Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father, True Mother and Sun Jin Nim:

True Father: "Love your enemy. This is the basic concept of world peace." [Kodiak, 17.6.1998]

Loving the enemy is an aspect of true love. True love keeps loving, no matter what the response is. As a consequence, true love loves even enemies.

At the fall of man true love got lost, and false "love" entered human kind. Hatred and resentment are what people are used to, not loving the enemy. Loving the enemy is seen as foolish. Not many people think along those lines. They rather know hatred, resentment and violence.

No wonder therefore, that the world is full of conflicts and fighting, throughout all of human history.. Hatred triggers more hatred, violence triggers more violence. And nobody knows how to stop that, because only loving the enemy is the answer, but people think that is impossible or foolish or against one's honor etc.

Jesus and True Parents, as true representatives of God, came to practice and proclaim the greatest wisdom of all times:

True Father: "As in the example of Jesus Christ, we must not hate our enemies or hate the power [of Satan] coming from the opposition group, ... but we must be compassionate toward the people ... We must not try to repel their power or deny them but be compassionate to them and try to win their hearts. So somebody may spit at you, maybe someone will hit you, but you must smile at them and bless them." [1]

The fallen world only knows revenge. But we should know better and practice true love instead:

True Mother: "When you really come to feel God's heart, how could you possibly seek revenge? When you come to know God's heart, you want to help your enemy instead. Only then can you focus on love, which is the great road of the law of nature, and can you travel that great road which embraces all as one. Only then will heaven and earth move in unison, and will God shed tears. He will be delighted because you resemble Him." [2]

Only through true love, which includes loving the unlovable, can the peaceful world come about:

Sun Jin Nim: "During those racially and nationally tense historical moments, True Parents knew that only when we can unconditionally love our enemies, can a peaceful world begin to emerge. They even risked their lives to unite and embrace leaders of enemy nations in order to bring peace and healing to this world. This is the level of courage and heart that I hope all of you, as leaders, can inherit from our True Parents." [3]

Then peace starts with each one of us. Then God's ideal will come with certainty, because true love is the strongest force in the universe. The more people practice such a love, the faster God's will will be done..
