Welcome to True Parents Way video series, 'Peace Starts with Me.' Our topic is 'No Place to Lay Her Head.'

True Father tells us that True Mother is probably "The loneliest Person under the sun." Her history has been an incredibly lonely path; but, that was Her destiny. She had to be like that. Now, She (True Mother) has become a Mother and has a respected Position. She looks like an extremely fortunate Person; but, until She reached that point, She was a most miserable, lonely Woman."

Did True Mother's lonely course evaporate after She became a Mother and had a respected Position? She (True Mother) says, "It didn't."

An early disciple, Rev. Wom Pil Kim, gives us a glimpse of True Mother's experience. He said that sometimes the church building was too small for True Father's activities, causing many inconveniences; but, Father would not build a new one. Furthermore, Father's room had poor ventilation; and, in the summer it became quite hot. After about three years, Mother moved to the church building to live with Father; but as They had more children, for Mother to find even a corner in which She could give birth to Her baby was so difficult. There was not enough space for her.

At that time, all meetings were held in Father's room, which of course was Mother's room as well. The leaders would linger there with Father until He dismissed the meeting, usually late at night. When Mother was pregnant, She needed a place to rest; and, since there was nowhere in Her room to rest, we arranged a small bathroom next door where True Mother could lie down. When True Mother was tired, that was the only place She could find to sleep.

Mother always considered the meetings so important that she offered Her place as a meeting room. Father was aware that Mother had to rest in the bathroom; but still, regardless of the circumstances, He had to fulfill God's Will.

Rev. Won Pil Kim's words: "Although He knew Mother's situation, He had to sacrifice it for God's Will."

In Heung Nam Prison, True Father chose to sleep next to the toilet. He wanted to take the lowest position. In the Chong Pa Dong Center, True Mother slept in the bathroom. Both of our True Parents know the path of the Son of Man Who has no place to lay His Head.

Thanks for listening.
