

Heung Jin Nim: True Parents want you to inherit their very heart

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father and Heung Jin Nim:

Heung Jin Nim: "Are you just the servants who work hard on Father's projects and beat your brains out every day? That is not God's desire for you; it is not our True Parents' desire for you. They want to bequeath more to you. Obedience is something, but it is not the key to inheritance. Obedience is an important part, but it is (only) a step toward a more important dominion of heart."

We are not supposed to be servants, knowing only hard work and obedience to orders. Our destination is much greater than staying forever on the level of master-servant. We were created to be God's true children, living in the realm of heart, in the "direct dominion" of heart and love. This realm is far beyond simple obedience:

Heung Jin Nim: "Obedience is a very simple realm, but the realm of the heart is very deep... the regions of the heart are vast. Vast regions! You haven't even begun to realize." [1]

The realm of heart is not about command and obedience, or master-servant relationship. It is about having a vision, taking responsibility, being creative, taking initiative, not just waiting for orders:

True Father: "If you only follow after me and depend on me for instruction then you have not done your own work. You have to take the initiative. Before I give instructions about what to do, you can anticipate what needs to be done and put your ideas into action. Your victories and accomplishments will inspire God to begin to trust you and depend on you always." [2]

Much more important than just following instructions is to take the initiative, first and foremost for advancing in heart and love, perfecting our ability to love:

True Father: "I never want to feel that you are just following my instructions but rather that you have really perfected yourself in the image of God on your own initiative. " [3]

Heung Jin Nim: "They [True Parents] want you to inherit their very heart." [1]

Our obedience must be towards true love. God is absolutely obedient to true love. True Father and True Mother are just like that. And this is what we need to inherit from them:

True Father: "We can say that becoming a servant, even a slave, to true love is the greatest happiness." [5]

True Father: "Absolute obedience means that we invest ourselves completely to the extent that we give up all self-centeredness. Furthermore, we totally forget about the investment we make and invest all over again." [4]

This is the real obedience, the obedience to the logic of love, the obedience in the realm of heart. The obedience in the master servant realm does not lead us very far:

Heung Jin Nim: "You obey, but if the heart does not grow, then what you build on the foundation of your obedience, I am sorry to use the word, is corruption. In your hearts and in your minds. Because anything that is not growing is dying. Please understand, this is your time to grow. And I want to see you grow." [1]

To grow, to advance in heart, is our real job and mission. It is our God given destination:

Heung Jin Nim: "It is your job to go forward, and this is not just an external responsibility; it is not just obedience to Father's latest project. It is going forward in your hearts...." [1]

If we advance in heart, then God will support us in amazing ways:

Heung Jin Nim: " We cannot do everything perfectly. But if you come into that direct dominion of heart, the dominion that some of you felt you weren't capable of, then so much can happen." [1]

We may not be able to do everything perfect. But all of us can advance in heart and love every day. Then things will fall into place. God will certainly with us, every step of the way.
