

Bogota Colombia's To The Top Seminar for Youth Attracts 40 Participants

Sang Suek Kim
December 19, 2017

From December 16 to 19, 2017, in Bogotá – Colombia a seminar was held for first and second generation youths between the ages of 14 and 24 years old with the theme “to the top” with a total participation of 40 participants, creating thus, an important foundation for the reinitiation of new activities with young people in our nation of Colombia.

This seminar was accompanied by reading and studying the Divine Principle, challenging activities, ecological walking, sports activities, social service, integration activities and study of the Korean language, all the young people finished this seminar with a renewed heart and with a strong determination to a new beginning and with the attitude of working together for the Will of God and the success of Vision 2020.

