a major libertarian, major comedian on the conservative side, was interviewing Jordan Peterson, a major psychologist, and Jordan Peterson came out publicly in support of constitutional monarchy OVER the American Republican system. He says that he appreciates the American system greatly but that people keep trying to make the president into a king, and their family and clans such as the Bushes, into kings that they worship like the king. But the problem is, Jordan Peterson said, that one president cannot run the country AND burden the weight of the "symbolism" of the narrative of that culture at the same time; not possible for one person. And by the way the families change all the time, so now you're in flip-flop psychedelic mode; you can have a conservative and now you have radical transgender liberals. And that's why we see our country falling apart. Even top thinkers like Jordan Peterson talk about constitutional monarchy.

Well that's biblical; the Bible talks about the King of Kings reigning over the earth. But it's not a totalitarian monarchy; it's not a monarchy where Christians are under welfare and under Communism. No, it is libertarian and republican, so there are aspects of democracy, and aspects of republicanism in there. But also there's a monarchy that maintains the tradition, the weight of the symbolism of the narrative of the culture, and that is separate from running the country and making a strong economy. Are you with me folks? Those are two separate jobs.

So you must never let the outside world demean you, especially if you're blessed as a king or queen. You are burdening a serious weight for your tribe; it's a very important weight. It's not the weight of a CEO; it's not the weight of building a strong economy. It's the weight of holding up the symbolism of the narrative of the providence of the Kingdom of God. Are you with me folks? And there is a really important job there!

So the world tells you you're crazy, if you have to be a royal priest and you have to have a kingship line; they say you're crazy, "No, only Queen Elizabeth can have that, only the King of Thailand can have that; only the ones that WE approve can have that." That's not what the Bible says. These are people of the world and they don't trump God; they are not God. GOD's Word gets to be the ultimate. Amen!
(Applause)

That's why it's so important. You may have grown up in a tradition which never taught you that you're supposed to be raised up into a king and a priest, because you may have a special class of priests in certain churches or whatever. The father and the mother may not be called towards priesthood in a lot of those systems.

It's different in the Completed Testament Age and in God's Kingdom. Why? Because it's a decentralized society of kings and priests "loving God and loving your neighbor." We have a responsibility to love God and embrace the virtue and the ethics that He represents, the path of Christ, and we also have a duty to protect one another, to protect liberty, to protect each other's rights. That's a CRITICAL aspect of the Kingdom love ethics, and preserving these things is absolutely critical. So it doesn't matter what the world says. It doesn't matter how they try to mock us and say that the Body of Christ is crazy. The Body of Christ must never be scared of the world. We don't serve the world; we don't live to please the world. We live to conform to God, and in so doing that also gives us responsibilities.

The spiritual authority of True Parents on the earth

I tell you it's hard. Father chose me as his heir and successor. By the way, all the news media they always say that I'm the heir and successor; that's one thing they say that is right. He crowned me on three different occasions. Everybody saw it. Everybody saw that he did three same ceremonies across two continents to show everybody "this is the son in whom I'm well pleased, and I'm choosing him as my successor." Even the leftist media when they want to write about us just type in "Reverend Sun Myung Moon's successor," and I will pop up, because even the leftist media admits and acknowledges that Father appointed me as his successor. Now, the other faction didn't like that; that's why they stole my inheritance, and that's why they sued me, and all this kind of stuff.

But the point is: the Blessing was not only about the money. The Blessing of True Parents, it's not about money; it's about the authority of True Parents on the earth. It's basically like the papal authority; if you're from the Catholic Church, it's like the papal authority. So that is a big deal. That's not just assets of the material world. That is a spiritual power and that has a spiritual authority!

So after seven years, even though we had nothing, we lost everything and they kicked us out; pushing us out of all the boards and organizations etc, and they ran away with billions of dollars, but look the media always comes out to say that I have billions of dollars in offshore bank accounts, because I'm the heir and successor. I'd like to see those billions, but anyways that's what they say. And remember, when they stole everything, I told all of you folks, you remember? I said, "I'm still the richest man in the world because my father loves me and he appointed me. “ I didn't choose myself; he chose me. I didn't choose myself. That's a big deal. I don't have the power to choose me; he chose me to be his successor. I didn't choose myself! Literally, I didn't choose myself, okay. But I had to come into agreement with that authority that he gave me. That was a process and I had to become brave and I had to really start proclaiming that.

But anyway, the point is: seven years down the road, look: even all the mainstream media, they acknowledge the actual successorship of True Father. And we have people in Tennessee that come see us, “Oh, I saw President Trump was at your event in Korea.” I was like, “Oh, yeah; okay yeah. We know the Trumps; yeah we know the Trumps a little bit.” Of course that was the Family Fed and, the Washington Times which they stole. I was of course the chairman of the Washington Times group for some time.

Anyway, the point is: that's how they got that video with President Trump in their event. Unfortunately he should have looked into it a little deeper, because they are promoting leftist values. They're promoting centralized government, they're pro-Biden; they didn't even stand for President Trump. We're the ones, in Father's responsibility who we stood up for President Trump! They were against Trump; they were for Biden okay, and of course they're forcing all their employees to get vaxxed. So anyway, he should have looked a little clearer into the organization and who was leading and things like that; he should have done his due diligence a little better.

So they spent however many hundreds of thousands of dollars to get him to have the video at that event, and what does God do? God turns it around, and WE get the credit; we get all the credit for the President coming to OUR event! So we get people in Tennessee saying, “Wow, I saw President Trump was at your event!” I'm like, “Yeah, kind of; we can say that. He was praising my father, so yeah I guess he was kind of at our event.” You see how God turns it around.

Because in the end the position of the priest and the royal priesthood, that's critical; that has spiritual power and it is good. Amen! So when we are blessed, we become kings and priests, and queens and evangelists; this is a tremendous thing, folks! This is not your normal marriage. We are joining together to congratulate you in a coronation of kingship, in an ordination of priesthood, and celebrating you before God and the Holy Host where they are with us. (Applause) They're celebrating from the spirit all the way to the physical, the birth of new kings and priests into the Kingdom of God.

Now, of course, yes the Left hates that, because they want you to be slaves and servants; you're not supposed to be priests and kings. They want you to be like the Catholic priest or Pope Francis, the top pope who openly supports Communism and openly is attacking capitalism by the way; he's saying climate change is based on capitalism. Okay, okay; fine, okay. That's ridiculous. Anyway, they approve of him so he can have billions of followers and he can be worshiped as God; that's okay.

We worship God

But if normal people in the Body of Christ start having kingship coronations,
 -they start understanding the importance of being a shepherd,
 -they start understanding the Rod of Iron Kingdom,
 -they understand the armed citizenry, "love God, love your neighbor,"
 -they understand that; "Whoa, whoa, that's DANGEROUS! No, no, we can't let that spread!"

It's going to be a problem if Christianity becomes a strong Christianity once again. It's a problem for Islam, it's a problem for Communism, it's a problem for centralized power, it's a problem for the banking elite, it's a problem for Bill Gates; it's a problem for all those crazy people that are trying to havoc and wreck the world. I'm sorry I have to speak like this because I know it sounds crazy and extreme, but it's not. Just look at what's happening in the world; this is not a delusion, folks. We are having a crisis worldwide. We are under attack on many different full spectrum aspects of warfare, whether it be psychological operations or whether it be now a biological operation that is being forcefully put on the people.

So it's here, folks; it's here. You can't run from it and you can't go to any other country. So America is worth fighting for! You are worth fighting for! Our families are worth fighting for! Our kids, our grandchildren, America, freedom, liberty! (Applause) All worth fighting for, folks; because they come from Almighty God, not from government!

We don't worship government; we worship GOD! Amen!

Pastor Sean's Prayer

Father God, we thank You this day. We thank You for the vision in Ezekiel 7:47, where we talked about inheritance and kingship. We talked about the Millennium Reign where Your children not only stand as servants or adopt sons, but become Your tribe, enter Your blood lineage, enter Your kingship and enter Your priesthood, to take responsibility at the family level to protect society and to protect children, grandchildren and all people to "love God and love our neighbor."

Dear God, we are so thankful because there are so many incredible things that are happening in the world that can depress us and make us feel sad, so many tragic things that are heart-wrenching; people being deceived and lied to and with innocent hearts following terrible things and tragically dying in many cases. But in the midst of all that we know that You have a plan and we know that You are still in control and You are on the throne of God and that through Your spirit and the Holy Host of angels that is with us today, that we are standing up against evil in an epic quest, in an epic battle, in a heroic stand down that will determine the fate of humanity.

We are on that precipice right now, and we thank You God, because You would not have called us today, You would not have prepared us for this point, if you were not seeking to use us in some way or another. And we have faith because You said that You have not forsaken us, and that You stand with us in battle.

Dear God, we pray that we may not be filled with the spirit of fear, for Your Word says that "we shall not be filled with a spirit of fear but of love, power and a sound mind". Let us have those sound minds in these critical days of delusion, let us have minds of discernment and prayer; let us have minds that we can strengthen our marriages and strengthen our family to stand together as a holy army, as Your soldiers to resist evil.

You told us in James that we must "resist the devil and he will flee." You didn't say acquiesce, You didn't say submit, you didn't say, "let him get his way." You said, "You must RESIST him; you must resist him and he will flee." You've given us the power because we are Your children and You believe in us. Satan didn't believe in us but you believe in us, God.

So we ask You today: anoint us, give us Your Holy Spirit; give us power, love and a sound mind so that we can acquire discernment at this critical time of confusion, idolatry and self-worship. We pray that we can overcome all those things through the power of Christ and through the power of Your Holy Spirit that is infusing us and filling us with the brush fires of liberty, for the sake of all humanity, to protect the innocent and the poor and the needy, and to protect human rights from the predators that seek to destroy and to strip them all away at this critical time.

Dear God, we ask also for repentance of our country. We have fallen to Baalism, we have put up our children on the altars of abortion, we have broken our marriages, we have committed adultery as a nation, we have worshiped other gods; we have done all the sins that You have told us not to do.

Dear God, we repent before Your throne today, and we ask You to forgive this country, to revive this country and to make us stand strong as brave men and women in Your image; to stand strong as Your children who know their proper identity to become kings and queens, priests and evangelists, and stand up for Your gifts that are so precious.

Dear God, we ask You for the people that will be coronated today,

*that they will have Your blessing,

*that they will have Your glory,

*that they will have Your power,

*that they will have Your love, and *that You will use them as tremendous instruments of Your peace;

*that You would shield them,

*that You would arm them with the armor of God, the helmet of salvation, the breastplate of righteousness, the shield of faith, the belt of truth, the sword of the spirit and the Word of God, the feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace.

We pray that all those anointings will be placed upon them today as they stand as king and queen before Your throne.

We give You glory God, because in the midst of all these tragic events and evil, NEW kings are being born, new queens are being born; Your kingdom is expanding, Your love is expanding, Your shepherdhood is expanding and those who have heard Your calling and know the voice of the Shepherd are coming to Your Kingdom.

So that THEY can be part of this epic quest that You've called us on, to become true heroes; not for the sake of our own glory. But, as You have walked the path of the cross and of salvation, to follow You and to be willing to burden YOUR cross, to let You have a break and say, "Daddy, I'm a grown man now and I want to help You!"

Thank You Father for all Your blessings upon us this day. We want to give You the praise, glory and honor with all the kinship lines that are gathered here together, and with the three generational kingship. We offer and give You the glory. In Your precious name we pray. Amen! Amen! Aju!

Let's all rise folks, and give the glory unto God! Amen!
