

FFWPU D R Congo: Divine Principle Seminar Mobilization at ISTA Lubumbashi

Doo Seong yeon

April 1, 2026

As part of the 70-day campaign, the Task Force team conducted a mobilization and witnessing activity on April 1, 2026, at the Higher Institute of Applied Techniques (ISTA) in Lubumbashi.

This activity, organized as a one-day seminar, aimed primarily to sensitize and teach participants about the foundations of the Divine Principles. The program focused on three essential themes: the Ideal of Creation, the Fall, and Restoration.

Key Highlights of the Seminar

The teaching was delivered by Rev. HYUN KAZADI, who introduced his presentation by describing the current state of humanity - marked by suffering, confusion, and a loss of spiritual direction. He then clearly explained what humanity was originally intended to be according to the purpose of creation: beings called to live in harmony with their Creator and reflect His ideal of love.

Continuing his lecture, the speaker addressed:

- The Reality of the Fall: Explaining how humanity lost its connection with God, leading to the imbalances observed in human life and society.
- The Need for Restoration: Inviting each participant to commit to a path of spiritual rebirth.

- The Path Forward: He emphasized that this restoration involves meeting Christ at his return and following the path toward the Bride, leading to the celebration of the Marriage Supper of the Lamb - a symbol of the fulfillment of salvation and the complete restoration of humanity.

Impact and Results

- Attendance: A total of 178 people participated in the seminar.
- Engagement: Attendees participated actively and received explanatory leaflets to further study the concepts discussed.
- Atmosphere: The event was marked by attentive listening and genuine interest, with several participants expressing a desire to deepen their understanding of these teachings.

This activity contributed significantly to the mobilization and witnessing goals of the 70-day campaign, laying a solid foundation for future spiritual guidance and the lasting transformation of lives.
