Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father:

True Father: "You must become families who can settle at the position of high noon, where no shadow is cast. The Garden of Eden was a place of true love, without any shadows. In love there are no shadows. That is why everything in the world wants to come and be in that place. In the position of high noon, no one asserts his or her self. It is the place of absolute faith, absolute love and absolute obedience. There is no assertion of self. This is what happens to everyone in the presence of true love." [1]

In true love there is humility. Everyone wants to be a blessing to others, wants to lift others up, not asserting himself or herself. That is the way to avoid conflict with others, establish deep relationships of heart and achieve unity, heartistic unity:

True Father: "If you stay in the low position and try to put everyone else in a higher place, there will be no troubles." [2]

True Father: "Unity cannot exist when one asserts oneself over the other." [3]
