

The Only Begotten Daughter Breaks Our Concepts

Tyler Hendricks
July 24, 2017

It is TRUE both that True Mother did not receive any education AND that True Father raised her up. True Mother was born the perfect Daughter in the original creation, without need for education. At the same time, she needed education to fulfill the positions of John the Baptist and Messiah, which are not part of the original creation. In those positions, True Mother is doing what she saw True Father do, and what he could not do.

In 1972, ensconced in a house in the Bronx, Father Moon told his small group of followers that he would speak at Lincoln Center. They told him it was way too much. But it worked. The next year, he said Carnegie Hall. They said impossible. But it worked. The next year, Madison Square Garden. Two years later Yankee Stadium and Washington Monument.

True Father broke our concepts. He gave us confidence in who we are. He galvanized us.

When True Mother said, “Next month, I will speak at Madison Square Garden,” what did we think? Impossible! But her message was straight from True Father: “Give up your concepts. The world will listen to God’s only begotten Daughter. If you believe in me, we will fill the Garden. Have confidence in God, and in the Principle, and in yourselves. Stand up, proclaim who you are, just as I am doing. True Father is with you. Be proud of your identity, your ideals, your history, your vision, and the world will listen.”

To me, this is the biggest reason True Mother is repeating and repeating only begotten Daughter, only Daughter, only Daughter. She is saying, don’t be shy. Stand up for your identity, as I am doing. Be bold. Be straightforward and unapologetic. Proclaim it, live it.

As Jesus told us, “The Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.”

On July 15, there was no bow out of Whitney Houston. Instead, there was a blow out of Yolanda Adams, Hezekiah Walker, A. Curtis Farrow and thousands of singers and dancers. We turned the Garden into the Temple. We owned the Holy of Holies.

As John the Baptist completed Judaism, the only begotten Daughter completed Christianity. And we who attend her complete Unificationism. She is our co-founder.

(Citation: John 14:26.)