

Tribal Messiahship as the Foundation for God's Sovereignty

Dr. Robert S. Kittel
Special CIG Emissary (Education),
Education Director, UPF-Asia

Doing Tribal Messiahship

Two things are needed:

1. Motivation or Vision

2. Method or Strategy

#1 is most important

Motivation or Vision

The key is to connect to True Father's heart and vision. This is best done through his words and especially his last prayer.

“...When tribal messiahs have established the names that can represent the nations, everything will come to a conclusion.

I have accomplished everything. I have completed everything.

Aju.”

Family Pledge 3

Our family, the owner of Cheon Il Guk, pledges to perfect the Four Great Realms of Heart, the Three Great Kingships and the Realm of the Royal Family, by centering on true love.

Realm of the Royal Family

- Originally, the realm of the royal family did not exist. It is to make the sons and daughters of the fallen world into younger siblings. Without standing as part of the realm of the royal family, Cain cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

Start Small – Inside the Kittel home with the Shrestha Tribe

Sundarijal, Nepal with former Prime Minister as Chief Guest

Method or Strategy

The key is: focus on the 40-day separation and the 3-day ceremony. This will change the way you teach the Principle, i.e. there will be a natural focus on changing lineage (family) over individual salvation.

“Holy” Stick Ceremony

- Condition for Restore True Love
- Condition to end Domestic Violence.
- Condition to Remove Historical Resentment between Men and Women.

Korean movement gains political foothold in Nepal

South Korea's Unification Church is affiliated to a Nepali political party that has a minister in the cabinet

SHIBU LEE

Buddhism spread from China to the Korean peninsula in the mid-third century, but by the sixth century, it had become a dominant religion in the region. In the 19th century, the Unification Church (UC) was founded in South Korea by Sun Myung Moon. The church is a syncretic religion that combines elements of Buddhism, Christianity, and other world religions. It has a large following in South Korea and has spread to other parts of the world, including Nepal.

Minister of Peace and Reconciliation of Nepal
 EK NATH DHAKAL is also Chairman of Unimul Peace Foundation
 (UPF) South Asia and leader of the Nepal Family Party. He speaks to Nepali Times about his faith, politics and views on transitional justice in Nepal

What do you think is the key to deliver transitional justice and accountability in Nepal? The key is the support and cooperation from political leaders in the country. The government is fully committed to addressing the human rights violations of the past and the political leadership has a crucial role to play in this process. The government will ensure that the political leadership is held accountable for their actions.

At the beginning of April a major weekly newspaper published two-page spread on our movement. Photos (upper left clockwise): 1) 70,000 blessing, 2) TPs' world foundation, 3) opening our new Nepal Family Party office, 4) Hon. Ek Nath Dhakal as the Minister of Peace and Reconciliation, and 5) official photo of our TPs.

Thank You Very Much!
