

HJ Scholarship Ceremonies in Costa Rica and the Dominican Republic

Sang Suek Kim
March 12, 2017

Costa Rica: On March 12, 2017, FFWPU Costa Rica hold scholarship award ceremony for nine young Unificationists students with the HJ Wonmo Pyeongae foundation scholarship award.

Together with their parents, families and church members, each student gratefully received the scholarships that were presented by Rev. Kim Sang Suek, regional president and Special Envoy for Costa Rica and president of FFWPU Costa Rica, Mr. Oscar Mario Barquero Campos.

Dominican Republic: FFWPU Dominican Republic, hold the HJ Scholarship Ceremony for 6 second generation students, whom gratefully praised True Mother for giving them such unbearable awards. Mr. Hope Matias Gomez, who was one of the awardees, served as the MC.

The HJ Scholar Ceremony began with an explanation about the award from True Mother, which was follow by words of gratitude from some awardees. Rev. Dae Hee Hong and Mr. Leonidas Belliard presented the awards and later we had an explanation of general policies by president of FFWPU Dominican Republic.

Awardees were indeed grateful to True Mother and made a commitment to work harder to fulfill True Parents' will, use the award to get their college degree and make all their effort to be part of the UPA program, so that they can be ready to take the heavy burden from True Parent. Not only the students, but also their parents expressed their deep gratitude to True Parent for such a heavenly gift.