President, The Washington Times Foundation

Following House Speaker Pelosi's visit to Taiwan, China took unprecedented steps to show its displeasure with incursions into Taiwan airspace and firing missiles over the island. Historical animosities run deep in Northeast Asia, and as China shows an increased willingness to project its power regionally and globally, observers are concerned. Join veteran China hand Lt. Gen. Wallace "Chip" Gregson (USMC ret) and our expert panel in a discussion that unpacks, not just the China and Taiwan issue, but decades-long volatilities that affect Japan, both Koreas and all the Indo-Pacific nations.
