A Prayer Breakfast was held March 23 at the Philadelphia Family Church Learning Center, where congregants of the New Covenant of Grace Fellowship Church in Philadelphia were invited to join.

Bishop William Scott of the New Covenant of Grace Fellowship Church, as well as several pastors from small ministries who participated in the Peace Starts With Me rally at Nassau Coliseum on November 12, envisioned a fellowship of churches to break down the theological racial wall dividing us and allow God's love to flow among all churches.

At the Nassau Coliseum rally, the pastors witnessed a variety of races and languages coming together in oneness through the love of Heavenly Parent and True Parents. Bishop Scott said True Mother's message was eye-opening. This inspired Bishop Scott, Apostle Leonard Willis pastor of the Fellowship Revival Church of Love, Rev. Suchont Convery of the Philadelphia Family Church, and Philadelphia pastor Rev. Shota Iwasaki to initiate a new ministerial alliance beginning with this Prayer Breakfast.
