

True Father: He who is heartistically connected with others exceeds him who is faithful

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father, True Mother and Sun Jin Nim and Heung Jin Nim:

True Father: "He who is heartistically connected with others exceeds him who is faithful." [1]

It is certainly precious to have great faith in God and to have deep love for Him. But that cannot be the ultimate. If we do not strive to love God's children, the people of the world, as God loves them, then it does not have much meaning to say we love God. If we try to heartistically connect to God, but not to people, then that does not work:

True Father: "Heavenly Father personally told me so many times, "Go out, relieve their suffering. My comfort cannot be found in your attendance to me. If you really love me, do your love not unto me."

Which means that God would not be inspired at all if we try to only love HIM and do not make effort to treat the people around us with divine love. Such kind of "love" [for God] would rather frustrate God. God's parental heart cannot accept it. God wants us to love the people of the world just as He does. Doing this really means loving God:

True Father: "You are becoming a heavenly person, a person of God. That is the kind of person who goes out to give his life by truly serving and loving the world in order to unite it centered upon God." [2]

God wants us to inherit His very heart of divine love. He wants us to have the same heart towards people as He has, the heart of unchanging and unconditional love. He wants us to spread His quality and level of love wherever we go, to whomever we meet. He wants us to win the heart of all kinds of people. That is what restoration is all about:

True Father: "This is the law of recreation -- simply to win the heart of people".

And that means all kinds of people, not only the ones that are nice to us, but all the others as well.

Sun Jin Nim: "Restoration occurs as we create relationships of true love." [3]

If we strive to practice divine love, but still cannot win everyone's heart, then that is not a problem. Because as soon as we make effort to practice the highest quality of love, then our own heart grows and gets restored, even if other people do not recognize our love. Our love gets restored, and that is what matters. It is our central task:

True Father: "The restoration of love is the central task of the Unification Church because that is where mankind went wrong." [4]

When it comes to love, mankind indeed went wrong, and created a dark world, full of selfishness, without true love. Only a movement of true love can make an end to the human misery. Nothing but true love can save this world:

True Father: "All the difficult problems in the world now can be fundamentally solved only through the perfection of true love." [5]

That means our love has to grow towards the level of God's love, by exercising our heart, by spreading true love to anyone we meet, without exception:

True Mother: "Let us constantly strive to spread true love. Let us sow the seeds of true love throughout our lives." [6]

Constantly striving to spread true love is not just about doing something external. It is about improving our attitude and heart towards people, about developing a true parental heart for all people, about seeing the people with the loving eyes of God. It is about cultivating our heart:

Sun Jin Nim: "So how can we become true sons and daughters? By cultivating our minds, hearts and bodies to manifest true love and gratitude and by offering our unique gifts to all humankind and creation." [7]

True Father: "Your most urgent priority and responsibility is to purify yourselves internally and externally in order to cultivate true love, true life and true lineage." [8]

Without cultivating true love we cannot become true olive trees, like True Parents are. We need to do much effort to bring about such cultivation, to reach our original heart, our original nature. The question is how many of us see this as the utmost priority:

True Father: "No one truly wants to find and cultivate his or her original nature." [9]

Saying this with a certain frustration, True Father wants to urge us to cultivate our original nature, our heart, our love. Fact is that no one can force us to do this. It must come from our heart's desire. The moment we want it, nothing can stop us. It is up to each one of us, if we participate in the revolution of heart or miss the boat:

Sun Jin Nim: "It is up to each one of us to create a culture of heart, a culture of true love." [10]

It is up to all of us, each one of us. Without more and more people cultivating their heart, developing a God-like love in their heart, God's ideal cannot come. True Parents alone cannot do it. A whole movement of people who focus on divine love is needed to build God's world:

True Father: "In order to save the world through a movement of true love, you yourselves must first of all become substantial beings of love." [13]

Heung Jin Nim: "But before we talk about reviving the nation or even before we talk about reviving the Christian ministers, and before we talk about reviving our movement, each one of us needs to be revived in the spirit of God and in the spirit of our True Parents and in my spirit of victory...It begins with each one, with each one of you." [14]

The more we focus on restoring true love in our heart, the more we work seriously on cultivating our heart, on developing the heart of God and True Parents in ourselves, the more the salvation of the world will progress. Cultivating our hearts will turn us into real peace makers, the ones that God and True Parents are eagerly waiting for:

True Mother: "A person who has cultivated a True Parent's heart and a True Teacher's heart is a true Peacemaker." [11]

And not only that. True Father's prayer will become reality:

True Father: "I humbly pray that you can bless them [the Unification members] to be the lights in the world of darkness, shining like the brightest suns, brave and strong like victorious generals ...

I pray that they [the Unification members] can be protected on all sides by the shield of love, and learn to walk the path of tradition as they march toward the Kingdom of Heaven and become the representatives of heavenly love." [12]

True Father: "I pray that all blessed couples in the world may become the True Husband and True Wife, and that this may radiate throughout the whole world. I pray that all traditions from heaven may be inherited and True Kings and True Queens can emerge." [15]

There is nothing greater than cultivating our heart so that we become True Kings and True Queens, who represent heavenly love, the love of the highest standard. That is indeed the ultimate! Nothing is higher, nothing is more precious.
