For creating the ideal peace world, one family under God, True Parents proclaimed to establish the Women's Federation for World Peace and create the unity of the family federation for world peace.

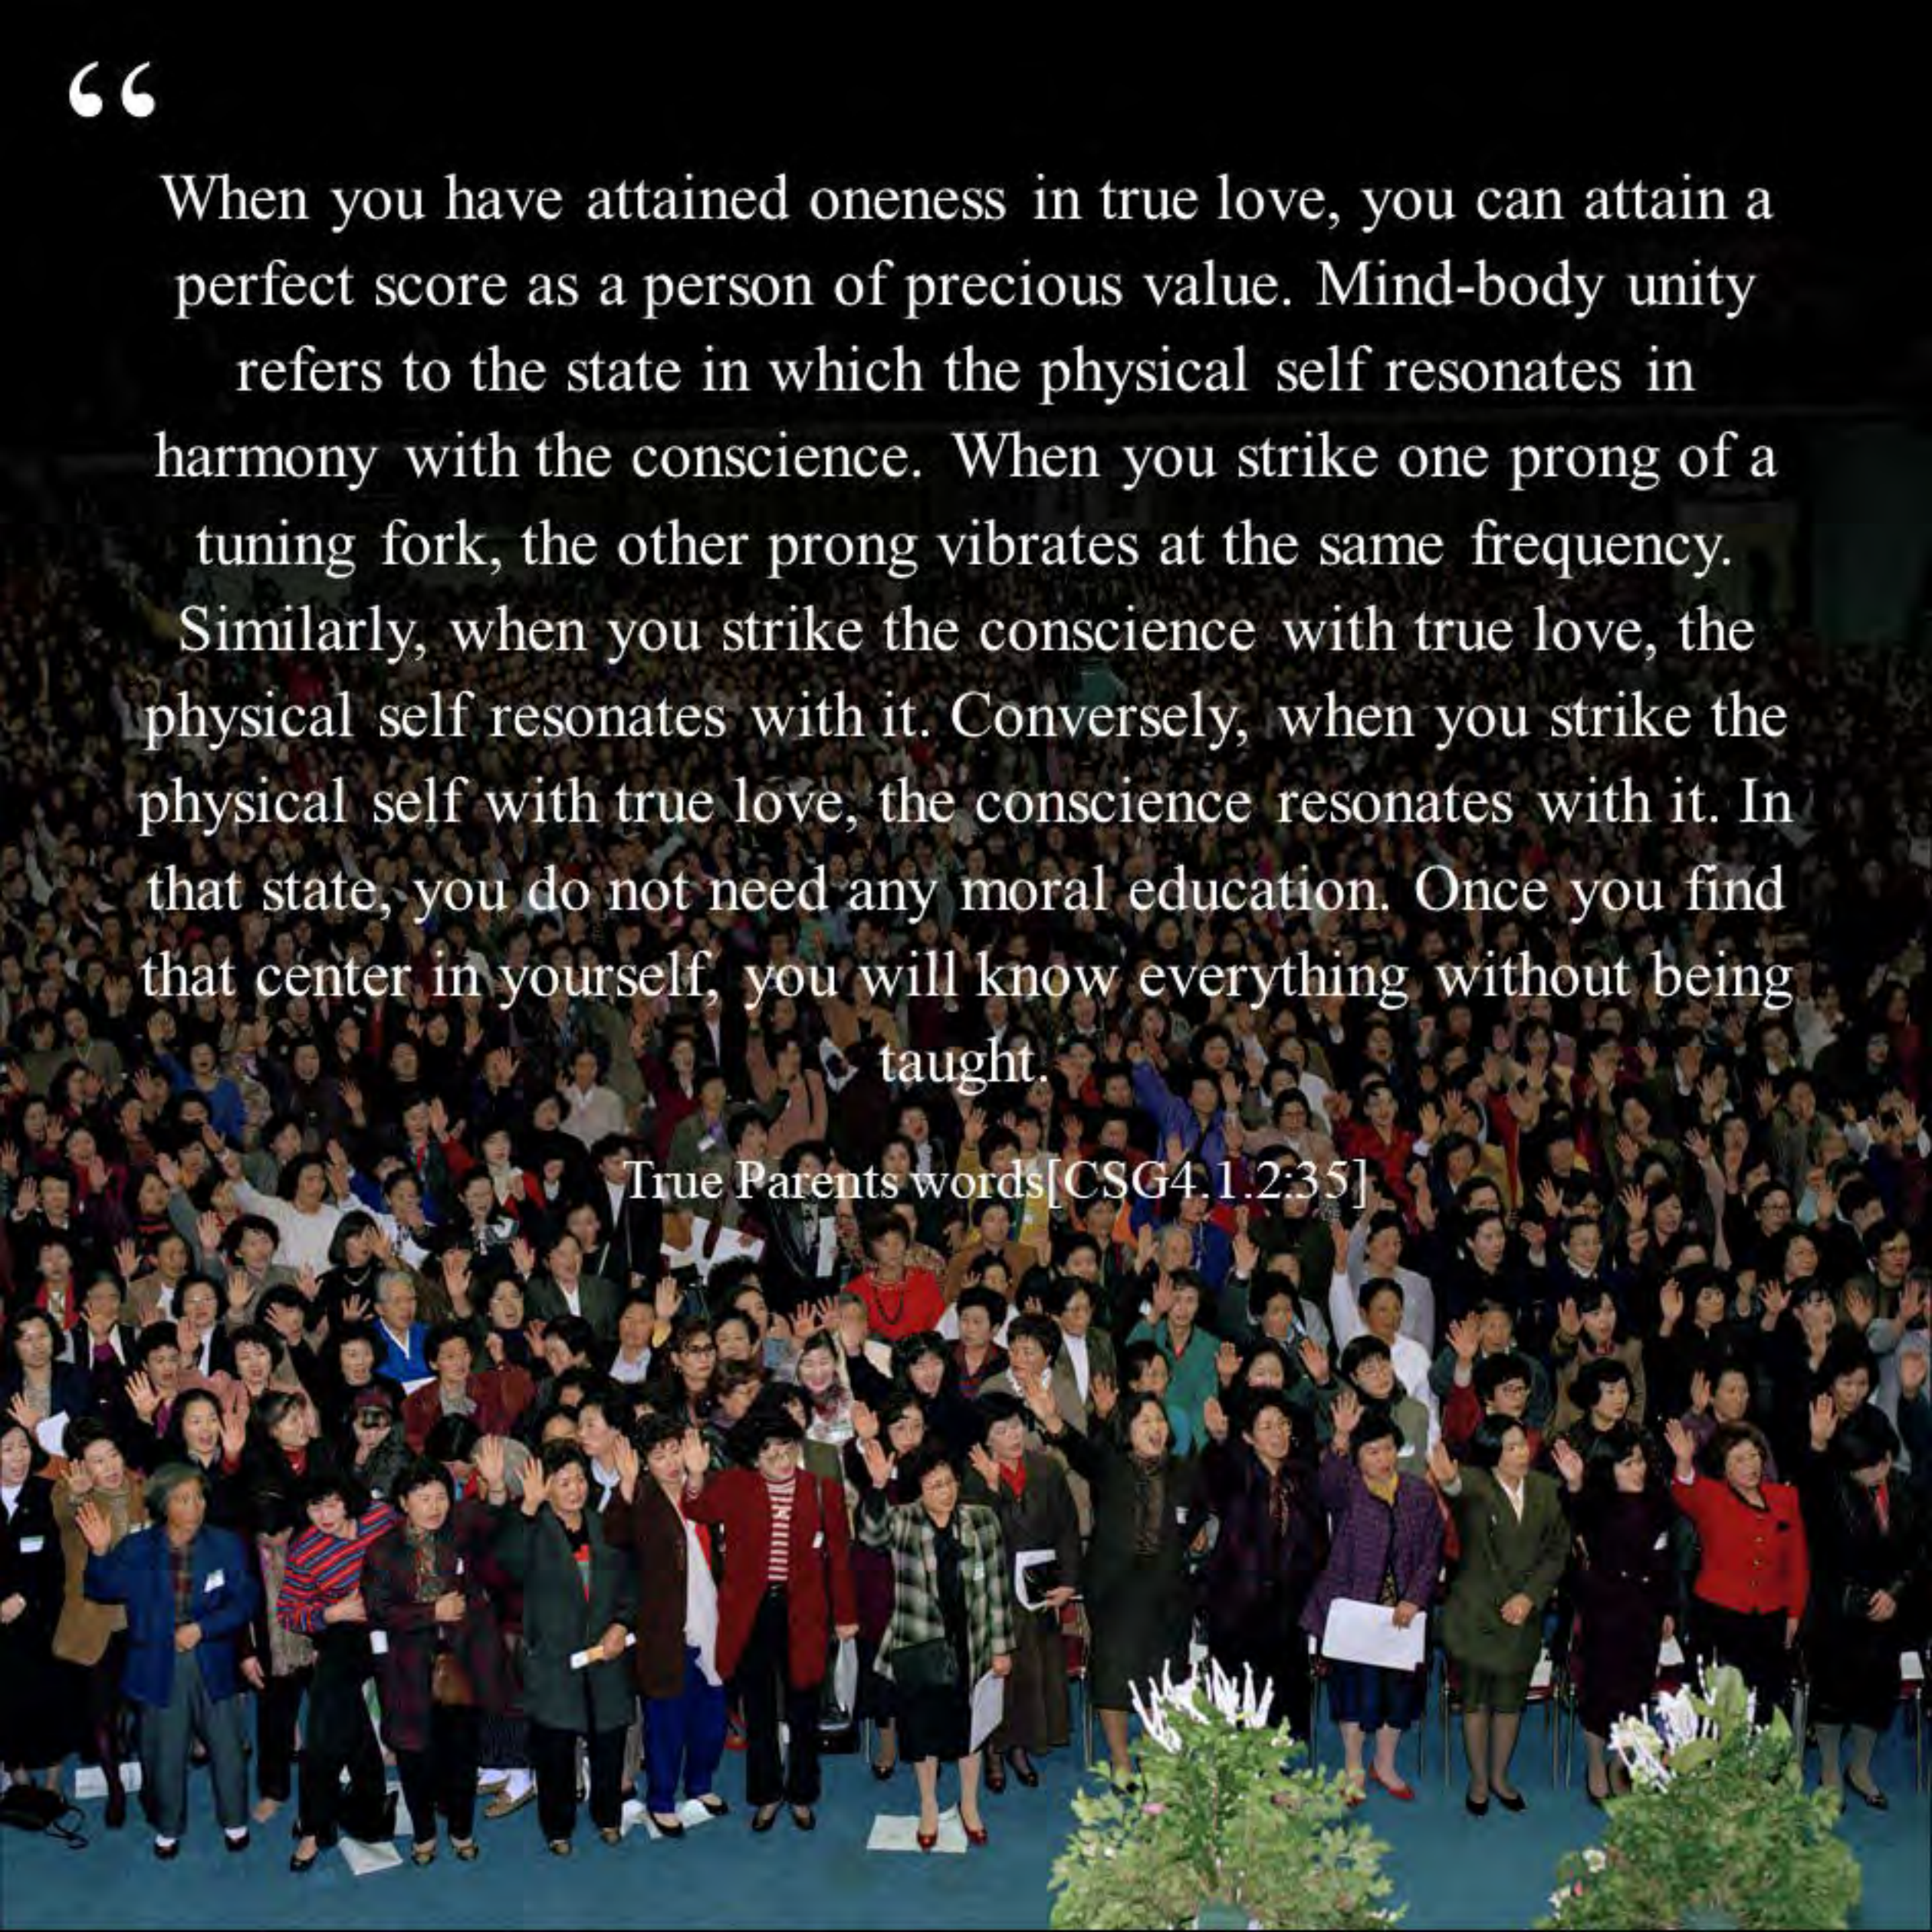

Until developing the unification church into the family federation for world peace, women are responsible for the True Love movement.

When you have attained oneness in true love, you can attain a perfect score as a person of precious value. Mind-body unity refers to the state in which the physical self resonates in harmony with the conscience. When you strike one prong of a tuning fork, the other prong vibrates at the same frequency. Similarly, when you strike the conscience with true love, the physical self resonates with it. Conversely, when you strike the physical self with true love, the conscience resonates with it. In that state, you do not need any moral education. Once you find that center in yourself, you will know everything without being taught.
