The congratulatory remarks given by Prophet Samuel Radebe and Bishop Nancy Rosario at the Celebration of the 66th Anniversary of the Holy Wedding of the True Parents of Heaven, Earth and Humankind and the First Anniversary of the Entrance into the Cheon Won Gung Cheonil Sanctum, held on May 2, 2026.

Prophet Samuel Radebe (Revelation Spiritual Home)

Good morning to everyone!

Our Beloved Holy Mother Han, distinguished religious leaders, beloved brides and grooms, ladies and gentlemen, It is with heartfelt gratitude and honor that I am here to address you on this occasion of the Holy Wedding Ceremony, the celebration of the 66th Holy Wedding Anniversary of the True Parents, as well as the First Anniversary of the Entrance into the Cheon Il Sanctum of Cheon Won Gung.

This Holy Wedding that took place in 1960 as the Marriage Supper of the Lamb with Father Moon opened the way for millions of Marriage Blessings that followed. I am grateful that I could take part and host many of these Holy Weddings in South Africa, in 2018 and 2019.

Our world is currently suffering from many problems, and family breakdown is the major cause of all of them.

I fully concur with Father and Mother Moon that peace begins with me, peace begins with my family. Unless we address family issues with a spiritual and divine perspective first, there is no way we can create peaceful and loving families. A spiritual problem needs a spiritual solution!

To the couples who will be blessed, thank you for taking the vow to create our Creator's loving and faithful families! In our time, such unions carry an even deeper purpose: to help restore humanity to a path of righteousness, peace, and order.

At its core, marriage is the foundation upon which a structured and sustainable family is built. It is a union between a man and a woman, each bringing distinct yet complementary energies essential for the balance and continuity of the family unit.

The masculine energy, grounded in logic and leadership, and the feminine energy, rooted in nurturing, intuition, and creation, work together to form a harmonious whole. In this balance, the strength of the family, and ultimately of society, is sustained.

For this reason, those who enter into the covenant of marriage must recognize their alignment with the spiritual realm. I often advise that the decision to marry should not be made in isolation. One must involve the Creator, the deities, and one's good ancestral guides. While we may believe we know what we want, the spiritual realm sees beyond our limited understanding and guides us toward what is truly aligned with our purpose.

Each of us has been brought into this world with a purpose to fulfil. Therefore, the person you choose as your life partner must be aligned with that purpose. There is little more painful than being bound in a union that does not serve your destiny. May our Creator's grace be with each one of you!

Last year, I had the privilege to take part in the procession as we had the Entrance Ceremony. Time flies so quickly! One year later, here we are, celebrating the anniversary. It is just unfortunate that this is taking place without the chief architect, Holy Mother Han!

As I said last year after I visited her at the Detention Center, she is going through "an unintentional sacrifice for something greater to come." We need to believe and unite with her at this most important point in human history.

Holy Mother Han is going through a course that will yield great fruits very soon. As a mother, she is going through labor pains to deliver a new Korea, and a new world!

I said last time, let us be on fire, testify about her great accomplishments. The spirit world expects us to do just that. Be on fire! I heard that she has been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize. This is very good! The world needs to know and recognize what she has done for the sake of world peace.

It is amazing that we, with such a diversity of spiritual systems, religions, cultures, traditions and nationalities, can come together to open our minds, to harmonize with each other, and to share our concerns about the future of humankind. I would like to congratulate and commend our beloved Holy Mother Han for this accomplishment!

True Mother, we love you! Very much!

Closer to my conclusion, I am Imboni, a spiritual guide (in our language), who practices African indigenous spirituality (ancient). I also got my calling when I was 16 years old. When you are spiritually attuned, you can recognize genuine spiritual leaders. It was not difficult for me to recognize Holy Mother Han.

Father and Mother Moon have been specially anointed by God and throughout their lives together, they have made tremendous contributions towards world peace.

True Mother is giving hope to us in Africa. In Africa, we are so proud of her. Only fools reject her and her very great achievements. I said, last year, if Korea can't recognize and appreciate her, we will take her to Africa.

Brothers and sisters, please, wake up, and be on fire!

The Holy Sanctum is God's dwelling. This is truly a masterpiece of Heaven's ingenuity. People from all races, nationalities, and cultures will come here. True Mother is the "glue" that is bringing us together. She is calling us to cooperate, to work together in harmony and unity, to create and build one human family under God!

In conclusion, happy celebrations! My wife and I wish all the couples here a blessed family life. United, we can create a world of lasting peace for all humanity. As the saying goes, "United, we stand; divided, we fall!" To tackle the problems of this world, it is about time leaders of different faith-traditions stand together.

Holy Mother Han, we are with you!

Thank you very much!

Bishop Nancy Rosario of the Church of God's Children offering her congratulatory message

Bishop Nancy Rosario, Senior Pastor (Church Of God's Children)

Good morning everyone! It's a beautiful day and you all look beautiful.

So I say distinguished guests, honored clergy, beloved brothers and sisters from all around the world: Grace, peace, and blessings be unto you.

Today we gather on a profound day of historic significance. We celebrate the 66th Holy Wedding Anniversary of True Parents (so you have that to follow!), and the First Anniversary of the Entrance into the Cheon Il Sanctum of Cheon Won Gung. So you know you're going to remember this day forever. This is not merely a commemoration. It is a divine milestone in the unfolding providence of Heavenly Parent.

From the beginning, the Heavenly Parent has longed to dwell with the children. And though history has been marked by separation and struggle, the providence continued - patiently - until fulfillment.

Throughout that history, God has always moved through chosen vessels, men and women set apart for sacred purpose. And you are part of that. We recognize that heaven has entrusted missions across many generations, and we honor one who has been called as a begotten Daughter, entrusted with a divine assignment for her time.

That fulfillment began to take visible form in 1960 through the Holy Wedding of True Parents. Their union was not simply a marriage; it was a providential covenant restoring humanity back to the heart of God and opening the way for families, nations, and generations to walk in what? In true love.

From that foundation, the Holy Marriage Blessing has gone forth to many, many, many nations, including that of our previous speaker who performed it in his beautiful country of South Africa with over 200,000 people present, while True Mother gave the Blessing. Amen! And this Holy Marriage Blessing is calling families into covenant with God, restoring the sacred purpose of your love, and establishing the building blocks of peace for generations to come. And that generation is your children, who will come after to receive your blessing.

So today, we honor True Mother, Hak Ja Han, the entrusted one, whose life stands at the center of this continuing providence. She has walked a path marked by faith, endurance, and an unwavering devotion to God's Will. She has advanced the providence with bold clarity, proclaiming Cheon Il Guk, establishing the Heavenly Parent's Holy Community, and calling humanity beyond the boundaries of religion, nation, and culture into a unity.

Even now, as we are all here in the face of misunderstanding and opposition through all their lives, her call has remained consistent: she has never wavered from her mission. She says, "Not division, but alignment with the covenant of God's kingdom on earth."

And we recognize this as more than a moment to observe. This is a history for each and every one of you to understand. Now, just as some of us study the lives of Abraham and the twelve tribes of Israel, you now have a new commitment. So we too must study the history of the Han family, not casually, but with spiritual discernment.

That is your duty from this moment on. And the reason for you all to study the history of the Han family is so that we may recognize the movement of God in our time, in your time, in your children's time, and align ourselves - align yourselves - with that history. And now, we stand in a new era. The Entrance into the Cheon Il Sanctum of Cheon Won Gung doesn't mark just a place, but a reality that Heavenly Parent is dwelling among God's people. You see, the Kingdom is not distant.

It is here. And it is advancing!

Today, we stand not only as witnesses, but as participants.

And so we align ourselves with Heaven's purpose.

We align with the call to unity. We align with the covenant that invites all humanity into one—one!—family under God.

On this historic occasion, we especially honor True Mother. As it is written in the Book of Esther [4:14], "Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

Well we now know that she has come to the kingdom for such a time as this! Yes. We recognize Mother Han as the entrusted one in this generation, a chosen vessel carrying a providential mandate to advance Heaven's work on the earth. And now that continues to be your responsibility today.

And through this work, a call - her call - has gone forth across the nations: And you know what that call is? That call from her heart to yours is: She says, "Come, all who are divided. Be made one. Come, all who are scattered. Be gathered." She says, "Come, all who are searching. Be restored as sons and daughters of the Most High." And I thank God for being one of them.

So today, I tell you, we are not merely celebrating. We are recommitting our lives.

We recommit ourselves to the work of peace. We recommit ourselves to lives of true love. Each one of you has been brought here with the objectivity of true love and pass that on to your children and to your children's children to build a legacy - the legacy of Mother Han's calling.

We recommit ourselves to unity in a divided world. And in this sacred moment, we lift up, with all of you, a prayer of prophetic intercession: "Heavenly Parent, Sovereign Lord of all creation, we acknowledge this appointed time of fulfillment. Let every nation align with Your divine order. Let every heart be awakened to the reality that the gates of heaven are open.

We declare that what has been spoken in accordance with Your will shall be established."

We speak restoration over families. We speak healing over all the nations. We speak unity where there has been division.

And today all of us will boldly declare: The era of Cheon Il Guk is not coming. It is here! The kingdom of heaven is not distant. It is unfolding right before our very eyes!

And to True Mother, we say, praying that she will see this: "Thank you. Thank you for your unwavering faith.

Thank you for your victorious love. Thank you for leading humanity into a new dawn.

You have carried Heaven's burden. You have walked Heaven's path. And you have opened a new season for humanity."

Let the earth hear it. Let the heavens bear witness: The gates are open. The kingdom is advancing. And Heavenly Parent is dwelling among the people.

So congratulations, congratulations, congratulations on this occasion, this beautiful day of remembrance, because it is the day of their 66th Holy Wedding Anniversary and the First Anniversary of the Cheon Il Sanctum – God dwelling within us.

May Heaven continue to guide and strengthen this providential mission through all of you.

Thank you for making Mother's heart uplifted and joyful today. Blessings to all.

God bless you.

The following is a compilation of congratulatory messages from the continental directors to the brides and grooms who received the Blessing at the 2026 Hyojeong Cheonju Blessing Ceremony Officiated by the True Parents of Heaven, Earth, and Humankind, held in commemoration of the 66th Anniversary of the Holy Wedding of the True Parents of Heaven, Earth, and Humankind and the First Anniversary of the Entrance into the Cheon Won Gung Cheonil Sanctum.

Song Yong-cheon, FFWPU Heavenly Korea President

Beloved brides and grooms, It is with heartfelt joy that I extend my warmest congratulations to all of you participating in the 2026 Hyojeong Cheonju Blessing Ceremony officiated by the True Parents of Heaven, Earth, and Humankind. This sacred occasion is made all the more meaningful as we commemorate the 66th Anniversary of True Parents' Holy Wedding and the First Anniversary of the Entrance into the Cheon Won Gung Cheonil Sanctum.

Today's gathering is not just a wedding ceremony. It is a sacred new beginning in which two people, united as husband and wife, become one with Heaven. Cheon Il Guk is the nation where two become one. From this moment forward, your family is a Family-level Cheon Il Guk, called to embody and fulfill the will of our Heavenly Parent.

True Mother has proclaimed, "A world centered on God is realized through the perfection of ideal blessed families centered on true love."

As you walk this sublime path, remember that the completion of a blessed families rests upon the personal responsibility of each of you. By attending Heavenly Parent and True Parents with unwavering faith, build a family of true love and establish Cheon Il Guk.

May the boundless grace and blessings of Heavenly Parent and True Parents always overflow upon your families as you embark upon this new beginning.

Jean-Pierre Kadima, Heavenly Africa Continental Director

Our beloved brothers and sisters, second and first generation, attending this Blessing: As you may know, the Blessing is a grace given to us by Heavenly Parent through our beloved True Parents. Even though the time is so tough for our True Mother, she has given us this opportunity. Let us unite with True Mother and make this Blessing a successful, wonderful and special Blessing.

Congratulations! And let us unite with our beloved Holy Mother Han.

Holy Mother Han, we love you! Congratulations from all Heavenly Africa! Thank you!

Michael and Fumiko Balcomb, FFWPU Heavenly Europe and Middle East Continental Director

Fumiko: Congratulations brothers and sisters. You are joining a team of heavenly, eternal blessed families!

Michael: Yes, when Father spoke about the Blessing in the early days he said that it was like a relay race. Think about a relay race. To succeed, first of all you have to receive the baton well; and then you have to run as fast as you can. And finally, you have to pass it on well. All three of those things are important. We have been running now for 44 years, and today you are receiving the baton.

Good luck! We're on the same team and it's God's winning team. Congratulations!

Yutaka Yamada, FFWPU Heavenly Asia-Pacific Continental Director

Beloved Heavenly Parent and True Parents of Heaven, Earth, and Humankind, I offer my most heartfelt congratulations on the occasion of the 2026 Hyojeong Cheonju Blessing Ceremony Officiated by the True Parents of Heaven, Earth, and Humankind.

At this very moment, what is filling your hearts? Are you experiencing a mingling of anxiety and fear, or are you full of happiness and joy? What is absolutely certain is that every one of you standing here in this sacred space is more beautiful than anyone.

Take a moment to imagine the children who will one day be born to you. Can you see them in your mind's eye? And going a step further, picture the glorious sight of those very children one day standing right where you are now, receiving their own Holy Blessing.

Today, you have taken a magnificent step toward realizing Heavenly Parent's dream. As newly established blessed families - and as future parents - it is my sincerest prayer that you will carry that precious dream ever further into the world.

Once again, I extend my most heartfelt congratulations to all of you who stand as the protagonists of this sacred Blessing.

Thank you.
