This time, together with my children we liberated 13 central evil spirits from my husband, without his participation. I was worried about this liberation more than when I was liberating 13 central evil spirits from myself. Just like the time, one week before the workshop, my older son and myself began to have some physical problems. I wanted so much that we all could be present in the workshop. It was so important for our family to become united again and with the Providence in Russia as well. We made everything possible to become healthy before the workshop. But finally, me and my sons had to participate online on the 1st day of the workshop. But I am so grateful to our daughter that she could go and represent our whole family in person. I was totally determined to be present on the 2nd day.

(Second part)

I am so grateful to hear the testimony from a member where; True Father said to this member “Do not give up!” It gave me strength not to surrender before physical illness on the road of indemnity. I have realized that I cannot stop or give it up. When one door closes and it seems like nothing works and nothing is happening, God opens another door, lifts me up and guides me forward. I have realized that everything that I have done were not in vain. It might still not be enough and I just need to keep going, not looking back as True Mother said. Just keep going with more devotion. I feel everything I have done was important. And now I can go not only with hope but with faith, keeping my faith until the very end. That’s why I still believe in the power of the Marriage Blessing and want our family to overcome all difficulties and problems and be victorious. Thank you, Heavenly Parent and True Parents.

I did not see True Parents spiritually, but I felt that they are near. And as soon as I thought or felt them, I saw or drew a picture in my mind, that True Parents are holding my hands. True Father holds my right hand and True Mother holds my left hand. We fly together and we are so happy.

I am very grateful to Mr. Moon, Rev. Jack Corley and others for visiting our country, their sincere devotion, great example of Parental Heart. Also, I am grateful to the Representative Blessed couples during the Ancestor Blessing Ceremony and Chanyang Team members for the investment of their Hearts, Energy, Time and for people who come to the workshop. Very useful and thought-provoking moments were and Blessing giving to us by Marianna Sacurova when she shared her testimony. She shared that when we give the Blessing to our ancestors, we should remember the value of our own Blessing and It's not important when it was given to us: 1,5 or 25 years ago.

(Second part)

After the Chanyang Yeoksa session and prayer: people are often making quarrel with each other, conflicts when they don't feel God's Love, or Parents Love towards each other. When they do feel God's Love, relationships become more harmonious and loving.

Also, we should understand that people from different spheres of life, like medicine, ecology and other spheres solve different problems, taking care about animals, help people. So, we should learn from each other. We would be glad to Mr. Moon, Rev. Jack Corley and the CheonBo team if they visit our country again as soon as possible.

During this workshop I have suddenly realised that Russia is like a wounded animal that is going through a lot of pain. It is crying out and looking for a way to be liberated from this pain. I felt that people in Russia are in such a need for God's love in order to be cured.

Thank you beloved True Parents!
