Planting a Tree for True Father's Centenary

- by Françoise Murphy

On Sunday 20th December in the afternoon, brothers and sisters of North London church planted a memorial tree for True Father in the Watford Peace Garden. Unfortunately, Watford was in tier 3 and we could only hold a small gathering. We would have very much liked to make it a great occasion to celebrate our True Father's centenary and invite many people, but it was not possible.

We thought about planting a tree for True Father for quite a while, but it was not easy to do it for many reasons. We had to decide which tree to plant, find the right shop that would be open and deliver it or order it online, we had also to decide what would be the best time of the year to plant it. On top of it all there were all the restrictions of the covid19 which also limited the number of people who could gather. Dealing with all those hurdles and after a lot of thoughts and considerations, Jeff decided to plant his own ginkgo tree, a 20-year-old tree, that he had grown himself in a pot. Ginkgo trees are popular in Korea and Japan and can live up to 3,000 years! We thought this was the right tree for True Father and we wished and prayed that it will be there for many generations to come and will be remember as True Father's tree.

A few of us met on that Sunday afternoon in the Peace Garden. After singing some holy songs and a dedication prayer, we planted the little tree in one of the bed close to the labyrinth. May it grow for many years to come. When you come to Watford, please visit the Peace Garden in Cassiobury Park, stop by True Father's tree, and remember our beloved True Father and his amazing sacrifice and love for all of us.
