Gender Wars: Feminist Achievements, Feminist Casualties

Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you.

1 Peter 5:6-10

When you pray you must have the sense that God's spirit is really close. After such a prayer you will feel relief at having been spiritually victorious. I can tell you to do this, but most important is for you to feel the necessity of prayer on your own. When you are hungry you want to eat; in the same way you must feel the need to pray, feeling unsettled if you do not. With that urge and need to pray often you can experience meaningful prayer.

*You can identify the person who prays by his appearance. He may be thin and not so handsome but his eyes are shining, and his lean body is emitting light. You need to have strength always ready within yourself. It is better to have a small spring which constantly bubbles up to fill the space within you than to have a large pool of stored water without a source or spring. Such a pool will soon be gone but a small bubbling spring within will continue to flow, no matter how much you use. Through prayer you can continually be filled. SMM, How to Witness: To State Leaders, April 1, 1977

Hello,

Hyung Jin Nim started his sermon by discussing how True Father's God of Day/God of Night talks at the end of his life shows that Christ comes from divinity. He also revealed that the root cause of the Fall is misuse of love. Godly sexuality in marriage is the solution. Keep tying the knot over and over again through date training every week. Then you'll have 52 knots in a year.

It's not enough to just support your family. Invest in your key assets, which obviously includes the relationship with your spouse and children. Spouses need 90 minutes per week. She is the Queen, the teacher, the culture maker. She needs to connect with you as the King and the Priest.

After his appointment in 2009, Hyung Jin Nim's day started at 2:30am with climbing to the top of the hill at Chung Pyung to do Jeonseong bowing, followed by Hoon Dok Hae reading, several meetings, and family visits in the evening. But he and queen made and kept weekly appointments with each of their children during each month.

You need to guide your children theologically. Otherwise, they will become cultural atheists. Don't assume your children will have the gift of faith. You need to balance blunt honesty with awareness of their weak emotional feelings. Listen to podcasts on theology. You cannot outsource it to others.

Just as you would witness to a new contact in a loving, thoughtful way, do the same with your children. Invest in the future of your family. Hang around people who are good examples to learn from.

Women need emotional connection so husbands are commanded to love your wife. A daughter will try to manipulate you as a father. The hardest thing is to be honest with her. Hyung Jin Nim chose to not follow his emotions. Her pleading may be cute when she was young, but it can become a disaster when she is a teenager. Training is what you do whether you want to or not. After work, take 5 minutes before you walk in that door to prepare your mind for the home sanctuary. Do your job! Bring the culture of gratitude into your community and home.

Hyung Jin Nim would watch Kook Jin Nim lead 27 businesses every Tuesday. He started to audit all the businesses, but many leaders had resentment. He was a "black belt" in executive decisions, reversing the previous reputation for the gullibility of UC business leaders.

Some people have a short temper. Some families move from church to church because they volunteer for everything and have a short temper. Pace yourself. A western hyper-individualistic mindset is toxic to relationships. You have individual rights, but you are not just an individual.

As Dean Radtke, who trains clergy in ministry leadership, says, it's important to have self-reflexivity. Leaders need "time on the mountain."

Korean farmers squint because they are looking at the horizon. Be around a community which is well-rounded. Don't just be family centered. Love your neighbor and community.

Your children are not just yours.' They are God's children, His "property." We need to raise them to give God joy. The Completed Testament Age is not just spiritual, but also physical. The Completed Testament Age means ATTENDING God. It is more than a belief.

May God bless you and your families!

Sincerely,

Richard
