

True Father Nothing is strong enough to withstand the power of love

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father and True Mother:

True Father: "Although people speak of becoming holy and noble, everything good comes down to the achievement of true love. Once that happens, all the problems of the world are solved. It is a rather dramatic declaration to say that the only thing we need is for men and women to achieve true love. Can this be more important than worship and religion? Ask God whether this is correct or not. He would reply that He is ecstatic over such a declaration and that no greater sermon could be given to you." [1]

God is longing for a world where everyone has a heart of true love, where everyone is an embodiment of God. God wants a world of true love, not one of worship and religion.

Religion became necessary because of the fall. It became necessary to prepare for the coming of True Parents. But once True Parents are there, they achieve the victory of love and create a movement of true love.

Those who practice true love, are part of the true love movement. They embody true love more and more. And naturally they leave religious practices and rituals behind, because they rise above and beyond them. Those practices become irrelevant and wither away.

Instead of worshiping God, people who practice true love BECOME like God, become holy as God is holy, love all people the way God does. Such people simply have the heart of God in themselves. And that is what God is waiting and hoping for:

True Father: "If you enter the realm of resonance of true love, you don't need a religious faith. You don't need a Messiah. This is liberation." [2]

As long as people dwell in the realm of religion, there cannot be world peace. Because not even the religious people themselves create peace. They tend to fight over doctrines and who is right and who is wrong. In extreme cases they kill each other, thinking they are doing the will of God.

Only by us rising above the religious realm, moving forward into the realm of heart and love, can world peace occur. Because then we are not focused anymore on who is right or wrong, or what this one has done or that one does. All that becomes more and more irrelevant for us. Because our focus has changed.

Our focus has become true love. Our focus has become to advance in heart, breaking down all the limitations of love, loving good and evil alike, without expecting anything in return.

The moment our focus becomes the development of divine love in our heart, breaking down the barriers of love we might have there, we become strong forces for world peace. But as long as we refuse to respect, embrace, forgive and love those that we do not agree with, we might still be in the realm of religion, not able to love the enemy or other people that we do not like.

Only through a love that is always ready to love the enemy, can world peace come about. Only through a love that rises above all struggles over doctrine, nationality, skin colour, cultural differences and whatever, can God's world come:

True Father: "The power of true love is great. True love can melt even the hardest substance. It is more fearful than a clenched fist. Love can conquer any place in a flash, no matter how far and wide. Nothing is strong enough to withstand the power of love. True love can melt even our enemy. We want to become the owners of the world based on love. Love is the pinnacle of hope for the human race." [3]

Indeed, such level of love is indeed the hope of the human race as well as of God. And we all are able to rise up to actualize such levels of love in our heart and life. As we do this, we become holy as God is holy. We become second Gods ourselves. And we will create the world of peace and love, by the power of a love that embraces everyone, without hesitation, even the worst evil doers. Only the logic of true love will lead to the world that God and all mankind desire:

True Mother: "What is the path that humankind should take today? In the end, the problems afflicting humanity can only be resolved through the logic of love and the understanding that we are all one family under God. This is the teaching of true love with God at the center that my husband and I, as the True Parents, received from Heaven. We have championed and taught this precious truth throughout our lives." [4]
