

Denver Family Church's pledge service and breakfast for True Parents' birthday

Michael Hentrich
February 10, 2019

The Denver Family Church held a pledge service and breakfast for 140 people on Sunday morning, February 10. The sermon was centered on the meaning and value of the both Heavenly Parents Day and True Parents' birthday. In the afternoon, heartfelt testimonies were given by attendees for over an hour. While the testimonies were going on, a Yute game was going on downstairs for the kids.

Afterwards, everyone came together for Bible and Divine Principle Jeopardy. The contestants were between the age of 12 and 15 and ended up tying for first place. Next came a talent show, a Korean dinner and an art contest centered around the theme of "Family."

