Dear all,

The 3rd Think Tank Forum featuring Jim Rogers and other speakers related to IAED (Int'l Association for Economic Development) will take place this Friday, November 19, at 7pm Eastern. We need about 50 2-way participants to join as a live audience in a private session that is recorded. (At the same time they are broadcasting the 2nd forum with Mike Pence that we taped about a month ago, so this 3rd forum will also be edited and likely broadcasted in about a month or so when a 4th forum will be recorded.)

If you are available and interested in attending please let me know. This is extended to every member in our community.

Thanks,

Resfred
