

Colorado Family Church: Potluck Sunday's Service - Announcements

Michael and Adonia Hentrich
December 3, 2021

Dear family,

We are looking forward to getting together again after our long break. This Sunday, Pastor Adonia will continue our vision series.

This Sunday is also the first of the month, so we will have a potluck lunch. The church will provide rotisserie chickens. Please bring a dish to share, and make sure to avoid anything with nuts and peanuts.

Several weeks ago, Pastor Mike gave a message on our vision series and an attitude of sharing. In order to know what we are sharing, we have to go back to the root and ask ourselves, "Who is God?" It is the root question that determines, in the end, how we treat others and look at life. You can find the recording and offering song below.

See you Sunday!

Sincerely,

Pastors Mike and Adonia

THIS WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

Here are some photos from Sam and Yohanna's special Blessing day. It was a huge celebration with a big turnout of family and friends from all over. We are grateful to be a part of it and wish a big congratulations on the new couple.

We had a lovely CARP open house. There was a really nice atmosphere of sharing and welcoming as we officially welcomed these young adults to our community and checked out the progress on the house. In addition, we could enjoy snacks, a nice cake, beautiful testimonies, and gifts for the CARP house.

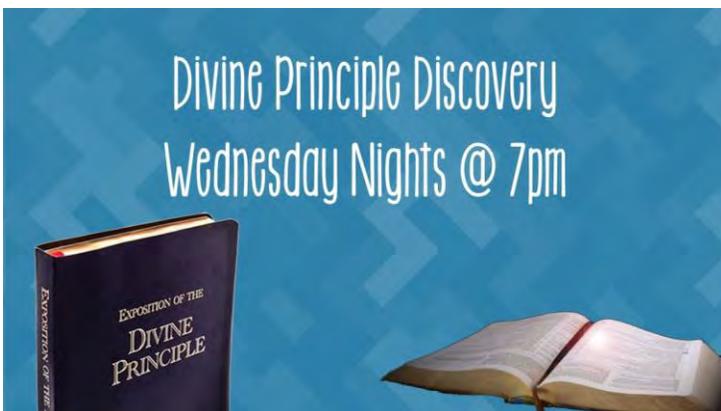

This Sunday-Monday is the 2 Day Divine Principle Seminar hosted by Pastor Joe Young. We are really looking forward to it.
