

True Father: Truly the only knowledge we need is knowledge about love

Anyonghaseyo, dear brothers and sisters!

Here again some inspiration, based on the words of True Father:

True Father: "Then what is the point of resemblance over which God rejoices the most? More than omnipresence, omnipotence or uniqueness, He is most joyful when we resemble Him in love. Love is where we most resemble God. Thus, although we may lose everything, if we resemble His love, everything will follow us wherever we go." [1]

God is waiting for us to advance in heart day by day, so that our love resembles His love more and more. We are supposed to become the visible God, God in the flesh. We are created to reflect God's quality of love fully. That is the destination of our life. The more we get there, the more excited will God be. Because He wants us to be like Him, in terms of love.

We all are destined to become True Parents, True Teachers and True Owners. The more that happens, the more the ideal world of God's design will unfold. It can only come in this way. We all have to come to resemble God, with regards to love.

To get to that point, we need first of all get rid of all the concepts that tell us that we do not have the potential to develop the heart of God in ourselves. We certainly have. And next we need to understand that nobody can reach the perfection of love FOR us. It is something that only we ourselves can achieve, based on exercising our heart and love every day, breaking down limits after limits in our own heart, becoming more and more able to love all people of the world just as God does.

That means we have to replace all kinds of possible resentments in our heart by true love. In true love there is no resentment. True love is only interested in investing into everyone, respecting and being a blessing to everyone, even to those that have hurt and offended us. If we make effort to be a blessing to even such people, then God can really start to work in our life:

True Father: "My philosophy is very simple. If you have the attitude to love your enemy, then you can overcome any situation and there is no obstacle that can block you." [2]

We need to see the power of true love in action in our own life, not just in theory, but in real experiences, where we can see how God works on the foundation of us unchangingly loving even those that are not easy to love. We need to follow and obey such true love, just as God and True Parents always did, do and will do:

True Father: "I am clearly showing what a life of true love is like. Who can say otherwise when they see the model lives of the True Parents, who have given and given, forgiven and forgiven, and loved their enemies? You must realize that it is your destiny to walk this path of absolute faith, absolute love and absolute obedience." [3]

The perfection of our love does not come as some random byproduct. It is something that we need to have on the forefront of our mind, no matter what we do otherwise. It is something that has to have priority in our life any time we interact with people. We need to critically watch our thoughts, words and motivation all the time,

By being honest with ourselves, we will find out if we are on the fast track of advancing in heart, stagnating or even going backwards. If we notice that we were not in line with the logic of true love, we need to learn from our mistakes and avoid the same mistakes next time.

And of course, we can and should always ask True Father, Heung Jin Nim and Jesus for constant education and guidance. That is very important, and we better do not miss out on that. They will make sure that we get to the goal much faster.

The way to perfection of our heart is the way to greatest happiness, the way to achieve God's biggest blessing and support. And it is how we can most effectively contribute to the establishment of the Kingdom of God, the world of the heart:

True Father: "The king of happiness is the one who is living with the love of God. At that point, he couldn't care less about worldly knowledge, power and authority or money. The only thing that matters is the omnipotent love of God. " [4]

We need this knowledge about true love, in order to be able to develop our heart to higher and higher levels. By constantly exercising our heart we gain a lot of knowledge of true love along the way. This knowledge is what we really own, because it is based on own experiences. This knowledge is not just theory. It really belongs to us. Nobody can take it away.

And by practicing true love we can more and more make victories of love. We can more and more become able to overcome problems and difficulties with the power of love.

The more we do this, the more we want to keep going forward on this way. Nothing can hold us back:

True Father: "Once you come to know how great the power of true love is, you would go this way even if someone told you not to." [5]
