

International Association of Parliamentarians for World Peace Assembly Today

Yun Ki Choi
February 4, 2017

[MBS News]

International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace World Assembly to be Held Today in Jamshil

The “International Association of Parliamentarians for Peace World Assembly” was held today at the Lotte World Hotel in Jamshil, Seoul, with approximately 800 current and former prime ministers and parliamentarians from 120 nations.

The participants held discussions based on the themes of “Prospects of the Development of Peace and Humankind” and “The Role and Responsibility of Science.”