

Revolution: A Treatise on the Legacy and Teachings of Rev. Sun Myung Moon by Rev. D. Michael Hentrich

December 2, 2013

Rev. D. Michael Hentrich, pastor of the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification (FFWPU) in Denver, has published an original overview of what he considers to be the socially and historically revolutionary teachings and legacy of the Founder of the Unification Movement. He calls his 39 page essay, Revolution: A Treatise on the Legacy and Teachings of Rev. Sun Myung Moon.

Rev. Hentrich, an alumnus of the Unification Theological Seminary in 1979, decided that the legacy of True Father needed to be fleshed out in a new way that would might help members Unificationists to more profoundly awaken to the fact that they have literally received “a pocket full of diamonds,” he tells Unification News. As he writes in his preface: “The legacy and teachings of Rev. and Mrs. Sun Myung Moon, the True Parents, are not only unique, but the most revolutionary of all. Having actively studied under them for the past 38 years, the following pages briefly outline, in my view, some of the earth-shaking contributions that they have birthed and given to humanity.”

Drawing upon this collection of short observations has brought an enthusiastic response from the Denver congregation, he adds. “I elaborated on these topics in a series of sermons, and for the first time, people were clapping and shouting during the message...” he says, adding that “Something is happening in Denver. Friends and guests have been consistently coming to every event we put on.”

The document can be obtained for free download from Rev. Hentrich’s website at www.DeeperDP.com or purchased from Amazon for about $3.00.
