"Loneliness"

Albuquerque, N. M.

What is loneliness? Loneliness is when you ache and yearn and long for someone else to reach out to, to share with, to understand you, to feel with you. When you don't have this, you are lonely -- reaching out where there is no one.

Nobody likes to feel loneliness. It makes it hard to look forward with confidence, or with enthusiasm, or with certainty. It makes it hard to be grateful. Or to be spontaneous. Or to be courageous. Or to feel young. Or to give love. "When energy goes forth in a straight line and does not come back, no creation is possible, the energy is wasted....Unreciprocated love gives no joy or power to the giver of the love, nor can it last long."

But, is loneliness always bad for you? Loneliness can make you understand another's heart, another's sadness, and another's pain, because you yourself know that pain. Loneliness makes you feel and understand the millions of other empty, ~~lonely hearts on this earth, who would like to reach out, to share, to understand, to feel, to love, but don't know how to try anymore.~~ They have constructed walls around themselves -- walls of pride, possession, false loves, false beliefs, pretensions, swaggering walks and boastful talks, hesitant walks and apologetic talks -- walls of fear and coldness, keeping the rest of the world outside -- walls that cannot be penetrated without the almighty incredible forces of God's love and truth working through human beings who care so much that they are willing to ignore the rebuffs, the fears, the pretensions, the guilt, to reach through with the force of dynamite to the infinite purity existing within each of us.

Loneliness enables you to know how God feels. God has been laughed at, scorned, cursed at, scoffed at, rejected, and blamed for the failures of men for thousands of years. Look at the world from His point of view and say that it doesn't hurt. It hurts. When you have really felt loneliness, which you can feel away by yourself or within crowds of people -- wherever nobody understands, or shares, or reaches out, or feels, or cares, or embraces -- when you have really felt that, then you have felt God's heart. Yet, He continues to have an all-embracing love, continually reaching out, giving and sharing and trying to ease the loneliness of others. We are just too busy or too blind to see it.

So let's try to do what God tries to do. Let's not feel sorry for ourselves -- we've tried that before and it doesn't work. Let's give. Of our love, of our heart. ~~Let's give the truth that we know, no matter how little it is.~~ Blast away the walls, blast away the loneliness, blast away the fear. Blast with God's power of love. Can you do it?

BETSY JONES REPORTS

Wilmington, Delaware -- Peter Mullen has been making several friends in Wilmington which has proven to be a good approach for a conservative area. Through this and regular street witnessing, he has several people who are studying beyond first chapter. One girl named Kanchan, who has heard all, is studying, and we are praying she will join soon.

SUGGESTIONS

From Judy Barnes -- "Try joining 'Welcome Wagon.' It can be a good way of witnessing. I'm going to try it here."

From Linda Marchant -- "Put copies of Divine Principle in local libraries with center meeting times written inside. Placed four here. Checked back and one has been checked out."

WASHINGTON REPORTS

We are happy to announce the institution of an annual World Day award honoring significant contributions to physical restoration. This year the award was shared by the Burley's -- for Kim Home Cleaning, and Travis Jones -- for the candle business.

B. For State Representatives Only -- Correction regarding the Pioneer ID card: Don't worry about obtaining State Tax Exemption at this time. Please use the card for ID purposes either as it is, or with your photo attached. Clarification on the topic of one-sheet handouts -- many requests for them have come in, but cannot be filled. We'll supply flyers, handouts, etc. that can be used nationally, and will leave up to you responsibility for specific-event or specific-city literature.

C. There's a New Newsletter Coming... "On the way" items include a booklet on the life and mission of Jesus. It will be used for the Novel Contest and also for interested clergy. Witnessing material geared specifically for Christians is in process. And for our mobile teams, brochures on "What Is The One World Crusade?" are forthcoming, as well as an OWC fund-raiser. Also, the first issue of the One World Crusade newsletter will come off the press towards the end of July. Candle-sellers please note: small flyers for customers (after they've bought one) are in the works. Then there's some spiritual food heading your way -- Third World Tour talks by Our Master to the Family will be edited and mailed to you, at the rate of one talk every 2-3 weeks. July 1 is #1. Lastly, a biography of The Leader is on the "futures" list, also to include quotes from several of his past lectures and talks.
