A Conversation About Depression

A significant number of us in the Unificationist community experience some form of mental illness during our lives. Depression is one of them.

During this online event, we will listen to the contributions of a few speakers reflecting on this particular illness. Questions can be submitted to the moderator during the event and these will be addressed during the conversation.

Online Testimony Evening

Online Testimony Evening - More Testimonies Needed

A message from Joanna Hartl, organiser of the monthly online testimony evenings:

I would like to make a special request to all brothers and sisters to record their testimonies by video, which can then be aired on the internet as part of this new series of "Adventures with God".

STF Europe 2021 - Registration Now Open!

We want to share with you the information and plans we have for the next STF year.

Our course will begin in January 18th in Poland and end on August 1st 2021. We are aware of the uncertain future ahead due to the pandemic situation, but we are confident that we can adjust the program to fit into the reality of the coronavirus and all the restrictions dictated by the European countries.
