

How Hak Ja Han Was Born Without Sin

Tyler Hendricks
August 22, 2018

True Father knew that Hak Ja Han met five qualifications when he called her to be his wife. Our previous article was on the first qualification. The second qualification is that she "come from an ancestral line with many good accomplishments."

True Father explained that three generations are necessary for a sinless birth: "The first condition was the question of what bloodline she was born from. Whether she was born of a bloodline that can be accused by Satan or of a bloodline that can rise above his accusation was very important."

The first, a person of the fallen world, who gives birth to...

The second, a person who separates from Satan in order to give birth to...

The third, a person who is born without sin.

True Father called the second generation "an Abel-type parent on the side of God." He said, "Mary was that kind of parent for Jesus."

He said the third generation will be "a mother figure on earth in the unfallen original position. ...an original mother figure who has not had a connection with fallen love or the lineage of evil."

True Father summarized: "Your first mother corresponds to the position of the fallen Eve, and the mother after that corresponds to the position of Mary at the time of Jesus. The third mother has to be the one who can advance to the position of Mother as a virgin who has no connection with evil."

True Father said that True Mother's lineage fulfilled this. "The first condition was the question of what bloodline she was born from. Whether she was born of a bloodline that can be accused by Satan or of a bloodline that can rise above his accusation was very important."

"Mother was born as the only daughter of three generations. ... These three generations worked together to receive the Lord of the Second Advent. She had to be born as the end of three such generations. Otherwise, she could not become True Mother."

"The conditions in the providence to prepare someone to become True Mother were connected with providential relationships focused on the work to restore Eve. This required three women to meet internal and external conditions. On that basis, True Mother could appear before the Lord and be joined with him in marriage. ... On that basis it was possible for Heaven to inaugurate the era for establishing the True Parents. Among these women, True Mother is the center."

True Father thus testified that Soon Ae Hong, True Mother's mother, called Dae Mo Nim, stood in the position of Mother Mary, and that True Mother was born sinless.

(Citations: Blessing and Ideal Family, p. 313 -- this is in Chapter 4, Part 4, Section 2, "The Process of Being Reborn through the Holy Wine Ceremony;" May You Blossom, My Beloved, pp. 44, 25, 26.)