Dear,

Join us virtually on June 4, 2026 for the Ubuntu Africa Interfaith Virtual Summit, a timely convening focused on advancing peace, ethical leadership, and sustainable development across the African continent.

Africa is endowed with profound spiritual vitality and rich cultural heritage. At the same time, the continent faces complex challenges that call for a unified and principled response. This summit will convene faith leaders, traditional authorities, and interfaith institutions as strategic partners in advancing peace, security, and sustainable development. Guided by the philosophy of Ubuntu—"I am because we are"—and the Golden Rule, the dialogue will emphasize social cohesion, ethical leadership, and responsible governance.
