The Inter-Religious Federation for World Peace Founding Ceremony

August 27, 1991 Seoul, Korea

• Sunhak Institute of History •

On August 27, 1991,

True Parents founded the Inter-Religious Federation for World Peace.

On the next day of the Inter-Religious Federation for World Peace, True Parents established the Federation for World Peace to form everlasting international peace. These two organizations were established for the global society.

The Inter-Religious Federation for World Peace has The responsibility to stand at the forefront for creating the world peace by cooperating with other nations.
True Parents gives such an important role to the interreligious federation for world peace.

T rue Parents mentioned that all religion should cooperate each other to break down the wall of sectarianism in this society.

In this ceremony, the 120 international religions leaders from 24 nations gathered and discussion about religions, borders, culture, and the wall of race.

Furthermore, the five world religions; Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, and Judaism, they cooperate each other and try to publish the world scripture which combined the five religion ideas into one book. This book can be the World Scripture.

Therefore, religious believers need to completely follow God’s Will of true love to realize the ideal world of peace and the salvation of all people. Given the contemporary reality, religious people should not lead comfortable lives. Instead they are supposed to go the way of a living faith, centered on true love and true-life energy, in conversation with the living God. This cannot be achieved in the prevailing atmosphere of religion today. Unprecedented change on a global level is needed, through the inspiring power of all religions joined together in a movement of a new dimension.
