On July 12, 2026, Antipolo Family Church hosted a vibrant Korean Festival organized by HTG Korea in partnership with the local church leadership. Bringing together 100 participants, the event was a joyful celebration of culture, fellowship, and unity centered on Heavenly Parent.

Honorable Guests and Participants

The festival was graced by key leaders and guests, including:

Rev. Leo Angelo Halog, Regional Director of FFWPU Philippines

Rev. Froilan Matbagan Jr., Area 1 Director and Head Pastor of Metro Manila Family Church

Rev. Blessie Ramos, Head Pastor of Antipolo Family Church

Mr. Jason Ibo, Department Head of Sun Hwa HJ Global Education Center

13 Japanese Second-Generation Students from Sun Hwa HJ Global Education Center, who joined local members to celebrate Korean culture through interactive activities.

Opening Ceremony and Warm Welcome

The program officially began with heartfelt welcome remarks from Rev. Blessie Ramos, who expressed deep gratitude to the organizers, volunteers, and participants. She highlighted the festival as a wonderful opportunity to experience Korean heritage through traditional games, performances, and fellowship.

The occasion held special significance as it marked Rev. Ramos's first major event with the congregation since assuming her role as Head Pastor of Antipolo Family Church. She extended special appreciation to the two HTG Korean missionaries, praising their hard work and dedication in preparing such a rich program in a short amount of time.

Following the opening words, the Antipolo Youth and the HTG Korean missionaries delivered an energetic performance that immediately set a festive, joyful tone for the day.

Cultural Games and Interactive Fellowship

Participants of all ages eagerly jumped into traditional Korean games and activities:

Ddakji: The popular paper-flipping game brought plenty of excitement, friendly competition, and laughter.

Chicken Fight Game: A lively interactive activity that kept the energy high.

Unity Dance: A spirited group dance that brought everyone together, deepening bonds of friendship across backgrounds.

"Food is Love": A Shared Feast

The event concluded with closing remarks from the HTG Korea representatives, who thanked the Antipolo Family Church community for their warm hospitality and support.

Following the formal program, participants gathered for a shared fellowship meal. Blessed families generously contributed a variety of dishes for everyone to enjoy. This beautiful act of sharing embodied the belief that "Food is Love" and brought to life the vision of becoming One Family under Heavenly Parent and True Parents. Beyond being a cultural event, the Korean Festival served as a meaningful celebration of love, unity, and genuine family heart.
