On January 29th, 2018 IAYSP launched its national chapter inside the Israeli Parliament. Eight incumbent Knesset members and one Dutch parliamentarian attended the launching ceremony and gave their full support and encouragement to the future works of the Israeli chapter of IAYSP.

Among the 80 leaders in attendance, many were young professionals, parliamentary assistants and students.

The IAYSP video gave everyone a clear understanding about the vision and mission of IAYSP that is aimed to empower youth and students around the world to become Global Citizens. The newly appointed President and Vice President of IAYSP – Israel gave presentation about the works and activities of IAYSP globally.

The ceremony was concluded with signing of the resolution statement of IAYSP future activities in Israel.
