Dear Family,

As promised, here is the basic schedule information for True Mother's visit to Vienna at the end of April. Fumiko and I would like to extend our sincere invitation and encouragement to all of you to come to Austria and participate in this most important and hopeful event. We hope you'll feel inspired to bring friends and family as well. Our team is planning an exciting weekend of activities and I know True Mother is very much looking forward to coming back to Europe!

We are still working on the promotional literature and other information, but you can rely completely on this basic timeline in planning your visit to Vienna. I do encourage you to book early, since at this point flights are extremely cheap -- for example the nonstop roundtrip from London is only 80 Euros! Hotels and apartments are reasonably priced as well.

You'll be hearing a lot more about this great opportunity. See you in Vienna!

Mike and Fumiko Balcomb
