Who was Grace Miller? At the age of 56 Grace Miller accepted the Divine Principle, and the True Parents as the fulfillment of her hopes and prayers for the return of Christ. Thereafter she dedicated herself to attending the providence for 25 years in many roles including as a fundraiser, witnesser, lecturer, interior designer, child care support, chef and Centre Leader. Her motherly heart and sincere dedication place her deeply in the memories and hearts of many.

Tim Miller created the 'Grace Miller Award' as a way of honouring her memory and giving recognition to the younger and 2nd generation members, to whom she had a deep love and appreciation.

Annual Grace Miller Award - Please make your Nominations by the end of July 2017
