From Generation to Generation

March 13, 2022

Good morning King Kyle and all folks in PA and Texas, and across the world! We welcome you today. Also shout out and congratulations to the new couples that will be blessed in marriage and be coronated as kings and priests.

Love & respect

So please pray for them because through the Blessing you enter into the anointing of God. As you know, marriage is not living with a woman. As the Bible talks about we need to actualize God's Commandment of love and respect. The man is commanded to love his wife unconditionally, to raise her up and of course to be to his wife as Christ is to the church. The woman is commanded to submit to her husband and respect him; respecting her husband is the way she shows her love to God. These kinds of things are not easy. For us, men it's not easy to always act lovingly especially when we're upset or frustrated or something like that; conversely it's not always easy for a woman to act respectful when frustrated or whatever the case may be. But that's God's command.

So in marriage God is calling us to actualize those commandments, and really that's the key; that's the answer. If we're filled with love and respect in our marriage, and we have that joy, that joy unspeakable in the Holy Ghost with God at the center of our marriage, then the burgeoning beauty of that marriage, the romance, sexuality; all the things that God intended for marriage can be experienced. That's not for other places as the Left and everyone in the fallen satanic culture want to push. No, it's for marriage! That's where it's supposed to burgeon; that's where it's supposed to become powerful. And then of course you become the powerhouse for your children to see and look up to; themselves also wanting to go into the institution of marriage and fight Satan.

Because in the end your family becomes, as we talked about it many times, like a holy SWAT team against Satan's forces and it becomes a place of training: the children training with the father and the mom training with the father as well etc. And the king leading the household towards godliness but at the same time towards preparedness and being the shepherd, having a mindset of "Love God, love your neighbor," that is a larger ethic than themselves etc; so critically important. So we pray for the young people and their upcoming blessing. We want to encourage you all; you're going to do great. Take one step at a time. Nobody's perfect but every day we train, every day we get better and every day we glorify God! Amen! Let's give it up for our young people who are getting ready for the Blessing!
(Applause)

Alright folks, we are in Psalm Chapter 89 today, and let's read it together:

Psalm Chapter 89

1 I will sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant,4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.12 The north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.13 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.18 For the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our king.

19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.20 I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:21 With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him.22 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him.23 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.

24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted.25 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.

27 Also I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth.28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him. 29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven. 30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments; 31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments; 32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.34 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.35 Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David.36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.

38 But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.40 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.41 All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours.42 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle.44 Thou hast made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground.45 The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him with shame. Selah.

46 How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire?47 Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain?48 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.

49 Lord, where are thy former lovingkindnesses, which thou swarest unto David in thy truth?50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of thy servants; how I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people;51 Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O LORD; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.

52 Blessed be the LORD for evermore. Amen and Amen.

We see a tremendous turmoil in David's heart as this psalm is progressing forward. In the beginning we see God's promises to David and his progeny, and "Thy seed will I establish forever"; his seed will be blessed forever and ever. But in the end of it we see that his enemies are winning. He is now a fugitive; he's been chased down, and now Saul is trying to kill him with his armies, and SWAT teams are trying to come after him and destroy him. Even though he has this anointing, even though he has those blessings by God, even though he's the chosen one to lead Israel, still in the natural what he sees is calamity, what he sees is peril. What he sees is, "Hey, I'm running for my life and these crazies are coming out here to kill me! Saul's breaking all his promises and he's now sending his armies to destroy me and they're going to chop my head off!" And he starts running around in his survival mode and survival situation throughout the wilderness and the cave of Ziklag.

Folks, it is so incredible because we can see this type of thing on the national level. What is now in front of our eyes is so painful to watch; especially what is happening with the war and all the propaganda, etc... Did you notice how the pandemic and Dr Fauci are a no-show? They've disappeared on the web; they're no longer interviewing him on TV. The corona virus magically disappeared right after they increased their governmental powers with the pandemic powers etc. Then when people started being open about that, all of a sudden these wars started breaking up and Russia was now invading Ukraine. And all of a sudden now you have serious governmental war powers that are being established to become the status quo in this country. Folks, this is an extremely dangerous roll out!

The last couple of weeks we covered briefly World War I and World War II; how things escalate so quickly, how things pop off. Some analysts are saying it can pop off between China and Pakistan, between Ukraine and Russia and that whole region of Eastern Europe; it can pop off between Taiwan and China. But you can see how these world wars form and it sucks nations in with further and further escalation.

The BRIC nations

That's why of course we're praying that there's de-escalation, because the normal people don't want these wars. Normal people don't want to send their children to go DIE in these countries while the politicians are fighting against each other and are in power struggles with each other; with the Soros and the Rothschilds, the banking cartels and the Chicoms, the Xi Jinping and the Russians, etc. But it's very interesting to see through those things, when you look at certain financial realities of the world.

For example there has always been something called the BRIC nations or the BRIC block, i.e. Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa is included in that. You can see that through the war in Ukraine that is now happening with Russia none of those nations status on the international banking status - whether the Bank of International Settlements or the International Monetary Fund- none of their international banking status has been affected. They are still able to engage in international commerce, and at the same time none of them are condemning another. Now this is very dangerous because there have been analysts who for decades have seen that these BRIC nations - Brazil, Russia, India, China- have been trading with one another off of the US currency, off of the world reserve currency which is the dollar.

Maybe you're wondering why they have been doing that for decades and still now to this day. While inflation is going up and while now the war is happening etc, while pandemic is over after two years of total government overreach with international crimes committed against people across the globe, and while now wars are popping off just as we predicted and just as some other people predicted who know history and who know the realities of these kinds of things.

The point is: you see that those BRIC nations continue to trade with one another AND at the same time, they are starting to talk about moving off of the dollar. This is extremely dangerous because the US dollar has enjoyed the world-level currency status, i.e. everybody who trades oil and trades this and that, trades using the dollar. If that status is taken away and they're able to trade just with one another, which of course these wars will do, then what happens to the US currency which is so heavily inflated and they have printed so much of it and it's fiat currency and we're so terribly in debt especially to China. It will cripple the middle class person; it will cripple the purchasing power that that person has to buy anything

It's like when the Soviet Union collapsed. The ruble might only have been worth so much, but when it collapsed and the currency crashed, now you had tens of thousands of rubbles and it wasn't worth anything. You might as well have burned it in the fire. You could have situations where the dollar crashes, especially as those BRIC nations start moving to what they call the IMF SPRS (strengthened poverty reduction strategy), special drawing rights basket of currencies that they can trade with. If they move to those things, and of course they're planning to do so, the US currency will be devastated. And of course the majority of people are not prepared. People don't have stored up food or ammos or things like that; they are unprepared.

So, just like in any other Communist revolution, the government will be offering the government handouts, "We will help you during this time of crisis; we will give you ... etc, etc." And as that happens of course then they have leverage over every single person in America. So they don't even need a World War III to pop up with Russia and China - which is highly likely that it will happen through the present escalation- but they don't even need that. All they need to do is start moving off of the dollar; all they have to do is start de-legitimizing the dollar and the power of the dollar, and now they have a collapsing economy right before their eyes; in the United States, folks!

It is so unbelievably dangerous where the Bidens are taking us, where they're leading this shipwreck, and it's happening before our eyes. It's so incredible because the majority of people who are unprepared will be completely shocked that the dollar is collapsing, that all the assets they thought they had - the money that they had in the bank - disappears, evaporates, is worth nothing. A gallon of milk it's not only going to be costing three dollars, five dollars, ten dollars, fifteen dollars, twenty dollars. At some point when the dollar crashes like the rubbles, ten thousand dollars won't mean anything; you'll have bills like in Korea that are 10,000 won, 50,000 won. And the dollar literally can collapse that much, especially given the amount that has been printed over the last decades and decades, pushing this can down the road. Unbelievably dangerous, folks!

Think like kings and priests, not like Hollywood

But at the same time as that economic reality is happening, you must think as kings and priests, not as slaves and servants to the state; that's what we've always been talking about and what Father has been teaching the young people. God has made you into kings and priests. Kings and priests are not after just cash money or fiat currency. There's no royal family on the planet, even the satanic ones, that teach their children to acquire greenbacks or paper money; not one on the planet. What are those royal families teaching their children? They're teaching them about assets: land and networks and relationships and gold and silver and ammunitions. Every single royal family in the whole satanic world has a coat of arms and armies and protection, etc; all those things are assets in an unstable universe.

You look at the normal brainwashing that's now happening almost probably on a level of North Korea and Russia! They're teaching young people, "Get your Benjamins; get your cash money raining down from the sky! What makes you well is paper money raining down from the sky. It's not relationships, it's not marriage; it's not children." They are taught, "Children are liability. They're going to cost you millions of dollars before they finish college, and they're going to give you grief, grief, grief." And, "marriage is a destruction of your fun life, and your single life is all fun." While statistics are opposite; science says the opposite: that married couples have way more sexual intercourse and have more enjoyable sex. This is sociologically proven, and that single people have multiple issues when they're dating and trying to seek a partner that they can stay with; it's much more unstable.

But of course that's what we're being taught in this culture. We're being taught to pursue these things, pursue hedonism, pleasure, the greenbacks and the paper! That is what they teach slaves, folks; that is what they would teach to the servants of the aristocracies of Europe.

If they actually cared for the children they should teach them how to manage assets; basically teaching them how to decipher between what is wealth, what is an asset and what is liability. They should be teaching how to read a cosmic analysis and things like that; basically preparing them for business and entrepreneurship, for real skills such as building their own house and then having a home to build their nest in.

Also basically teaching the children how to have good relationship with the opposite sex, because that's going to come handy in your marriage; you have to know about stuff like that; it doesn't just come, obviously. That's why so many people divorce, and the Church as well in modern days has a 50% divorce rate. It's because we don't learn about how to interact with the opposite sex. Especially since we have to live together in marriage and create that stable powerful union, we should be learning about that stuff in class before we are going into those fields.

But of course, they're not teaching that. The depraved culture of Hollywood and Silicon Valley, the popular establishment and all these companies, they're teaching the young people what? "Hedonism, search for pleasure, go into tremendous debt whether it be for school or travel. Travel the world; go and see everything. You're just going to go into $40,000-$50,000-$60,000 debt, and don't worry about that." But you'll be slave of your debt the next twenty or thirty years to life.

Get married young

Instead of a responsible behavior as Tucker Carlson told. He said, "Hey, young people, you should have children at a young age! You should stop living for yourself and your hedonism and your pleasure, and you should have purpose. You should really try hard to apply for a job that you don't have qualifications for; you should get married early." Tucker Carlson who is a conservative Christian commented on Fox News; he's giving this kind of advice, totally opposite to what the mainstream establishment and the culture is telling them.

Think about it from the viewpoint of your children; when you are young, if you have a choice. Let's say your parents are great people and they are in their 60s. Okay that's good; that's one scenario. Let's say your parents, same people, same level of maturity, they have the same preparation for marriage, they have good peaceful parenting, they've trained you, etc, and also they're young. So, let's say your parents were mature and they were in their 20s-30s.

So as you're growing up as a young person, your dad is still tough, your dad is still strong; he's your first wrestling coach, here's your first Jiu-Jitsu coach, he's your first boxing coach, he's your first self defense coach; he's your first math teacher, he's the first science teacher. You see what I'm saying? The parents are now involved in almost every single aspect of their children's life, and when they have questions, when they're trying to go to the next level as a human being, their parents are there unlocking that together. The parents are young so they're going skydiving with the children, they're going scuba diving with the children, they're going bike riding; they're teaching how to run a motorcycle.

They're teaching them these things and they're not learning from their friends or someone else; they're learning from their young parents because the age gap is not so ginormous. But when they have such a big age gap, their children have a hard time, with somebody who's 40, 50, 60 years older than them; it's that much harder to relate than with somebody who has 20 years difference.

But of course the mainstream establishment does not teach that. It teaches how you need to have a good start: you got to make your foundation, you got to build your money; you got to do this and that. You've got to pay off your college loans; you got to pay off your debt to Visa and MasterCard that you have from your traveling before you have children; you have to have the economic financial security before you have children. This is what they're always teaching you as a young person; that you have to do that. And if you don't do that, you are irresponsible; if you don't go into debt, and have this massive loan, a hundred thousand dollars that you have to pay back to the bank, and the rest of your life you have a leash on, and everything you make has to go to the bank. You might as well be working for the banks; they have the population completely controlled by debt.

There's no royal family in the world, folks that teach their children to go into debt. That is a disaster, a very dangerous situation. Only very high-level investors can play with debt properly and actually come out positive on the other side. For the normal person like myself or anybody else, that is something that has to be absolutely avoided because it's such a dangerous weight; it's like a humongous juggernaut weight on your ankle. And when you're a young person trying to develop your career skills, that weight is holding you down and it's preventing you from unlocking the next levels, especially if it's in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Anyway, the point is, folks, we should be learning these things in school. In a kingdom

- *we should be learning how to develop assets from a young age,
- *we should be learning how to build our own homes,
- *we should be learning how plumbing works, electrical works,
- *we should be learning how to prepare for our marriage,
- *we should be learning about good relations.

How many people do you see that succeed in the world have a terrible relationship with their wife, end up divorcing; she takes half of the wealth that he's created, or whatever the case may be, and the kids are a giant mess? How many people like that have you seen in the real world? So many people have gone through that race, trying to search for just material goods and in the end neglect the relationships which actually give us value in our lives!

Prepare emotionally for the kingdom

That's why it's so critical to see from God's perspective. He doesn't rule the universe for money; He doesn't rule the universe with just knowledge and power. He is the God of what? Of love and relationships! And for us to have true purpose in life, we have to have deep and powerful relationships. That is what connects us to God and to one another's humanity and that is what builds our level of compassion for other people, and as our compassion level grows, we want to protect other people as well. Just like God our Father, just like God the Shepherd, just like God the Protector who takes care of our lives; that is the same heart and mentality that God has.

So how important is it to be preparing and investing in your future relationship, for example with your wife? Or let's say you're a young woman now preparing for the Blessing, how important is it for you to get control over your mind and body, as Father said, and prepare yourself for marriage? So that you become a good queen, you become a good evangelist; you become someone who doesn't rule your children with anxiety, with frustration, with nagging and this kind of stuff.

You don't want to have that in your kingdom. You want to rule with judiciousness. We want people who are leading us to be able to think rationally, to help us solve problems well. It's the same thing that the children expect from their parents, but many times we have not done the training beforehand. Once we have children they are a whole bunch to handle because they're young and they can't speak, so they cry etc, and then we have to deal with this child in a way that is not going to harm him or her for the future but build that trust between child and parents.

That's where proper parenting and the learning of proper parenting comes in, and that's where we're learning about child psychology and behavioral science. These things help; they're not the end-all solution, but they help to study and learn how to deal with your children in ways that are beneficial for them and that don't create resentment, because we know that if there's too much resentment between child and a parent what happens? Many times the child will project that onto God and say, "My parents are so bad! God, You're terrible too. How come You gave them to me?" or things like that.

So we become that example that God needs. That's what the priest and the evangelist are; they are the example that God has placed in that kingdom, in that sanctuary, to be people that are trying to seek to be like God and to resemble His justice, His jurisprudence. Instead of ruling our children emotionally which unfortunately many parents do and that scars our children, we have to do it judiciously; we have to do it in a way that for example they can understand.

Training with your kids

That's why we talk about training with your kids, and that's why when your kids are getting older, you do their one-on-one days. Unbelievable! This blew my mind and other people's minds too. Jocko

Willink who is a tremendous Brazilian black belt and Navy SEAL, unbelievable CEO, entrepreneur, warrior etc, he said something incredible on this podcast. He said, "How do children spell love? They spell love T-I-M-E. That's how children spell love. They don't spell it L-O-V-E like everybody else; they spell it T-I-M-E," and further more I would say, "They spell it O-N-E ON O-N-E T-I-M-E; one-on-one time!"

This is why it's essential to do your one-on-one training with your kids, have their day so that you're celebrating them. Take them out; go to a Foodmart, 7-Eleven, McDonald's, Chick-fil-a wherever they want to go on that day. Have a nice meal with them and share with them three things you're grateful for about that child. God gave them to you, so you might as well share what you're grateful for about that child on their day, and of course give the glory to God. Then the child will share three things he is grateful for about Mommy, three things he is grateful for about Daddy. On that day you're building with that one child on his day, that atmosphere of gratitude towards each other and also towards God.

This is like training; it's training. You're starting to build your relationship. Say, "I'm going to focus purposely on the positive aspects, not on the things that annoy me about you, not on the things that I want to criticize about you; in this relationship I'm not going to nick pick everything about you. I'm going to have the discipline to focus on the good points about you and what you're working on. I'm going to encourage you as your Dad; I'm going to encourage you as your Mom on that day, so you feel special aside from your siblings."

Now, a lot of parents say, "Oh, we spent a lot of time together as a family." Group time is fine and you're going to have a lot of times in group time. But notice, folks! They did studies on children asking them, "What do you remember the most about your parents?" And guess what? The majority of children approached in surveys remembered something negative about their parents because when they were doing one-on-one time with them they would probably be getting upset at them. They would probably be taking them in the room and saying, "You didn't doing this and that"; getting mad at them, etc. So the children remember that and they hold that against their parents.

Under the guise of modernism

Then at the same time you have professional people on the Left who are trying to lure your children in to fan the flames of resentment against you. The state apparatus is not quitting, folks. The state apparatus always wants to divide and give every reason for children to hate their parents; parents to hate their children, husband to hate the wife; wife to hate the husband. Why?

Because this is God's formula; this is the Kingdom unit and then if Satan can divide that Kingdom unit into pieces and divide and conquer it, he can conquer that nation. We've seen that with America and how the Left has taken over the institutions of power, learning, media, using Hollywood influence and entertainment to do those kinds of things.

So it is strategically such a critical aspect of our lives as kingdom people to retain a Christian culture that can only exist if the children and the parents are tight. If they are one unit, then the culture of Christianity can flow to the next generation in a strong fashion; not if those relationships are soured. You have these psychologists on the Left, who are trying to come and undermine them -which they do; 100 % they do. I remember this was standard operating procedure at Harvard. They are trying to make you resentful if you had a traditional Christian upbringing, "Oh my God! You went through so much!" They literally do that and lure you in. When you're young and impressionable, Communist teachers will lure you in trying to make you resent that upbringing where you learned about traditional values, where you learned about good and evil; where you learned that you had to "resist the Devil and he will flee."

It's always about reducing those values, getting rid of those values and then instilling new values within you which are of course obedience to state modernism, scientism, materialism; to everything that has naturalism, telling you that everything has a natural cause and that God is not necessary in order to explain the formation of the universe, the Big Bang singularity and not necessary to explain evolution, etc. All those things are taught to you from a young age under the guise of modernism. We can use many discoveries made by science, but we also have to realize that science is infinitely politicized and they're also seeking funding which means money and they only get money from big organizations that are trying to push an agenda, or larger businesses like George Soros.

Last week Soros was bragging about how he's taking over Poland and how Klaus Schwab is taking over Canada under Trudeau and Chrystia Freeland. These kinds of people are hell bent on trying to establish a population of people that do not have a tight relationship with God, and they don't have the Christian ethic of Christ to love other people and to want to include them and bring them into the kingdom and strengthen them and make them powerful in their relationship with God; not with a state, not with a bureaucracy, not with a politician but with God. And that is the power that these leftists hate and they fear so deeply, folks!

Beating the drums of war

We are under attack and assault on every single level on the microcosm; at the same time these politicians, after two years of criminality with corona are now leading us into World War III. And it's not hyperbole; it's not exaggeration. You already see the escalation in Russia; you see it in Ukraine, and now with Russia saying that they will attack any convoys that are coming to Ukraine through NATO. That, folks, we don't want to have; we don't want to have convoys being bombed!

You know they're going to have American service men and women and they're going to have British service men and women and they're going to have NATO people in there, and everybody's going to be calling for "war, war, war, war," especially as DC is beating the drums of war and trying to get us into this terrible situation, folks, where you can have potentially nuclear war once again on this planet. Do you understand what that does? "Little Boy," that's the bomb that was dropped on Hiroshima, that was a bomb with 15 kiloton yield of nuclear power. Do you understand? The ICBMs that Russia has right now, they are 800 plus kilotons! 800 plus kilotons that can be delivered within twenty minutes to New York and within one minute to Los Angeles!

Folks, this is not a joke! We're not living in World War II; we're now living in a time when they drop these bombs which got precision guided missiles! In World War II, they had to drop them and try to measure the drop. But nowadays it's computerized, so they can pinpoint target as they did in Iran; they can pinpoint target to whatever they want, folks. It's not a joke! So nobody should be wishing for a thermal nuclear war.

It is incredible how the Left just two or three years ago was saying, "Trump is going to start World War III!" Now they're out on the stage saying, "Let's kill Putin!" You're going to start World War III, you crazy people! You were against Trump, but you're trying to start World War III with a nationalistic Superpower! Unbelievably dangerous! Folks, this is a road that we must not take, but this is the road that they are sucking America into, even though we don't want to.

And of course what do you think China has been doing? We always talk about China because Korea was conquered how many times? A thousand times in the last five thousand years; that's on average every five years, so Korean people know a little bit about China, and about Mongols, Manchus, and the Japanese. Korean has always been conquered and made into a slave state for the last five thousand years.

The point is: after every dynastic cycle of about 400 years, China has always had to search for outside enemies in order to keep all its different tribes together, and that's what's happening again. We see that China needs another war to engage in, because they're having problems with Hong Kong; they're having problems with nationalists rising up and saying, "We want freedom!" They're having problems with the Uyghurs, they're having problems with Tibet, they're having problems with India; they're having problems all around the country, and in order to stay together they've had to develop the military. That's what we showed you just a couple of months ago; the actual military propaganda videos that they're showing throughout China right now proclaiming, "War is coming; peace is behind us. War is in front!" They're literally prepping for war, folks, and it's not a joke.

People who don't see these things think you're paranoid, but these things are actually happening, folks. Do you understand? There is an actual war. Russia is actually invading Ukraine and is decimating their operations there.

Ukraine, Russia & the Deep State

And then at the same time what are we discovering? We have discovered that the US has bioweapon labs in one of the poorest country in Europe. What are we doing there with bioweapons level 3? Tucker Carlson was covering it this week on Fox. They are holding pathogens like the hemorrhagic fever and the plague there, and now they're saying, "Oh, Russia's going to get a hold of this and they're going to release chemical weapons; chemical biological weapons will be released imminently!" Folks, this smells like a false flag such as you've never heard of, and they're trying to escalate.

You know the CIA and you know the FBI and you know these Deep State organizations that kicked out the duly elected President Trump and they got these usurpers in with direct ties to the Chinese Communist Party. You know they are capable of doing anything. They're the ones who were doing the false flag operations on the 1/6 event with all the patriots who had gathered together to pray and express their grievances to the Congress and just sing and pray over it. It was a peaceful protest. They were the ones luring people in, and of course just last week the New York Times reporter Matthew Rosenberg was caught by Project Veritas saying this to a woman in a bar; he admitted that there were many FBI informants on 1/6. They did this to try to make the patriots look like they're domestic terrorists, like they're the bad guys etc.

But of course now they're doing that with Putin because he is a bad guy; in a sense he is very bad. He definitely doesn't want to be swallowed by NATO; he wants to have his own empire. It's true, he's bad, but at the same time why are you allowing him? Why are you trying to poke at the bear and why are you trying to prod him on to do worse and worse things. And then if you plan to violently blow up things with Putin, then we're 100% in war with him! That is not good for our children; that is not good for our people, folks.

Because at this point, what do you think this corrupt oligarchy, this corrupt Deep State which stole the elections in front of our eyes, which cast out a duly elected president, can do most? By the way, Trump should never have left the White House; he had total legitimacy to call Antifa and BLM terrorist organizations. Trump stepped down, and that was not his best decision. So, what do you think they can do most?

They can escalate, and make all the people who criticize them, anybody like Tucker Carlson who's calling them out, anybody who's showing evidence and calling them out, into what? Russian agents! They're already banning Russian news; you can't even see two sides of the story, folks. You know in terms of news, people are supposed to make their own decisions so we should be able to see what DC is saying, what Russia is saying and what Ukraine is saying. In this age of internet we should be able to see what we want to see, to hear what we want to hear, and then make our own decision about it. But now they're in a situation where they're saying, "No, you cannot hear what you want to hear. You will only hear what CNN says, you will only hear what MSNBC and the White House say; you will only hear what we have to say and anything else coming from Russia will be banned."

If you're a Russian person you may have ties to Russia. So you are the new Polish Jew; you are the new Jew simply because you were born in a place. Even though you're American citizen, because you're Russian you may have your business shut down, you may have your internet cut off; you may have your credit card disposed of.

Folks, this is unbelievably dangerous; this is not the answer. When you have this kind of craziness you don't want more control; you want people to be able to sort it out and try to find out the information for themselves; open up the avenues of information so the greatest amount of information may come through. Because people have a filter and it is much better as a nation, that the majority of people are in a conversation, talking to one another, "Hey! Should we go to war with Russia? Hey! You know this might lead to a thermal nuclear war. Hey! You think that's something we should consider? Hey! Maybe we should consider that before we rush headlong into a potential thermal nuclear war with a superpower?"

And China will back them and fight us. How are we going to fight two evil superpowers at the same time, folks? It's not possible; that will be the end. So it's extremely dangerous. And with no congressional meetings, with no citizens' dialogue, they can just decide that we're going to go over and start a war! This is unbelievably dangerous; it's incredibly irresponsible! And of course it puts every single one of our children's and our grandchildren's lives at risk, folks. This is incredibly, incredibly dangerous!

The point is: in all this craziness, there is escalation and that escalation is unfortunately getting us to a new level. You heard about Bennett, the prime minister of Israel, who went and tried to talk with Ukraine? He talked with Putin who said, "Please Ukraine, just give in; become a neutral state and stay as a buffer zone. Don't join NATO; stay neutral!" And what did Ukraine say? "No, we're going to keep fighting! No, we're going to just keep waging war on Russia!" It's like this battle is only escalating, as they promise they're now going to strategically hit convoys which are legitimate targets in their view.

And then folks, this is going to end up in millions of people dying. You understand? We don't just rush into these things and have no consequences. This is millions and millions of our kids dying, folks; millions of kids in Russia, China, everywhere dying because of these rash decisions, these crazy decisions that these globalists make, and sometimes it feels so crazy that we have absolutely no control.

You're a Russian agent

This is exactly what we're talking about today. How David must have felt when he saw everything collapsing around him! "God has given me all these promises, God has said my children will be blessed forever; God has said that I'm the chosen one. But look at my world! My world is collapsing; I'm a fugitive." The good guys are being called the bad guys, and the bad guys are being called the good guys, and now he's being hunted down by SWAT teams to be killed.

Look what they did during their pandemic! If you criticized anything about the pandemic, they shut you down; they censored you. What did they do in Canada? They started taking away the truckers' bank accounts. They were already planning this, folks! So, when the war happens and they say you're supporting Russia because you don't believe what DC says, even though you're against Russia, you're now a Russian agent.

What did they call Trump? A Russian agent, folks!

What will they call anybody who wants Second Amendment rights? A Russian agent!

What will they call anybody who disagrees with them politically? Russian agents, folks!

And if they can do this to 'Russian agents' in time of war, what do you think they're going to be doing? They're going to be censoring, taking away bank accounts, shutting everything possible. Unbelievable tyranny!

Our hope is in God's Kingdom & His Righteousness

And of course as we said, it's not going to get better; it's going to get worse. I know that's hard to hear. I know people want hopium when they come to church; that's what they want to just hear, "Just give me hope, hope, hope, hope!"

But remember folks, our hope is in "God's kingdom and His righteousness," our hope is not in hedonism; our hope is not that God will take away all tribulation. No! In fact God promises tribulation. As we mention all the time, God says, "Pick up your cross and follow me!" He says, "Pick up your cross! Be ready to be mocked, scoffed, hated, and killed for my namesake." That's what He says.

So the body of Christ should not be anticipating that this is going to be an easy road, or that we're going to be able to escape, like the escapism of the Scofield Bible and John Darby in the 1900s who taught in the Pre-Trib Rapture that, "All the Christians who believe, you're going to be whisked away before the tribulation comes." How convenient is that! "You're going to be whisked away; you'll have no problems. Just go prepare." No Christian in the history of Christianity before the late 1800s believed in the Pre-Trib.

And the Scofield Bible by the way was funded by the Rockefeller Foundation and introduced into all the seminaries, Catholic, Methodist, Baptist seminaries, so that the next generations of preachers would be preaching the Pre-Trib Rapture; killing the political power of Christianity and making Christianity inept and falling into escapism. There was no generation previous to the 1800s that believed in the Pre-Trib Rapture. The Bible does not talk about the Pre-Trib Rapture. It's very clear that Christians will go through tribulation. But the Scofield Bible pushed that, and John Darby who was the main theologian pushed that crazy narrative. Then Hollywood was pushing that with movies where you're whisked away as you're driving your car and you're gone in the Rapture.

That's not happening, folks! No Christians in the last 2,000 years have believed that. That is a modern innovation funded by big bankers and oil giants like the Rockefellers who we know are Communists and who we know were in bed with Carnegie who was a vowed socialist. Folks, this is a program to weaken Christianity and take the pulpit so it would have no more power to wake people up and keep Christianity as a buttress between political Satanism, socialism, communism and the reality of preserving Christian values. It's so unbelievable that the majority of the Western Church has fallen into this doctrine, which of course doesn't allow Christians to become ready and prepared; and for them to realize that they're going to have to go through tremendous suffering.

But at the same time God does show us that even though there is suffering, people will be waking up; there will be a tremendous harvest. That's why you see the picture in Revelation 14:14 of the Son of man holding a sickle and bringing in a humongous harvest. Because the time of tribulation is also a time when people are opening their hearts back to God and realizing that they have to get right with God and the spirit of God; they've got to help their families get right with God and they've got to help the people they love get right with God, because the world is falling apart, folks!

That's what's so powerful about Psalm 89. It's this tension between, "I've been given these promises by God. God has given me all these visions and promises, but the world is falling apart." And that's what's happening right now, folks.

We, as the chosen people of God, we as the children of God, the people of Israel and the extended family of God, should be on our hands and knees worshiping God, strengthening God and also strengthening one another at this period of time. We should be waking up the body of Christ. Every person should be activated, and not just thinking, "Oh, all I have to do is just watch this TV program like Q; I can just watch what's happening on TV and I have to root for Trump. He's going to get magically elected and he's going to control the military; he's going to take over and Biden is never going to win. Trump's going to come back and he's going to bring America back with him."

Folks, we saw that Q was a CIA operation; it was a Deep State operation to confuse patriots, to make them lackadaisical, and that's exactly what the Pre-Trib doctrine does. It makes Christians lackadaisical. It doesn't make them prepare; it leaves them completely unaware of the history of Christianity which never believed in that doctrine, never. It was only propagated by Darby and his Scofield Bible funded and distributed to the seminaries by the Rockefellers who are enemies of freedom, enemies of liberty; they are socialists and Communists that are funding these things.

So we can see why it's so important that now the Church is awakening to realize, "No, God has called us to be the buffer zones; God has called us to be the buttress." If the churches are not speaking out; if we're not speaking out against that because we're afraid to be censored by YouTube, etc; if we're not speaking out because we just want more people or we want more donations in our church! No! We have to be preaching the truth, folks! We have to be telling the truth about what is happening in reality.

Father has been through North Korean camps; our family has been genocided in North Korea. And as a family that has been saved by the US forces, by God's almighty hand to come to freedom, it might serve as an important example -you know a case study- to realize that, "Hey! That can happen here too, folks!" What we experienced on the other side of the world is coming here, and we can experience it here in a bad, bad, bad way. And that damages and kills the generations of freedom fighters that are in our future USA.

Become a force multiplier

We can't let that happen, folks! That's why it's so critical for us to have the shepherd's mindset, as David had when he was a young man. He was training with his sling, he was training with his rocks, he was training with the rod to beat away the wolves; he was wrestling bears and lions. So God knew that when he would have to fight Goliath, he would have the pinpoint accuracy to be able to do that. Why? Because he had done the preparation before! It's the same thing with the people of God. It's getting real late in the game now; people should have prepared about ten plus years ago.

But the point is: at least we've been awakened and we have realized that we're in deep trouble. We have to recognize that real Satanists DO rule the world; real Satanists like Epstein and the circles that they are in like Edward Heath, the former Prime Minister of Great Britain; Jimmy Savile and all these pedophiles. These people are real, folks: Bill Gates' wife is coming out saying that he had deep ties with Epstein. These people are real; they really do want to destroy and rape and kill children, and they are the ones calling the shots on the international level.

We shouldn't be surprised about that because the Bible tells us very clearly that, "We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." (Ephesians 6:12) So we shouldn't be surprised about that; in fact we should know as Christian, as people of Christ, that this is real and that we have to stand against it.

Folks, it is such a critical time at this hour that the Christians now shut off that crazy, crazy, crazy weakness put upon them by the Devil, and realize God that wants us to be strong alpha males and females. He wants us to be in the image of our Father. He wants us to be strong shepherds with tight marriages and tight relations with our children and be a heavenly team as a family, training together, living together, adventuring together, giving glory together, thanking Him together and also standing up for the righteousness of God, standing up for the goodness of God and standing up for the liberty of people that we love and of course people that we don't know.

The gifts of liberty are gifts from God, folks, natural rights and inalienable rights given to all humanity; they are precious and they don't come from governments or institutions or boards or Bill Gates. They come from all Almighty God, folks! They must be protected; that mindset must be retained. We must be vigilant with that, and every generation has to learn it.

But you learn it through a relationship with your parents and that's why the key of any inter-generational transfer of values is a tight relationship, a fun relationship, a great relationship between the parents and the children, folks. And every institution of demonic power is trying to split those relationships up, split your family up and they conquer you.

But if we know that, if we understand that, then

Every time we go on a date with our wife we are smashing Satan in the face. If we know that then,

Every time we do a date with our children one-on-one, we're hitting Satan right in the nose.

Every time we unite and we train together we've kicking him in the nuts.

Every single time we do that positive thing which benefits us, it also smashes communism and at the same time it makes God happy.

So folks, it's such a crazy time but it's an exciting time. There are many things that we can't control in the world, but we can control the relationships we have. If we do that it becomes a force multiplier, and through exponential systems, we know that each person that we touch will touch on average three more; who will then touch exponentially three more and three more and three more through exponential growth. And as people wake up and they're empowered, they realize they can no longer stay in the grey zone. You have to choose black or white; you have to choose good or evil.

God has called us for this hour

The time is coming; World War III is looming in our midst.

We have to be clearer than ever. We have to be:

Praying harder than ever,

Training harder than ever,

Loving one another more than ever;

Forgiving the people who are coming back, saying,

"You know I'm sorry I didn't know,"

-"Okay, I forgive you. Come on prodigal son! Come on prodigal son; join us against these people that have been tyrannically abusing you for the last two years, now that you're awake and you see the evidence of that."

Let's not allow them to guide us into World War III. Let's try to stop that, with all the churches of the world, all the Christians in the world, all the good-hearted people in the world just saying, "No, we don't want to fight; we don't want to have a thermal nuclear war with Russia! We're for peace! We don't want more and more unnecessary bloodshed because all of you politicians are fighting; you all should be arrested because you broke every single law, and of course now you're starting to break more laws with these wars!"

So folks, it is such an incredible time and it's such an incredible place that we live in and remember God has called us for this hour. You may think you are not the one or you may think you're not capable of doing anything; that's your opinion, which doesn't matter. It's God's opinion that matters, "No! I made you and I placed you right at this place at this time," and His opinion overrides our opinions, folks. And when God tells you that at these critical world-changing events, He's placed us here for a reason.

Because at the time of greatest darkness the light shines through the brightest; under the greatest chaos order can arise, and goodness and righteousness can be seen with much greater clarity when there's so much injustice and evil that abounds, folks. And people can wake up; people can be activated.

That's why in the end, it's all about "Love God, Love your neighbor," empower ourselves through relationship with God, but then also go out and empower people.

Help them wake up,

Help them train,

Help them prepare,

Help them love their neighbors,

Help them buy a fire arm and get out on the range too;

Help them train their kids or whatever the case may be.

It's all about the communities in the end, because they can't defeat every community. Every military power is so arrogant but they don't move as quickly as communities do. When you look at the wars of the past, you see that the empires move very slowly because they're waiting for command, for orders to come down; whereas the guerrilla fighters can organize very quickly because they have no real strong chain of command and they can move on their own whim.

So in the end the greatest bumper against tyranny is an ethical, brave but also dangerous, armed society that is willing to stand up for things that they believe in, and willing to stand up with their lives for that they believe in, and willing to stand up for the goodness, the values, the ethics and that heroic life that is necessary to be shepherds over the realms of neighborhoods, nations and world.

Folks! Every single one of us is being called to be that person! Every single one of us is being called right now to be like Christ, even though we're not perfect; but every single one of us is being called out to be brave at this hour, even though just like for David it seems impossible at times. He's being hunted down, being a fugitive; everyone wants to kill him, wants to destroy him and everyone's lambasting his name. But God found a way, and eventually David became the greatest king of Israel even though in the end he fell into Hedonism. But the point is: God used him at a critical hour.

In the same way, God is calling every single one of us who's watching this broadcast and listening to these words. God is calling us for this critical hour just like King David, to effectuate His Will, to stand up for Him and to stand up for one another.

Let's all pray!

Pastor Sean's Prayer

Father God, we thank you for this beautiful day. We thank You that You are blessing this world, Father, with things that we cannot see. Yes, what we see in the natural is calamity! Yes, what we see in the natural are some powers now colliding and now escalation and potential World War III, even thermal nuclear damage to the world; so many ridiculous terrible atrocities that can potentially happen!

But at the same time, God, we know that You are leading the way of history. We know that Your Kingdom is coming; the Kingdom of freedom and responsibility. We know the Kingdom will come on the earth. And the human rights that You've established and You've given to people that are enshrined in the Bill of Rights in America; these human rights are for all humanity and all humanity as Your children desires You and that relationship with You.

So dear God, let us never lose hope in these times of darkness, because in the darkness the light will shine ever greater, ever more brightly. David could have given up on Your promises: the promise that You said he would flourish, the promises that You said his seed would cover the earth and last forever. Because in the natural he saw only calamity, only death; all his people being killed and him being chased down by SWAT teams. So he could have believed the opposite of what You promised.

But dear God, let us know that You are building up Your people for times such as this. You are building up the body of Christ once again to be in Your image as the alpha male, to have children as Your sons and daughters; alpha males and alpha females who are also searching to be and seeking to be like their Father: brave Christian warriors that arise across the entire world. Their spirit is being animated by the Holy Spirit, and brush fires are being set and unlighted in their hearts, so that they have no more the spirit of cowardice but the spirit of bravery to stand up against these pedophiles and these international crime syndicates.

We need bravery at this time.

Dear God, give us the spirit of bravery,

Dear God, give us the breastplate of righteousness,

Dear God, give us the helmet of salvation,

Dear God, give us the shield of faith, the belt of truth and the feet shod for the preparation of the Gospel of peace.

And imbue us with Your Holy Spirit, so that we will stand on this battleground with hope and with power and with honor and with might knowing that in the end YOU WIN! In the end YOU WIN! In the end Your KINGDOM will be established and all of humanity will be protected by Your people.

We thank You so much dear God, because we know You are working with so many people around the world. We pray for all the patriots in America and for President Trump; for all the folks that are standing on the side of goodness at this critical hour. Please strengthen them and raise them up at this time. Please foil every wicked plan of the enemy and the Deep State and those who wish to destroy the people on the right side of righteousness for their own power.

Let all their plans be foiled!

Let all chaos fall into their encampments!

Let all their machinations be brought to naught. And Let Your will and Your righteousness reign and be victorious and be glorious, as Your children lift up high praise to You singing "hallelujah," singing "thank You," and entering Your presence with praise and thanksgiving.

Lord, we give You all the praise, glory and honor, with all the kingship lines that are gathered here today. And in Your precious name we pray. Amen! Amen! Aju!

God bless you, folks!
