

I was publicizing Sun Myung Moon's New Future of Christianity Rallies in 1974

Yoshi Ichijo
December 27, 2020

I've just killed someone, which was caught in this picture! We always had rallies in every city we were visiting. I can't remember which city this was. A brother and I had a samurai skit and I've just killed my opponent.

The second photo looks like its from the same rally. Kiyoko and I were singing a Japanese song. I don't remember what song.

The third one might be a different team during the 32-city speaking tour. From the dates on the sign it seems to be in Idaho. I know I have never been there. Was anyone there for the campaign?